Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

RLI Corp. is incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Under Section 8.75 of the Business Corporation Act of 1983 of the State of Illinois ("Act"), an Illinois corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts to be paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful.

Edgar Filing: RLI CORP - Form S-8

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that such person had reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful.

An Illinois corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner that such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the corporation, provided that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to have been liable to the corporation, unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws provide for the indemnification of directors and officers of the Company to the fullest extent permitted by Section 8.75 of the Act; however, both provide that, notwithstanding anything in Section 8.75 of the Act to the contrary, no director or officer shall be indemnified or insured against any liability to the Company or to its shareholders to which such person would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence with respect to the duties involved in the conduct of such person's office.

The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance with an annual aggregate limit of $45,000,000 for the current policy period, subject to a $250,000 deductible at the corporate level and $500,000 deductible for securities claims, for each wrongful act where corporate reimbursement is not available to any director or officer. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and officers which provide for the indemnification of such directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by Illinois law.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings

The Company hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - i. To include any Prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act.
 - ii. To reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;
 - iii. To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs 1(i) and 1(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post effective amendment by such paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities to be offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The Company hereby undertakes that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
