Item 5. Other Event

On June 27, 2003, Electric City Corp. (Electric City, or the Company) entered into a securities purchase agreement with a group of investors that included Cinergy Ventures II, LLC, Mr. Richard Kiphart, SF Capital Partners, John Thomas Hurvis Revocable Trust and Mr. David Asplund (the Investors), whereby it issued in exchange for $1,500,000 in gross proceeds, a package of securities that included 150,000 shares of its Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series D Preferred), 22,562 shares of its common stock, warrants to purchase 37,500 additional shares of its Series D Preferred (the Series D Warrants) and warrants to purchase 210,938 additional shares of its common stock (the Common Stock Warrants).

The Series D Preferred carries a dividend rate of 10% per year, which is payable during the first three years following issuance at the Company's option, in cash or additional shares of Series D Preferred. After three years all dividends must be paid in cash and the dividend rate will increase ½% every six months until it reaches 15% per year.

The Series D Preferred is convertible at anytime into shares of the Company's common stock at the conversion rate of ten shares of common stock for each share of Series D Preferred. Shares of Series D Preferred have, subject to certain exceptions, anti-dilution protection that will automatically adjust the conversion price of the Series D Preferred to the price per share of any common stock the Company issues, or is deemed to have issued, if that price per share is less than the then existing conversion price for the Series D Preferred. The Series D Preferred is also subject to other customary anti-dilution provisions with respect to stock splits, stock dividends, stock combinations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, special distributions, sales of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and similar events.

The Series D Preferred shares with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock a liquidation preference over all other classes of the Company's equity. The holders of the Series D Preferred also share with the holders of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock certain rights, including:

the right to nominate and elect up to four members to our board of directors, depending on the number of shares of Series A, Series C and Series D Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding.

Special approval rights over certain matters, including but not limited to, the issuance of equity securities which would be senior to or on a parity with the Series D Preferred Stock, purchases and redemptions of equity securities (except as otherwise required by the terms of the Series A Preferred, Series C Preferred and Series D Preferred), payment of dividends and amendment of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and/or by-laws that in any way could adversely affect the rights of the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock.

The Series D Warrants are initially exercisable at $10.00 per share and have a term of one year from the date of issuance. The Common Stock Warrants are initially exercisable at $1.00 per share have a term of four years.

In addition, the parties executed a stock trading agreement that imposes certain trading restrictions from time to time on the investors with respect to the common stock issued or issuable as part of the transaction. Also, the investors executed a joinder and second amendment to the Investor Rights Agreement among the Company and the holders of the outstanding Series A Preferred and Series C Preferred pursuant to which the investors became parties to such Investor Rights Agreement. Under the Investor Rights Agreement, the parties thereto (other than the Company) have certain rights to demand that the Company file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the resale of their shares of common stock.

Delano Group Securities, LLC acted as placement agent for the Company with respect to the transaction and was paid a placement agent fee of $120,000. Delano Group Securities, LLC is controlled by Mr. David Asplund, one of the investors in the transaction and a Director of the Company.

The financing was exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Regulation D of the Securities Act.

The description of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series D Preferred Warrant, the Common Stock Warrant and the Stock Trading Agreement are not intended to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by the complete text of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Certificate of Designation for the Series D Convertible Preferred stock, the Stock Trading Agreement, the Form of the Series D Convertible Preferred Stock Warrant, the Form of the Common Stock Warrant, and the Joinder and Second Amendment To Investor Rights Agreement, which are attached as exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, 10.5 and 10.6 respectively, to this report and are incorporated herein by reference.
