On May 10, 2006, Agilent Technologies, Inc. and Agilent Technologies UK Ltd. (collectively, "Agilent") entered into a Compromise Agreement and General Release (the "Compromise Agreement") with Thomas E. White, former Senior Vice President of Agilent and President of Operations Support Systems Group. The Compromise Agreement was entered into in connection with Agilent's reorganization of its Electronic Measurements Group ("EMG"), merging its Operations Support Systems Group with two other existing businesses within EMG, and the eventual termination of Mr. White's employment effective as of the close of business on March 31, 2007.

Pursuant to the Compromise Agreement, Mr. White will assist in the transition of his former duties and responsibilities from May 1, 2006 to March 31, 2007. Within 30 days after March 31, 2007, Agilent will pay a lump sum payment of GBP 271,912, less certain tax and other required deductions. The Compromise Agreement also provides for the payment of Mr. White's retirement and other benefits under specified circumstances following his termination.
