Dear Stockholder:

The accompanying Information Statement is being provided to holders of the Class A Common Stock of Molson Coors Brewing Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company, us, we, our) and the holders of Class A Exchangeable Shares of Molson Coors Canada Inc., a Canadian corporation (MCCI) and subsidiary of the Company (collectively the Class A Holders), as of August 1, 2007, in connection with the approval of a Stock Split (as defined below).

On August 1, 2007, our Board of Directors approved, subject to shareholder approval, a stock split to be effected by means of a dividend of one (1) share of Class A Common Stock to be distributed for each one (1) share of Class A Common Stock issued and one (1) share of Class B Common Stock to be distributed for each one (1) share of Class B Common Stock issued, payable on October 3, 2007, to all holders of Common Stock of record as of the close of business on September 19, 2007 (the Stock Split). In conjunction with the Stock Split, MCCI is implementing a corresponding two-for-one stock split of its Class A Exchangeable and Class B Exchangeable shares.

Approval of the Stock Split and the issuance of the shares of our stock pursuant thereto, requires the affirmative vote of Class A Holders representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all Class A Holders. Because the Company received a sufficient number of votes by written consent, your vote is not required to approve this action.

The accompanying Information Statement is for information purposes only and is first being sent on or about August , 2007. The Information Statement is being furnished pursuant to Section 14(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the regulations promulgated there under and will serve as the notice required by Section 228(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

PRELIMINARY INFORMATION STATEMENT

THE STOCK SPLIT

Introduction

This Information Statement is being provided to holders of the Class A Common Stock of Molson Coors Brewing Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company, us, we, our) and the holders of Class A Exchangeable Shares of Molson Coors Canada Inc., a Canadian corporation (MCCI) and subsidiary of the Company (collectively the Class A Holders), as of August 1, 2007, in connection with the approval of a stock split (as defined below).

This Information Statement constitutes notice of action taken without a meeting as required by Section 228(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL). The actions to be taken pursuant to the written consent shall be effective September 19, 2007, the record date for the stock split. This Information Statement is first being mailed to Class A Holders on or about August 1, 2007.

Terms of the Stock Split

The stock split will be effected by means of a dividend of one (1) share of Class A Common Stock to be distributed for each one (1) share of Class A Common Stock issued and one (1) share of Class B Common Stock to be distributed for each one (1) share of Class B Common Stock issued, including (for avoidance of doubt) all treasury shares held by the Company and its subsidiaries, payable on or about October 3, 2007, to all holders of Common Stock of record as of the close of business on September 19, 2007 (the Stock Split). Pursuant to which holders of MCCI Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares will also receive one additional share of MCCI Class A Exchangeable Shares or Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively, for each of such shares held of record on September 19, 2007.

In conjunction with the Stock Split, and as required by the terms and conditions of the Exchangeable Shares and the Exchange Share Support Agreement entered into amongst the Company, MCCI and Molson Coors, Callco ULS, a subsidiary of the Company, as of February 9, 2005, the MCCI will implement a corresponding two-for-one split of its Class A and Class B Exchangeable Shares that will be effected by way of subdivision (the Exchangeable Split). Holders of Exchangeable Shares will be entitled to receive one additional share for each share held as of the close of business on September 19, 2007, the record date for the Exchangeable Split. Certificates representing the additional Exchangeable Shares will be mailed on October 3, 2007.

THIS IS NOT A NOTICE OF A SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS AND NO
SHAREHOLDER MEETING WILL BE HELD TO CONSIDER ANY MATTER
DESCRIBED HEREIN. WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

Reason for the Stock Split

The Stock Split and the Exchangeable Split are a reflection of the recent appreciation in the Company's stock price and the Company's desire to have its shares remain accessible to individual stockholders and to further enhance the liquidity of its shares. The Company cannot predict the effect, if any, of the Stock Split and the Exchangeable Split upon the market price of its stock, either immediately after the completion of the Split nor over an extended period of time.

Voting Securities

Our outstanding classes of capital stock include our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. In addition, we have one share of Special Class A Voting Stock and one share of Special Class B Voting Stock outstanding, through which the holders of MCCI Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, may exercise their voting rights with respect to the Company. The Exchangeable Shares were issued in connection with the February 2005 merger of Molson Inc. and Adolph Coors Company to form the Company (the Merger). These shares were issued to certain holders of Molson shares in lieu of receiving shares of Class A and/or Class B Common Stock issued by the Company. The Special Voting Stock provides a mechanism for holders of Exchangeable Shares, which are intended to be substantially the economic equivalent of the Company Common Stock, to vote with the corresponding class of Company Common Stock. The Special Class A and Class B Voting Stock are entitled to one vote for each MCCI Class A and Class B Exchangeable Share, respectively, excluding shares held by the Company, and generally vote together with the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, respectively, on all matters on which the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are entitled to vote. This structure provides voting rights to a holder of the Exchangeable Shares through a voting trust arrangement. The trustee holder of the Special Class A Voting Stock and the Special Class B Voting Stock has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of then-outstanding Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively, but will only cast a number of votes equal to the number of Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares as to which it has received voting instructions from the owners of record of those Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively (other than the Company), on the relevant record date.

Except in the limited circumstances provided in the Company's certificate of incorporation, including the right of the holders of the Class B Common Stock and Special Class B Voting stock, voting together as a single class, to elect three directors to the Board, the right to vote for all purposes is vested exclusively in the holders of the Class A Common Stock and Special Class A Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. The holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held, without the right to cumulate votes for the election of directors. The Adolph Coors Jr. Trust (the Trust), which beneficially owned approximately shares of our Class A Common Stock as of August 1, 2007 and Pentland Securities (1981) Inc. and its subsidiary (collectively Pentland), which beneficially owned shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class A Exchangeable Shares as of such date, are parties to voting trust agreements combining their voting power over the Class A Common Stock and Class A Exchangeable Shares they own. Pursuant to the voting trust agreements, the Coors Trust has deposited into trust all of its shares of Class A Common Stock, and Pentland has deposited into trust all of its Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class A Common Stock. These shares, together with any other shares deposited into the trust, are voted as a block by the trustees in the manner described in the voting trust agreements.

At the close of business on August 1, 2007, there were outstanding [1,337,386] shares of Class A Common Stock and [71,729,942] shares of Class B Common Stock, 1 share of Special Class A Voting Stock (representing [1,657,104] MCCI Class A Exchangeable Shares) and 1 share of Special Class B Voting Stock (representing [14,956,375] MCCI Class B exchangeable shares).

See Description of Capital Stock below for a complete description of our outstanding capital stock.

Shareholder Vote Required to Approve Stock Split

Under our Restated Certificate of Incorporation (Certificate), approval of the Stock Split requires the affirmative vote of Class A Holders representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all Class A Holders, voting together as a single class. Holders of our Class B Common Stock and holders of MCCI Class B Exchangeable Shares have no right to vote or consent with respect to the Stock Split.

Shareholder Approval of Stock Split

On August 1, 2007, our Board of Directors approved the Stock Split subject to shareholder approval. As of August 1, 2007, the trustees of the relevant trusts voted 1,260,126 shares of Class A Common Stock and 1,262,141 shares of Class A Exchangeable Shares, which represent all of the Class A Common Stock owned by the Adolph Coors, Jr. Trust or Pentland and which represent 84.2% of all votes entitled to be cast by all Class A Holders, in favor of the Stock Split, the issuance of any shares of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock pursuant thereto, and the adjustment of any option or equity based compensatory plan to reflect the Stock Split. Because consenting holders representing in excess of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by Class A Holders voted in favor of the Stock Split, no other stockholder consents will be solicited in connection with this Information Statement.

No Dissenters Rights

Stockholders who were not afforded an opportunity to consent or otherwise vote with respect to the Stock Split have no right under Delaware law to dissent or require a vote of all stockholders of the Company.

INFORMATION REGARDING BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS, DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

 - the sale, transfer or other disposition of any capital stock (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for capital stock) of subsidiaries of the Company;
 - the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of subsidiaries of the Company;
- and

- any decrease in the number of members of the Company's Board of Directors to a number below 15.

Pentland and the Coors Trust, which together control more than two-thirds of the Company's Class A common and exchangeable stock, have voting trust agreements through which they have combined their voting power over the shares of our Class A Common Stock and the Class A Exchangeable Shares that they own. However, in the event that these two stockholders do not agree to vote in favor of a matter submitted to a stockholder vote (other than the election of directors), the voting trustees will be required to vote all of the Class A Common Stock and Class A Exchangeable Shares deposited in the voting trusts against the matter. There is no other mechanism in the voting trust agreements to resolve a potential deadlock between these stockholders.

Class B Holders. The holders of Class B Common Stock and Special Class B voting stock (through which holders of Class B Exchangeable Shares vote) (collectively, the Class B Holders), voting together as a single class, have the right to elect three directors to the Molson Coors board of directors. In addition, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Class A Holders entitled to vote thereon and the Class B Holders entitled to vote thereon, each voting as a separate class and not jointly, is required to approve specified transactional actions. The holders of Class B Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held with respect to each matter on which holders of the Class B Common Stock are entitled to vote, without the right to cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Liquidation rights. If the Company liquidates, dissolves or winds up its affairs, the holders of Class A Common Stock, together with the holders of the Class B Common Stock, would be entitled to receive, after the Company's creditors have been paid and the holders of any then outstanding series of preferred stock have received their liquidation preferences, all of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to their share holdings. Holders of Class A and Class B Common Stock would not have pre-emptive rights to acquire any securities of the Company. The outstanding shares of Class A and Class B Common Stock would be fully paid and non-assessable.

Conversion Rights

Conversion from Class A to Class B. Our Certificate provides for the right of holders of Class A Common Stock to convert their stock into Class B Common Stock on a one-for-one basis at any time.

Coattail Conversion Rights. Our Certificate also includes a coattail provision to provide protection to holders of our Class B Common Stock and the Class B Exchangeable Shares of MCCI in the case of a proposed tender offer or takeover bid for our Class A Common Stock. A holder of our Class B Common Stock is entitled to receive a notice from us that the conversion right of holders of shares of our Class B Common Stock has come into effect. This notice must include a description of the conversion procedure including the election procedures described below, a copy of the exclusionary offer and any other materials received by us in respect of the offer.

Subject to conditions described below, if an exclusionary offer is made for shares of our Class A Common Stock, each outstanding share of our Class B Common Stock will be convertible into one share of our Class A Common Stock at the option of the holder during the period of time commencing on the eighth day after the date on which an exclusionary offer is made and ending on the last date upon which holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock may accept the exclusionary offer.

An exclusionary offer is an offer to purchase shares of our Class A Common Stock that both: (A) either (1) must, by reason of applicable securities laws or the requirements of a stock exchange on which shares of our Class A Common Stock are listed, be open to all or substantially all holders of our Class A Common Stock, or (2) would, if the offer were made in Canada or a province of Canada, be required to be made to all or substantially all holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock resident in Canada or a province of Canada by reason of applicable securities laws of Canada or a province of Canada, the requirements of a stock exchange on which shares of our Class A Common Stock are listed, or the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act; and (2) is not made concurrently with an offer to purchase shares of our Class B Common Stock that is identical to the offer to purchase shares of our Class A Common Stock in terms of price per share and percentage of outstanding shares to be purchased (exclusive of shares owned immediately prior to the offer by the offeror) and in all other respects (except with respect to the conditions that may be attached to the offer to purchase shares of our Class A Common Stock), and having no conditions other than the right not to purchase and pay for shares of our Class B Common Stock tendered if no shares of our Class A Common Stock are purchased in the offer for shares of our Class A Common Stock.

The Class B conversion right will not come into effect if one or more holders owning, in the aggregate, as of the offer date, over 50% of the outstanding shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class A Exchangeable Shares of MCCI, in each case excluding shares owned by the offeror, provide us with adequate assurances that they are not making or acting with another to make the exclusionary offer and will not participate in the exclusionary offer.

Any of our Class B Common Stockholders can exercise this right by providing a signed written notice to the transfer agent and complying with certain other specified conditions. The Class B Common Stockholders must pay any governmental or other tax imposed on or in respect of the conversion into shares of our Class A Common Stock.

MCCI Exchangeable Shares

The Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares were issued by MCCI, a wholly-owned subsidiary. The Exchangeable Shares are substantially the economic equivalent of the corresponding shares of Class A and Class B Common Stock that a Molson shareholder in the Merger would have received if the holder had elected to receive shares of Company Common Stock.

Dividends. Holders of Exchangeable Shares are entitled to receive, subject to applicable law, dividends as follows:

- in the case of a cash dividend declared on a corresponding share of Company Common Stock, an amount in cash for each exchangeable share corresponding to the cash dividend declared on each corresponding share of Company Common Stock in USD or in an equivalent amount in CAD;
- in the case of a stock dividend declared on a corresponding share of Company Common Stock to be paid in shares of Company Common Stock, in the number of Exchangeable Shares of the relevant class for each Exchangeable Share that is equal to the number of shares of corresponding Company Common Stock to be paid on each corresponding share of Company Common Stock; or
- in the case of a dividend declared on a corresponding share of Company Common Stock in any other type of property, in the type and amount of property as is economically equivalent as determined by MCCI's board of directors to the type and amount of property to be paid on each corresponding share of Company Common Stock.

The declaration dates, record dates and payment dates for dividends on the Exchangeable Shares are the same as the relevant dates for the dividends on the shares of corresponding Company Common Stock.

Voting rights. Holders of Exchangeable Shares receive, through a voting trust, the benefit of Company voting rights, entitling the holder to one vote on the same basis and in the same circumstances as one corresponding share of Company Common Stock.

Other. The Exchangeable Shares are exchangeable at any time, at the option of the holder on a one-for-one basis for corresponding shares of Company Common Stock.

Our Special Voting Stock

Dividends and liquidation rights. The trustee holder of the Special Class A voting stock and the Special Class B voting stock is not entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions or to receive or participate in any distribution of assets upon our voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up.

Voting rights. The trustee holder of the Special Class A Voting Stock and the Special Class B Voting Stock has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of then outstanding Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively, but has agreed to only cast a number of votes equal to the number of Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively, as to which it has received voting instructions from the owners of record of those Class A Exchangeable Shares and Class B Exchangeable Shares, respectively (other than the Company and its affiliates), on the relevant record date. The trustee holder of the Special Class A Voting Stock and Special Class B Voting Stock will vote with holders of the Company Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock, respectively, in each case as a single class.

Other. The trustee holder of the Special Class A Voting Stock and Special Class B Voting Stock has no pre-emptive rights to acquire any securities of the Company. The outstanding shares of Special Class A Voting Stock and Special Class B Voting Stock will be fully paid and non-assessable and will not be listed on any stock exchange.

Our Preferred Stock

Our Certificate authorizes our Board of Directors to issue up to 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock from time to time in one or more series, generally without any vote or action by the holders of our Common Stock, except that the issuance of any shares of preferred stock having any voting rights other than those expressly required by Delaware law will be subject to approval by a majority of the voting power of the holders of our Class A Common Stock and Special Class A Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. Subject to this right, our board of directors will be authorized to determine the number of shares and designation of any series of preferred stock and the dividend rate, dividend rights, liquidation preferences, conversion rights and terms, voting rights, redemption rights and terms and sinking fund terms of any series of preferred stock. Depending on the terms of any issued preferred stock, any or all series of issued preferred stock could have a preference over our Common Stock with respect to dividends and other distributions and upon liquidation or dissolution of Molson Coors. Issuance of any preferred shares with voting powers, or issuance of additional shares of our Common Stock, would dilute the voting power of our outstanding Common Stock.

Stockholder Advance Notice Procedure

Our bylaws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholders to make nominations of candidates for election as directors or to bring other business before an annual meeting of the stockholders. Only persons who are nominated by the board of directors, or a duly authorized board committee, or by a stockholder who has given timely written notice to the secretary of our company before the meeting at which directors are to be elected, will be eligible for election as directors. This notice is required to include specified information about the stockholder and each proposed director nominee and information regarding each proposed nominee that would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed under the SEC's Rules and Regulations. The stockholder notice procedure provides that the only business that may be conducted at an annual meeting is business that has been brought before the meeting by, or at the direction of, the board of directors or by a stockholder who has given timely written notice to the secretary of our Company. This notice is required to include a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and specified information about the stockholder and the stockholder's ownership of our capital stock.
