Item 5.02.                      Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Jones Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") previously established and maintains the Jones Energy, LLC Executive Deferral Plan (the "Plan"). On December 12, 2018, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Compensation Committee") approved the termination of the Plan as part of its year-end review of the Company's compensation programs, subject to further approval of definitive documentation. On January 25, 2019, the Compensation Committee approved an amendment to the Plan reflecting the termination (the "Termination Amendment"). Pursuant to the terms of the Termination Amendment, effective as of December 12, 2018 (the "Termination Date"), the Plan shall be irrevocably terminated, and no further accruals or contributions shall be made under the Plan on or after the Termination Date and all accrued and unpaid benefits of the Participants (as defined in the Plan) as of the Termination Date shall be distributed to the Participants. As of the date of this filing, no current executive officers of the Company were participating, or ever had participated, in the Plan.

The summary of the Termination Amendment is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Termination Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
