Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 23, 2018, FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. (“FCB”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) by and among FCB, Synovus Financial Corp. (“Synovus”) and Azalea Merger Sub Corp. (“Merger Sub”). The Merger Agreement provides that upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into FCB (the “Merger”), with FCB continuing as the surviving entity. Immediately after the Merger, FCB will merge with and into Synovus (the “Upstream Merger”), with Synovus continuing as the surviving entity. At the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each outstanding share of FCB Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share (“FCB Class A Common Stock”), will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, 1.055 shares (the “Exchange Ratio” and such shares, the “Merger Consideration”) of Synovus common stock, par value $1.00 per share (“Synovus Common Stock”).

Further, at the Effective Time, each FCB option granted by FCB to purchase shares of FCB Class A Common Stock, whether or not vested, and each unvested time-vested restricted stock unit (other than those restricted stock units held by non-employee directors), in each case granted under the FCB stock incentive plans, will be converted into awards covering Synovus Common Stock, with appropriate adjustments to reflect application of the Exchange Ratio. Unvested restricted stock units held by non-employee directors, vested time-vested restricted stock units, performance-vested restricted stock units and shares of restricted stock, whether or not vested, in each case granted under the FCB stock incentive plans, will be cancelled at the Effective Time in exchange for Merger Consideration (with any performance-based vesting condition applicable to any share of restricted stock or performance-vested restricted stock unit deemed to have been fully achieved (or, if the award contemplates multiple levels of achievement, achieved at the greater of the target level and the level of performance projected as of the Effective Time)). Each cash phantom unit award granted under the FCB stock incentive plans will fully vest as of the Effective Time (with any performance-based vesting condition applicable to such awards deemed to have been fully achieved (or, if the award contemplates multiple levels of achievement, achieved at the greater of the target level and the level of performance projected as of the Effective Time)) and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the Exchange Ratio and (y) the average closing price of the Synovus Common Stock for the five full trading days preceding the effective date of the Merger, in respect of each share of FCB Class A Common Stock underlying such award.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Synovus and FCB, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of FCB’s and Synovus’ businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, and in the case of FCB, its obligation to call a meeting of its stockholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement, and its non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative acquisition proposals, and in the case of Synovus, its obligation to call a meeting of its shareholders to approve the issuance of shares of Synovus Common Stock in connection with the Merger as contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the “Share Issuance”), and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its shareholders approve the Share Issuance.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (1) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of FCB Class A Common Stock, (2) the approval of the Share Issuance by the holders of Synovus Common Stock, (3) authorization for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the shares of Synovus Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (4) the effectiveness under the Securities Act of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the Synovus Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (5) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger or making the consummation of the Merger illegal and (6) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance. Each party’s obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, generally subject to a material adverse effect qualification, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger

Agreement and (iii) receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Synovus and FCB and further provides that a termination fee of $93.5 million will be payable by FCB or Synovus to the other party, as applicable, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances.

The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both Synovus and FCB.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between Synovus and FCB instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Synovus or FCB, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Synovus, FCB, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a Proxy Statement of FCB and a Prospectus of Synovus, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of Synovus and FCB make with the SEC.

Concurrently with the signing of the Merger Agreement, Synovus also entered into five-year employment agreements with Kent Ellert, the President and Chief Executive Officer of FCB, and James Baiter, FCB's Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer. These employment agreements, which will become effective upon the closing of the Merger, provide that Mr. Ellert will serve as Executive Vice President of Synovus and President of Florida Region, and that Mr. Baiter will serve as Regional Credit Officer-Florida. The employment agreements also provide for the grant to Messrs. Ellert and Baiter at the Merger closing of restricted stock units vesting on the third and the fifth anniversaries of the closing, subject to the executive's continued employment and, for a portion of such units, the achievement of certain performance criteria, as well as other provisions relating to annual salary, bonus, incentive plan and other compensation terms and non-competition/non-solicitation provisions applicable following the executive's termination of service with Synovus.

Item Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers;
5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 23, 2018, FCB's wholly-owned subsidiary Florida Community Bank, National Association ("FCB Bank") entered into letter agreements with Kent Ellert, Vincent Tese, Les Lieberman and James Baiter, which will become effective upon the closing of the Merger, terminating their employment agreements with FCB Bank in consideration for a lump sum cash payment upon the closing of the Merger based on the value of their change-in-control severance benefits in the following amounts: for Mr. Ellert, $11,900,000; for Messrs. Tese and Lieberman, $4,050,000; and for Mr. Baiter, $1,400,000. The letter agreements also provide that certain provisions of the employment agreements between the foregoing executive officers and FCB Bank, including restrictive covenants concerning noncompetition, nonsolicitation of customers and employees and nondisclosure, are incorporated into the letter agreements and will continue to apply to the executive officers.

On July 23, 2018, FCB Bank also entered into a letter agreement with Jack Partagas, which will become effective upon the closing of the Merger, terminating the change-in-control severance protections under his offer letter with FCB Bank in consideration for a lump sum cash payment upon the closing of the Merger in an amount equal to $412,500 and terminating any obligation for Mr. Partagas to repay his sign-on bonus following the closing of the Merger. The letter agreement also provides that, if Mr. Partagas receives compensation and benefits in connection with the Merger that otherwise would be subject to Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent a reduction would place Mr. Partagas in a better after-tax position.

The foregoing description of the letter agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the letter agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 through 10.5.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 23, 2018 and effective on the same date, the board of directors of FCB amended the By-Laws of FCB (the “By-Law Amendment”). The By-Law Amendment adopts a forum selection provision providing that the sole and exclusive forum for certain proceedings relating to FCB will be a state court within the State of Delaware (or, if no state court located within the State of Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware).

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaw Amendment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1.
