On November 5, 2014, Gaming Partners International Corporation (the “Company”) informed its impacted employees that it will be relocating all of the Company's card production from Mexico to its facility in Blue Springs, Missouri, as part of its strategic plan to improve the efficiency of the Company's card production operations. Approximately 100 full-time employees will be impacted.

The Company expects the relocation to be completed by the end of the first quarter of 2015. In the remainder of 2014, the Company expects to incur approximately $0.4 million of pre-tax, one time charges in connection with the transition, most of which will be cash expenditures. These charges include primarily employee separation costs as well as equipment and inventory impairment charges and travel and training costs. The relocation is expected to provide future savings in the manufacturing of cards and is in line with the Company's overall plan to streamline its operations and reduce its overhead and operating expenses.
