Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously disclosed, on May 4, 2017, Charles & Colvard, Ltd. (the “Company”) received notice from Nasdaq’s Listing Qualifications Department indicating that the Company was not in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) because the minimum bid price of its common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market had closed below $1.00 per share for 30 consecutive business days. In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company had an initial grace period of 180 calendar days, or until October 31, 2017, to regain compliance with the minimum $1.00 bid price per share requirement.

On November 1, 2017, the Company received a notification letter from Nasdaq’s Listing Qualifications Department indicating that, while the Company has not regained compliance with the minimum bid price requirement, it is eligible for an additional 180-day grace period, or until April 30, 2018, to regain compliance with the $1.00 per share minimum bid price requirement.

Nasdaq’s determination to grant an additional 180-day grace period is based on the Company meeting the continued listing requirement for market value of publicly held shares and all other applicable requirements for initial listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market, with the exception of the minimum bid price requirement, and on the Company’s written notice to Nasdaq of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period by effecting a reverse stock split, if necessary. At the opening of business on November 3, 2017, shares of the Company’s common stock will be transferred from the Nasdaq Global Select Market to the Nasdaq Capital Market. The Nasdaq Capital Market is a continuous trading market that operates in substantially the same manner as the Nasdaq Global Select Market and listed companies must meet certain financial requirements and comply with Nasdaq’s corporate governance requirements. The Company’s common stock will continue to trade under the same symbol: “CTHR.”

If the Company does not regain compliance by April 30, 2018, the Company expects that Nasdaq will provide written notification that the Company’s common stock will be delisted. At that time, the Company may appeal Nasdaq’s delisting determination to a Nasdaq hearing panel.

The Company intends to actively monitor the bid price of its common stock and will consider available options to regain compliance with the listing requirements.
