Edgar Filing: ANIKA THERAPEUTICS INC - Form 8-K

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On September 10, 2009, Anika Therapeutics, Inc. (the "Company") entered into Employment Agreements (individually, the "Employment Agreement" and collectively, the "Employment Agreements") with each of Frank J. Luppino, Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and William J. Mrachek Vice President of Human Resources of the Company (the "Senior Executives"). The Employment Agreements clarify and amend existing employment arrangements between the Company and each of Mr. Luppino and Mr. Mrachek. The base salary amounts represent the current salaries approved by the Board of Directors earlier in 2009.

Mr. Luppino's Employment Agreement provides him with an initial annual base salary of $285,000, subject to annual review by either the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee. In addition, Mr. Luppino is eligible to receive cash incentive compensation, starting at 35% of his annual base salary.

Mr. Mrachek's Employment Agreement provides him with an initial annual base salary of $219,712, subject to annual review by either the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee. In addition, Mr. Mrachek is eligible to receive cash incentive compensation, starting at 30% of his annual base salary.

Mr. Luppino and Mr. Mrachek are eligible to participate in or receive benefits under all of the Company's employee benefit plans or any future arrangements made available by the Company to its executives.

Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreements, upon any termination, whether due to death, disability, or for any reason by Mr. Luppino or Mr. Mrachek, as the case may be, or the Company, each of Mr. Luppino and Mr. Mrachek would be entitled to any accrued benefits, including any earned but unpaid base salary and incentive compensation, unpaid expense reimbursements, accrued but unused vacations, and any vested benefits under the Company's employee benefit plans.

Subject to certain conditions, upon an involuntary termination by the Company of Mr. Luppino's employment without "cause" (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or a voluntary termination of employment by him for "good reason" (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Luppino would be entitled to receive a severance amount equal to his current base salary for the then current fiscal year and would be eligible to continue to participate in the Company's group health, dental and vision program for 12 months.

If Mr. Luppino's termination of employment occurs within 3 months prior to or 12 months after a "change in control" (as defined in the Employment Agreement) and such termination is either by him for "good reason" or by the Company without "cause," (i) Mr. Luppino would be entitled to receive, in lieu of the severance amount described in the immediately preceding paragraph, a severance amount equal to 1.5 times the sum of his current base salary and target annual bonus for the then current fiscal year, (ii) all of Mr. Luppino's stock options and stock-based awards would immediately accelerate and become fully exercisable or nonforfeitable as of the effective date of such change in control, and (iii) Mr. Luppino would be eligible to continue to participate in the Company's group health, dental and vision program for 18 months, subject to certain conditions.

Under the terms of his Employment Agreement, Mr. Luppino would receive a modified economic cutback gross-up payment in the event any payment or benefit to him is considered an "excess parachute payment" and subject to an excise tax under the Internal Revenue Code.
