Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In December of 2005, iSarla, Inc., the predecessor to Asure Software Inc.’s (the “Company”, “we”, “us” and “our”) iEmployee division, entered into a Distribution Agreement (the “Distribution Agreement”) with Ceridian Corporation (“Ceridian”), pursuant to which, among other things, Ceridian resold some of our products and services. In September of 2008, the term of the Distribution Agreement expired. Following September 2008 and continuing to the present, Ceridian with our assent and cooperation continued to resell our products and services consistent with the terms of the Distribution Agreement (the “Relationship”) even though no formal written extension or amendment to the Distribution Agreement was entered into between the parties.

Following May 3, 2010, joint customers of the Company and Ceridian will be given the choice of: (i) contracting directly with the Company to continue using our goods and services, or (ii) using Ceridian’s offerings that may not include the Company’s products and services. The Company believes that many joint customers and users will decide to contract directly with the Company which will benefit the Company by: (a) permitting us to have a direct relationship with these end users and customers enabling us to have better control over our customer base and (b) improving our margins. A copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by this reference. The summary of the Settlement Agreement set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Settlement Agreement.

This Current Report includes forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events (including the receipt of additional payments from Ceridian and our ability to contract directly with current joint end users and customers), and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual events to be materially different from any events expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements since they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. We assume no obligation to publicly update or revise these forward-looking statements for any reason, or to update the reasons actual events may differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
