PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On August 13, 2003, the Registrant announced that it had concluded, in consultation with its auditors, that a portion of the revenue from certain software arrangements should be deferred to account for the value of certain free training provided by the Registrant to its customers. As a consequence, the Registrant has determined that it will restate its consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2001, 2002, and 2003 and the related quarterly financial information to reflect this change. This determination required significant attention from the Registrant's management, accounting staff, and independent auditors. The Registrant has not yet completed the quarterly analyses necessary to finalize the restatement, and as a result was not able to finalize its consolidated financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2003 in time to permit it to file its Form 10-Q within the prescribed time.

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

- (1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification: Joseph W. Kuhn, Chief Financial Officer, 240-497-3000.
- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As stated above, the Registrant has not yet completed the quarterly analyses necessary to finalize its financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2003. For this reason, the Registrant is unable at this time to accurately quantify any significant changes in the results of operations from the corresponding period in the prior fiscal year.
