Item 5. Other Events.

On September 16, 2003, PharmaNetics received approval from Nasdaq to transfer the listing of its shares of common stock from the Nasdaq National Market to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, expected to become effective as of the start of trading on or about September 24, 2003. PharmaNetics elected to transfer to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market in order to ensure continuity of its Nasdaq listing, since the market value of its common stock has fallen below the $50 million requirement for continued listing on the Nasdaq National Market. Following the transfer, PharmaNetics common stock will continue to trade under the ticker symbol PHAR. The transfer to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market should not interrupt the trading of PharmaNetics common stock. Investors should experience no significant differences in the way they obtain stock price quotes or news about PharmaNetics. The Nasdaq SmallCap Market is fully automated, and provides real-time trade reporting and a marketplace for more than 800 companies.
