a. Basis of consolidation

The Company has consolidated its Balance Sheets at September 30, 2004 and June 30, 2004 and the statements of income and cash flows for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 line by line with the financial statements of its controlled companies, following the procedure established in Technical Pronouncement No. 21 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences and approved by the Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires and by the National Securities Commission.

The financial statements for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 have not been audited. The Company's management considers that they include all the necessary adjustments to fairly present the results for the periods referred to.

The result for the period ended September 30, 2004 does not necessarily reflect proportionality the Company's results for the complete fiscal year.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

- (1) In accordance with Technical Pronouncement No. 21 adopted by the Company during the year ended on June 30, 2004, the Company started to consolidate this subsidiary on a line-by-line basis, taking into account other indicators that must be analyzed to determine whether control exists. The financial statements presented in comparative form were restated accordingly.

b. Acquisition and consolidation of related companies

On September 29, 2004, the Company entered into a purchase-sale agreement for the purchase of 49.9% of the capital stock of Perez Cuesta S.A.C.e.I.. As a result of this acquisition, Alto Palermo S.A. (APSA) will hold 68.8% of the capital stock of that company, the main activity of which is the operation of the Mendoza Plaza Shopping mall in the city of Mendoza.

Until the date of the above transaction, the Company held a 18.90% participation in the capital stock of Perez Cuesta S.A.C. e I.

The operation was communicated to the National Commission for the Defense of Competition to comply with applicable regulations and, therefore, the transaction and operation taken as a whole is subject to the approval by the commission.

At September 30, 2004 Alto Palermo S.A. (APSA) made a guarantee deposit on account of payment of the purchase price and for contract performance for Ps. 5,196, which has been recorded as an advance payment for the purchase of shares within long-term investments.

NOTE 2: CONSIDERATION OF THE EFFECTS OF INFLATION

The financial statements have been prepared in constant monetary units, reflecting the overall effects of inflation through August 31, 1995. As from that date, in accordance with professional accounting standards and the requirements of the control authorities, restatement of the financial statements was discontinued until December 31, 2001. As from January 1, 2002, in accordance with professional accounting standards, recognition of the effects of inflation in these financial statements was reestablished, considering that the accounting measurements restated due to changes in the purchasing power of the currency until August 31, 1995 as well as those arising between that date and December 31, 2001 are stated in currency of the latter date.

On March 25, 2003, the National Executive Branch issued Decree No. 664 establishing that the financial statements for years ending as from that date must be stated in nominal currency. Consequently, in accordance with Resolution No. 441 issued by the National Securities Commission, the Company discontinued the restatement of its financial statements as from March 1, 2003. This criterion is not in line with current professional accounting standards, which establish that the financial statements must be restated through September 30, 2003. However, due to the low materiality of inflation rates during the period from March to September 2003, this deviation has not had a material effect on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima

and subsidiaries

The rate used for restatement of items in these financial statements until February 28, 2003 is the domestic wholesale price index published by the National Institute of Statistics and Census.

Comparative information

Certain amounts in the financials statements at June 30, 2004 and at September 30, 2003 were reclassified for disclosure on a comparative basis with those for the period ended September 30, 2004.

NOTE 3: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the subsidiaries mentioned in Note 1, have been prepared on a consistent basis with those applied by IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima. Note 1 to the basic financial statements details the most significant accounting policies. Below are the most relevant accounting policies adopted by the subsidiaries, which are not included in that note.

a. Shares of Banco Hipotecario S.A.

Since June 30, 2004, as a consequence of the situation described in Note 16, the Company and Ritelco S.A. value the shares of Banco Hipotecario S.A. by the equity method of accounting.

b. Revenue recognition

The Company's revenues mainly stem from office rental, shopping center operations, development and sale of real estate, hotel operations and, to a lesser extent, from e-commerce activities.

See Note 4 for details on the Company's business segments. As discussed in Note 1, the consolidated statements of results were prepared following the guidelines of Technical Resolution No. 21 of the F.A.C.P.C.E.

IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima

Leases and services from shopping center operations

Leases with tenants are accounted for as operating leases. Tenants are generally charged a rent, which consists of the higher of (i) a monthly base rent (the Base Rent) and (ii) a specified percentage of the tenant's monthly gross retail sales (the Percentage Rent) (which generally ranges between 4% and 8% of tenant's gross sales). Furthermore, pursuant to the rent escalation clause in most leases, a tenant's Base Rent generally increases between 4% and 7% each year during the term of the lease. Minimum rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Certain lease agreements contain provisions, which provide for rents based on a percentage of sales or based on a percentage of sales volume above a specified threshold. The Company determines the compliance with specific targets and calculate the additional rent on a monthly basis as provided for in the contracts. Thus, these contingent rents are not recognized until the required thresholds are exceeded.

Generally, the Company's lease agreements vary from 36 to 120 months. Law No. 24,808 provides that tenants may rescind commercial lease agreements after the initial six months, upon not less than 60 days' written notice, subject to penalties which vary from one to one and a half months rent if the tenant rescinds during the first year of its lease, and one month of rent if the tenant rescinds after the first year of its lease. The Company also charges its tenants a monthly administration fee, prorated among the tenants according to their leases, which varies from shopping center to shopping center, relating to the administration and maintenance of the common area and the administration of contributions made by tenants to finance promotional efforts for the overall shopping centers operations.

Administration fees are recognized monthly when earned. In addition to rent, tenants are generally charged admission rights, a non-refundable admission fee that tenants may be required to pay upon entering into a lease and upon lease renewal. Admission right is normally paid in one lump sum or in a small number of monthly installments. Admission rights are recognized using the straight-line method over the life of the respective lease agreements. Furthermore, the lease agreements generally provide for the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, advertising and certain common area maintenance costs. These additional rents and tenant reimbursements are accounted for on the accrual basis.

Credit card operations

Revenues derived from credit card transactions consist of commissions and financing income. Commissions are recognized at the time the merchants' transactions are processed, while financing income is recognized when earned.

Hotel operations

The Company recognizes revenues from its rooms, catering, and restaurant facilities as earned on the close of business each day.

c. Intangible assets, net

Intangible assets are carried at cost adjusted for inflation as mentioned in Note 2, less accumulated amortization.

Trademarks

Trademarks include the expenses and fees related to their registration.

Pre-operating expenses

This item reflects expenses generated by the opening of new shopping malls. Those expenses are amortized by the straight-line method in periods ranging from 2 to 3 years for each shopping mall, beginning as from the date of inauguration.

Property development expenses

Expenses incurred in relation to the selling of development properties, including advertising, commissions and other expenses, are charged to the results for the period in which the corresponding income is accrued, based on the percentage of completion method.

d. Goodwill

Negative goodwill represents the market value of net assets of the subsidiaries at the percentage participation acquired in excess of acquisition cost. Goodwill has been restated following the guidelines mentioned in Note 1.4. to the basic financial statements and amortization has been calculated by the straight-line method based on an estimated useful life of 20 years, considering the weighted-average of the remaining useful life of identifiable assets acquired subject to depreciation.

IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima

Additionally, also included was the goodwill from the controlled company APSA, originating from the purchase of shares of Tarshop S.A. and Fibesa S.A., which is amortized through the straight-line method over a period of not more than 10 years.

Amortization has been classified under Amortization of goodwill in the Statements of Income.

NOTA 4: SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has determined that its reportable segments are those that are based on the Company's method of internal reporting. Accordingly, the Company has five reportable segments. These segments are Development and sale of properties, Office and other non-shopping center rental properties, Shopping centers, Hotel operations, and Others. As discussed in Note 1, the consolidated statements of income were prepared following the guidelines of Technical Resolution No. 21 of the F.A.C.P.C.E.

Financial operations and others

This segment primarily includes revenues and associated costs generated from the sale of equity securities, other securities-related transactions and other non-core activities of the Company. This segment also includes the results in equity investees of the Company relating to Internet, telecommunications and other technology-related activities of the Company.

Puerto Retiro S.A.: extension of the bankruptcy

On April 18, 2000, Puerto Retiro S.A. was notified of a filing made by the National Government, through the Ministry of Defense, to extend the petition in bankruptcy of Inversora Dársena Norte S.A. (Indarsa) to Puerto Retiro S.A.. Concurrently with the complaint, at the request of plaintiff, the bankruptcy court granted an order restraining the ability of Puerto Retiro to sell or dispose in any manner the real estate property near Puerto Madero denominated Planta 1 which had been acquired from Tandanor S.A. ( Tandanor ) in June 1993.

Indarsa had purchased 90% of the capital stock of Tandanor, a formerly state owned company privatized in 1991, engaged in the shipyard industry.

Indarsa did not comply with the payment of the outstanding price for the purchase of the stock of Tandanor, and therefore the Ministry of Defense requested the bankruptcy of Indarsa. Since the only asset of Indarsa were the shareholdings in Tandanor, the Ministry of Defense is pursuing to extend the bankruptcy to Puerto Retiro. The lawsuit is at its first stages and Puerto Retiro S.A. answered the claim and appealed the preventive measures ordered. This appeal was overruled on December 14, 2000.

Puerto Retiro S.A. believes, pursuant to the advice of its legal advisors, that the plaintiff's claim shall be rejected by the courts.

Hoteles Argentinos S.A.: mortgage loan

The Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting held on January 5, 2001, approved taking a long-term mortgage loan from Bank Boston N.A. for a total amount of US$ 12,000,000 to be used to refinance existing debts. The term of the loan was agreed at 60 months payable in 19 equal and quarterly installments of US$ 300,000 and one final payment of US$ 6,300,000. The agreement was signed on January 26, 2001.

Interest is paid quarterly in arrears at an annual interest rate equivalent to LIBOR for year loans plus the applicable mark-up per the contract, which consists in a variable interest rate that in the period ended September 30, 2004 ranged between 5.8700% and 6.0713%.

The guarantee granted was a senior mortgage on a Company property, which houses the Hotel Sheraton Libertador Buenos Aires.

As a result of the current economic situation, the lack of credit and the crisis of the Argentine financial system, principal installments of US$ 300 thousand falling due on January 26, April 29, July 29 and October 26, 2002; January 29, April 29, July 29 and October 29, 2003; January 29, April 29, July 29 and October 29, 2004 and the interest installments totaling US$ 1,514 thousand falling due on July 29 and October 26, 2002; January 29, April 29, July 29 and October 29, 2003; January 29, April 29, July 29, and October 29, 2004 were not paid. Alto Palermo S.A. has ongoing revolving period securitization programs through which Tarshop, a majority-owned subsidiary of APSA, transfers a portion of its customer credit card receivable balances to a master trust (the Trust) that issues certificates to public and private investors.

To the extent the certificates are sold to third parties, the receivables transferred qualify as sales for financial statement purposes and are removed from the company balance sheet. The remaining receivables in the Trust which have not been sold to third parties are reflected on the company balance sheet as a retained interest in transferred credit card receivables. Under these programs, the company acts as the servicer on the accounts and receives a fee for its services.

Under the securitization programs, the Trust may issue two types of certificates representing undivided interests in the Trust - Títulos de Deuda Fiduciaria ( TDF ) and Certificados de Participación ( CP ), which represent debt, and equity certificates, respectively. Interest and principal services are paid periodically to the TDF holders throughout the life of the security. CPs are subordinated securities which entitle the CP holders to share pro rata in the cash flows of the securitized credit card receivables, after principal and interest on the TDFs and other fees and expenses have been paid. During the revolving period no payments are made to TDF and CP holders. Principal collections of the underlying financial assets are used by the Trust to acquire additional credit card receivables throughout the revolving period. Once the revolving period ends, a period of liquidation occurs during which: (i) no further assets are purchased and (ii) all cash collections are used to fulfill the TDF service requirements and (iii) the remaining proceeds are used to fulfill the CPs service requirements.

The Company entered into two-years revolving-period securitization programs, through which Tarshop sold an aggregate amount of Ps. 108.3 million of its customer credit card receivable. Under the securitization programs, the Trusts issued Ps. 16.1 million nominal value subordinated CPs, Ps. 33.1 million 9% fixed-rate interest TDFs, Ps. 11.1 million 10% fixed-rate interest TDFs, Ps. 4.1 million 13% fixed-rate interest TDFs, Ps. 11 million 14% fixed-rate interest TDFs, Ps. 0.9 million 15% fixed-rate interest TDFs, Ps. 20.0 million 18% fixed-rate interest TDFs, and Ps. 11.9 million variable-rate interest TDFs. Tarshop acquired all the CPs at an amount equal to their nominal value while the TDFs were sold to other investors through a public offering in Argentina except for Ps. 1.4 million, which were acquired by Tarshop S.A.. As a credit protection for investors, Tarshop has established cash reserves for losses amounting to Ps. 0.8 million.

NOTE 20: DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

Interest rate swaps

Alto Palermo S.A. (APSA) uses certain financial instruments to reduce its global financing costs. Furthermore, the Company has not used the financial instruments to hedge future operations or commitments. At September 30, 2004 and 2003, APSA held only one derivative financial instrument outstanding, an interest swap valued at estimated settlement cost. Differences generated by application of the mentioned valuation criteria were recognized in the results for the period.

In order to minimize its financing costs, APSA entered into an interest rate swap agreement to effectively convert a portion of its peso-denominated fixed-rate debt to peso-denominated floating rate debt. At March 31, 2001 the Company had an interest rate swap agreement outstanding with an aggregate notional amount of Ps. 85.0 million with maturity in April 2005. This swap agreement initially allowed APSA to reduce the net cost of its debt. However, subsequent to June 30, 2001, APSA modified the swap agreement due to an increase in interest rates as a result of the economic situation. Under the terms of the revised agreement, APSA converted its peso-denominated fixed rate debt to U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate debt for a notional amount of US$ 69.1 million with maturity in April 2005.

As of September 30, 2004 the interest rate swap had an estimated settlement cost (fair value) of US$ 45.26 million. Any difference payable or receivable is accrued and recorded as an adjustment to disbursements for interest in the Statement of Income. During the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, APSA recognized gains of Ps. 1.1 million and of Ps. 4.6 million, respectively.

The inherent risk to Alto Palermo S.A. from the swap agreement is limited to the cost of replacing that contract at current market rates. Alto Palermo S.A. considers that such cost would increase in the event of a continuing devaluation of the peso.

- Options contracts to purchase metals

During the current quarter, Ritelco S.A. entered into future contracts for the purchase of silver; those operations were settled on September 30, 2004. In accordance with its risk administration policies, the Company enters into future metal contracts for speculative purposes.

The result generated during the three-month period ended September 30, 2004 corresponding to the silver futures transaction amounted to Ps. 859 (equivalent to US$ 295) which is recorded in the line Financial Results in the Statement of Income.

A ruling of the court of original jurisdiction sustained the claim. The intervening court served notice to the plaintiff of payment made, and on June 30, 2004 the plaintiff presented a writing rejecting that payment, considering it partial settlement of the debt arising from the firm judgement filed in the records of the case, and requested the setting up of a time deposit with the funds paid, automatically renewable every thirty days, until final payment of the total debt.

The Court resolved the matter by considering notice to have been served; as regards the amount due, the plaintiff must conform the claim to current regulations. Until final resolution of the matter, Banco de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires was instructed to appropriate the funds to a renewable time deposit.

As a result of this situation, Management decided to increase the provision for unexpired claims to Ps. 4,643.

NOTE 1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Below are the most relevant accounting standards used by the Company to prepare these unaudited financial statements:

1.1. Issuance of new technical pronouncements

The Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires approved Technical Pronouncements No. 16:

Conceptual framework for professional accounting standards , No. 17: Professional accounting standards: development of some general application issues , No. 18 : Professional accounting standards: development of some particular application issues , No. 19: Amendments to Technical Pronouncements Nos. 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 11 and 14 and 20: Derivatives and hedging transactions , through Resolutions C 238/01, C 243/01, C 261/01, C 262/01 and C 187/02, respectively; the Technical Pronouncements and subsequent amendments to them become effective to the Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, except for TR 20 which become effective on July 1, 2003.

The National Securities Commission adopted the mentioned Technical Pronouncements, incorporating certain amendments, which apply to fiscal years commencing on January 1, 2003, but admitting early application.

Furthermore, the Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires approved Technical Pronouncement No. 21: Equity Method Value consolidation of financial statements information to disclose on related parties through Resolution M.D. No. 5/2003. This Technical Pronouncement and the modifications it amendments there to, became effective to the Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. Furthermore, the National Securities Commission has adopted that standard, making certain changes and establishing that it is applicable to fiscal years commenced as from April 1, 2004, admitting early application.

1.2. Preparation and presentation of financial statements

These unaudited financial statements are stated in Argentine pesos and were prepared in accordance with disclosure and valuation criteria contained in the Technical Pronouncements issued by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences, approved with certain amendments by the Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, in accordance with the resolutions issued by the National Securities Commission.

1.2. (Contd.)

The financial statements for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 have not been audited. The Company's management considers that they include all the necessary adjustments to fairly present the results for the periods referred to.

The result for the period ended September 30, 2004 does not necessarily reflect proportionality the Company's results for the complete fiscal years.

1.3. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the period. Estimates are used when accounting for allowance for doubtful accounts, depreciation, amortization, impairment of long-lived assets, income taxes and contingencies. Future actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions prepared at the date of these unaudited financial statements.

1.4. Recognition of the effects of inflation

The financial statements have been prepared in constant monetary units, reflecting the overall effects of inflation through August 31, 1995. As from that date, in accordance with professional accounting standards and the requirements of the control authorities, restatement of the financial statements was discontinued until December 31, 2001. As from January 1, 2002 in accordance with professional accounting standards, recognition of the effects of inflation in these unaudited financial statements was re-established, considering that the accounting measurements restated due to changes in the purchasing power of the currency until August 31, 1995 as well as those arising between that date and December 31, 2001 are stated in currency of the latter date.

On March 25, 2003, the National Executive Branch issued Decree No. 664 establishing that the financial statements for years ending as from that date must be stated in nominal currency. Consequently, in accordance with Resolution No. 441 issued by the National Securities Commission, the Company discontinued the restatement of its financial statements as from March 1, 2003. This criterion is not in line with current professional accounting standards, which establish that the financial statements must be restated through September 30, 2003. However, due to the low materiality of inflation rates during the period from March to September 2003, this deviation has not had a material effect on the financial statements taken as a whole.

1.4. (Contd.)

The rate used for restatement of items in these unaudited financial statements until February 28, 2003 is the domestic wholesale price index published by the National Institute of Statistics and Census.

1.5. Comparative information

Balance sheet items at June 30, 2004 shown in these financial statements for comparative purposes arise from the audited annual financial statements corresponding to the year then ended.

Balances at September 30, 2004 shown in the Statement of Income, Changes in Shareholders' Equity and Cash flows are shown on a comparative basis with those for the same period of the previous year.

1.6. Valuation criteria

a. Cash and banks

Cash on hand has been valued at face value.

b. Foreign currency assets and liabilities

Foreign currency assets and liabilities were valued at period-end exchange rates.

Operations denominated in foreign currency are converted into pesos at the rates of exchange in effect at the date of settlement of the operation. Operations in foreign currency are shown in the Statement of Income under Financial results, net .

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

In accordance with Decree 214/02, certain assets and liabilities denominated in US dollars or other foreign currencies existing at January 6, 2002 were converted into pesos at the parity of Ps. 1 per US$ 1 and adjusted through application of the reference stabilization index (CER).

c. Short-term investments

Time deposits were valued at placement value plus financial results accrued based on the internal rate of return determined at that moment.

Short-term investments in debt securities, shares and mutual funds were valued at their net realization value.

d. Mortgages and leases receivables

Mortgages and leases receivables and accounts payable were valued at the price applicable to spot operations at the time of the transaction plus interest and implicit financial components accrued at the internal rate of return determined at that moment.

e. Financial receivables and payables

Financial receivables and payables were valued at the amount deposited and collected, respectively, net of operating costs, plus financial results accrued based on the rate estimated at that time.

f. Other receivables and payables

Sundry receivables and payables (Asset tax, deposits in guarantee and accounts receivable in trust) show in other non current receivables and liabilities were valued based on the best estimate of the amount receivable and payable, respectively, discounted at the interest rate applicable to freely available savings accounts published by the Argentine Central Bank in effect at the time of incorporation to assets and liabilities, respectively.

As established by the regulations of the National Securities Commission and as mentioned above, deferred tax assets and liabilities have not been discounted. This criterion is not in accordance with current accounting standards in effect in the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, which require that those balances be discounted. The effect resulting from this difference has not had a material impact on the financial statements.

Credits in kind:

The Company records a receivable in kind corresponding to the right to receive units to be built in relation to the Edificio Cruceros property. This credit was valued according to the rules for accounting measurement of goods to be received, and is shown in the non-current portion of Other receivables .

Liabilities in kind:

The Company records a liability in kind corresponding to an obligation to deliver units to be built in relation to the San Martín de Tours property. This liability was valued at the higher of amounts received or the estimated cost of building of the units plus additional costs to transfer the assets to the creditor, and is shown as a current liability under Mortgages payable .

g. Balances corresponding to financial transactions and sundry receivables and payables with related parties

Receivables and payables with related parties generated by financial transactions and other sundry transactions were valued in accordance with the terms agreed by the parties.

h. Inventory

A property is classified as available for sale upon determination by the Board of Directors that the property is to be marketed for sale in the normal course of business over the next several years.

Residential, office and other non-retail properties completed or under construction are stated at cost, adjusted for inflation as mentioned in Note 1.4., or estimated net realizable value, whichever is lower. Costs include land and land improvements, direct construction costs, construction overhead costs, interest on indebtedness and real estate taxes. Selling costs are deferred and charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is earned, as determined under the percentage-of-completion method. Total contract costs are charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is earned, as determined under the percentage-of-completion method. No interest costs were capitalized during the three month period ended September 30, 2004 and the year ended June 30, 2004.

Properties held for sale are classified as current or non-current based on the estimated date of sale and the time at which the related receivable is expected to be collected by the Company.

At September 30, 2004, the Company maintains allowances for impairment of certain inventories, totaling Ps. 954 (identified as Avda. Madero 1020, Rivadavia 2768, Minetti D, Torres Jardín, Sarmiento 517 and parking lots in Dock 13).

The accounting value of inventories, net of allowances set up, does not exceed their estimated recoverable value.

i. Long-term investments

i.a. Investments in debt securities:

Investments in debt securities were valued based on the best estimate of the discounted amount receivable applying the corresponding rate of return estimated at the time of incorporation to assets, as the Company will hold them to maturity. The value thus obtained does not exceed the respective estimated recoverable value at the end of the period.

1.6.i. (Contd.)

i.b. Investments in shares of subsidiaries and related companies:

The long-term investments in subsidiaries and related companies detailed in Exhibit C have been valued by using the equity method of accounting based on the financial statements at September 30, 2004 issued by them.

The accounting standards used by the subsidiaries to prepare their financial statements are the same as those used by the Company.

The accounting standards used by the related companies to prepare their financial statements are those currently in effect.

This item also includes the lower or higher value paid for the purchase of shares in subsidiaries and related companies which exceeds or is below the market value of the assets acquired, and goodwill related to Alto Palermo S.A. and Banco Hipotecario S.A.

As a result of the purchase of shares and the exercise of the options mentioned in Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has reevaluated the accounting criterion to be used for valuation of its participation in Banco Hipotecario S.A. and subsidiaries (Banco de Crédito y Securitización S.A.), originally recognized at net realization value and restated acquisition cost, respectively. Taking into account the current participation of the Company in these entities, the exercise of significant influence on their decisions and the intention to maintain the participation as a long-term investment, the Company has valued its investment in these companies by the equity method of accounting. In accordance with the regulations of the BCRA and the contracts signed as a result of Banco Hipotecario S.A.'s financial debt restructuring process, there are certain restrictions on the distribution of profits by Banco Hipotecario S.A. to the Company.

Certificates of participation in IRSA I financial trust:

The Class D certificates of participation in IRSA I financial trust have been valued at the amount resulting from apportioning the participation certificate holding to the trust assets.

1.6.i. (Contd.)

Undeveloped parcels of lands:

The Company acquires undeveloped land in order to provide an adequate and well-located supply for its residential and office building operations. The Company's strategy for land acquisition and development is dictated by specific market conditions where the Company conducts its operations.

Land held for development and sale and improvements are stated at cost adjusted for inflation mentioned in Note 1.4., or estimated net realizable value, whichever is lower. Land and land improvements are transferred to inventories when construction commences.

At September 30, 2004 the Company maintains allowances for impairment of certain parcels of undeveloped land totaling Ps. 8,253 (identified as Pilar, Torres Jardín IV, Constitución 1111 and Terrenos Caballito).

The values thus obtained, net of the allowances recorded, do not exceed their respective estimated recoverable values at the end of period.

j. Fixed assets

Fixed assets, net comprise primarily of rental properties and other property and equipment held for use by the Company.

Fixed assets value, net of allowances set up, does not exceed estimated recoverable value at the end of the period.

Rental properties

Rental properties are carried at cost, adjusted for inflation as mentioned in Note 1.4., less accumulated depreciation. Costs incurred for the acquisition of the properties are capitalized. Accumulated depreciation is computed under the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which generally are estimated to be 50 years for buildings. Expenditures for ordinary maintenance and repairs are charged to results in the period incurred. Significant renovations and improvements, which improve or extend the useful life of the asset are capitalized and depreciated over its estimated remaining useful life. At the time depreciable assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and the accumulated depreciation of the assets are eliminated from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is disclosed in the statement of income.

The Company capitalizes interest on long-term construction projects. No interest costs were capitalized during the reported periods.

1.6.j. (Contd.)

At September 30, 2004 the company maintains allowances for impairment of certain rental property, totaling Ps. 9,290 (identified as Avda. Madero 1020, Reconquista 823, Avda. Madero 942 and Sarmiento 517, Suipacha 664, Av. de Mayo 595, Constitución 1111, Libertador 602, Maipú 1300, Libertador 498, Laminar Plaza and Costeros Dique IV).

Software obtained or developed for internal use

The Company capitalizes certain costs associated with the development of computer software for internal use. Costs capitalized during the period ended September 30, 2004 and the year ended June 30, 2004 were not material.

These costs are being amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of 3 years.

Other properties and equipment

Other property and equipment properties are carried at cost, adjusted for inflation as mentioned in Note 1.4., less accumulated depreciation. Accumulated depreciation is computed under the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, as specified below:

Asset	Estimated useful life (years)
Leasehold improvements	On contract basis
Furniture and fixtures	5
Computer equipment	3
Vehicles	5

The cost of maintenance and repairs is charged to expense as incurred. The cost of significant renewals and improvements are added to the carrying amount of the respective assets. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts.

k. Deferred Financing Cost

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

Expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of debt and proceeds of loans have been deferred and are being amortized using the interest method over the life of the related issuances. In the case of redemption of this notes, the related expenses are amortized using the proportional method.

Amortization has been recorded under Financial Results in the statements of income.

1.6. (Contd.)

l. Customer advances

Customer advances represent payments received in advance in connection with the sale and rent of properties.

m. Income tax

The Company has recognized the charge for income tax by the deferred tax liability method, recognizing timing differences between measurements of accounting and tax assets and liabilities (See Note 12).

To determine deferred assets and liabilities, the tax rate expected to be in effect at the time of reversal or use has been applied to timing differences identified and tax loss carryforwards, considering the legal regulations approved at the date of issuance of these unaudited financial statements.

Since it is unlikely that future taxable income will fully absorb tax loss carryforwards, the Company has recorded an impairment on a portion of that credit.

n. Asset Tax

The Company calculates Asset tax by applying the current 1% rate on computable assets at the end of the period. This tax complements income tax. The Company's tax obligation in each year will coincide with the higher of the two taxes. However, if Asset tax exceeds income tax in a given year, that amount in excess will be computable as payment on account of income tax arising in any of the following ten years.

At September 30, 2004, the Company has estimated the asset tax, recognizing under Other receivables (non-current) the amount estimated to be offset as payment on account of income tax in future years in accordance with current regulations, and expensing the remaining balance.

1.6. (Contd.)

o. Allowances and Provisions

Allowance for doubtful accounts: the Company provides for losses relating to mortgage, lease and other accounts receivable. The allowance for losses is recognized when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the terms of the agreements. The allowance is determined on a one-by-one basis considering the present value of expected future cash flows. While management uses the information available to make evaluations, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if future economic conditions differ substantially from the assumptions used in making the evaluations. Management has considered all events and/or transactions that are subject to reasonable and normal methods of estimations, and the unaudited financial statements reflect that consideration.

For impairment of assets: the Company regularly evaluates its non-current assets for recoverability. The Company considers that an impairment loss is recorded whenever the recoverable value is lower than book value. Impairment losses must be expensed against the result for the period. The recoverable value is mainly calculated using independent appraisals or projections of future cash flows. At the end of each year the Company estimated the recoverable value of its non-current assets, recording a charge due to impairment or reversing the provision.

For lawsuits: the Company has certain contingent liabilities with respect to existing or potential claims, lawsuits and other proceedings, including those involving labor and other matters. The Company accrues liabilities when it is probable that future costs will be incurred and such costs can be reasonably estimated. Such accruals are based on developments to date, the Company's estimates of the outcomes of these matters and the Company's lawyers' experience in contesting, litigating and settling other matters.

As the scope of the liabilities becomes better defined, there may be changes in the estimates of future costs, which could have a material effect on the Company's future results of operations and financial condition or liquidity.

At the date of issuance of these unaudited financial statements, Management understands that there are no elements to foresee potential contingencies having a negative impact on these unaudited financial statements.

p. Shareholders' equity accounts

Movements in shareholders' equity accounts have been restated following the guidelines detailed in Note 1.4. until February 28, 2003. Subsequent movements are stated in the currency of the month to which they correspond.

The Common stock account was stated at historical nominal value. The difference between value stated in constant currency, following the guidelines detailed in Note 1.4., and historical nominal value is shown under Inflation adjustment of common stock forming part of the shareholders' equity.

q. Results for the period

The results for the period are shown as follows:

Income accounts are shown in currency of the month to which they correspond.

Charges for assets consumed (fixed asset depreciation, intangible asset amortization and cost of sales) were determined based on the values recorded for such assets.

Results from investments in controlled and affiliated companies was calculated under the equity method, by applying the percentage of the Company's equity interest to the results of such companies, with the adjustments for application of Technical Pronouncement 21.

r. Advertising expenses

The Company generally charges the advertising and publicity expenses to results when they are incurred. Advertising and promotion expenses were approximately Ps. 69 thousand and Ps. 118 thousand for the periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

s. Pension information

The Company does not maintain any pension plans. Argentine laws provide for pension benefits to be paid to retired employees from government pension plans and/or privately managed funds plan to which employees may elect to contribute.

t. Derivative financial instruments

In the past the Company used certain financial instruments to administer the risk related to its net investments in foreign activities and also as a complement to reduce its net financial costs. At present, the Company does not record operations with derivatives.

1.6. (Contd.)

u. Revenue recognition

u.1. Sales of properties

The Company records revenue from the sale of properties classified as inventory when all of the following criteria are met:

the sale has been consummated;

there is sufficient evidence to demonstrate the buyer's ability and commitment to pay for the property;

the Company's receivable is not subject to future subordination; and the Company has transferred the property to the buyer.

The Company uses the percentage-of-completion method of accounting with respect to sales of development properties under construction effected under fixed-price contracts. Under this method, revenue is recognized based on the ratio of costs incurred to total estimated costs applied to the total contract price. The Company does not commence revenue and cost recognition until such time as the decision to proceed with the project is made and construction activities have begun. The percentage-of-completion method of accounting requires the Company's management to prepare budgeted costs in connection with sales of properties/units. All changes to estimated costs of completion are incorporated into revised estimates during the contract period.

u.2. Leases

Revenues from leases are recognized on a straight line bases over the life of the related lease contracts.

v. Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, consisting primarily in mutual funds.

w. Monetary assets and liabilities

Monetary assets and liabilities are stated at their face value plus or minus the related financial gain or loss.

On March 8, 2002, the Ordinary and Extraordinary Meeting of Shareholders resolved:

- a) Approving the issuance of Negotiable Obligations Convertible into Ordinary Shares of the company ( ONC ) for up to a face value of US$100,000,000 (one hundred million pesos), for a term of 5 (five) years, at a fixed interest rate of 6% to 12% per annum, payable half-periodically in arrears.
- b) Approving a subscription option for the ONC holders to subscribe ordinary shares of the company at 1 (one) share per Ps.1 (one peso) of ONC face value, paying in cash Ps.1 (pesos one) as subscription price, during 15 (fifteen) days after the conversion term has expired, including the corresponding capital increase.

Said adjustment came into force on 20 December 2002.

6. Brief comment on the outlook for the coming year.

See attached.

Comments on operations for the quarter ended September 30, 2004

The third quarter of the year seems to turn up as the one to experience the largest growth of 2004, bolstering an annual GDP increase close to 8%. The government's expansive currency and fiscal policies have spurred activity levels, albeit with a word of warning on the risk of acceleration of domestic prices as aggregate supply reaction is slower than the pace of demand.

During the first half of 2004, lower internal private saving gave way to a strong increase in consumption and investment, a trend that keeps gaining foothold towards the second half of the year. Higher peso-denominated lending to the private sector, which is expected to rise even higher by year end, also adds up to this upsurge.

Private sector consumption improved during the quarter, particularly as concerns sales in supermarkets and shopping centers, reverting the downward trend of consumer confidence rates. The construction industry experienced a slight deceleration that is customary for this time of the year due to weather causes, although the increase in cement dispatch allows to predict its immediate resurgence.

Also in this period there was a substantial reduction in capital outflows, which also contributed to the increase in activity levels. This trend might be further boosted by a successful sovereign debt restructuring.

From a fiscal standpoint, the lower consolidated primary surplus estimated for the second half of the year implies a release of resources from the public to the private sector, which could be another factor to encourage economic growth.

The fourth quarter of 2004 could also show a satisfactory performance, with a growth bottom line of around 1% and a cumulative annual growth in activity levels of around 8%.

In this context, net income for the three-month period ended September 30, 2004 stood at Ps.17.2 million as compared to a Ps.15.2 million loss recorded during the same period of fiscal year 2004. This income may be explained as follows:

Operating income increased by 83%, from Ps.10.5 million in the first three months of fiscal year 2004 to Ps.19.1 million in the same period of fiscal year 2005, mainly reflecting higher sales, which grew 26% reaching Ps.70.9 million as compared to Ps.56.3 million. Contribution of the various segments to net sales was as follows: sales and developments Ps.1.4 million, offices and other rental properties Ps.4.3 million, shopping centers Ps.45.3 million and hotels Ps.19.8 million.

Net financing effects also contributed to the increase in net income, as they decreased from a Ps.19.3 million loss during the three-month period ended September 30, 2003 to a Ps.12.3 million loss during the three-month period ended September 30, 2004. The main cause of this increase was the lower depreciation of local currency against the dollar in the first quarter of fiscal year 2005 (-1%), as compared to the same period of 2004 (-4%), which had a smaller adverse impact on our liabilities, resulting in negative net exchange differences of Ps.2.5 million (loss) against Ps.14.0 million (loss). Contrastingly, results from financial operations decreased from Ps.10.0 million to Ps.3.2 million in the same quarter of the year 2005.

In addition, income from subsidiaries recorded a substantial increase, from a loss of Ps.0.2 million to an income of Ps.22.5 million in the periods considered, mainly due to the income recognized in the last quarter due to the equity valuation criterion of Banco Hipotecario S.A.

First quarter of fiscal year 2005 highlights, including significant operations occurred after the end of the period.

I. Offices and Other Rental Properties

During the first quarter of fiscal year 2005, income from rental properties totaled Ps.4.3 million as compared to Ps.3.7 million in the same period of fiscal year 2004, mainly reflecting the increase in occupancy levels of our buildings.

Occupancy of our office buildings continues to recover, reaching 83% during the first three months of fiscal year 2005 as compared to 70% in the previous period.

The sustained rise in demand for rental space has led to a recovery in prices. Although we are still far from our historical highs of US$/m<sup>2</sup> 28.0 (for class A spaces recorded in 2000), there is a clear upward trend. We are thus analyzing the possibility of adding new spaces to our portfolio, by either building new projects or purchasing built areas with secure returns in top-quality areas.

Below is information on our office space as of September 30, 2004.

II. Shopping Centers Alto Palermo S.A. ( APSA )

The information below corresponds to data included in the balance sheet of our shopping center operator subsidiary, Alto Palermo S.A., in which as of September 30, 2004 we had a 56.8% participation.

APSA's net income for the three-month period was Ps.2.5 million, compared to the Ps.3.9 million loss recorded in the same period of the previous year. The results for the first quarter of fiscal year 2004 were adversely affected by the depreciation of the local currency against the U.S. dollar, which went from Ps.2.80 per US$ 1.00 to Ps.2.915 per US$ 1.00, generating negative exchange rate differences of Ps.5.2 million mainly on our dollar denominated debt then outstanding. Results for the first quarter of fiscal year 2005 reflect the higher net revenues recorded by the company.

Total revenues as of September 30, 2004 were Ps.45.4 million, 45.6% higher than for the same period of the previous year. This increase mainly reflects the excellent sales momentum of our shopping centers, which allows us to adjust renewed leases and increase basic rental charges to lessees, along with the increase in revenues from our subsidiary Tarjeta Shopping.

Gross profit for the period achieved a significant increase of 86.2%, from Ps.14.3 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2004 to Ps.26.5 million during the first quarter of fiscal year 2005. Approximately 90% of the company's costs are depreciation of fixed assets. Thus, consolidated operating results for the period reported a profit of Ps.17.8 million compared to Ps.8.1 million in the same period of the previous year, an increase of 120.8%.

EBITDA<sup>1</sup> (consolidated net income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) for the three-month period totaled Ps.33.0 million, a 34.3% increase as compared to the EBITDA for the same period of the previous year.

<sup>1</sup> EBITDA represents net income plus accrued interest charges, income tax, depreciation and amortization charges, results from permanent investments, third-party interests in controlled companies and all items that do not imply movements of funds, and any extraordinary or non-recurrent loss or income. EBITDA is not regarded as a generally accepted accounting measure and should not be used as an indicator of financial or operating performance.

Tenants' sales continued to increase, reaching Ps.377.2 million in the three-month period ended September 30, 2004, a 31% nominal increase from those in the same period of the previous year.

The business success of our tenants continues to increase demand for space at our shopping centers. In this way, we have increased occupancy to 99%, even surpassing pre-crisis figures. The evolution of this variable not only shows an improvement in the business, but also the excellent quality of our shopping centers portfolio.

The current bonanza in the retail sector allows us to enter into new lease agreements under better conditions, increasing the goodwill charge (also known as key money) required for the renewal or execution of new agreements at our shopping centers.

Moreover, the allowance for bad debts was zero during the quarter, and there was a Ps.0.6 million recovery of charges previously recorded.

Tarjeta Shopping

Tarshop S.A. is a credit card company in which APSA holds an 80% interest.

The favorable context and successful performance of the credit card business unit caused Tarshop S.A. to record an income of Ps.1.3 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2005, a 171% increase compared to an income of Ps.0.5 million recorded in the same period of the previous year.

Net revenues had a significant increase of 71%, from Ps.6.5 million during the first quarter of fiscal year 2004 to Ps.11.2 million during this quarter. In addition, operating results increased 20% to Ps.1.0 million.

The credit portfolio including securitized coupons as of September 30, 2004 was Ps.106.0 million, 102% higher than the Ps.52.5 million portfolio as of September 30, 2003.

In the area of collections, short-term delinquency at September 30, 2004 continued its steady downward trend, reaching figures even lower than before the crisis. Three-month arrears was as low as 1.8% as of September 30, 2004.

Increase in interest in Mendoza Plaza Shopping

On September 29, 2004, our subsidiary APSA entered into an agreement for the purchase of 49.9% of the capital stock of Perez Cuesta S.A.C.I., a company mainly engaged in the operation of the Mendoza Plaza Shopping center in the City of Mendoza. Through this purchase APSA's equity interest will increase to 68.8%.

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

The shopping center has 37,152 square meters of gross leaseable area, 140 retail stores, sales per square meter of US$ 135 and an occupancy rate of 97%.

Notice of the transaction was given to the Antitrust Authorities. The transaction and the agreement are conditioned to the consent to be granted by such agency. After its approval, Mendoza Plaza Shopping will be the ninth shopping center managed by the company.

Opening of Alto Rosario Shopping

On Tuesday, November 9, 2004 we successfully opened Alto Rosario Shopping, with 99% of the units already leased.

The project involves three stages. The first stage is the construction of the mall, which features 123 retail stores, 40 stands with the best and most diverse offerings in the market and 14 fast food stores, restaurants and cafes, totaling 19,297 square meters of gross leaseable area. The second stage will involve the opening of the Coto hypermarket, which is expected to occur in December 2004, and the third one includes the extension of the mall, the opening of Showcase cinemas (with 3,400 seats and 14 state-of-the-art movie screens) and the Museo de Los Niños children attraction, expected to open during the first quarter of 2005.

The shopping center offers diversified proposals according to the needs of the public, top-quality entertainment areas, first-line services and spaces. As in our other shopping centers, we will seek customer identification with our product.

The first stage required an investment of approximately Ps.55 million, that was fully financed with internally generated funds.

Below is information on our shopping centers as of September 30, 2004, according to IRSA's financial statements.

III. Sales and Developments

For the three-month period ended September 30, 2004, the sales and developments segment recorded revenues of Ps.1.4 million, compared to Ps.6.0 million in the same period of the previous year.

This difference mainly reflects the lower availability of units for sale, as we expect to launch sales in our new projects during the next months.

Edificios Dique 3. In September 2004 we executed a swap and option agreement with DYPSA (Desarrollos y Proyectos Sociedad Anónima) in connection with lots 1c and 1e of Dique III in Puerto Madero to build under their sole responsibility two residential buildings of 37 and 40 floors. Under this agreement, lot 1c was exchanged for 28.50% of the total square meters to be built in the first tower, and a swap option was granted with respect to a second lot for 31.50% of the square meters to be built in the second tower. These transactions are secured by mortgages for US$ 8.03 million and US$ 10.8 million, respectively. Swaps are conditioned to the approval of the CAPM (Corporación Antiguo Puerto Madero). The second transaction will be also conditioned to meeting the deadlines set for the work Exhibit of the first tower.

Cruceros, Dique 2. This unique project in Puerto Madero, which targets the high-income residential market segment, has achieved 55% of progress. Pre-sale is expected to start by the close of November.

San Martín de Tours. Works in this project, which involves the construction of a top-quality house style residential complex, have already reached 11% of progress. The first stage of foundations and concrete structures of the ground floor has been completed. Pre-sale is expected to start by mid-November.

El Encuentro, Benavídez. As predicted, infrastructure works for this project have started.

Abril, Hudson, Province of Buenos Aires. During the quarter ended September 30, 2004, 4 lots of Abril Country Club were sold. All projected neighborhoods are being marketed and 95% of the lots have already been sold, with 5% remaining available for sale. There are 651 completed houses and 124 houses are under construction.

V. Financial and other transactions

Exercise of warrants. On September 30, 2004, warrants issued by our company were exercised for a total of US$ 5.15 million par value, with US$ 5.0 million par value being exercised by Cresud, resulting in the issue of 9.45 million shares. Total proceeds from this transaction were US$ 6.18 million.

As of September 30, 2004, the amount of outstanding Convertible Bonds and warrants was US$ 87.1 million and US$ 87.7 million, respectively, while the number of outstanding shares totalled 258,252,533.

Below is a detail of the past, current and potential situation of the Convertible Bonds issued on November 14, 2002 under the laws of the state of New York, at a rate of 8% (payable every six months) and maturing on November 14, 2007, convertible at a price of US$ 0.545 per share of Ps.1.00 par value (1.8349 shares per Convertible Bond). The Convertible Bonds also have a warrant attached that allows its holder to purchase 1.8349 shares of Ps.1.00 par value at a price of US$ 0.654 each per Convertible Bond.

APSA: Conversion of Convertible Bonds. During this quarter the holders of APSA's Convertible Bonds exercised their conversion rights. A total of 1,735,659 units of US$ 1 par value each was converted, giving rise to a reduction in debt for an identical amount, while 51,301,534 common shares of Ps.0.1 each were delivered in this regard.

Conversion amounts include conversions made by IRSA for a total of 1.2 million units, in line with its strategy of maintaining its interest in APSA, following dilution of its holding as a consequence of the conversions made by third parties.

Therefore, the amount of outstanding convertible bonds was reduced to US$ 47,329,751 while the number of shares of stock is now 778,983,790 and the corporate stock capital amounts to 77,898,379.

APSA: Improvement in the risk rating of structured debt. In October 2004, Fitch Argentina Calificadora de Riesgo S.A. further upgraded APSA's Ps.85.0 million Notes to raBBB+. In this opportunity, the upgrading was based on the cash flow generation capacity shown by the growth of its performance indicators, along with a conservative capital structure, as some of the reasons explained by the rating agency in its report. On the other hand, Fitch Argentina Calificadora de Riesgo S.A. confirmed Alto Palermo S.A.'s common shares in Category 2.

APSA: Distribution of Dividends. On October 22, 2004, the General Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting of Alto Palermo S.A. (APSA) approved the distribution of Ps.17.9 million as cash dividends (Ps.0.22964 per share of Ps.1.00 par value or Ps.0.9186 per ADR) which will be made available as from November 17, 2004.

VI. Brief comment on prospects for the coming quarter

In the light of the favorable economic environment, we are already developing significant projects and planning interesting proposals for the future in all our business segments.

We expect to enlarge our office segment, taking advantage of the recovery in demand and prices. We intend to continue expanding our hotel business hand in hand with the growth of this industry, and are evaluating the purchase of new assets. The recent upsurge of the shopping center segment, which we expect will continue, makes it a very attractive proposal that adds even more value to our fine asset portfolio, and we thus plan to expand in this segment. We also continue making efforts to improve the quality of our existing offerings and to strictly meet the deadlines set for the Rosario project, and are considering the possibility of new investments. We are also evaluating several projects in our land reserves and the acquisition of new lands for development at attractive prices to add value to our portfolio.

Limited Review Report

To the Shareholders, President and Board of Directors of

IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima

1. We have reviewed the balance sheet of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima at September 30, 2004, and the related statements of income, of changes in shareholders' equity and of cash flows for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 and the complementary notes 1 to 12 and exhibits A, C, D, E, F, G, H and I. Furthermore, we have reviewed the consolidated financial statements of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima with its subsidiaries for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, which are presented as supplementary information. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.
2. We conducted our review in accordance with standards established by Technical Resolution No. 7 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences for limited reviews of financial statements. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.
3. As described in Note 1.6.i.) to the financial statements, as a result of the Company's purchase of Banco Hipotecario S.A. and subsidiaries (BHSA) shares and the exercise of options (as further discussed in Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements), the Company changed its method of accounting for its investments in BHSA. Under the new accounting method, adopted as of June 30, 2004, the investments in BHSA are accounted for under the equity method of accounting. The limited review report on the financial statements of BHSA as of September 30, 2004, dated November 8, 2004, includes an explanatory paragraph describing uncertainties which might affect BHSA. These uncertainties relate to the National government's fulfillment of its obligations with BHSA represented by securities and other financing, and further the corresponding recoverable value of these assets held by BHSA, 99% of which are represented by government securities not included in the Argentine sovereign debt restructuring process. As of September 30, 2004, the investment in BHSA accounts for approximately 8% of the total assets of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima. The future outcome of the uncertainties described before could have an adverse effect in the valuation of these investments.
4. Based on our work and our examinations of the financial statements of this Company and the consolidated financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, on which we issued a qualified report on September 7, 2004 regarding the circumstances indicated in point 3. of this report, we report that:
