CANTV ADVISED OF PROPOSED SALE OF VERIZON S STAKE

IN CANTV TO TELMEX AND AMERICAN MOVIL

Caracas, Venezuela (April 4, 2006) Compañía Anónima Nacional Teléfonos de Venezuela (CANTV)(NYSE: VNT) today announced that it has been advised that Verizon Communications Inc. (NYSE: VZ) has entered into a definitive agreement to sell Verizon s indirect approximate 28.5 percent interest in CANTV to an entity jointly owned by American Movil, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: AMX) and Teléfonos de Mexico, Telmex (NYSE: TMX). According to announcements issued by the parties, the joint venture would acquire Verizon s indirect equity stake in CANTV through the purchase of a Verizon subsidiary holding company that holds all of the CANTV ordinary shares and American Depositary Shares owned by Verizon. According to these announcements, the aggregate purchase price for Verizon s stake would be $676.6 million in cash, representing approximately $3.01 per ordinary CANTV share held by Verizon (or approximately $21.10 per CANTV American Depositary Share held by Verizon, each of which represents seven ordinary CANTV shares). The transaction is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions.

CANTV also stated that, according to the announcements issued by the parties, the joint venture that has agreed to purchase Verizon s stake has also agreed, subject to regulatory approvals, that following the closing of the purchase of Verizon s equity interest in CANTV, the joint venture will make a tender offer for any and all of the remaining shares of CANTV. According to the announcements, the tender offer would be made at the same price per share as paid to Verizon and the purchase price in Bolivars would be at the Bolivar equivalent of such price, based on the Official Exchange Rate.

Pursuant to the requirements of Venezuelan law, the Board of Directors of CANTV will make its recommendation with respect to the offer following the publication of the offering documents.
