Item 8.01. Other Events.

Tercica, Inc. today filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Richmond division alleging Insmmed Incorporated violated the Lanham Act and related statutes relating to false advertising and unfair competition. This action was taken after the presiding Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, the Honorable Sandra Brown Armstrong, dismissed on June 9, 2006 Tercica's complaint for the same violations on the basis that she could not exercise jurisdiction over Insmmed, which is based in Virginia. Her ruling also indicated that the complaint should establish that the requisite false statements were disseminated to consumers of Increlex, e.g., the physicians who purchase and prescribe Increlex, rather than solely to investors. Tercica's re-filing adds new allegations of false and misleading advertising that Insmmed disseminated specifically to pediatric endocrinologists, who for purposes of the Lanham Act and related statutes are among the relevant community of consumers affected.
