June 2, 2006

Company Name: Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd.

IV. Basic Approach to Internal Control Systems and Their Development

The Company determined its basic approach to the development of internal control systems at the meeting of the Board of Directors held in May 2006.

1. Basic approach to the development of internal control systems

(1) System for ensuring legitimacy of the performance of duties by Directors

The Company shall ensure legitimacy of the performance of duties by Directors by developing effective corporate governance and monitoring systems, as well as increasing awareness about compliance.

(2) System for retention and management of information on the performance of duties by Directors

The Company shall retain and manage information on the performance of duties by Directors, in accordance with laws and ordinances and the internal regulations of the Company.

(3) Regulations and other systems for risk management

The Company shall establish regulations for risk management, collect and assess information on risks in an integrated and comprehensive fashion in order to identify material risks, take countermeasures that match the materiality of each risk and seek continuous improvements through monitoring the progress of such countermeasures.

(4) System for ensuring efficiency of the performance of duties by Directors

The Company shall ensure efficiency of the performance of duties by Directors by clarifying business goals through business plans and other measures, and examining the status of achievement of such goals, while seeking to expedite decision-making.

(5) System for ensuring legitimacy of the performance of duties by employees

The Company shall seek to increase awareness of compliance by employees by clarifying the Company's approach to compliance. The Company shall also ensure legitimacy of the performance of duties by employees by developing effective monitoring systems.

Table of Contents

- (6) Matters concerning employees who assist Corporate Auditors in auditing, and matters concerning independency of such employees from Directors

The Company shall establish an organization independent from Directors and maintain a staff for Corporate Auditors in order to enhance the effectiveness of audits by Corporate Auditors and facilitate the effective performance of audits.

- (7) System for making reports to Corporate Auditors

The Company shall ensure opportunities and a system by which Directors and employees, etc. can make reports to Corporate Auditors.

- (8) System for ensuring efficient execution of audits by Corporate Auditors

The Company shall develop a system in which effective audits may be executed in accordance with the Audit Plan established by Corporate Auditors each year.

- (9) System for ensuring adequacy of business at Matsushita's group companies

The Company shall ensure that group companies follow the management policy and management philosophy of the Company and the basic approach in (1) through (8) above in order to ensure adequate execution of businesses for the Matsushita Group as a whole, while at the same time respecting the group companies' autonomous management.

2. Status of development

- (1) System for ensuring legitimacy of the performance of duties by Directors

The Company established internal regulations such as the Code of Conduct of the Matsushita Group, which specifically provide guidelines for the performance of management philosophy, the Code of Ethics for Directors and Executive Officers, and other internal rules. The Company also delegates responsibility relating to execution of business to Executive Officers, pursuant to resolutions of the Board of Directors. The Company also realigned the role and structure of the Board of Directors to concentrate on corporate strategies and the supervision of business domain companies, and under such system the responsibility of Directors is clarified. Moreover, audits are conducted by Corporate Auditors and the Board of Corporate Auditors. The Company also has a Management Committee and a non-statutory full-time Senior Auditor at each internal divisional company which respectively correspond to the Board of Directors and the Corporate Auditors at the Company.
