CANTV BOARD OF DIRECTORS PROPOSES

DIVIDEND PAYMENT

Caracas, Venezuela (February 15, 2007) Compañía Anónima Nacional Teléfonos de Venezuela (CANTV) (NYSE: VNT) announced today that its Board of Directors will propose to shareholders the payment of a dividend of Bs. 922.07 per share (equivalent to US$3.003 per ADS at today's official exchange rate of Bs. 2,150 per US$1). This dividend is subject to shareholders' approval at the Annual Shareholders Meeting, which is scheduled to be held on March 30, 2007.

This dividend amount represents the minimum required to be declared and paid by Cantv under applicable Venezuelan law.

Under the Memorandum of Understanding signed between Verizon Communication Inc. and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela on February 12, 2007 related to the proposed nationalization of Cantv, the payment of the dividend will result in a downward adjustment to the proposed offer price if its record date is set prior to the closing date as defined in the agreement.

A portion of the dividend will be subject to withholding tax as the retained earnings from which such portion is sourced has not been subject to income tax. This is the first time that CANTV is required to withhold on a dividend for tax purposes. The applicable withholding tax rate depends on the fiscal residence of the recipient of the dividend up to a maximum rate of 34%. The taxable portion of the US$3.003 dividend is US$0.690.

Since dividends are paid in bolivars, under the exchange control regime implemented in January 2003, the repatriation of dividends in US dollars for American Depositary Shares (ADS) holders and foreign investors must be requested from CADIVI (the Government's Commission for Administration of Foreign Exchange). The timing for the request and final approval depend on the fulfillment of formalities and documentation with CADIVI.

CANTV BOARD OF DIRECTORS APPROVED

THE DEPLOYMENT OF A GSM NETWORK

Caracas, Venezuela (February 15, 2007) Compañía Anónima Nacional Teléfonos de Venezuela (Cantv) (NYSE: VNT), announced today that it approved the deployment of a GSM network, which will coexist with its current CDMA/EV-DO network. With this GSM network, Movilnet, Cantv's mobile subsidiary will be in a position to complement its products and service offerings in response to the growing demands of the Venezuelan mobile telecommunications service market.

Given the current penetration levels and competitive conditions, the challenges of capturing and retaining subscribers is expected to increase. The use of GSM technology will allow the development of competitive offers targeted to the high value customer segment where GSM will be the technology of choice in 2007.

With this decision, Cantv believes it will be able to strengthen its market share position while seeking to gain revenue share leadership.

Movilnet's customers served with CDMA technology are expected to continue to benefit from innovative products and services, and also enjoy superior data service offerings. During 2007, the Company expects to continue investing to expand capacity and coverage of its CDMA network.

GSM network deployment is expected to begin as soon as supply contracts are signed. We anticipate such contracts to be signed in March, 2007. Revenue estimates, costs and investments contained in Guidance 2007 published today take into account the effect of the proposed investment in the new network for 2007.

Movilnet's GSM network deployment plan assumes an investment of US$250 million during 2007 and 2008 to achieve coverage equivalence to CDMA. Cantv aims to capture more than 600 thousand GSM subscribers by the end of 2008.

Movilnet expects to take advantage of the knowledge acquired over the last several years deploying and operating different technologies, as well as the versatility in the operation and integration of its current systems and networks to ensure high efficiency and quality levels on managing coexisting networks.

Cantv will continue to evaluate the evolution of both technologies together with the Venezuelan market preferences and spectrum availability to assess its expansion plans in the coming years.
