We are writing to you in our role as Master Trustee for the Prudential Financial, Inc. (PFI) Common Stock Fund (the Fund). The Fund is an investment option under The Prudential Employee Savings Plan (PESP). PESP records show that you had a balance in the Fund on March 11, 2008, equivalent to at least one full share of PFI Common Stock. This entitles you to instruct us on how to vote the Fund's stock holdings at the Prudential Financial, Inc. Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 13, 2008.

Your voting instructions will be kept confidential and will not be available to your employer, the PESP plan administrator or to us. Please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions on the back of this letter for additional information.

Voting Instructions

Please note that you will not be voting directly. Only the Master Trustee is authorized to vote shares held by the Fund at the shareholders meeting. However, you can provide us with instructions as to how to vote on your behalf on the matters described in the proxy statement.

Enclosed is a Voting Instruction Form regarding the matters described in the proxy statement, which will be voted upon at the shareholders meeting. As indicated on the form, you can provide your voting instructions via the Internet, by telephone or by postal mail. Whichever method you choose, we must receive your instructions no later than May 7, 2008.

The voting instructions we receive from you and others by that deadline will be applied proportionately to the shares of eligible voters who do not provide voting instructions (undirected shares). If you prefer to provide voting instructions for yourself only and do not want them applied to undirected shares, you can opt out by checking the appropriate box on the front of the Voting Instruction Form and returning the form by postal mail only. This opting out cannot be done via the Internet or by telephone.

Frequently Asked Questions

What makes me eligible to vote?

You are an eligible voter if you:

are a participant, beneficiary or alternate payee (under a qualified domestic relations order) in The Prudential Employee Savings Plan (PESP), and had a balance in the PFI Common Stock Fund (the Fund) equivalent to at least one full share of PFI Common Stock on March 11, 2008.

Why is the date that counts for PESP participants earlier than for other PFI shareholders?

The Trustee only gets proxy voting rights for the number of shares the Fund actually held on March 14, 2008, which is the corporate record date for the Prudential Financial, Inc. Annual Meeting of Shareholders. March 11, 2008, was the last date for participants to execute transactions that settled (by delivery of stock to the Trustee) by March 14, 2008. Therefore, March 11, 2008, is the date used for allocating proxy voting rights among PESP participants.

How do I vote?

A Voting Instruction Form is enclosed. You may vote online at www.investorvote.com, by telephone at 1-800-652-VOTE (8683), or by returning your completed form by mail. For the Fund's Trustee to vote on your behalf at the Prudential Financial, Inc. Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 13, 2008, we must receive your voting instructions no later than 11:59 p.m., EDT, on May 7, 2008

The Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 13, 2008, which provides additional information on the matters to be voted upon, the 2007 Annual Report, and additional proxy materials are available on the Company's Intranet site. Most active employees have access to these documents and the ability to order a printed copy on the Investor Relations Web site (www.investor.prudential.com). If you do not have electronic access, please call 1-877-998-ROCK (7625) at any time to request a copy of these documents. If you are not currently an active employee of Prudential Financial, Inc. or its affiliates, the company's annual report and proxy statement are enclosed.

How many votes do I get?

You get one vote for each share of PFI Common Stock attributable to your account in the Fund. Your account balance consists of units in the Fund rather than shares of PFI Common Stock. About 98% of the Fund is PFI Common Stock. For liquidity purposes, the rest of the Fund is in a money market fund. The number of shares of PFI Common Stock that you may vote is determined by multiplying your dollar balance in the Fund on March 11, 2008, by 98%, then dividing the result by the PFI Common Stock's closing share price for that day.

What happens when eligible voters don't provide voting instructions in time?

Shares attributable to their accounts will be considered undirected shares for voting purposes. The voting instructions you and others provide by 11:59 p.m., EDT, on May 7, 2008, will be applied proportionately to the undirected shares in PESP unless you opt out of this process.

How do I opt out of the voting process for undirected shares?

You can opt out by checking the appropriate box on the Voting Instruction Form and returning it by postal mail for receipt by May 7, 2008. It is not possible to opt out via the Internet or by telephone.

Why can I vote shares attributable to others' accounts?

PESP provides that plan participants who do not opt out are named fiduciaries for purposes of voting the undirected shares of the PFI Common Stock held under PESP. Under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), plan fiduciaries are required to act prudently in making proxy-voting decisions by investigating the relevant facts and making a decision solely in the interests of the participants and beneficiaries. You will not be considered a fiduciary for the undirected shares if you opt out of having your vote applied to them. If more than 60% of the eligible voters opt out, we will hire an independent fiduciary to direct the Fund's Trustee on how to vote the undirected shares.

How do I know that my voting instructions are confidential?

PESP's policy is to ensure confidentiality of participants' Fund investment decisions (except as otherwise required by applicable law). Prudential Trust Company retained Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (Computershare) to receive and tally voting instructions from eligible voters in the Fund. Computershare will provide the Fund Trustee only aggregate information on voting instructions received. No information that would identify individual voters will be provided to the Trustee, the plan administrator or your employer.
