ITEM 8.01. Other Events.

On September 23, 2011, we were notified that an award in favor of the claimant, Barracuda & Caratinga Leasing Company B.V. ( Barracuda ) was issued by the panel hearing an arbitration proceeding filed by Barracuda, against Kellogg Brown & Root LLC (a subsidiary of KBR, Inc.

KBR LLC ) in connection with a contract between the parties related to the development of the Barracuda and Caratinga oil fields. The dispute centered on certain subsea bolts used in developing the field that were allegedly defective and the award finds KBR LLC liable for the costs of replacing the bolts. The total amount of the award is approximately $200 million, which includes the estimated costs for bolt replacement and costs incurred by Barracuda in the arbitration, which will bear interest from the date of the award. Under the Master Separation Agreement between us and Halliburton Company, Halliburton has agreed to indemnify us and any of our greater than 50%-owned subsidiaries as of November 2006 (which includes KBR LLC), for all out-of-pocket cash costs and expenses (except for our own ongoing legal costs), or cash settlements or cash arbitration awards resulting from the replacement of the subsea bolts installed in connection with the Barracuda-Caratinga project. We are not aware of any uncertainties related to the indemnity from Halliburton or any material limitations on our ability to recover the amounts awarded to Barracuda described above and so we do not expect this award to financially impact us.
