This Amendment No. 3 (Amendment No. 3) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on March 26, 2013 and amended on April 4, 2013 and April 5, 2013 (as amended, the Schedule TO) and relates to the offer of Odysseus Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Purchaser), to purchase all outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.001 (the Shares), of Obagi Medical Products, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Obagi), at a price of $24.00 per Share, net to the seller in cash, without interest (less any required withholding taxes) (the Offer Price), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated March 26, 2013 (together with any amendments or supplements thereto, the Offer to Purchase) and in the related Letter of Transmittal (together with any amendments or supplements thereto, the Letter of Transmittal and, together with the Offer to Purchase, the Offer), which are annexed to and filed with the Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively. The Purchaser is a wholly owned subsidiary of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, a Delaware corporation (VPI), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc., a Canadian corporation (Valeant). This Amendment No. 3 is being filed on behalf of VPI, Valeant and the Purchaser.

All the information set forth in the Offer to Purchase, to the extent incorporated by reference therein, is hereby amended and supplemented as set forth below. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Offer to Purchase.

ITEMS 1-11.

The Offer to Purchase and Items 1 through 11 of the Schedule TO, to the extent such Items incorporate by reference the information contained in the Offer to Purchase, are hereby amended and supplemented by:

Amending and supplementing the information set forth in Section 11 of the Offer to Purchase entitled "Background of the Offer; Past Contracts or Negotiations with Obagi" by adding the following paragraph at the end of the section:

On April 8, 2013, Merz issued a press release announcing that it had withdrawn the Merz Proposal of $22.00 per Share five days after the announcement that Valeant had increased the Offer Price to $24.00 per Share pursuant to the Amendment to the Merger Agreement.

The section entitled "Legal Proceedings" in Section 16 of the Offer to Purchase entitled "Certain Legal Matters: Regulatory Approvals" is hereby deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

The following complaints have been filed in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement: (i) a complaint in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, dated March 22, 2013, and amended on April 1, 2013 and on April 8, 2013, captioned Michael Rubin v. Obagi Medical Products, Inc., et al.; (ii) a complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles, dated March 22, 2013, and amended on March 27, 2013, captioned Gary Haas v. Obagi Medical Products, Inc., et al.; and (iii) a complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles, dated March 27, 2013, captioned Drew Leonard v. Obagi Medical Products, Inc., et al. Each complaint is a purported shareholder class action and names as defendants Obagi and the members of the Obagi Board. The two complaints filed in California also name VPI and the Purchaser as defendants. The plaintiffs' allegations in each action are substantially similar. The plaintiffs allege that the members of the Obagi Board breached their fiduciary duties to Obagi's stockholders in connection with the sale of the company, and the California complaints further allege that Obagi, VPI and the Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. In support of their purported claims, the plaintiffs allege that the proposed transaction between Obagi and the Purchaser undervalues Obagi, involves an inadequate sales process and includes preclusive deal protection devices. The plaintiffs in the Rubin case in Delaware and in the Haas case in California also have filed amended complaints, which add allegations challenging the adequacy of the disclosures concerning the transaction. The plaintiffs seek to obtain damages and to enjoin the transaction. The plaintiffs also seek attorneys' and expert fees and costs.

While Obagi and the other defendants believe that each of the aforementioned lawsuits is without merit and that they have valid defenses to all claims, in an effort to minimize the cost and expense of any litigation relating to the lawsuits, on April 12, 2013, the defendants entered into a memorandum of understanding ("MOU") with the plaintiffs to the actions pending in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and the Superior Court of the State of California, pursuant to which Obagi and such parties agreed in principle, and subject to certain conditions, to settle those stockholder lawsuits. Subject to the approval of the appropriate court and further definitive documentation, the MOU establishes a framework to resolve the allegations against the defendants in connection with the Offer and the Merger and contemplates a release and settlement by Obagi's stockholders of all claims against Obagi and the other defendants and their respective affiliates and agents in connection with the Offer and the Merger. In exchange for such release and settlement, pursuant to the terms of the MOU, the parties agreed, after arm's-length negotiations, that Obagi would file an amendment amending and supplementing the applicable disclosures of the Schedule 14D-9 as set forth therein. The settlement is contingent upon, among other things, completion of the Offer and the subsequent consummation of the Merger. If the MOU is not approved and such conditions are not satisfied, Obagi will continue to vigorously defend these actions.
