Item 5.02(d) Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Appointment of New Non-Employee Director; Stock Option Grant

Effective September 27, 2013, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Zebra Technologies Corporation (the Company) elected Janice Roberts to serve as a Class III director of the Company. The Board also appointed Ms. Roberts to serve as a member of the Compensation Committee.

A copy of the Company's press release announcing the election of Ms. Roberts is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Board also approved both the cash and equity-based compensation retainers of Ms. Roberts for service as a director and as a member of the Compensation Committee. Both the cash and equity retainers are prorated portions of the annual retainers payable to non-employee directors. The stock award was granted under Zebra's 2011 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which was approved by stockholders in 2011. The stock award is vested in full upon grant. The 2011 Long-Term Incentive Plan is listed as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the election of Ms. Roberts to the Board, the Board approved an indemnification agreement between the Company and Ms. Roberts. The indemnification agreement is in the form approved by the Board in 2010. The following description of the form of indemnification agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the agreement, is listed as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Service to Zebra and Indemnification. Individuals agree to continue to serve as a director or officer of Zebra and, at the request of Zebra, as a director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of another entity on behalf of Zebra. Under the agreement, an individual who is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or a participant in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or other proceeding, other than a proceeding by or in the right of Zebra, is indemnified for all expenses, judgments, liabilities, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred, as long as the individual acted in good faith and in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Zebra and, as to a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the individual's conduct was unlawful. With respect to proceedings by or in the right of Zebra, there is no indemnity for judgments, liabilities, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement since these amounts accrue to Zebra. However, indemnity for judgments, liabilities, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement can be made if Delaware law subsequently allows. Either disinterested directors or independent counsel will determine if an individual is entitled to indemnification. When determining whether an entitlement to indemnification exists, the disinterested directors or independent counsel must presume the individual is entitled to indemnification and Zebra has the burden to overcome that presumption.

Exceptions to Indemnification. The agreement provides that there will not be an indemnity for (1) insurance actually paid to the individual, (2) short-swing profits under Section 16 of the Exchange Act for transactions involving equity securities of Zebra, (3) for clawbacks under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 of incentive compensation to the chief executive officer or chief financial officer, and (4) proceedings initiated by the individual.

Advancement of Expenses. Zebra will advance expenses incurred in connection with a proceeding within 30 days after Zebra receives a statement requesting an advance. The request can be made prior to or after final disposition of a proceeding. Advances are unsecured and interest-free.

Table of Contents

Notice to Zebra. An individual must notify Zebra of any matter with respect to which the individual intends to seek indemnification or advancement of expenses.

Rights of Individuals. Individuals are entitled to a court proceeding to determine their rights under the agreement, although the individual has the right to choose arbitration. The rights of indemnification and to receive advancement of expenses are not exclusive of any other rights the individual may have under applicable law, Zebra's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Zebra's By-laws, a resolution of directors, or otherwise. If Zebra maintains a directors' and officers' insurance policy, the individual must be covered under the policy. Zebra is subrogated to any other rights of recovery the individual may have to the extent Zebra makes a payment under the agreement.

Effective September 27, 2013 the Board also approved an increase in the size of the Board from 7 members to 8 members, including six independent directors.
