On June 4, 2014, Rakesh Sarna, Executive Vice President, Group President Americas, of Hyatt Hotels Corporation (the Company), notified the Company that he will step down as the Company's Executive Vice President, Group President Americas, effective June 5, 2014 and retire on August 31, 2014. In order to ensure an orderly transition of duties and responsibilities, the Company and Mr. Sarna entered into a Transition Agreement (the Transition Agreement) on June 5, 2014. Under the Transition Agreement, Mr. Sarna will be entitled to the following compensation and benefits following his separation, in addition to already vested rights and benefits: (i) a bonus equal to $475,000 for 2014, payable in 2015 at such time as the annual bonuses for 2014 are paid by the Company to its executive officers; (ii) $712,500 payable as part of the first normally scheduled payroll following the six month anniversary of his separation from the Company; (iii) $750,000 payable as part of the first normally scheduled payroll following the effective date of his required general release of claims; (iv) continued health and life benefits for twelve months following his separation; (v) reimbursement of limited legal expenses in connection with the Transition Agreement; and (vi) such other items as are described in the Transition Agreement.

All such compensation and benefits are conditioned upon Mr. Sarna: (1) not terminating his employment prior to August 31, 2014; (2) not being terminated for cause (as defined in the Transition Agreement) by the Company; (3) executing and not revoking a general release of claims; and (4) not violating any of his non-compete, non-solicitation, non-disparagement or confidential information covenants. Under the Transition Agreement, Mr. Sarna also agreed to secure his obligations under the non-solicitation covenant by granting to the Company a security interest in his interest in all cash proceeds or shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company delivered upon exercise, settlement or vesting, as applicable, of his Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock Units, and Restricted Stock awards which are unvested as of his retirement date, and all proceeds received thereon.
