On October 8, 2014, CMR entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with the Company (the "Asset Purchase Agreement") to sell the Business to the Company. Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, on December 1, 2014, CMR sold to the Company Kantar's customer contracts and customer relationships for television audience measurement services in the United States (the "Purchased Assets"). In consideration for the purchase of the Purchased Assets, the Company assumed specified liabilities of CMR and issued 1,526,790 shares of Common Stock to CMR. Immediately thereafter, CMR sold to Lux Gamma Three all of such 1,526,790 shares of Common Stock for aggregate cash consideration of $128,403,039.

On October 8, 2014, Lux Gamma Three entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with the Company (the Stock Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which Lux Gamma Three agreed to purchase 943,834 shares of Common Stock from the Company for aggregate consideration of $55,846,653. Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, CMR and Lux Gamma Three (collectively, the Investor) agreed to specified restrictions on the transfer and acquisition of additional shares of the Company's common stock. The Investor Rights Agreement also grants the Investor the right to request that the Company register the Common Stock it holds in various circumstances and the right to appoint a board observer, who will be authorized to attend all meetings of the Company's Board except in specified circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Asset Purchase Agreement and Investor Rights Agreement (collectively, the Agreements), and the transactions they contemplate, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of the Agreements, which are filed as exhibits hereto and are incorporated by reference herein. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Agreements were made only for purposes of each particular agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreements; and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each contracting party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, CMR, Lux Gamma Three or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Agreements, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures. Accordingly, investors should read the representations and warranties in the Agreements not in isolation but only in conjunction with the other information about the Company, CMR or Lux Gamma Three that the respective companies include in reports, statements and other filings such parties make with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Except as set forth in this Schedule 13D, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 hereof or between such persons and any person with respect to any securities of the Company, including but not limited to transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
