PROSPECTUS

Up to 4,589,646 Shares

Ciena Corporation

Common Stock

This prospectus relates to up to 4,589,646 shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Common Stock). The shares of Common Stock are issuable upon conversion of the $50,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 8.0% convertible senior notes due 2019 (the Notes) that we assumed as a consequence of our acquisition (the Merger) of Cyan, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Cyan).

The initial conversion rate of the Notes immediately prior to the Merger was 409.3998 shares of Cyan common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes. As a result of the Merger, the Notes became initially convertible into Reference Property of 409.3998 Ciena Consideration Units, each of which consists of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus a cash portion equal to $0.63, without interest. The conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain specified events, and, upon the occurrence of a make-whole fundamental change (as defined in the indenture under which the Notes were issued), the Company will, in certain circumstances, increase the conversion rate by a number of Additional Shares for a holder that elects to convert its Notes in connection with such make-whole fundamental change. As a result of the Merger, which constitutes a make-whole fundamental change and a fundamental change under the indenture under which the Notes were issued, the Notes, which were otherwise not convertible before January 15, 2016, became convertible up to, and including, the business day immediately prior to the related Fundamental Change Purchase Date (as defined in the indenture under which the Notes were issued) and all Notes surrendered for conversion at any time from August 3, 2015 to, and including, the business day immediately prior to the related Fundamental Change Purchase Date (as defined in the indenture under which the Notes were issued) shall receive Additional Shares in the form of additional shares of Ciena Consideration Units as determined by the Company by reference to the make-whole table in the indenture under which the Notes were issued. The Company has determined that the Additional Shares per $1,000 principal amount of Notes converted during this Make-Whole Fundamental Change Period shall consist of 51.0383 Ciena Consideration Units, as a result of which, during the Make-Whole Fundamental Change Period, each $1,000 principal amount of Notes will be converted into approximately 91.79 shares of Common Stock and $290.08 in cash.

If any holders elect to convert their Notes, including any conversion made in connection with the Merger, we will not receive any proceeds in connection with such conversion.

Our Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CIEN. On July 31, 2015, the last reported sale price of our Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $25.45 per share.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds in connection with conversion of the Notes, if any such conversion occurs.

Table of Contents

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The following description of the Notes and the right of the holders to convert the Notes in connection with the Merger does not purport to be a complete summary of the Notes or the Indenture under which the Notes were issued and may not contain all of the information about the Notes or the Indenture that is important to you. We encourage you to read carefully the Indenture in its entirety before making any decisions regarding conversion of the Notes.

On August 3, 2015, upon the consummation of the Merger, Cyan had outstanding $50,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 8.0% convertible senior secured notes due 2019 (the "Notes"). The Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture, dated as of December 12, 2014, among Cyan, the subsidiary guarantors from time to time party thereto and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee ("Trustee") (as supplemented by a First Supplemental Indenture dated as of April 27, 2015, the "Base Indenture").

On August 3, 2015, upon the consummation of the Merger, Cyan (as the surviving corporation of the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company), the Company and the Trustee entered into a Second Supplemental Indenture for the purpose of, among other things, providing for the conversion of the Notes into the merger consideration payable in the Merger and providing for the guarantee by the Company of all of Cyan's obligations under the Notes and the Indenture, respectively. Upon the consummation of the Second Step Merger, Cyan, the Company and the Trustee entered into a Third Supplemental Indenture providing for the Company to become the primary obligor under the Notes, as the successor to Cyan. We refer to the Base Indenture, as supplemented by the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Third Supplemental Indenture, as the "Indenture".

Conversion Rights

The initial conversion rate of the Notes immediately prior to the Merger was 409.3998 shares of Cyan common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes. As a result of the Merger, the Notes became initially convertible into "Reference Property" of 409.3998 Ciena Consideration Units, each of which unit consists of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus a cash portion equal to $0.63, without interest. The conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain specified events, and, upon the occurrence of a make-whole fundamental change (as defined in the Indenture), the Company will, in certain circumstances, increase the conversion rate by a number of "Additional Shares" for a holder that elects to convert its Notes in connection with such make-whole fundamental change.

As a result of the Merger, which constitutes a make-whole fundamental change and a fundamental change under the Indenture, the Notes, which were otherwise not convertible before January 15, 2016, became convertible until the Fundamental Change Purchase Date (as defined in the Indenture) and all Notes surrendered for conversion at any time from August 3, 2015 to, and including, the business day immediately prior to the related Fundamental Change Purchase Date (as defined in the Indenture) shall receive "Additional Shares" in the form of additional shares of Ciena Consideration Units as determined by the Company by reference to the make-whole table in Section 14.04(d) of the Indenture. The Company has determined that the "Additional Shares" per $1,000 principal amount of Notes converted during this "Make-Whole Fundamental Change Period" is equal to 51.0383 Ciena Consideration Units and the relevant Conversion Rate shall be increased during this "Make Whole Fundamental Change Period" to 460.4381 Ciena Consideration Units. As a result, a converting holder will receive approximately 91.79 shares of Common Stock and $290.08 in cash for each $1,000 principal amount of Notes surrendered for conversion during this period. After the "Make-Whole Fundamental Change Period", the Notes will not generally be convertible until January 15, 2016, except as described below.

Prior to January 15, 2016 the Notes will be convertible only as a result of specified corporate events. Upon conversion, the Notes will be settled in cash, Ciena Consideration Units (each unit consisting of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus a cash portion equal to $0.63, without interest) or any combination thereof at the Company's option. On and after January 15, 2016 and prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding June 15, 2019, the Notes will be convertible only under the following circumstances: (1) if, for at least 20 out of 30 consecutive trading days ending within five trading days prior to a conversion date, the last reported sale price of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus the Cash Component exceeds the applicable conversion price on each such trading day; (2) if, for at least five consecutive trading days prior to the five business days on which a conversion notice is given the trading price of any $1,000 principal amount of Notes is less than 98% of the product of the last reported sale price of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus the Cash Component and the conversion rate for the Notes; (3) upon the occurrence of specified corporate events; or (4) if the Company calls the Notes for redemption. On or after June 15, 2019 until the close of the business day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert all or a portion of their Notes at any time, regardless of the foregoing circumstances.

A Note will not, prior to its conversion, confer upon its holder or such holder's transferee, the right to vote or receive dividends, or consent or receive notice as stockholders in respect of any meeting of our stockholders for the election of our directors or any other matter, or any rights whatsoever as stockholders of Ciena.

Interest Make-Whole Payment

On or after January 15, 2016, if, for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during the 30 consecutive trading day period ending within five trading days prior to a conversion date, 0.19936 of the last reported sale price of the Common Stock plus the Cash Component exceeds the applicable conversion price on each such trading day, the Company will, in addition to the other consideration payable or deliverable in connection with a conversion, make an interest make-whole payment to converting holders equal to the sum of the present value of the remaining scheduled payments of interest that would have been made on the Notes to be converted had such Notes remained outstanding until December 15, 2017 computed using a discount rate equal to 2%.

Fundamental Change Permits Holders to Require the Company to Purchase Convertible Notes

Because the Merger constituted a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Indenture), the Company will make an offer to repurchase outstanding Notes on a date to be specified by the Company for such repurchase (the Fundamental Change Purchase Date), at a purchase price of 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be purchased, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the Fundamental Change Purchase Date. If the Company undergoes a future Fundamental Change, as defined in the Indenture, subject to certain conditions, holders may require the Company to purchase for cash all or any portion of their Notes in principal amounts of $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be purchased, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the future Fundamental Change Purchase Date.

Optional Redemption by the Issuer

The Company may not redeem the Notes prior to December 20, 2017. The Company may redeem for cash all, but not less than all, of the Notes, at its option, on or after December 20, 2017, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date. Such redemption option may only be exercised if the last reported sale price of 0.19936 shares of Common Stock plus the Cash Component for at least 20 trading out of any 30 consecutive trading day period ending within three trading days prior to the date the Company delivers written notice of the redemption is greater than or equal to 140% of the conversion price on each applicable trading day. No sinking fund is provided for the Notes.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Delaware General Corporation Law. Section 145(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL states that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145(c) of the DGCL provides that to the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 145(d) of the DGCL states that any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145. Such determination shall be made with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the stockholders.

Section 145(f) of the DGCL states that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

Section 145(g) of the DGCL provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of Section 145.

Section 145(j) of the DGCL states that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) for willful or negligent conduct in paying dividends or repurchasing stock out of other than lawfully available funds, or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. No such provision shall eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when such provision becomes effective.

Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Article EIGHT of the Certificate of Incorporation provides that no director shall be personally liable for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided, however, that such clause shall not apply to any liability of a director (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders,

(2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) liability under § 174 of the DGCL, or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. In addition, our Bylaws provide that we shall indemnify the persons entitled to be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and
- (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser,
 - (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
- (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
