Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The Exchange

On January 5, 2018, Skyline Corporation (Skyline or the Company) and Champion Enterprises Holdings, LLC (Champion Holdings) entered into a Share Contribution & Exchange Agreement (the Exchange Agreement) pursuant to which the two companies will combine their operations. Under the Exchange Agreement, (i) Champion Holdings will contribute to Skyline all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Champion Holdings wholly-owned operating subsidiaries through the contribution of all of the issued and outstanding equity interests of each of Champion Home Builders, Inc., a Delaware corporation (CHB), and CHB International B.V., a Dutch private limited liability company (CIBV) (the shares of stock of CHB and CIBV to be contributed to Skyline, the Contributed Shares), and (ii) in exchange for the Contributed Shares, Skyline will issue to Champion Holdings that number of shares of Skyline common stock, $0.0277 par value per share, such that at the closing, Champion Holdings (or its members) will hold 84.5%, and Skyline's shareholders will hold 15.5%, of the common stock of the combined company on a fully-diluted basis (the Shares Issuance). The contribution of the Contributed Shares by Champion Holdings to Skyline, and the Shares Issuance by Skyline to Champion Holdings, are collectively referred to herein as the Exchange. In connection with the closing of the Exchange, Skyline will file the Company Charter Amendment (described below) and will change its name to Skyline Champion Corporation.

Immediately prior to the closing of the Exchange, Skyline will amend and restate its articles of incorporation to provide for, among other things, (i) the change in the name of the Company as described above; (ii) an increase in the number of authorized shares of common stock of the Company from 15,000,000 to 115,000,000 shares; (iii) a provision stating that the number of directors shall be as specified in the Company's bylaws; and (iv) certain other ministerial revisions to update and modernize the articles of incorporation and remove various extraneous provisions (collectively, the Company Charter Amendment).

Representations and Warranties; Covenants

Each of Skyline and Champion Holdings makes customary representations and warranties in the Exchange Agreement. Skyline also has agreed to various covenants in the Exchange Agreement, including, without limitation, to cause a special meeting of Skyline's shareholders to be held as promptly as practicable to consider and approve the Company Charter Amendment and the Shares Issuance (the Company Shareholder Approval Matters), and to file a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) relating to such special meeting.

The Exchange Agreement contains customary covenants governing the conduct of Skyline's and Champion Holdings' respective businesses, access to information pertaining to the parties' businesses, and notification of certain events, among other things, between the date of the Exchange Agreement and the closing. Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, Skyline is subject to customary no-shop restrictions which restrict its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and to provide information to and engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals. However, prior to receiving approval of the Company Shareholder Approval Matters by Skyline's shareholders, Skyline may, under certain circumstances, provide information to and participate in discussions with third parties with respect to certain unsolicited alternative acquisition proposals as provided in the Exchange Agreement.

The Exchange Agreement does not restrict Champion Holdings and its subsidiaries from negotiating, soliciting, discussing, or cooperating with any other person or taking similar actions regarding (i) an initial public offering of Champion Holdings or its subsidiaries' securities, or (ii) a change in control transaction involving Champion Holdings or its subsidiaries; provided that, Champion Holdings may not enter into or close such alternate transaction unless Skyline has received an unsolicited third-party acquisition proposal and Skyline has begun engaging in discussions with or has furnished confidential information to such third party, and Champion Holdings terminates the Exchange

Agreement, in each case, as provided in the Exchange Agreement. If Champion Holdings terminates the Exchange Agreement under these circumstances, and the Skyline board of directors has not made an adverse change in its recommendation of the Exchange to its shareholders as provided in the Exchange Agreement, no termination fee is payable by Skyline to Champion Holdings.

The Exchange Agreement provides that, prior to the closing of the Exchange, Skyline may declare and pay a special cash dividend to its shareholders in the aggregate amount of Skyline's net cash (generally defined in the Exchange Agreement as Skyline's aggregate cash and cash equivalents, less the aggregate amount of Skyline's indebtedness and debt-like items, and less Skyline's aggregate transaction expenses incurred in connection with the Exchange, each as determined as of the close of business on the last business day immediately prior to the date Skyline gives notice of the special dividend to the NYSE American), if any. If declared, Skyline must pay the special dividend at least one business day prior to the closing date. The Exchange Agreement also permits Champion Holdings to declare and pay a special dividend or distribution to its members in the amount of Champion Holdings' net cash (generally determined in a similar fashion to Skyline's net cash, as described above), if any.

Closing Conditions

Consummation of the Exchange is subject to various conditions, including, without limitation, (i) approval by Skyline's shareholders of the Company Shareholder Approval Matters; (ii) the receipt of all required regulatory approvals (without the imposition of any burdensome divestiture condition on the parties, as described in the Exchange Agreement); (iii) the absence of any law, order, or legal injunction which prohibits the consummation of the Exchange and the absence of certain other litigation matters; (iv) the NYSE American listing application for the Company's shares to be issued in the Shares Issuance shall have been conditionally approved; (v) the accuracy of the parties' respective representations and warranties and the performance of their respective obligations; (vi) the absence of the occurrence of a material adverse effect with respect to each of Skyline and Champion Holdings, and their subsidiaries, each taken as a whole, between the date of the Exchange Agreement and closing; and (vii) certain other customary conditions.

Termination and Termination Fees

The Exchange Agreement contains certain termination rights in favor of Skyline and Champion Holdings, as set forth therein. Upon the termination of the Exchange Agreement under specified circumstances, and upon Skyline entering into or closing another acquisition transaction within 12 months after termination of the Exchange Agreement, Skyline may be required to pay Champion Holdings a termination fee of $10 million. Any termination fee triggered under the Exchange Agreement will accrue upon Skyline entering into or closing another acquisition transaction within 12 months after termination, but the fee is not payable by Skyline to Champion Holdings until two business days after the date that the other acquisition closes or is terminated unless the board of directors of Skyline adversely changes its favorable recommendation of the Exchange to its shareholders and Champion Holdings terminates the Exchange Agreement as a result of such change in recommendation, in which case, a termination fee of $3 million in cash is immediately due and payable by Skyline to Champion Holdings upon such termination, and if Skyline subsequently enters into or closes another acquisition transaction within 12 months after termination, an additional $7 million cash termination fee would accrue and would become payable two business days after the date that the other acquisition closes or is terminated.

In addition to the termination fee, if the Exchange Agreement is terminated by either Skyline or Champion Holdings because of Skyline's shareholders do not approve the Company Shareholder Approval Matters, then Skyline must pay Champion Holdings $2 million as reimbursement for fees and expenses incurred by Champion Holdings in connection with the Exchange Agreement. Any expense reimbursement paid by Skyline will be credited against, and thereby reduce, any termination fee that may become due and payable.

The Exchange Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of Skyline, acting upon the unanimous recommendation of the special committee comprised of independent directors of Skyline's board (the Special Committee), and unanimously approved by the Board of Managers of Champion Holdings.

Voting Agreement

In addition, on January 5, 2018, Champion Holdings and all of the members of the Board of Directors and certain executive officers of Skyline (the Supporting Shareholders), in their capacities as shareholders, entered into a voting agreement (the Voting Agreement) pursuant to which each Supporting Shareholder agreed, among other things, to vote his shares of Skyline common stock in favor of the Company Shareholder Approval Matters. A copy of the voting agreement is attached to the Exchange Agreement and is also included with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Other Transaction Agreements

Edgar Filing: SKYLINE CORP - Form 8-K

In connection with the closing, Champion Holdings and certain other parties will enter into various ancillary agreements governing activities of the parties after closing. Skyline, Champion Holdings, certain of Champion Holdings' members (the Champion Sponsors), and Arthur J. Decio, Skyline's founder and a member of the Company's Board of Directors, will enter into a registration rights agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement) providing for, among other things, customary demand and piggyback registration rights in favor of Champion Holdings and the Champion Sponsors in connection with the shares of the Company's common stock received (or which they may receive) in the Exchange. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, Mr. Decio also will have piggyback registration rights with respect to the shares he holds in the Company after the closing.

Second, Skyline, Champion Holdings, and the Champion Sponsors will enter into an investor rights agreement (the Investor Rights Agreement) providing for, among other things, certain agreements between Skyline, Champion Holdings and the Champion Sponsors relating to the composition of the board of directors of the post-closing combined company, and certain rights to information regarding the post-closing combined company in favor of the Champion Sponsors. The Investor Rights Agreement will provide that, as long as the post-closing combined company is a controlled company (as defined under applicable stock exchange rules), two members of the post-closing board will consist of directors designated by Skyline pursuant to the Exchange Agreement (one of whom must be an independent director) (the Skyline Designees), and one additional person may have non-voting board observer status, and such persons will serve until the first shareholders meeting held after the second anniversary of the closing. If Skyline is no longer a controlled company, only one of the Skyline Designees will serve on the post-closing board (which Skyline Designee must be an independent director) until the first shareholders meeting held after the second anniversary of the closing.

Third, Skyline and Champion Holdings will enter into a transition services agreement governing, among other things, the provision of certain administrative, accounting, professional, and similar services by Skyline to Champion Holdings during a transition period commencing on the closing (the Transition Services Agreement).

In connection with the approval by Skyline's board of the Exchange Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Jefferies LLC rendered its opinion to the Special Committee and then to Skyline's board that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, and limitations set forth therein, the Shares Issuance is fair to the Company from a financial point of view. The Exchange is expected to close as soon as practicable after the satisfaction or waiver of all the conditions to the closing in the Exchange Agreement, which is currently expected to be in the first half of 2018.

The Exchange Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Exchange Agreement were made only for the purposes of the Exchange Agreement, were made as of specific dates, were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Exchange Agreement, and may not have been intended to be statements of fact, but rather as a method of allocating risk and governing the contractual rights and relationships among the parties to the Exchange Agreement. In addition, such representations, warranties, and covenants may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of the Exchange Agreement and may apply standards of materiality and other qualifications and limitations in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by Skyline's shareholders. None of Skyline's shareholders or any other third party is a third party beneficiary under the Exchange Agreement and no such party should rely on the representations, warranties, and covenants, or any descriptions thereof, as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of Skyline, Champion Holdings, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Exchange Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Skyline's public disclosures. The Exchange Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Skyline that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and Forms 8-K and other documents that Skyline files or has filed with the SEC.

The foregoing descriptions of the Exchange Agreement, the Exchange, the Shares Issuance, the Voting Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Investor Rights Agreement, and the Transition Services Agreement are summaries, do not purport to be complete, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Exchange Agreement, and the exhibits attached thereto, and the Voting Agreement, copies of which are attached as Exhibits 2.1 and 10.1, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.
