Tendering and Voting CB&I Shares in the Combination with McDermott Actions Required

To all CB&I employees:

As you know, CB&I and McDermott International, Inc. have agreed to combine. When the transaction closes, which we anticipate to happen in Q2, all CB&I shares will convert into shares of McDermott common stock, at an exchange ratio of 2.47221 shares of McDermott common stock per CB&I share (subject to adjustment if McDermott completes a proposed reverse stock split).

If you hold CB&I shares in your 401(k) plan or elsewhere it is important that you know your options with respect to those shares. You should have received, in a separate mailing, certain documents filed with the SEC by CB&I and McDermott in connection with the proposed transaction, including exchange offer materials, proxy solicitation materials and a proxy card.

Exchange Offer

McDermott is conducting an exchange offer to effect the proposed transaction. You can elect to tender your shares of CB&I stock (including CB&I stock held in the CB&I 401(k) plan) into such offer if you choose to do so. Shareholders who tender their CB&I shares into the exchange offer will receive the merger consideration of 2.47221 shares of McDermott common stock per CB&I share (subject to adjustment as described above) if the merger is completed.

If you elect not to tender your shares into the exchange offer, and the transaction is completed, you will still receive the same consideration for your CB&I shares pursuant to a second-step merger and liquidation; however, the consideration in that alternative will be subject to Dutch dividend withholding tax. We encourage you to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the exchange offer materials that you have received, which include a more detailed description of the transaction, including the potential Dutch withholding tax. For those shares held in the 401(k) plan, the 401(k) plan will bear the costs of those taxes. For shares outside the 401(k), the shareholder will be responsible for the taxes.

How to tender your shares for the exchange

For CB&I shares held in a CB&I 401(k) plan, you will need to provide directions to Merrill Lynch by phone at 1-844-CBI-401k (1-844-224-4015) by 3:00 p.m. Eastern time on May 7, 2018. There is no fee associated with the decision to tender your CB&I shares held in a CB&I 401(k) plan.

Instructions on how to tender CB&I shares held outside of a CB&I 401(k) plan have been separately sent to you. Please contact MacKenzie Partners, the information agent for the exchange offer, if you need assistance. You can reach MacKenzie Partners at:

Voting

The CB&I Management Board and Supervisory Board recommend that CB&I shareholders vote FOR each of the proposals to be considered at the upcoming special general meeting of CB&I shareholders.

If you wish to vote in favor of the transaction, you must vote your shares in accordance with the instructions you have received. Tendering your shares into the exchange offer will not automatically vote your shares in connection with the proposals to be considered at the upcoming special general meeting of CB&I shareholders, and the transaction cannot be completed unless the required CB&I shareholder approval is obtained.

How to vote your shares

If you hold your shares of record (in your own name)

To vote via internet, go to www.proxyvote.com. You may use the internet to transmit your voting instructions up until 11:59 P.M. Eastern time on May 1, 2018. Have your proxy card in hand when you access the web site and follow the instructions to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form.

To vote by phone, call 1-800-690-6903. Use any touch-tone telephone to transmit your voting instructions up until 11:59 P.M. Eastern time on May 1, 2018. Have your proxy card in hand when you call and then follow the instructions.

To vote by mail, mark, sign and date your proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope we have provided or return it to Vote Processing, c/o Broadridge, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717. Proxy cards that are mailed must be received by Broadridge no later than 11:59 P.M. Eastern time on May 1, 2018.

In addition to the options above, if you are a shareholder of record registered in the CB&I share register, you may vote your shares in person by attending the CB&I Special General Meeting.

If you are a beneficial owner of shares (held through a brokerage account or other nominee)

If you are the beneficial owner of shares, but not the holder of record, you should refer to the instructions provided by your broker or nominee for further information. The broker or nominee that holds your shares has the authority to vote them, absent your approval, only as to matters for which they have discretionary authority under the applicable NYSE rules. None of the proposals for the CB&I Special General Meeting are considered routine matters. This means that brokers or nominees may not vote your shares with respect to those matters if they have not been given specific instructions as to how to vote. Please be sure to give specific voting instructions to your broker or nominee.

Blackout Period

As previously communicated, a blackout period with regard to the CB&I stock portion of the CB&I 401(k) plans will take effect beginning on May 7, 2018 (or, if you call Merrill Lynch and inform them of your decision to tender some or all of the CB&I shares in your 401(k) plan account in the exchange offer, the blackout period will go into that effect on that earlier date).

If you vote but do not instruct Merrill Lynch to tender your shares in the exchange offer, the Blackout Period will not activate until you instruct Merrill Lynch to tender your shares in the exchange offer or May 7, whichever is earlier.
