NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON [], 2018

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Business Bancshares, Inc. (which we refer to as "BBI") will hold a special meeting of its shareholders (which we refer to as the "special meeting") on [], 2018, at 8:00 a.m. local time, at BBI's corporate office at 8000 Maryland Ave., 14th Floor Boardroom, Clayton, Missouri 63105.

The special meeting is for the holders of the common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of BBI (which we refer to as "BBI voting common stock") to consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. a proposal (which we refer to as the "merger proposal") to adopt and approve (i) the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 10, 2018, by and between BBI and Stifel Financial Corp. (which we refer to as "Stifel"), a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus (which we refer to as the "merger agreement"), pursuant to which Stifel will form a Missouri corporation as a special-purpose, wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel (which we refer to as "Merger Sub"), which will merge with and into BBI, with BBI as the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel, in a transaction we refer to as the "merger," (ii) the related plan of merger to be entered into by and between Merger Sub and BBI in the form attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement (which we refer to as the "plan of merger"), and (iii) the merger, as more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus; and
2. a proposal (which we refer to as the "adjournment proposal") to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal if there are not sufficient votes to approve it.

Any action may be taken on the foregoing proposals at the special meeting on the date specified above or on any date or dates to which, by original or later adjournment or postponement, the special meeting may be adjourned.

We have fixed the close of business on [], 2018, as the record date for the special meeting. Only holders (which we refer to as "BBI shareholders") of record of the common stock of BBI (which we refer to as "BBI common stock"), including both the BBI voting common stock and the non-voting common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of BBI, at that time are entitled to notice of, and only holders of BBI voting common stock are entitled to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of BBI voting common stock. Approval of the adjournment proposal requires a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on the proposal and present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, to be voted in favor of such proposal.

Your vote is very important. We cannot complete the merger unless the holders of BBI voting common stock adopt and approve the merger proposal.

If you hold BBI voting common stock in your name as a shareholder of record of BBI, please complete, sign, date and return the accompanying proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following are some questions that you may have about the merger and the special meeting, as well as brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger or the special meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 99.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to Stifel refer to Stifel Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation; references to BBI refer to Business Bancshares, Inc., a Missouri corporation; references to BBI Bank refer to The Business Bank of St. Louis, a Missouri state-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of BBI; and references to we, our or us refer to Stifel and BBI.

Q: What is the merger?

A: Stifel and BBI entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 10, 2018 (which we refer to as the merger agreement). Stifel will form a Missouri corporation as a special-purpose, wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel (which we refer to as Merger Sub), which will merge with and into BBI, with BBI as the surviving corporation (which we refer to as the surviving corporation), pursuant to the merger agreement and a related plan of merger to be entered into by and between Merger Sub and BBI in the form attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement (which we refer to as the plan of merger), in a transaction we refer to as the merger. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of common stock of BBI (which we refer to as BBI common stock), including both the common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of BBI (which we refer to as BBI voting common stock) and the non-voting common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of BBI (which we refer to as BBI non-voting common stock), will receive 0.705 shares of common stock, $0.15 par value per share, of Stifel (which we refer to as Stifel common stock) for each share of BBI common stock they hold immediately prior to the merger, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. Based on the number of shares of Stifel common stock and BBI common stock outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement, current holders of BBI common stock (which we refer to as BBI shareholders) are expected to own up to approximately 3% of the outstanding Stifel common stock immediately following the merger (without giving effect to any shares of Stifel common stock held by BBI shareholders prior to the merger).

The merger cannot be completed unless, among other things, BBI shareholders approve the proposal (which we refer to as the merger proposal) to adopt and approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: BBI has called a special meeting of its shareholders (which we refer to as the special meeting). The special meeting is for the holders of BBI voting common stock to consider and vote upon the merger proposal and a proposal (which we refer to as the adjournment proposal) to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal if there are not sufficient votes to approve it. This document serves as the proxy statement being used by BBI's board of directors (which we refer to as the BBI board) to solicit proxies from the holders of BBI voting common stock in connection with the special meeting and describes the proposals to be presented at the special meeting. The holders of outstanding shares of BBI non-voting common stock are not entitled or permitted to vote any shares of BBI non-voting common stock at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

This document is also a prospectus that is being delivered to BBI shareholders because, in connection with the merger, Stifel is offering shares of Stifel common stock to BBI shareholders.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger and important information to consider in connection with an investment in Stifel common stock. You should read it carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed materials allow you to have your shares of BBI voting common stock voted by proxy without attending the special meeting. Your vote is important, and we encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q: What are holders of BBI voting common stock being asked to vote on at the special meeting?

A: BBI is soliciting proxies from the holders of its voting common stock with respect to:

the merger proposal; and the adjournment proposal.

Q: What will BBI shareholders receive in the merger?

A: Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding share of BBI common stock (except for shares of BBI common stock held by BBI as treasury stock, certain shares held by Stifel, if any, and shares held by BBI shareholders who properly exercise their rights under Missouri law to dissent from the merger) will be converted into the right to receive 0.705 shares of Stifel common stock (which we refer to as the merger consideration). Stifel will not issue any fractional shares of Stifel common stock in the merger. Stifel will pay to each former BBI shareholder who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share an amount in cash determined by multiplying the average of the closing sale prices of Stifel common stock on the New York Stock Exchange (which we refer to as the NYSE) for the five full trading days ending on the day preceding the closing date of the merger (which we refer to as the Stifel share closing price) by the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Stifel common stock that such shareholder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Q: What will holders of Stifel common stock receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, holders of Stifel common stock will not receive any merger consideration and will continue to hold the shares of Stifel common stock that they currently hold. Following the merger, shares of Stifel common stock will continue to be traded on the NYSE and the Chicago Stock Exchange (which we refer to as the CHX) under the symbol SF.

Q: How will the merger affect BBI equity-based awards?

A: The BBI equity-based awards will be affected as follows:

Stock Options: At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of BBI common stock (which we refer to as a BBI stock option) will become fully vested and automatically will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $41.76 minus the exercise price per share of the option.

Restricted Stock: At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding award in respect of a share of BBI common stock that is subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction (which we refer to as BBI restricted stock) will fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration (together with any accrued but unpaid dividends corresponding to the award).

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the time the merger is completed?

A: Yes. Although the number of shares of Stifel common stock that will be issued as merger consideration is fixed, the value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the merger based upon the market price of Stifel common stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of Stifel common stock after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the shares of Stifel common stock that BBI shareholders will receive.

Q: How does the BBI board recommend that I vote at the special meeting?

A: The BBI board unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Q: When and where is the meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held on [], 2018, at 8:00 a.m. local time, at BBI's corporate office at 8000 Maryland Ave., 14th Floor Boardroom, Clayton, Missouri 63105.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in your name as a shareholder of record, you must complete, sign, date, and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you must instruct the broker, bank or other nominee how to vote in accordance with the directions you have received from the broker, bank or other nominee. Street name shareholders who wish to vote in person at the special meeting will need to obtain a legal proxy from the institution that holds their shares.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation of BBI, as amended (which we refer to as the BBI charter), will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes that are otherwise properly represented at the special meeting will be included in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: What is the vote required to approve each proposal at the special meeting?

A: Merger proposal:

Standard: Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on the proposal.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you fail to vote, mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal.

Adjournment proposal:

Standard: Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on the proposal and present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy.

Table of Contents

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, it will have the same effect as a vote cast against the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the special meeting or fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote with respect to the adjournment proposal, your shares will not be deemed to be present at the special meeting with respect to the adjournment proposal, and such failure will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

Q: Will holders of shares of BBI non-voting common stock be entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: No. Because the BBI non-voting common stock does not have voting rights with respect to the merger proposal or the adjournment proposal, the holders of outstanding shares of BBI non-voting common stock are not entitled or permitted to vote any shares of BBI non-voting common stock at the special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for BBI to obtain the necessary quorum to hold its special meeting and for the holders of BBI voting common stock to approve the merger proposal. In addition, your failure to submit a proxy or vote in person, failure to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote or abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the merger proposal.

Q: How many votes do I have, and how do I vote at the special meetings?

A: You are entitled to one vote for each share of BBI voting common stock that you owned as of the close of business on [], 2018 (which we refer to as the record date for the special meeting). You may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN with respect to each of the proposals presented at the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to vote by proxy to ensure your vote is counted. If you hold your shares in certificate or registered book-entry form, you may still attend the special meeting and vote in person even if you have already voted by proxy.

To vote using the proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the postage-paid return envelope provided. If you return your signed proxy card before the special meeting, your shares will be voted as you direct.

If you hold your shares in certificate or registered book-entry form and wish to vote in person, simply attend the special meeting and you will be given a ballot when you arrive. If you hold your shares in street name, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee to enable you to vote in person at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares of BBI common stock are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

- A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee cannot vote your shares without instructions from you. If your shares are held in street name through a broker, bank or other holder of record, you will need to provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote those shares. Please follow the directions provided by the broker, bank or other nominee for submitting your voting instructions. You may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to BBI, or by voting in person at the special meeting, unless you provide a legal proxy, which you must obtain from your broker, bank or other nominee. Further, brokers, banks and other nominees who hold shares of BBI common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to BBI to vote those shares with respect to any of the proposals without specific instructions from their customers, as brokers, banks and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on these matters. Your failure to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the merger proposal.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All holders of BBI common stock, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through brokers, banks or other nominees, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of BBI voting common stock can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record (that is, if your shares are held for you in street name), you must obtain a legal proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting.

If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have proof of share ownership from the record holder of your shares, such as a recent brokerage statement or a letter confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted to the special meeting. BBI reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. To ensure your representation at the special meeting, we urge you to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and to return it promptly in the envelope provided whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the special meeting and vote.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. If you are a holder of record of BBI voting common stock, you may change your vote at any time before your shares of BBI voting common stock are voted at the special meeting by: (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date; (2) attending the special meeting in person, notifying David Gamache, BBI's executive vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary (whom we refer to as BBI's corporate secretary), and voting by ballot at the special meeting; or (3) delivering a written revocation letter to BBI's corporate secretary, at Business Bancshares, Inc., 8000 Maryland Ave., Suite 100, Clayton, Missouri 63105, Attention: Corporate Secretary. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you should contact your record holder to change your vote.

Q: Will BBI be required to submit the merger proposal to its shareholders even if the BBI board has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A: Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the special meeting, BBI is required to submit the merger proposal to the holders of its voting common stock even if the BBI board has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to BBI shareholders?

A: The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code), and it is a condition to the respective obligations of Stifel and BBI to complete the merger that Stifel receives a legal opinion from Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP to that effect and that BBI receives a legal opinion from Lewis Rice LLC to that effect. Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization, a U.S. holder (as defined in Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 63) of shares of BBI common stock generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of their shares of BBI common stock for Stifel common stock. However, U.S. holders will recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Stifel common stock, as will U.S. holders who dissent and receive cash for their shares of BBI common stock. For further information, please refer to Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of BBI common stock. We strongly urge you to consult your independent tax advisor for a full understanding of the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to your particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable treaty.

Q: Are BBI shareholders entitled to dissenters' rights if they do not vote in favor of the approval of the merger proposal?

A: Yes. BBI shareholders may assert dissenters' rights in connection with the merger and, upon complying with the requirements of The General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (which we refer to as the "MGBCL"), receive cash in the amount of the fair value of their shares instead of the merger consideration. For further information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Dissenters' Rights, beginning on page 58.

Q: If I am a BBI shareholder, should I send in my BBI stock certificate(s) now?

A: No. Please do not send in your BBI stock certificates with your proxy. After the merger, an exchange agent will send you instructions for exchanging BBI stock certificates for the merger consideration. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates, beginning on page 67.

Q: What should I do if I hold my shares of BBI common stock in book-entry form?

A: You are not required to take any special additional actions if your shares of BBI common stock are held in book-entry form. After the completion of the merger, shares of BBI common stock held in book-entry form automatically will be exchanged for book-entry shares of Stifel common stock.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: BBI shareholders may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold shares of BBI voting common stock in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold such shares. If you are a holder of record of BBI common stock, and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive or otherwise follow the directions set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus to ensure that you vote every share of BBI voting common stock that you own.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: Stifel and BBI expect to complete the merger in the third or fourth quarter of 2018. However, neither Stifel nor BBI can assure you of when or if the merger will be completed. BBI must obtain the approval of holders of BBI voting common stock to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting, and both Stifel and BBI must obtain necessary regulatory approvals in addition to satisfying certain other closing conditions.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, BBI shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of BBI common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, BBI will remain an independent, private company. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by BBI. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination Fee on page 81 for a complete discussion of the circumstances under which a termination fee will be required to be paid.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: If you are a BBI shareholder and have any questions concerning the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of BBI voting common stock, please contact BBI's corporate secretary, David Gamache, at (314) 721-8003.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. It may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully the entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, and the other documents to which we refer in order to fully understand the merger. Please see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 99. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which the section discussing that subject in more detail begins.

The Merger (page 37)

Stifel and BBI are proposing a transaction in which Stifel will acquire BBI such that BBI will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel and will remain the direct holding company for BBI Bank. This transaction is governed by the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus of the terms and conditions of the merger are qualified by reference to the merger agreement. Please read the merger agreement carefully for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Consideration to Be Paid to BBI Shareholders (page 67)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding share of BBI common stock (except for shares of BBI common stock held by BBI as treasury stock, certain shares held by Stifel, if any, and shares held by BBI shareholders who properly exercise their rights under Missouri law to dissent from the merger) will be converted into the right to receive 0.705 shares of Stifel common stock. Stifel will not issue any fractional shares of Stifel common stock in the merger. Stifel will pay to each former BBI shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) based on the Stifel share closing price.

As a result of the foregoing, based on the numbers of shares of Stifel and BBI common stock outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement, current BBI shareholders are expected to own up to approximately 3% of the outstanding Stifel common stock immediately following the merger (without giving effect to any shares of Stifel common stock held by BBI shareholders prior to the merger).

Although the number of shares of Stifel common stock that each BBI shareholder will receive is fixed, the market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Stifel common stock both prior to and after the time holders of BBI voting common stock vote on the merger. Stifel common stock is listed on the NYSE and the CHX under the symbol SF. Based on the closing price of Stifel common stock on the NYSE on May 9, 2018, the last trading day before the date of the public announcement of the merger, the exchange ratio represented approximately $42.46 in value for each share of BBI common stock. Based on Stifel's closing price of $[] on [], 2018, the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the exchange ratio represented approximately $[] in value for each share of BBI common stock. Based on the exchange ratio and the number of shares of BBI common stock outstanding and reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding BBI stock options as of [], 2018, the maximum number of shares of Stifel common stock issuable in the merger is [].

The BBI Board Unanimously Recommends that Holders of BBI Voting Common Stock Vote FOR the Merger Proposal and FOR the Adjournment Proposal (page 31)

The BBI board unanimously approved the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, determined that the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger are in the best interests of BBI and its shareholders and declared the merger to be advisable. The BBI board unanimously recommends that holders of BBI voting common stock vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal. For the factors considered by the BBI board in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger BBI's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the BBI Board, beginning on page 41.

In deciding to approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, the BBI board considered, among other things, the opinion of FIG Partners, LLC (which we sometimes refer to as FIG Partners) regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by BBI shareholders in the merger.

The full text of FIG Partners' opinion is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by FIG Partners in rendering its opinion.

BBI shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger. FIG Partners' written opinion is addressed to the BBI board and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of BBI voting common stock should vote with respect to the merger proposal.

For further information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC, beginning on page 43.

Stock Options. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised BBI stock option will become fully vested and automatically will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $41.76 minus the exercise price per share of the option. For further information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock Options, beginning on page 67.

Restricted Stock. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding award in respect of a share of BBI restricted stock will fully vest and automatically will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of BBI common stock underlying the award. For further information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Structure of the Merger Treatment of Restricted Stock, beginning on page 67.

The special meeting will be held on [], 2018, at 8:00 a.m. local time, at BBI's corporate office at 8000 Maryland Ave., 14th Floor Boardroom, Clayton, Missouri 63105. At the special meeting, holders of BBI voting common stock will be asked to:

approve the merger proposal; and approve the adjournment proposal.

Only holders of record of BBI voting common stock at the close of business on the record date for the special meeting will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of BBI voting common stock is entitled to one vote on the merger proposal. On the record date for the special meeting, there were [] shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. The directors and executive officers of BBI and their affiliates beneficially owned, and were entitled to vote, approximately [] shares of BBI voting common stock, representing approximately []% of the shares of BBI voting common stock outstanding, on the record date for the special meeting.

For further information, please see The Special Meeting Date, Time and Place of Meeting, beginning on page 31.

Special Meeting Proposals: Votes Required; Treatment of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes (pages 32 and 33)

Merger proposal:

Standard: Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on the proposal.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or fail to vote or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal.

Adjournment proposal:

Standard: Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on the proposal and present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy.

Table of Contents

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, it will have the same effect as a vote cast against the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the special meeting or fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote with respect to the adjournment proposal, your shares will not be deemed to be present at the special meeting with respect to the adjournment proposal, and such failure will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

The Directors, Certain Executive Officers and a Certain Large Shareholder of BBI, and the Directors of BBI Bank, Entered into Voting Agreements (page 82)

As of the record date for the special meeting, the members of the BBI board, BBI executive officers Larry Kirby (who is also a director of BBI), Stan Cornish, David Gamache and Brian Leeker (whom we refer to as BBI's executive officers) and Castle Creek Capital Partners V, LP (the largest BBI shareholder at the time the merger agreement was signed and which we refer to as Castle Creek) beneficially owned, in the aggregate, approximately 930,000 shares of BBI voting common stock (not including vested option shares), or approximately []% of the outstanding BBI voting common stock. Pursuant to voting agreements more fully described under Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Director, Executive Officer and Large Shareholder Voting Agreements, beginning on page 82, each of BBI's directors and executive officers and Castle Creek entered into separate written agreements in which they collectively agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of BBI voting common stock for the approval of the merger proposal. A copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of BBI's directors and executive officers and Castle Creek is attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

BBI's Directors and Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger that Differ from Your Interests (page 52)

The BBI shareholders should be aware that BBI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, interests of BBI shareholders generally. These interests include, among others, the treatment of outstanding BBI equity-based awards pursuant to the merger agreement, certain payments and benefits payable under compensation agreements entered into with executive officers and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by Stifel and the surviving corporation for acts or omissions occurring prior to the merger. For example, Stifel entered into employment continuation agreements with Larry Kirby, Stanley Cornish, Brian Leeker, David Gamache and certain other officers of BBI or its subsidiaries. The continuation agreements entered into by BBI's executive officers set forth the terms and conditions of the respective individuals' employment relationship with BBI Bank and/or Stifel following the effective time of the merger and provide for, among other matters, the base salary and various bonuses for the respective officers and awards under the Stifel 2001 Incentive Stock Plan. In addition, at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding award in respect of a share of BBI restricted stock will fully vest. Furthermore, under the merger agreement, the balances accrued by participants in the nonelective deferred compensation plan previously adopted by BBI (which we refer to as the BBI deferred compensation plan) must be paid in full at or near the closing date of the merger. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger, beginning on page 52, for a more detailed description of these interests.

Table of Contents

The Merger Will Be Accounted for as a Purchase (page 57)

For accounting and financial reporting purposes, the merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. See Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Accounting Treatment.

Stifel's and BBI Bank's Management and Operations after the Merger (page 57)

The directors and executive officers of Stifel immediately prior to the merger will continue to be the directors and executive officers of Stifel after the merger. As a material inducement and as additional consideration to Stifel to enter into the merger agreement, 21 officers and key business relationship employees of BBI Bank, including all of BBI Bank's executive officers, entered into agreements with Stifel setting forth the terms and conditions of each such individual's employment relationship with BBI Bank and/or Stifel following the merger. Stifel anticipates that BBI Bank will remain a separately chartered subsidiary of Stifel. Upon the closing of the merger or at a point in time thereafter, Stifel may cause BBI Bank to change its name.

BBI Shareholders Will Have Dissenters' Rights in Connection with the Merger (page 58)

BBI shareholders may assert dissenters' rights in connection with the merger and, upon complying with the requirements of the MGBCL, may receive cash in the amount of the fair value of their shares instead of the merger consideration.

Each BBI shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger should read carefully both Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Dissenters' Rights, beginning on page 58, and the full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL, a copy of which is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The availability of dissenters' rights is conditioned upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. Failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the complete loss of dissenters' rights. Accordingly, if you wish to dissent from the merger and demand the fair value of your BBI common stock in cash, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

Stifel and BBI agreed to use their reasonable best efforts and cooperate to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals necessary or advisable, to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to comply with the terms and conditions of such approvals. Completion of the merger is subject to the receipt of (i) the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (which we refer to as the Federal Reserve Board) for the merger of Merger Sub with and into BBI, (ii) an order of the director of the Missouri Division of Finance (which we refer to as the MDF) declaring Stifel's acquisition of BBI lawful under Missouri law, and (iii) any other regulatory approval the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporation (which Stifel and BBI expect to be none). Stifel has filed applications with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis (under delegated authority from the Federal Reserve Board) and the MDF to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. On or about June 6, 2018, the director of the MDF (whom we refer to as the Commissioner of Finance) delivered to the Federal Reserve Board a letter stating that the MDF had no objection to the merger under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (which we refer to as the BHC Act), or Section 362.910, et seq., of the Missouri Revised Statutes (which we refer to as the Missouri bank holding company act), and the Commissioner of Finance issued an order declaring the merger not unlawful under the Missouri bank holding company act.

After the merger, Stifel plans to undergo an internal reorganization that would cause Stifel's current bank subsidiary, Stifel Bank & Trust, to become a subsidiary of BBI. Stifel also intends to cause Stifel Trust Company, N.A., to seek prior approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (which we refer to as the OCC) for Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., to become a subsidiary of Stifel Trust Company, N.A., and for Stifel Trust Company, N.A. (with Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., as its subsidiary), to become a subsidiary of BBI as well.

Although Stifel and BBI are not aware of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them or, if received, whether the approvals will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to or have a material adverse effect on Stifel or its subsidiaries after the completion of the merger. For more information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger, beginning on page 60.

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to completion of the merger that Stifel receives a legal opinion from Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP to that effect and that BBI receives a legal opinion from Lewis Rice LLC to that effect. The merger consideration that will be paid to the BBI shareholders pursuant to the merger will consist of shares of Stifel common stock and cash for any fractional shares. Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization, subject to the limitations and more detailed discussion set forth in Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 63, a BBI shareholder that is a U.S. holder generally will not recognize gain or loss on such exchange, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Stifel common stock or cash received in connection with the exercise of dissenters' rights.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to any particular BBI shareholder will depend in part on that shareholder's individual circumstances. Accordingly, each BBI shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to that shareholder, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Conditions that Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page 78)

Stifel's and BBI's respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted under applicable law) of certain conditions, including: (1) the adoption by the BBI shareholders of the merger proposal by the requisite shareholder vote; (2) authorization for listing on the NYSE of the shares of Stifel common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement; (3) the receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals and expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof; (4) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, that Stifel has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (which we refer to as the SEC) with respect to the Stifel common stock to be issued upon consummation of the merger (which we refer to as the registration statement); (5) the absence of any order, injunction, decree or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the merger and of any statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree making the consummation of the merger illegal; (6) subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, the truth and correctness of the representations and warranties of each of Stifel and BBI; (7) performance in all material respects by each of Stifel and BBI of its obligations under the merger agreement; (8) the absence of a material adverse effect on Stifel or BBI since the date of the merger agreement; and (9) the receipt by each of Stifel and BBI of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Stifel's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of additional conditions, including:

Stifel shall have received continuation agreements, pursuant to which employees of BBI Bank shall have agreed to continue in their positions after the closing of the merger, from (i) eight of nine employees specified in the merger agreement (and all nine employees have entered into continuation agreements with Stifel since the merger agreement was executed) and (ii) at least 75% of the members of a group of remaining employees specified in the merger agreement;

BBI shall have non-maturity deposits equal to at least $266,000,000, net loans equal to at least $450,000,000, assets equal to at least $550,000,000 and non-performing assets of no more than $10,000,000, each as of a date prior to the closing of the merger as determined in accordance with the merger agreement; and as of the closing date of the merger, tangible common equity of BBI and its subsidiaries shall be not less than $72,500,000, subject to certain adjustments set forth in the merger agreement; and

BBI's existing credit facility with Associated Bank, N.A., shall have terminated at or prior to the effective time of the merger.

Neither BBI nor Stifel can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed. For more information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Conditions to Complete the Merger, beginning on page 78.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 80)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger as follows:

by the mutual written consent of Stifel and BBI;

by either party, if any governmental approval required for the merger is denied by a final, non-appealable action or an application for such approval is withdrawn at the request of a governmental entity, or if any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction issues a final, non-appealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger;

by either party, if the merger has not been consummated by March 31, 2019, unless the failure of the closing to have occurred by such date was due to a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement by the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement; or subject to cure rights, by either party, if there has been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement on the part of the other party, which breach would constitute the failure of a closing condition.

In addition, the merger agreement may be terminated:

by Stifel prior to the time that the requisite BBI shareholder vote has been obtained, if the BBI board shall have made an adverse recommendation change, if BBI shall have approved, adopted or endorsed an alternative acquisition proposal or if BBI or the BBI board has breached its obligations with respect to the non-solicitation of offers or alternative acquisition proposals;

by BBI prior to the time that the requisite BBI shareholder vote has been obtained, if BBI concludes in good faith, after consultation with its advisors, that it must agree to endorse an alternative acquisition proposal that meets certain conditions and terminate the merger agreement in order to comply with its fiduciary duties, and BBI has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to such alternative acquisition proposal; or by BBI, upon written notice to Stifel, if both (i) the average closing price of Stifel common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $47.02, and (ii) Stifel common stock underperforms the KBW NASDAQ Capital Markets Index by more than 20%. If BBI elects to exercise this termination right, Stifel has the option to avoid the termination by making a compensating adjustment to the exchange ratio.

For more information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement, beginning on page 80.

Termination Fee (page 81)

If the merger agreement is terminated under circumstances involving changes in the recommendation of the BBI board and alternative acquisition proposals, BBI may be required to pay to Stifel a termination fee in the amount of $5.75 million. This termination fee might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of BBI from considering or proposing such an acquisition. For more information, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination Fee, beginning on page 81.

The Rights of BBI Shareholders Will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 90)

Upon completion of the merger, holders of BBI common stock will become holders of Stifel common stock. The rights of BBI shareholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in Stifel's and BBI's governing documents and the statutes governing each of them, as well as rules governing public companies such as Stifel. Stifel is incorporated in Delaware and is subject to the DGCL, and BBI is incorporated in Missouri and is subject to the MGBCL. The rights of BBI shareholders who receive shares of Stifel common stock in exchange for their shares of BBI common stock will be governed by Stifel's charter and bylaws, as well as the rules and regulations applying to public companies. In particular, BBI directors are elected for one-year terms, whereas Stifel currently has a partially classified board of directors. Please see Comparison of Shareholder Rights, beginning on page 90, for more information and a description of the material differences in shareholder rights under each of Stifel's and BBI's governing documents.

You should consider all the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus in deciding how to vote for the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. In particular, you should consider the factors described under Risk Factors, beginning on page 24.

Stifel did not pay cash dividends during 2016. During the third quarter of 2017, Stifel announced that its board of directors had authorized a dividend program under which Stifel intends to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend to holders of Stifel common stock. However, Stifel's board of directors may change its dividend policy at any time, and no assurances can be given that dividends will continue to be paid by Stifel or the surviving corporation or that dividends, if paid, will not be reduced or eliminated in future periods. The payment of dividends on Stifel common stock is subject to several factors, including the determination and discretion of Stifel's board of directors, operating results, financial requirements of Stifel and the availability of funds from its subsidiaries. See Note 19 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, included in Stifel's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on June 19, 2018, for more information on the capital distribution restrictions placed on Stifel's broker-dealer subsidiaries and Stifel Bank & Trust.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus may be deemed to be forward-looking statements, within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (which we refer to as the Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (which we refer to as the Exchange Act), giving Stifel s or BBI s expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, target, estimate, continue, positions, projections, prospects or potential, by future conditional verbs such as would, should, could or may or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the merger, including future financial and operating results of Stifel, BBI or the surviving corporation following the merger, Stifel s and the surviving corporation s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, the expected timing of the completion of the merger, financing plans and the availability of capital, the likelihood of success and impact of litigation and other statements that are not historical facts. These statements are only predictions based on Stifel s and BBI s current expectations and projections about future events. Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purposes only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, and important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated, including those factors discussed below under Risk Factors, beginning on page 24. In addition to factors previously disclosed in Stifel s reports filed with the SEC, the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements:

inability to close the merger in a timely manner;

failure to complete the merger due to the failure of holders of BBI voting common stock to approve the merger proposal; costs or effects of acquisitions or dispositions Stifel or BBI may make, including the merger;

whether Stifel or BBI is able to obtain any required governmental approvals in connection with the merger and/or any other acquisitions or dispositions and/or the acquiring company s ability to realize the contemplated financial or business benefits associated with any such acquisitions or dispositions;

failure of BBI to satisfy the requirements regarding non-maturity deposits, net loans, non-performing loans and tangible common equity that are conditions to Stifel s obligations to complete the merger;

failure to meet other closing conditions to the merger on the expected terms and schedule;

the potential impact of announcement or consummation of the proposed merger with BBI on relationships with third parties, including customers, employees and competitors;

ability to successfully integrate BBI and/or other acquired companies or branch offices and financial advisors or fully realize cost savings and other benefits;

Stifel's potential exposure to unknown or contingent liabilities of BBI; challenges of integrating, retaining and hiring key personnel;

failure to attract new customers and retain existing customers in the manner anticipated;

outcomes of pending or threatened litigation, or of matters before regulatory agencies, whether currently existing or commencing in the future;

changes in Stifel's stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of BBI prior to closing;

a material adverse change in financial condition;

Table of Contents

risk of borrower, depositor and other customer attrition;

a change in general business and economic conditions; changes in the interest rate environment, deposit flows, loan demand, real estate values and competition;

changes in accounting principles, policies or guidelines; changes in legislation and regulation;

other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory, geopolitical and technological factors affecting Stifel's or BBI's operations, pricing and services; and other risk factors referred to from time to time in filings made by Stifel with the SEC.

In addition, the timing and occurrence or non-occurrence of events may be subject to circumstances beyond Stifel's or BBI's control.

For any forward-looking statements made in this proxy statement/prospectus or in any documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, Stifel and BBI claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of the applicable document incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Except to the extent required by applicable law, Stifel and BBI do not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect facts, circumstances, assumptions or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made. All written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to Stifel, BBI or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, beginning on page 22, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 99.

Risks Related to the Merger and Stifel's Business Upon Completion of the Merger

Because the market price of Stifel common stock will fluctuate, BBI shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of BBI common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (except for shares held by BBI as treasury stock or by Stifel other than in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted, if any, and shares held by BBI shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger) will be converted into the right to receive 0.705 shares of Stifel common stock. The market value of the Stifel common stock to be received by BBI shareholders in the merger will vary from the closing price of Stifel common stock on the date Stifel and BBI announced the merger, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus is mailed to BBI shareholders, on the date of the special meeting and on the date the merger is completed. Any change in the market price of Stifel common stock prior to the completion of the merger will affect the market value of the merger consideration that BBI shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger.

The market price of Stifel common stock could be subject to significant fluctuations due to changes in sentiment in the market regarding Stifel's operations or business prospects, including market sentiment regarding Stifel's entry into the merger agreement. Changes in the market price of Stifel common stock may also result from a variety of other factors, including the following, many of which are outside Stifel's control:

operating results that vary from the expectations of Stifel's management or of securities analysts and investors;

developments in Stifel's business or in the financial services sector generally; regulatory or legislative changes affecting Stifel's industry generally or its business and operations;

operating and securities price performance of companies that investors consider to be comparable to Stifel;

changes in estimates or recommendations by securities analysts or rating agencies; announcements of strategic developments, acquisitions, dispositions, financings and other material events by Stifel or its competitors; and changes in global financial markets and economies and general market conditions, such as interest or foreign exchange rates, stock, commodity, credit or asset valuations or volatility.

Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, you will not know the precise market value of the consideration you will receive at the effective time of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Stifel common stock before voting your shares at the special meeting.

In addition, BBI will not have the right to terminate the merger agreement due to a decline in the market price of Stifel common stock unless (i) both (a) the average closing price of Stifel common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $47.02, and (b) Stifel common stock underperforms the KBW NASDAQ Capital Market Index by more than 20%, and (ii) Stifel declines to make a compensating adjustment to the exchange ratio. Even if the conditions relating to Stifel common stock described in clause (i) of the preceding sentence exist, there can be no assurance that BBI will exercise BBI's right to terminate the merger agreement, and BBI shareholders will have no right to vote on BBI's decision whether to exercise that right. If BBI does exercise such right, there can be no assurance as to whether Stifel will decide to make a compensating adjustment to the exchange ratio.

The market price of Stifel common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of BBI or Stifel currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of BBI common stock will become holders of Stifel common stock. Stifel's business differs in important respects from that of BBI, and, accordingly, the results of operations of Stifel and the market price of Stifel common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Stifel and BBI. For a discussion of the business of Stifel and of certain factors to consider in connection with the business of Stifel, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information," beginning on page 99, including, in particular, the section titled "Risk Factors" in Stifel's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017. For a discussion of the business of BBI, please see "Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal Information About BBI" on page 85.

The fairness opinion delivered to the BBI board by FIG Partners prior to the signing of the merger agreement does not reflect any changes in circumstances that occur after the date of the opinion.

The opinion of FIG Partners as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the aggregate merger consideration to be received by the BBI shareholders in the merger, was delivered orally to the BBI board on May 9, 2018, before the BBI board approved the merger, and was subsequently confirmed in writing on May 10, 2018. The opinion speaks as of the time the opinion was rendered and does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because BBI does not currently anticipate asking FIG Partners to update its opinion, the opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view at the time the merger is completed. Accordingly, the opinion does not reflect any changes in circumstances that may occur after the date of the opinion. Changes in the operations and prospects of BBI or Stifel, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of BBI and Stifel may alter the value of BBI or Stifel or the price of shares of Stifel common stock by the time the merger is completed. For a description of the opinion of FIG Partners, please refer to "Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC," beginning on page 9. For a description of the other factors considered by the BBI board and Stifel's board of directors in deciding to approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, please refer to "Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Stifel's Reasons for the Merger," beginning on page 50, and "Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger BBI's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the BBI Board," beginning on page 41.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on Stifel and/or the surviving corporation following the merger.

Before the merger may be completed, Stifel and BBI must obtain approval from the Federal Reserve Board, and the Commissioner of Finance must issue an order declaring Stifel's acquisition of BBI lawful under the Missouri bank holding company act. Other approvals, waivers or consents from regulators may also be required. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger. An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or an adverse finding under any of these factors could result in an inability to obtain approval or could delay the receipt of approval. In addition, regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Stifel and/or the surviving corporation following the merger, any of which could have an adverse effect on Stifel and/or the surviving corporation following the merger. Stifel is not obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the merger impose any burdensome condition (as such term is defined in the merger agreement) upon Stifel following the merger. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Conditions to Complete the Merger.

The Federal Reserve Board has stated that if material weaknesses of an applicant or target banking organization are identified by examiners while an expansionary application is under review by the agency, the Federal Reserve Board will not allow the application to remain pending while the banking organization addresses any identified weaknesses. The Federal Reserve Board will require the applicant banking organization to withdraw its application pending resolution of any supervisory concerns. Based on the foregoing, if there is an adverse development in either party's regulatory standing, Stifel may be required to withdraw its application with the Federal Reserve Board and, if possible, resubmit it after the applicable supervisory concerns have been resolved.

Integrating Stifel and BBI may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected, and the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger may not be realized.

Stifel and BBI have operated, and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger, including anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on Stifel's ability to successfully integrate the businesses of Stifel and BBI in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt BBI's existing customer and employee relationships nor result in decreased revenues due to loss of customers. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of either company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect Stifel's and the surviving corporation's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect Stifel's ability to successfully conduct its business, which could have an adverse effect on Stifel's financial results and the value of Stifel common stock. If Stifel experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause Stifel and/or BBI to lose customers or cause customers to remove their accounts from Stifel and/or BBI and move their business to competing financial institutions. Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of BBI and Stifel during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the merger on Stifel and/or the surviving corporation. In addition, the actual cost savings of the merger could be less than anticipated.

Stifel and/or the surviving corporation may be unable to retain Stifel and/or BBI personnel successfully after the merger is completed.

The success of the merger will depend in part on Stifel's and the surviving corporation's ability to retain the talents and dedication of key employees currently employed by Stifel and BBI. It is possible that these employees may decide not to remain with Stifel or BBI, as applicable, while the merger is pending or with Stifel or the surviving corporation after the merger is consummated. If key employees terminate their employment, or if an insufficient number of employees is retained to maintain effective operations, Stifel's or the surviving corporation's business activities may be adversely affected, and management's attention may be diverted from successfully integrating BBI to hiring suitable replacements, all of which may cause Stifel's and the surviving corporation's business to suffer. In addition, Stifel and BBI may not be able to locate suitable replacements for any key employees who leave either company or to offer employment to potential replacements on reasonable terms.

Table of Contents

Certain of BBI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from the interests of BBI shareholders.

BBI shareholders should be aware that some of BBI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of BBI shareholders generally. These interests include, among others, the treatment of outstanding BBI equity-based awards pursuant to the merger agreement, certain payments and benefits payable under compensation agreements entered into with executive officers, including new employment continuation agreements entered into between Stifel and each BBI executive officer providing for continuing employment with BBI Bank following completion of the merger, and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by Stifel and the surviving corporation for acts or omissions occurring prior to the merger. The BBI board was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger and in recommending that BBI shareholders vote in favor of approving the merger proposal.

For a more complete description of these interests, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger, beginning on page 52.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, may result in the merger agreement being terminated, which could negatively impact BBI or Stifel.

The merger is subject to customary conditions that must be satisfied (or waived, to the extent permitted by law) in order for the merger to be completed, including the receipt of the requisite approval of the merger proposal by the BBI shareholders, the receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals and expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof, the receipt of continuation agreements from the requisite number of BBI Bank employees, BBI's satisfaction of certain financial conditions with respect to loans, deposits, non-performing assets and tangible common equity and the termination of BBI's existing credit facility with Associated Bank, N.A. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Conditions to Complete the Merger, beginning on page 78, for a more complete discussion of the conditions to completion of the merger.

Various factors could cause BBI to fail to satisfy one or more of the conditions to Stifel's obligations to complete the merger described above, and, accordingly, the merger may not be completed. For example, BBI may fail to retain a sufficient number of the employees that it is required to retain pursuant to continuation agreements due to factors such as competition for bank executive talent, uncertainty regarding employees' roles in the surviving corporation and personal and family motivations. In addition, BBI may fail to meet the financial conditions set forth in the merger agreement due to factors such as reputational damage, adverse economic conditions, liquidity and capital risks, credit rating downgrades, retention of qualified personnel, market risk, counterparty and borrower credit risks, changes in interest rates, competition, legal, regulatory, operational and compliance risks, dependence on technology, security risks, shortcomings in financial controls and risk management, along with various other factors that may result in BBI having slower growth, more non-performing assets or weaker results of operation than it currently anticipates.

The merger agreement may be terminated by either party under certain circumstances, including if the merger is not consummated by March 31, 2019, and the parties can mutually decide to terminate the merger agreement, at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, even if the merger proposal has already been approved by the BBI shareholders. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement, beginning on page 80, for a more complete discussion of the circumstances in which the merger agreement may be terminated.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, BBI's or Stifel's businesses may be impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger, or the price of Stifel common stock could decline to the extent that the current price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated and the BBI board seeks another merger or business combination, BBI shareholders cannot be certain that BBI will be able to find a party willing to pay equivalent or greater consideration than that which Stifel has agreed to pay in the merger. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, BBI may be required to pay to Stifel a termination fee of $5.75 million. For a more complete description of this termination fee, please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination Fee on page 81.

BBI will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on BBI. These uncertainties may impair BBI's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed and could cause customers and others that deal with BBI to seek to change existing business relationships with BBI. Retention of certain employees by BBI may be challenging while the merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Stifel or the surviving corporation. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration, or a desire not to remain with BBI, BBI's business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, BBI has agreed in the merger agreement to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing and to not take certain specified actions without Stifel's consent. These restrictions may prevent BBI from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Closing of the Merger on page 70 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to BBI.

If the merger is not completed, Stifel and BBI will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger and may experience negative reactions to the termination of the merger from third parties.

Each of Stifel and BBI has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger. If the merger is not completed, Stifel and BBI will have to recognize these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger. In addition, if the merger is not completed, Stifel and/or BBI may experience negative reactions to the termination of the merger from customers, depositors, investors, vendors and others.

The merger agreement limits BBI's ability to pursue acquisition proposals and requires BBI to pay a termination fee of $5.75 million under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving alternative acquisition proposals. In addition, certain provisions of the Stifel and BBI charters and bylaws may deter potential acquirers.

The merger agreement contains non-solicitation provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, prohibit BBI and its representatives from initiating, soliciting, knowingly inducing or encouraging or knowingly facilitating the making of any offers with respect to, and from engaging or participating in negotiations with any person concerning, any competing acquisition proposals. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers on page 76 for further information. The merger agreement also provides that BBI will be required to pay a termination fee in the amount of $5.75 million in the event that the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a competing acquisition proposal. Please see Proposal No. 1: The Merger Proposal The Merger Agreement Termination Fee. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of BBI from considering or proposing such an acquisition.

Table of Contents

Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (which we refer to as the DGCL), certain business combinations involving affiliates or interested stockholders of Stifel require the approval of Stifel's board of directors and disinterested shareholders holding two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Stifel common stock unless certain other requirements are met. Please see Comparison of Shareholder Rights Restrictions on Business Combinations. These provisions and other provisions of the BBI and Stifel charters and bylaws, including provisions regarding Stifel's partially classified board of directors, described under Comparison of Shareholder Rights Number of Directors; Classification, or of the DGCL or the MGBCL could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire control of BBI or Stifel and may discourage a potential competing acquirer.

The shares of Stifel common stock to be received by BBI shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of BBI common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, BBI shareholders will become holders of Stifel common stock, and their rights as holders of Stifel common stock will be governed by the DGCL and the Stifel charter and bylaws. The rights associated with BBI common stock are different from the rights associated with Stifel common stock. Please see Comparison of Shareholder Rights, beginning on page 90, for a discussion of the different rights associated with Stifel common stock.

BBI shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

BBI shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the BBI board and on other matters requiring shareholder approval under the MGBCL and BBI's charter and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, each BBI shareholder who receives shares of Stifel common stock will become a shareholder of Stifel, with a percentage ownership of Stifel that is much smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of BBI. BBI shareholders collectively will receive up to approximately 2.0 million shares of Stifel common stock in the merger. Based on the number of shares of Stifel common stock and BBI common stock outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement, current BBI shareholders are expected to own up to approximately 3% of the outstanding Stifel common stock immediately following the merger (without giving effect to any shares of Stifel common stock held by BBI shareholders prior to the merger). Because of this, BBI shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Stifel than they now have on the management and policies of BBI.

If the merger does not constitute a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then each holder of BBI common stock may be responsible for payment of U.S. federal income taxes related to the merger.

If BBI shareholders elect to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to a material number of shares of BBI common stock, we may not be able to receive the requisite tax opinions to the effect that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code, and the merger may not be completed due to the failure of a required closing condition or may need to be restructured. For purposes of rendering the tax opinions, a material number of shares may be 20% of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock or fewer depending on the amount of cash that BBI shareholders otherwise receive in connection with the merger. The tax opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (which we refer to as the IRS) or on any court. Whether or not tax opinions are received, if the merger is completed but fails to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then each holder of shares of BBI common stock would recognize a gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of the Stifel common stock and cash, if any, received by the holder in the merger, and (ii) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of BBI common stock exchanged therefor. The likely U.S. federal income tax liability in such event will not be known until the effective time of the merger, as the aggregate value of the Stifel common stock to be received by each holder of BBI common stock will fluctuate with the market price of Stifel common stock.

Risks Relating to Stifel's Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to Stifel's business that will also affect Stifel and the surviving corporation after the merger. Table of Contents

Quorum

The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting pursuant to the BBI charter will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes that are otherwise properly represented at the special meeting will be included in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. If there is no quorum at the special meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting and present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, may adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates.

Votes Required; Treatment of Abstentions

The votes required for each proposal are as follows:

1. Merger proposal. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on this proposal is required to approve this proposal.
2. Adjournment proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock entitled to vote on this proposal and present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, is required to approve this proposal.

An abstention occurs when a holder of BBI voting common stock attends the special meeting in person but abstains from voting or returns a signed proxy card with the ABSTAIN box marked. For the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST the proposal.

Voting Your Shares

General Directions

Revoking Proxies

Holders of BBI voting common stock who hold their shares in certificate or registered book-entry form may revoke their proxies or change their vote at any time before the time their proxies are voted at the special meeting by:

(i) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date; (ii) attending the special meeting in person, notifying BBI's corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the special meeting; or (iii) delivering a written revocation letter to BBI's corporate secretary. Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. Subject to such revocation, shares represented by a properly executed proxy received in time for the special meeting will be voted by the proxy holder thereof in accordance with the instructions on the proxy.

Written notices of proxy revocations must be sent so that they will be received before the taking of the vote at the special meeting and should be addressed to:

Business Bancshares, Inc.

David Gamache, Corporate Secretary

8000 Maryland Ave, Suite 100

Clayton, Missouri 63105

If you hold your shares in street name and have instructed your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from the broker, bank or other nominee in order to revoke or change those instructions.

Shares Held in Street Name; Treatment of Broker Non-Votes

If you hold your shares of BBI common stock in street name, you must vote your shares through your broker, bank or other nominee. You should receive a form from your broker, bank or other nominee asking how you want to vote your shares. Follow the directions on that form to give voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. Under the rules that govern brokers, banks and other nominees who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers, banks and other nominees have the discretion to vote such shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. At the special meeting, none of the matters is a routine matter. Therefore, if you fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee as to how to vote your shares of BBI voting common stock, your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on either of the proposals set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger proposal.

If you plan to attend the special meeting, you will need to have proof of share ownership from the record holder of your shares, such as a recent brokerage statement or a letter confirming your ownership. You will also need to obtain a legal proxy, executed in your favor, from your broker, bank or other nominee to enable you to vote in person at the special meeting.

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker does not receive instructions from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary authority. A broker non-vote with respect to the merger proposal will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal. A broker non-vote with respect to the adjournment proposal will not be included in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting with respect to the adjournment proposal and, therefore, will have no effect on the vote on the adjournment proposal. It is VERY IMPORTANT that you return the instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. If you wish to be represented, you must vote by completing and sending in or otherwise transmitting the information that is sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee.

Solicitation of Proxies

The BBI board is soliciting the proxies for the special meeting. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus will be borne equally by Stifel and BBI, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger will be borne by Stifel, with all other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement paid by the party incurring the expense. In addition to solicitation by mail, BBI's directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies from shareholders personally and by telephone. BBI will not pay any additional or special compensation to these directors, officers or employees for these activities but may reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

If BBI's management deems it advisable, the services of individuals or companies that are not regularly employed by BBI may be used in connection with the solicitation of proxies. BBI does not presently intend to utilize the services of a proxy solicitation firm to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting but may decide to do so in the interests of time if circumstances warrant.

Delivery of Proxy Materials to BBI Shareholders Sharing an Address

Only one copy of this proxy statement/prospectus is being delivered to multiple BBI shareholders sharing an address, unless BBI has previously received contrary instructions from one or more of such shareholders. This is referred to as householding. BBI shareholders who hold their shares in street name can request further information on householding through their brokers, banks or other nominees. BBI shareholders may request that a separate copy of this proxy statement/prospectus be sent to a shared address to which a single copy of the document has been delivered by contacting Business Bancshares, Inc., David Gamache, Corporate Secretary, 8000 Maryland Ave., Suite 100, Clayton, Missouri 63105, or contacting Mr. Gamache by telephone, at (314) 721-8003.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

THE MERGER PROPOSAL

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains certain information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated herein by reference. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including

The Merger Agreement, beginning on page 66, for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about conditions to the completion of the merger and provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement, and the merger agreement attached as Annex A for a more complete understanding of the merger.

General

Stifel and BBI are proposing a transaction in which Stifel will acquire BBI such that BBI will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel and will remain the direct holding company for BBI Bank. This transaction is governed by the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. The merger agreement was unanimously approved by both Stifel's board of directors and the BBI board. Stifel and BBI expect to complete the merger in the third or fourth quarter of 2018. However, neither Stifel nor BBI can assure you of when or if the merger will be completed. BBI must obtain the approval of holders of BBI voting common stock to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting, and both Stifel and BBI must obtain necessary regulatory approvals in addition to satisfying certain other closing conditions.

Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that Merger Sub will merge with and into BBI, with BBI as the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel. BBI's wholly owned bank subsidiary, BBI Bank, will be a wholly owned subsidiary of BBI and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel.

In the merger, each share of BBI common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, except for shares of BBI common stock held by BBI as treasury stock, certain shares held by Stifel, if any, and shares held by BBI shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will be converted into the right to receive 0.705 shares of Stifel common stock. No fractional shares of Stifel common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, holders of BBI common stock that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of Stifel common stock will receive cash in lieu thereof.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, the BBI board, BBI Bank's board of directors and the BBI executive management team assess the economic, regulatory and competitive conditions in which BBI operates, as well as its long-term business strategy and objectives. The BBI board and BBI executive management team have periodically explored and discussed strategic options available to BBI for maintaining its competitiveness and increasing shareholder value. Among other things, these discussions have included the possibility of continuing to operate as an independent bank holding company, as well as potential strategic alternatives available to BBI, including acquisitions or business combinations involving other financial institutions.

In connection with BBI's regular and ongoing evaluation of strategic alternatives, members of BBI management and of the BBI board have had discussions, from time to time, with representatives of other financial institutions about possible transactions and have regularly updated the BBI board regarding such discussions. In late 2017, BBI decided to consult with investment banking firms to discuss the banking industry in general and potential strategic alternatives that might be considered by BBI, including the potential sale of BBI. The BBI board invited two investment banking firms that were highly experienced in the commercial banking industry, one of which was KBW, a subsidiary of Stifel, to meet with the BBI board. At a meeting of the BBI board on December 19, 2017, KBW, among other things, discussed its credentials advising banks on strategic transactions such as mergers and acquisitions and provided preliminary feedback regarding BBI's evaluation of potential strategic alternatives. The other investment banking firm discussed similar matters with the BBI board on December 18, 2017. On December 19, 2017, the BBI board decided to engage KBW as its financial advisor, and BBI management subsequently interviewed a number of law firms to represent BBI in any business combination transaction, ultimately recommending the retention of Lewis Rice LLC (which we sometimes refer to as Lewis Rice). In early February 2018, BBI and KBW executed an engagement letter regarding KBW's role as a financial advisor to BBI in connection with a sale of BBI.

In consultation with BBI management, the KBW representatives working on the BBI engagement (which we sometimes refer to collectively as the BBI KBW team) compiled a list of 22 prospective acquirers, including Stifel, KBW's parent company. That list was provided to BBI management on February 14, 2018, and the BBI KBW team reviewed the list of 22 prospective acquirers with the BBI board at a board meeting held the same day. The BBI board instructed the BBI KBW team to contact all of the companies on the list to solicit interest in a potential acquisition of BBI.

Also during February 2018, a confidential information memorandum containing initial, summary information about BBI and its business (which we refer to as the confidential information memorandum) was jointly compiled by the BBI KBW team and BBI management. In late February and early March 2018, in accordance with the directives of the BBI board, the BBI KBW team began reaching out to prospective acquirers regarding their willingness to enter into non-disclosure agreements to evaluate a potential acquisition candidate. Stifel entered into a non-disclosure agreement with BBI on February 21, 2018, and the BBI KBW team sent a copy of the confidential information memorandum to Christopher Reichert, the chief executive officer of Stifel Bank & Trust, Stifel's bank subsidiary, on March 1, 2018. Six prospective acquirers, including Stifel, ultimately entered into non-disclosure agreements with BBI and received copies of the confidential information memorandum. Beginning on March 1, 2018, Stifel and five other prospective acquirers received access to an online data room to facilitate the prospective acquirers' due diligence investigations of BBI. Preliminary meetings between BBI management and four of the prospective acquirers subsequently took place, including a meeting on March 6, 2018, between Mr. Kirby and other executive officers of BBI and Mr. Reichert and other Stifel representatives.

After this preliminary meeting between BBI management and Stifel, as it became apparent that Stifel was among the most interested prospective acquirers, and after BBI consulted with Lewis Rice, BBI and KBW agreed to modify the engagement letter between BBI and KBW to address conflicts of interest that could arise in connection with KBW's role as financial advisor to BBI if KBW's parent company, Stifel, became a bidder. On March 14, 2018, BBI and KBW entered into an amended engagement letter. Under the amended engagement letter, BBI and KBW agreed that KBW would continue to act as BBI's financial advisor, including in connection with a potential sale of BBI to Stifel, but would not be requested or required to provide a fairness opinion in connection with any transaction between BBI and Stifel. KBW agreed to establish internal information barriers between the BBI KBW team and all other Stifel personnel who were working on behalf of Stifel in connection with its potential acquisition of BBI, including any personnel of KBW working on behalf of Stifel in connection with the potential acquisition (which we sometimes refer to as the Stifel KBW team), in order to manage and coordinate the sharing and use of information obtained from BBI or Stifel. BBI agreed to waive any actual or potential conflicts of interest that might arise or result or might have arisen or resulted from KBW's provision of investment banking and financial advisory services to BBI in connection with a transaction with Stifel and also agreed to waive any claims against KBW relating to such conflicts. The amendment also provided that nothing in the amendment limited or reduced the obligation of the BBI KBW team to perform in good faith the investment banking and financial advisory services provided for in the engagement letter. The amendment also provided that BBI, in its sole discretion, could retain other advisors in connection with any transaction with Stifel and that the fees payable to KBW under the engagement letter would be reduced up to $250,000 by any fees and expenses BBI incurred in engaging another financial advisor and in obtaining a fairness opinion. In connection with this amendment to KBW's engagement letter, KBW established an electronic data wall whereby access to the BBI KBW team's electronic files related to the BBI engagement was limited to the members of the BBI KBW team, and no other Stifel personnel (whether on the Stifel KBW team or otherwise) were permitted to access those electronic files. KBW also communicated to Mr. Reichert and other Stifel representatives, including the Stifel KBW team, compliance guidance that included a requirement that Mr. Kirby or his designee be involved in any direct communications between the BBI KBW team and Stifel regarding the proposed merger and a requirement that the respective members of the BBI KBW and Stifel KBW teams not share with each other any information regarding the potential acquisition unless explicitly authorized by their respective clients.

On March 21, 2018, at the direction of BBI, the BBI KBW team communicated bidding instructions to the prospective acquirers, including Stifel. BBI set April 2, 2018, as the deadline for initial, non-binding interest letters or offers to be received by Larry Kirby, the chief executive officer of BBI. Two prospective acquirers submitted indications of interest: Stifel and Company A.

On April 4, 2018, the BBI board held a special meeting, with members of the BBI KBW team present, to review the proposal from each bidder. Stifel's proposed price per share of BBI common stock was greater than the high end of Company A's proposed price per share. In addition, the proposed merger consideration in Stifel's proposal consisted entirely of Stifel common stock, while Company A's proposal contemplated merger consideration that consisted of both Company A common stock and cash. The BBI board discussed each of the proposals, including the financial and tax consequences associated with each proposal, the respective financial performance and condition of each of Stifel and Company A, the strategic and cultural fit of BBI with each of Stifel and Company A and the execution risk of a merger with each of Stifel and Company A. The BBI board determined that the transaction proposed by Stifel represented an overall better strategic and cultural fit than Company A's proposal, with lower execution risk, but that an increase in the merger consideration to be provided by Stifel should be proposed by BBI. The BBI board instructed the BBI KBW team to respond to Stifel with a counterproposal seeking a fixed exchange ratio of the number of shares of Stifel common stock for which each share of BBI common stock would be exchanged, subject to renegotiation if the price per share of Stifel common stock was outside a specified range prior to the execution of the merger agreement as a means of ensuring that the implied value of BBI common stock in the merger would be commensurate with the overall financial market at signing.

Following the BBI board's special meeting, the BBI KBW team, together with other representatives of BBI, contacted representatives of Stifel and communicated the BBI counterproposal. A series of discussions and negotiations involving Mr. Kirby and other representatives of BBI, including the BBI KBW team, and Mr. Reichert and other representatives of Stifel ensued in which the parties discussed BBI's preference for a fixed, higher exchange ratio and Stifel's preference for a period of exclusivity for Stifel to continue its due diligence investigation and negotiate a possible acquisition of BBI. In addition, as authorized by the BBI board at its April 4, 2018, meeting, the BBI KBW team attempted to contact Company A on April 5, 2018, to give Company A an opportunity to improve its proposal. On April 6, 2018, prior to a meeting of the BBI board, the BBI KBW team spoke with Company A and informed Company A that its proposal was lower than that of another bidder that BBI believed was, overall, a stronger cultural and strategic fit. Company A was informed that, unless it intended to improve its proposal, BBI believed it would reach acceptable terms with the other bidder. During that conversation, Company A orally revised its proposal to increase the low end of its proposed price range but did not increase the high end of its range. On April 6, 2018, Stifel submitted a revised proposal to BBI with a fixed exchange ratio.

On April 6, 2018, the BBI board held a special meeting, with the BBI KBW team and representatives of Lewis Rice in attendance, to review Stifel's revised proposal and to receive an update from the BBI KBW team regarding the latest discussions with Company A, including the revised price range of Company A's proposal. The BBI board noted that the revised proposal from Stifel reflected the financial terms sought by the BBI board and discussions between Stifel and BBI following the April 4, 2018, BBI board meeting. Stifel's revised proposal provided for a fixed exchange ratio of shares of Stifel common stock for shares of BBI common stock. Stifel also requested a 30-day exclusivity period to complete its due diligence and reach a definitive agreement with BBI. The BBI board further considered Stifel's historical financial performance, the liquidity and average trading volume of Stifel common stock, Stifel's capitalization, history of dividends and other public information about Stifel. The BBI board also noted that Stifel's business plan was to provide additional capital and funding of BBI Bank to allow it to expand and grow its operations, keeping most of the senior management of BBI Bank. The revised proposal also included, among other things, a requirement that certain key management personnel agree to continue employment with BBI Bank for an agreed term. By resolutions adopted on April 6, 2018, the BBI board accepted the terms of the revised indication of interest from Stifel. Later that day, Mr. Kirby and the BBI KBW team communicated the BBI board's acceptance to Stifel.

Mr. Reichert submitted a due diligence request list to Mr. Kirby and other members of BBI management on April 9, 2018. Beginning in mid-April 2018, BBI commenced uploading additional materials to the online data room in response to Stifel's request. On April 10, 2018, an expanded team from Stifel began an on-site due diligence review of BBI and its subsidiaries, including BBI Bank; off-site due diligence, primarily through the online data room, was undertaken by other local Stifel personnel and by Stifel's outside counsel at Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP (which we sometimes refer to as "Arnold & Porter").

On April 11, 2018, the BBI board engaged FIG Partners to act as financial advisor to the BBI board in connection with BBI's consideration of a possible business combination. The engagement contemplated that FIG Partners would provide an independent analysis of the proposed transaction and an opinion to the BBI board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the BBI shareholders of the consideration to be received in a potential business combination transaction.

Beginning on April 17, 2018, Mr. Kirby and Mr. Reichert discussed possible terms for agreements between Stifel and key BBI Bank management employees regarding the continued employment by BBI Bank of those employees after the merger. Over the next several days, Mr. Reichert interviewed Stanley Cornish, David Gamache, Brian Leeker and other members of BBI Bank senior management. On April 26, 2018, Stifel provided to BBI proposed continuation agreements for these BBI Bank management employees. Discussions with respect to the proposed terms and conditions of these agreements were conducted between Mr. Kirby and Mr. Reichert and continued into early May 2018.

On April 18, 2018, Arnold & Porter circulated to Lewis Rice and BBI a draft of the merger agreement. Stifel conditioned the signing of a final merger agreement upon several related matters, including a unanimous vote of the BBI board, the execution by each of BBI's directors and executive officers and Castle Creek, each in the capacity of a BBI shareholder, of a voting agreement requiring that such person to vote his or her shares of BBI voting common stock for the approval of the merger proposal at any meeting of the BBI shareholders held to consider and vote on the merger and the signing of continuation agreements by 21 officers and key business relationship employees of BBI Bank, including all of BBI Bank's executive officers. Negotiation of the merger agreement and the related transaction documents, and discussions regarding the merger agreement among BBI and its legal and financial advisors, continued throughout late April and the first part of May 2018.

During a call on April 25, 2018, Mr. Reichert and other representatives of Stifel and the Stifel KBW team communicated to Mr. Kirby and the BBI KBW team Stifel's proposal to adjust the agreed fixed exchange ratio downward to reflect Stifel's preliminary diligence conclusions as to the projected earnings of BBI. The BBI board held a special meeting on April 27, 2018, to consider Stifel's proposed change to the exchange ratio. At the time of that BBI board meeting, the price per share of BBI common stock implied by Stifel's proposed adjusted exchange ratio was still greater than the high end of Company A's proposal from early April 2018. The BBI board decided to defer taking any action on Stifel's proposed pricing adjustment until all other terms of the merger could be reviewed as part of the overall merger agreement. On April 27, 2018, Arnold & Porter provided to Lewis Rice a proposed draft of the voting agreement for BBI's directors and executive officers and certain other BBI shareholders and a revised draft of the merger agreement. On April 28, 2018, Mr. Reichert and Mr. Kirby discussed the terms of the revised merger agreement and BBI's expectation that, in the context of the proposed adjustment, the merger agreement would be drafted to be fair to both sides. On May 1, 2018, Lewis Rice delivered to Arnold & Porter a revised draft of the merger agreement that reflected a few open, substantive business issues.

The BBI board held a special meeting on May 4, 2018. Present at the meeting were members of the BBI KBW team and attorneys from Lewis Rice. A representative of FIG Partners participated via telephone. At the meeting, the FIG Partners representative discussed the transaction proposed by Stifel, focusing on its financial terms, and informally advised the board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the proposed Stifel transaction to the BBI shareholders. Representatives from Lewis Rice participated in the meeting and discussed with the BBI board the terms and conditions of the merger agreement. The consensus of the BBI board, particularly in light of Stifel's strong financial condition and prospects, the fact that the decreased exchange ratio proposed by Stifel on April 25, 2018, still represented a higher price per share of BBI common stock than the price contemplated by Company A's proposal and the view that finalization of a definitive merger agreement with Stifel appeared likely, was to accept the decreased exchange ratio proposed by Stifel on April 25, 2018.

Beginning in early May 2018, BBI conducted a reverse due diligence investigation of Stifel. On May 7, 2018, the BBI board was provided with a package of documents containing financial and other public information about Stifel. On that same day, BBI management conducted a conference call with Stifel representatives, including senior executives of Stifel, to discuss business, financial, operational, legal and other due diligence matters concerning Stifel. A representative of the BBI KBW team participated on the conference call to assist with facilitating the discussions between BBI management and the Stifel representatives. Members of the Stifel KBW team also joined the conference call.

On May 9, 2018, the BBI board held a special meeting. Representatives from Lewis Rice participated in the meeting. At this meeting, FIG Partners delivered to the BBI board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on May 10, 2018, to the effect that, as of such date, the exchange ratio was fair to the BBI shareholders from a financial point of view. For a description of FIG Partners' opinion, please refer to "Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC" below. At the meeting, the BBI board reviewed in detail the final merger agreement, ancillary agreements, including the voting agreements and continuation agreements, and related summaries and supplemental materials, together with the final fairness opinion of FIG Partners. At the meeting, the BBI board unanimously approved the merger agreement and ancillary agreements, subject to the required approval of the BBI shareholders and applicable regulatory authorities. After the meeting, the members of the BBI board and BBI's executive officers signed their respective voting agreements. Additionally, the requisite 21 officers and key business relationship employees of BBI Bank signed continuation agreements.

On May 10, 2018, BBI and Stifel executed the merger agreement. Shortly thereafter, Stifel issued a press release publicly announcing the transaction.

BBI's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the BBI Board

At a special meeting held on May 9, 2018, the BBI board unanimously approved the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, determined that the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger are in the best interests of BBI and its shareholders and declared the merger to be advisable.

Table of Contents

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the plan of merger and the merger and to unanimously recommend that holders of BBI voting common stock approve the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal, the BBI board evaluated the merger in consultation with BBI management, as well as BBI's financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to BBI's operation as an independent banking organization, including the risks and uncertainties related to competition in BBI's market area, increased operating and regulatory costs and potentially increased capital requirements;

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of BBI and Stifel, both individually and after giving effect to the merger;

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the transactions and the expected likelihood that such regulatory approvals would be received in a reasonably timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The BBI board also considered a number of uncertainties and risks in its deliberations concerning the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the following:

the merger consideration would be paid through the issuance of a fixed number of shares of Stifel common stock, and any decrease in the market price of Stifel common stock after the date of the merger agreement would result in a reduction of the aggregate merger consideration to be received by BBI shareholders upon completion of the merger;

at the time of voting their shares, holders of BBI voting common stock would not know the precise market value of the consideration they will receive at the effective time of the merger; and the possible disruption to BBI's business that could result from the announcement of the merger and the resulting distraction of management's attention from the day-to-day operations of BBI's business.

The BBI board believes that the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of BBI and its shareholders and recommends that the holders of BBI voting common stock vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by the BBI board is not intended to be exhaustive but includes a description of all material factors considered by the BBI board. The BBI board further considered various risks and uncertainties related to each of these factors and the ability to complete the merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the BBI board in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the BBI board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The BBI board collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger are in the best interests of BBI and its shareholders and that the benefits expected to be achieved from the merger outweigh the potential risks and vulnerabilities.

It should be noted that the explanation of the BBI board's reasoning, and much of the other information, presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, beginning on page 22.

Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC

On April 11, 2018, the BBI board retained FIG Partners to act as financial advisor to the BBI board in connection with BBI's consideration of a possible business combination. FIG Partners is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, values financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, FIG Partners has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The BBI board selected FIG Partners to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

FIG Partners acted as financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and provided a fairness opinion to the BBI board. At the May 9, 2018, meeting at which the BBI board considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, FIG Partners delivered to the BBI board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on May 10, 2018, to the effect that, as of such date, the exchange ratio was fair to the BBI shareholders from a financial point of view. The full text of FIG Partners' opinion is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by FIG Partners in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. BBI shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

FIG Partners' opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to the BBI board in connection with its consideration of the merger and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the BBI shareholders. FIG Partners' opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of BBI voting common stock as to how such holder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the merger or any other matter. It does not address the underlying business decision of BBI to engage in the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for BBI or the effect of any other transaction in which BBI might engage. FIG Partners did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any of BBI's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder, including the merger consideration to be received by BBI shareholders in the merger. FIG Partners' opinion was reviewed by FIG Partners compliance officer consistent with internal policy.

In connection with rendering its opinion, FIG Partners, among other things:

- (i) reviewed the merger agreement;
- (ii) reviewed certain historical, publicly available business and financial information concerning BBI and Stifel including, among other things, quarterly and annual reports filed by the parties with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
- (iii) held discussions with members or representatives of the senior management of BBI and representatives of Stifel for the purpose of reviewing future prospects of the potential pro forma institution related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount of and timing of cost savings expected to be achieved as a result of the merger;
- (iv) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that FIG Partners considered relevant;
- (v) analyzed the value of Stifel common stock to be received as an acquisition currency in relation to Stifel's peers and broader market indices; and

(vi) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as FIG Partners deemed appropriate. FIG Partners also discussed with certain representatives and members of senior management of BBI the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of BBI.

In performing its review, FIG Partners relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to it by BBI and Stifel, or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by it, and FIG Partners assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing its opinion. FIG Partners further relied on the assurances of the management of BBI and Stifel that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. FIG Partners was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any such information and FIG Partners did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. FIG Partners did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of BBI or Stifel, or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor were they furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. FIG Partners rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of BBI or Stifel. FIG Partners did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of BBI, Stifel or the combined entity after the merger and FIG Partners did not review any individual credit files relating to BBI or Stifel. FIG Partners assumed, with BBI's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both BBI and Stifel were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, FIG Partners used earnings estimates and guidance provided by representatives and management of BBI. In addition, FIG Partners used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Stifel for the years ending December 31, 2018 and 2019, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, determined by analyzing historical performance and 2018 and 2019 consensus mean estimated earnings. FIG Partners also used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and a core deposit intangible asset, among other assumptions, as provided by representatives of BBI. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective representatives of BBI senior management and of Stifel confirmed to FIG Partners that those estimates and judgments reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective representatives of the future financial performance of BBI and Stifel, respectively, and FIG Partners assumed that such performance would be achieved. FIG Partners expressed no opinion as to such information or the assumptions on which such information was based. FIG Partners assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of BBI or Stifel since the date of the most recent financial data made available to FIG Partners. FIG Partners also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that BBI and Stifel would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

FIG Partners also assumed that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on BBI, Stifel or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger would be consummated without BBI's walkaway rights under the merger agreement having been triggered, and (iv) the merger and any related transaction would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Finally, with BBI's consent, FIG Partners relied upon the advice that BBI received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

FIG Partners' analyses and the views expressed in its opinion were necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to FIG Partners as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after that date could materially affect FIG Partners' views and FIG Partners did not undertake to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. FIG Partners expressed no opinion as to the trading values of BBI common stock or Stifel common stock at any time or what the value of Stifel common stock would be once it is actually received by the BBI shareholders.

In rendering its opinion, FIG Partners performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying FIG Partners' opinion or the presentation made by FIG Partners to the BBI board, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by FIG Partners. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. FIG Partners believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in FIG Partners' comparative analyses described below is identical to BBI or Stifel, and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of BBI and Stifel and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, FIG Partners did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, FIG Partners made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. FIG Partners did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, FIG Partners made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, FIG Partners also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of BBI, Stifel and FIG Partners. The analyses performed by FIG Partners are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. FIG Partners prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the BBI board at the BBI board's May 9, 2018, meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, FIG Partners' analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of BBI common stock or the prices at which BBI common stock or Stifel common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of FIG Partners and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by the BBI board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement, and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the BBI board or BBI's management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Summary of Proposed Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics

FIG Partners reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Using the May 7, 2018 five-day average closing stock price of Stifel common stock of $58.29, and based upon 2,828,902 shares of BBI common stock outstanding, FIG Partners calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $116.9 million, or a transaction price per share of BBI common stock of $41.09. Based upon financial information for BBI as of or for the last twelve months (LTM) ended December 31, 2017, unless otherwise noted, FIG Partners calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Transaction Price / LTM Net Income:	20.8X
Transaction Price / 2018 Estimated Earnings Per Share:	15.5X
Transaction Price / Tangible Book Value Per Share:	166.7%
Tangible Book Premium/Core Deposits ⁽¹⁾ :	9.6%

Transaction Price / Total Assets:	18.6%

Net Present Value Analyses

FIG Partners performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of BBI common stock assuming BBI performed in accordance with earnings and performance assumptions, based on historical performance and discussions with representatives and management of BBI. To approximate the terminal value of a share of BBI common stock at December 31, 2022, FIG Partners applied price to 2022 estimated earnings multiples ranging from 19.0x to 23.0x and multiples of December 31, 2022, tangible book value ranging from 160% to 200%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 14.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of BBI common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of BBI common stock of $34.02 to $44.99 when applying multiples of earnings and $33.42 to $45.64 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

Earnings Per Share Multiples

Discount Rate	19.0x	20.0x	21.0x	22.0x	23.0x

14.0%	$ 33.42	$ 35.51	$ 37.60	$ 39.68	$ 41.77

In connection with its analyses, FIG Partners considered and discussed with the BBI board how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. FIG Partners noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

FIG Partners analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the merger closes at the end of the last calendar quarter of 2018, and all outstanding shares of BBI common stock are converted into Stifel common stock at the exchange ratio. In performing this analysis, FIG Partners utilized the following information: (i) earnings estimates and guidance provided by representatives and management of BBI as well as historical performance-based assumptions for BBI's earnings estimates in the years 2019–2021; (ii) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Stifel for the years ending December 31, 2018 and 2019, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, determined by analyzing historical performance and 2018 and 2019 estimated earnings; and (iii) certain assumptions relating to transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and expected cost savings, as provided by representatives of the senior management of BBI. The analysis indicated that the merger could be minimally dilutive to Stifel's earnings per share in 2019 (0.2%) and immediately accretive to Stifel's estimated tangible book value per share at the closing of the merger, with an immediate tangible book value payback period based upon the crossover method of payback period calculation.

In connection with this analysis, FIG Partners considered and discussed with the BBI board how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

FIG Partners' Relationship

FIG Partners has acted as financial advisor to BBI in connection with the merger and received a $80,000 fee upon rendering its fairness opinion to the BBI board. BBI has also agreed to indemnify FIG Partners and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under applicable federal or state law.

In the two years preceding the date of FIG Partners' opinion, FIG Partners has not received compensation from BBI for its investment banking services.

Stifel's Reasons for the Merger

Stifel's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Stifel and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, including the issuance of Stifel common stock in connection with the merger, Stifel's board of directors, after consulting with its management as well as its legal advisors, considered a number of factors, including the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

management's knowledge of Stifel's and BBI's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of Stifel's comprehensive due diligence review of BBI;

the opportunity for Stifel to expand its private banking and deposit product capabilities throughout the St. Louis, Missouri, region;

management's view that BBI's business and operations complement Stifel's existing bank franchise and long-term banking strategy;

management's intention to operate BBI Bank as a sister bank to Stifel Bank & Trust and expectation that consummation of the transaction will enable Stifel to efficiently broaden the array of products and services available to BBI's and Stifel's clients, including clients of Stifel's global wealth management and institutional groups;

the quality of BBI's management and employees and BBI's strong existing commercial customer base and reputation for providing quality customer service;

BBI's financial performance and strong asset quality;

management's expectations regarding the post-acquisition operation of BBI, including balance sheet growth and cost savings, and the potential return on invested capital that might be generated from BBI in future periods based on these expectations;

the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, which Stifel's board of directors reviewed with its legal advisors;

the potential risks associated with successfully integrating BBI's business, operations and workforce with those of Stifel;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Stifel's business and towards the completion of the merger;

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions; and Stifel's management's prior record of integrating acquired financial institutions.

Stifel's board of directors approved the merger agreement after Stifel's senior management discussed with the board of directors a number of factors, including those described above, and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of BBI. The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Stifel's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive but includes a description of material factors considered by Stifel's board of directors. Given the wide variety of factors and the amount of information considered in evaluating the merger, Stifel's board of directors did not consider it practicable, and did not attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. Stifel's board of directors viewed its position as being based on all of the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors. Stifel's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate.

It should be noted that the explanation of the reasoning of Stifel's board of directors presented in this section contains information that is forward-looking in nature, and therefore should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, beginning on page 22.

Table of ContentsInterests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In the merger, the directors and executive officers of BBI will receive the same consideration for their shares of BBI common stock as the other BBI shareholders. In considering the recommendation of the BBI board that you vote to approve the merger proposal, you should be aware that some of BBI's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger, and may have arrangements, each as described below, which may be considered to be different from, or in addition to, those of the BBI shareholders generally. The BBI board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to approve the merger agreement, the plan of merger and the merger and to recommend that you vote in favor of approving the merger proposal.

Restricted Stock

Four executive officers of BBI hold restricted stock awards totaling 55,000 shares of BBI restricted stock that were awarded under BBI's Executive Officer Restricted Stock Plan (which we refer to as the BBI stock plan). The restricted stock awards consist of 17,500 shares awarded to Larry Kirby and 12,500 shares for each of Stanley Cornish, Brian Leeker and David Gamache. The BBI stock plan generally provides that in the event of a change in control (as defined in the BBI stock plan) resulting in an exchange of shares of BBI common stock at a cash or equivalent value of at least $40.00 per share, all BBI restricted stock awarded under the BBI stock plan will be deemed to be fully vested. In connection with its approval of the merger agreement, the related plan of merger and the merger, the BBI board determined that the $40.00 per share measure would be deemed satisfied in connection with a change of control effected with Stifel pursuant to the merger agreement.

Stock Options

Under the terms of the merger agreement, outstanding options to purchase BBI common stock, whether vested or unvested, that have not been exercised or canceled prior to such time will, at the effective time of the merger, become fully vested and be canceled. On the effective date of the merger, each holder of BBI stock options will receive, in exchange for the cancellation of each BBI stock option, a lump-sum cash amount equal to $41.76 minus the exercise price per share of such BBI stock option. Under the merger agreement, each holder of BBI stock options will be required to execute an acknowledgment and waiver agreement prior to receiving payment from BBI in connection with the cancellation of such holder's BBI stock options.

The below chart lists the number of shares subject to BBI stock options held by BBI's executive officers and by all other option holders as a group:

Option Holder	Number of Shares Subject to BBI Stock Options	Aggregate Option Cancellation Payment
David Gamache	8,000	$ 184,080
Brian Leeker	2,000	35,520
All other option holders as a group (10 persons)	19,197	417,727
Total (all option holders)	29,197	$ 637,327

Severance and Other Payments to Certain Persons

BBI Bank previously entered into substantially identical Change in Control Agreements (which we refer to as the change in control agreements) with each of Messrs. Kirby, Cornish, Leeker and Gamache, and a certain other officer of BBI or its subsidiaries, each of which provides for payments of severance benefits that may be triggered on termination of employment in connection with the merger. Each of the named executive officers, except for Mr. Cornish, executed a Waiver of Change in Control Agreement (which we refer to collectively as the waiver of change in control agreements) in connection with his continuation agreement. See

Continuation Agreements Stanley Cornish below. The waiver of change in control agreements provide that such officers waive, as of the effective time of the merger, any and all rights they may have under the change in control agreements and that the change in control agreements will terminate at the same time.

Continuation Agreements

As a material inducement and as additional consideration to Stifel to enter into the merger agreement, Stifel entered into employment continuation agreements with Larry Kirby, Stanley Cornish, Brian Leeker, David Gamache and certain other officers of BBI or its subsidiaries. As described below, these agreements set forth the terms and conditions of each such individual's employment relationship with BBI Bank and/or Stifel following the effective time of the merger and will be effective upon and subject to the completion of the merger.

Larry Kirby. Mr. Kirby's continuation agreement replaces and supersedes his existing employment arrangements with BBI and BBI Bank and will automatically terminate if the merger agreement terminates. Mr. Kirby will continue to be employed as chief executive officer of BBI Bank. During his employment, Mr. Kirby will receive a base salary at an annual rate of $275,000. Mr. Kirby will also receive a lump sum prorated bonus (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for the prorated period and as provided in BBI Bank's bonus plan), payable by the last day of the month following the closing date of the merger, and a year-end bonus payable in March 2019 (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for 2018, reduced by the amount of the prorated bonus previously paid) if he is in active working status (as defined in his waiver of change in control agreement). The aggregate amount of the prorated bonus and the year-end bonus is expected to be substantially the same as the amount of the bonus Mr. Kirby would have received for 2018 in the absence of the merger. Because Mr. Kirby executed his waiver of change in control agreement, and if his continuation agreement has not been terminated, Mr. Kirby will receive (i) a bonus of $150,000, payable in January 2020 if he is in active working status through December 31, 2019, or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause before that date, the bonus will be paid within 30 days after his employment terminates, and (ii) at or shortly following the closing date of the merger, a grant of restricted stock units (which we refer to as RSUs) under the Stifel 2001 Incentive Stock Plan. Each RSU entitles Mr. Kirby to a payment equal to the fair market value of one share of Stifel common stock. The value of the RSUs on the date of grant will be $300,000. The RSUs will vest and be distributed in January 2020 or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause prior to that date and he executes a release of claims, Mr. Kirby will be entitled to a separation payment equal to the value of the RSUs. In addition, Mr. Kirby is eligible for a minimum discretionary bonus of $250,000 payable in March 2020 if he is in active working status with Stifel on the date of payment. Mr. Kirby's continuation agreement provides that all previous BBI Bank plans and agreements relating to his employment will terminate as of the closing date of the merger and will not be continued. Should he choose to enroll, Mr. Kirby will be eligible to participate in Stifel's benefits programs currently in effect. The continuation agreement also prohibits Mr. Kirby from soliciting customers or employees of BBI or Stifel, or a Stifel affiliate, for a period of 24 months following termination of his employment.

Stanley Cornish. Mr. Cornish's continuation agreement replaces and supersedes his existing employment arrangements with BBI and BBI Bank, other than rights under his change in control agreement, and will automatically terminate if the merger agreement terminates. Mr. Cornish will continue to be employed as chief operating officer of BBI Bank. During his employment, Mr. Cornish will receive a base salary at an annual rate of $200,000. Mr. Cornish will receive a lump sum prorated bonus (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for the prorated period and as provided in BBI Bank's bonus plan), payable by the last day of the month following the closing date of the merger, and a 2018 year-end bonus payable on or before March 2019, or earlier upon involuntary termination of employment. Mr. Cornish will also receive a prorated bonus for the number of days worked in 2019 unless his employment is terminated for cause. All previous BBI Bank plans and agreements relating to Mr. Cornish's employment will terminate as of the closing date of the merger and will not be continued. Should he choose to enroll, Mr. Cornish will be eligible to participate in Stifel's benefits programs currently in effect. The continuation agreement also prohibits

Mr. Cornish from competing with BBI, Stifel, or a Stifel affiliate within the St. Louis County, Missouri area for a period of 12 months immediately following termination of Mr. Cornish's employment, and from soliciting customers or employees of BBI or Stifel, or a Stifel affiliate, for a period of 24 months following termination of his employment. Pursuant to his change in control agreement, Mr. Cornish is entitled to receive a payment equal to 100% of his then-current base salary plus the average annual incentive bonus compensation for the three most recent years preceding the year that the change in control payment becomes due, upon his termination of employment for any reason other than cause (defined therein) within 12 months following a change in control (defined therein), which, at the closing date of the merger, would have an approximate value of $280,910. BBI Bank agreed in Mr. Cornish's continuation agreement to waive the 12-month termination of employment condition contained in his change in control agreement and to pay the change in control payment within 30 days of his termination date.

Brian Leeker. Mr. Leeker's continuation agreement replaces and supersedes his existing employment arrangements with BBI and BBI Bank and will automatically terminate if the merger agreement terminates. Mr. Leeker will continue to be employed as chief financial officer of BBI Bank following the merger. During his employment, Mr. Leeker will receive a base salary at an annual rate of $180,000. Mr. Leeker will also receive a lump sum prorated bonus (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for the prorated period and as provided in BBI Bank's bonus plan), payable by the last day of the month following the closing date of the merger, and a year-end bonus, payable in March 2019 (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for 2018, reduced by the amount of the prorated bonus previously paid) if he is in active working status (as defined in his waiver of change in control agreement). The aggregate amount of the prorated bonus and the year-end bonus is expected to be substantially the same as the amount of the bonus Mr. Leeker would have received for 2018 in the absence of the merger. Because Mr. Leeker executed his waiver of change in control agreement, and if his continuation agreement has not been terminated, Mr. Leeker will receive (i) a bonus of $75,000, payable in January 2020 if he is in active working status through December 31, 2019, or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause before that date, the replacement bonus will be paid within 30 days after his employment terminates, and (ii) at or shortly following the closing date of the merger, a grant of RSUs under the Stifel 2001 Incentive Stock Plan. Each RSU entitles Mr. Leeker to a payment equal to the fair market value of one share of Stifel common stock. The value of the RSUs on the date of grant will be $180,000. The RSUs will vest and be distributed in January 2020 or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause prior to that date and he executes a release of claims, Mr. Leeker will be entitled to a separation payment equal to the value of the RSUs. Additionally, Mr. Leeker is eligible for a minimum discretionary bonus of $150,000 payable in March 2020 if he is in active working status with Stifel on the date of payment. All previous BBI Bank plans and agreements relating to Mr. Leeker's employment will terminate as of the closing date of the merger and will not be continued. Should he choose to enroll, Mr. Leeker will be eligible to participate in Stifel's benefits programs currently in effect. Mr. Leeker's continuation agreement also prohibits him competing with BBI, Stifel or a Stifel affiliate within the St. Louis County, Missouri, area for a period of 12 months immediately following termination of Mr. Leeker's employment, and from soliciting customers or employees of BBI or Stifel, or a Stifel affiliate, for a period of 24 months following termination of his employment.

David Gamache. Mr. Gamache's continuation agreement replaces and supersedes his existing employment arrangements with BBI and BBI Bank and will automatically terminate if the merger agreement terminates. Mr. Gamache will continue to be employed as General Counsel of BBI Bank. During his employment, Mr. Gamache will receive a base salary at an annual rate of $200,000. Mr. Gamache will also receive a lump sum prorated bonus (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for the prorated period and as provided in BBI Bank's bonus plan), payable by the last day of the month following the closing date of the merger, and a year-end bonus, payable in March 2019 (calculated with reference to the bonus he would have received under BBI Bank's bonus plan for 2018, reduced by the amount of the prorated bonus previously paid) if he is in active working status (as defined in his waiver of change in control agreement). The aggregate amount of the prorated bonus and the year-end bonus is expected to be substantially the same as the amount of the bonus Mr. Gamache would have received for 2018 in the absence of the merger. Because

Mr. Gamache executed his waiver of change in control agreement, and if his continuation agreement has not been terminated, Mr. Gamache will receive (i) a bonus of $75,000, payable in January 2020 if he is in active working status through December 31, 2019, or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause before that date, the replacement bonus will be paid within 30 days after his employment terminates, and (ii) at or shortly following the closing date of the merger, a grant of RSUs under the Stifel 2001 Incentive Stock Plan. Each RSU entitles Mr. Gamache to a value equal to the fair market value of one share of Stifel common stock. The value of the RSUs on the date of grant will be $210,000. The RSUs will vest and be distributed in January 2020 or, if his employment is terminated by Stifel without cause prior to that date and he executes a release of claims, Mr. Gamache will be entitled to a separation payment equal to the value of the RSUs. Additionally, Mr. Gamache is eligible for a minimum discretionary bonus of $150,000 payable in March 2020 if he is in active working status with Stifel on the date of payment. All previous BBI Bank plans and agreements relating to Mr. Gamache's employment will terminate as of the closing date of the merger and will not be continued. Should he choose to enroll, Mr. Gamache will be eligible to participate in Stifel's benefits programs currently in effect. The continuation agreement also prohibits Mr. Gamache from soliciting customers or employees of BBI or Stifel, or a Stifel affiliate, for a period of 24 months following termination of his employment.

Each of these named executive officers' continuation agreements provides that, in the event that any payment under the applicable executive's agreement would trigger an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, the amount of such payment will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following completion of the merger, each of Stifel and the surviving corporation will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each current or former director or officer of BBI and its subsidiaries as of the date of the merger agreement or at any time from the date of the merger to its effective time (in each case when acting in such capacity) against expenses, judgments, fines, losses or liabilities actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, whether arising before or after the effective time of the merger, arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of BBI or any of its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of BBI or any of its subsidiaries as a director or officer of another person, and pertaining to matters, acts or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, and will also advance expenses as incurred by such persons, in each case to the same extent as such persons have the right to indemnity or expense advancement pursuant to BBI's or its applicable subsidiary's articles of incorporation and bylaws, or comparable governing documents, in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. Any person to whom expenses are advanced must provide an undertaking to repay such advances unless it is ultimately determined that such person is entitled to indemnification. BBI, as the surviving corporation, also agreed to maintain in effect, for a period of five years following the effective time of the merger, insurance coverage that will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and terms and conditions no less advantageous than, the current policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by BBI for actions taken prior to the effective time of the merger. The cost of such insurance coverage may not exceed 200% of the premiums BBI paid for its current policy term. In lieu of the foregoing, BBI, in consultation with Stifel, may obtain and fully pay for a six-year tail policy with respect to such claims.

Non-Elective Deferred Compensation Plan

BBI previously adopted the BBI deferred compensation plan. The BBI deferred compensation plan provides the opportunity to certain members of senior management and employees of BBI that participate in the BBI deferred compensation plan to receive certain bonus compensation, subject to the terms and conditions of such plan. Pursuant to the terms of the BBI deferred compensation plan, all participants in such plan become 100% vested in the amounts credited to their accounts under such plan upon a Change-in-Control (as defined in such plan), and completion of the merger will constitute such a Change-in-Control. It is anticipated that, at or near the closing date of the merger, the BBI deferred compensation plan will be paid out in full to its participants.

Table of Contents

The anticipated balance in the BBI deferred compensation plan as of March 31, 2018, is $3,883,053; as of that date, the amount payable to each of Messrs. Kirby, Cornish, Leeker and Gamache was $412,362. In addition, each of Messrs. Kirby, Cornish and Leeker will be fully vested in the unvested portion of his account. Based on account balances as of March 31, 2018, the unvested amount of each such account that will vest on the closing date of the merger is $86,974 for Messrs. Kirby, Cornish and Leeker.

Board of Directors of Stifel Bank & Trust Following the Merger

Following the merger, one or more of Dan Guirl, Larry Kirby and Meade Summers, each of whom is currently a member of the BBI board and BBI Bank's board of directors, may be added to Stifel Bank & Trust's board of directors.

Accounting Treatment

For accounting and financial reporting purposes, the merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of BBI as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of Stifel. Any excess of purchase price over the fair values of net assets acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Consolidated financial statements of Stifel issued after the merger will reflect these fair values and BBI's results of operations from the effective time of the merger and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical consolidated financial position or results of operations of BBI.

Management of the Surviving Corporation and Other Entities Following the Merger

The officers and directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, consisting of persons who are currently serving as officers and directors of Stifel and/or Stifel Bank & Trust, will be the initial officers and directors of the surviving corporation following the merger and will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. The executive officers and directors of BBI immediately following the merger will be:

Executive Officers: Christopher K. Reichert President and Chief Executive Officer; John Barringer Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer; and Zachary A. Abeles Secretary.

Directors: a combination of the respective post-merger boards of directors of BBI Bank and Stifel Bank & Trust.

BBI's subsidiary bank, BBI Bank, will, as a result of the merger, become an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel. Immediately following the Merger, the executive management of BBI Bank and Stifel Bank & Trust will be the same as the executive management of each prior to the merger. Immediately following the merger, BBI Bank's board of directors will include three of its current members (Dan Guirl, Larry Kirby and Meade Summers), plus up to eight members of the current board of directors of Stifel Bank & Trust. Immediately following the merger, the board of directors of Stifel Bank & Trust will be the same as its current board of directors, except that one or more of Messrs. Guirl, Kirby and Summers may be added to such board of directors at some point following the merger.

The directors and officers of Stifel immediately following the merger will be the same as Stifel's directors and officers immediately prior to the merger. For information as to the identities, backgrounds, compensation and certain other matters regarding Stifel's directors and executive officers, please refer to Stifel's proxy statement for its 2018 annual meeting of shareholders and the section titled "Business Executive Officers" in Stifel's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please see "Where You Can Find More Information," beginning on page 99.

Operations Following the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into BBI. As a result, Merger Sub will cease to exist as a separate entity, and BBI will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel. BBI, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will operate under the name Stifel Bancorp, Inc. BBI Bank will continue to operate as a wholly owned subsidiary of BBI and will become an indirect subsidiary of Stifel. Stifel anticipates that BBI Bank will remain a separately chartered subsidiary of Stifel. Upon the closing of the merger or at a point in time thereafter, Stifel, in its discretion and subject to any requisite regulatory approvals, intends to (a) cause BBI to convert from a Missouri corporation to a Delaware corporation, (b) cause BBI Bank to change its name, (c) cause Stifel Bank & Trust to become a subsidiary of BBI, (d) cause Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., to become a subsidiary of Stifel Trust Company, N.A., and (e) cause Stifel Trust Company, N.A. (with Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., as its subsidiary), to become a subsidiary of BBI as well.

BBI Shareholder Approval

The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares of BBI voting common stock outstanding as of [], 2018, the record date for the special meeting, is required to approve the merger proposal. As of the record date for the special meeting, there were [] shares of BBI voting common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least [] shares of BBI voting common stock must be affirmatively voted in favor of the merger proposal in order for the BBI shareholders to approve the merger proposal. Each of BBI's directors and executive officers and Castle Creek entered into voting agreements with Stifel pursuant to which they collectively agreed to vote shares totaling, as of the record date for the special meeting, in the aggregate, approximately 930,000 shares of BBI voting common stock, or approximately []% of the outstanding BBI voting common stock, in favor of the merger proposal. Please see "The Merger Agreement Director, Executive Officer and Large Shareholder Voting Agreements," beginning on page 82.

Dissenters' Rights

BBI shareholders are entitled, under Section 351.455 of the MGBCL, to dissent from the merger and, if the merger is consummated, to receive payment of the fair value of their shares of BBI common stock in cash rather than receiving shares of Stifel common stock as described above. This right to dissent is subject to a number of restrictions and procedural requirements, which are summarized below. If you have a beneficial interest in shares of BBI common stock that are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, you must submit to BBI the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time you assert dissenters' rights.

Each BBI shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger should read carefully both the summary below and the full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL, which is reproduced in full in Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The availability of dissenters' rights is conditioned upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. Failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the complete loss of dissenters' rights. Accordingly, if you wish to dissent from the merger and demand the fair value of your BBI common stock in cash, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

Any BBI shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger should not send in a signed proxy unless such shareholder marks his, her or its proxy to vote against, or to abstain from the vote on, the merger, or such shareholder will lose the right to dissent. Any BBI shareholder who returns a signed proxy but fails to provide instructions as to the manner in which such shares are to be voted will be deemed to have voted in favor of approving the merger proposal and will not be entitled to assert dissenters' rights.

If a dissenting BBI shareholder's written objection is not timely received by BBI prior to or at the special meeting, then such shareholder will not be entitled to exercise his, her or its dissenters' rights. BBI shareholders bear the risk of non-delivery and of untimely delivery. A dissenting BBI shareholder may call BBI's general counsel, at (314) 721-8003, to confirm whether such shareholder's written objection has been received prior to the special meeting.

Procedure for the Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

To exercise dissenters' rights under Section 351.455 of the MGBCL and be entitled to appraisal and payment of the fair value of your shares of BBI common stock in cash, you must:

own BBI common stock as of the record date for the special meeting;

file with BBI, prior to or at the special meeting, a written objection to the merger agreement. This written objection must be made in addition to and separate from any proxy or other vote cast against the approval of the merger proposal. Neither a vote against, a failure to vote for, or an abstention from voting will satisfy the requirement that a written objection be delivered to BBI before the vote is taken;

not vote your shares of BBI common stock in favor of the merger agreement at the special meeting (if you own BBI voting common stock). An abstention or failure to vote will satisfy this requirement, but a vote in favor of the merger proposal, by proxy or in person, will constitute a waiver of your dissenters' rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written objection; and within 20 days after the merger is completed, make a written demand on the surviving corporation in the merger for payment of the fair value of your shares of BBI common stock as of the day prior to the special meeting. Neither a vote cast against the approval of the merger proposal nor the written objection referred to above will satisfy the written demand requirement referred to in this paragraph.

Any written objection with respect to the merger should be sent to: Business Bancshares, Inc., 8000 Maryland Ave, Suite 100, Clayton, Missouri 63105, Attention: David Gamache, General Counsel. Any written demand on the surviving corporation should be sent to: c/o Stifel Financial Corp., 501 North Broadway, St. Louis, Missouri 63102, Attention: Zachary A. Abeles, Senior Vice President & Deputy General Counsel. A vote cast against the merger proposal alone will not satisfy the requirements for compliance with Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. A BBI shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger must comply with all of the conditions listed in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL.

Any BBI shareholder who (i) fails to file a written objection with BBI prior to or at the special meeting; (ii) votes in favor of the merger proposal; or (iii) fails to make a written demand on the surviving corporation within the 20-day period after the effective date of the merger will be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger proposal and will be bound by the terms of the merger agreement and the related plan of merger, will not be deemed to be a dissenting shareholder, and will receive the merger consideration provided for in the merger agreement.

Procedure for Payment or Offer of Payment

If, within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, the value of the dissenting shareholder's shares of BBI common stock is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving corporation, then payment for such shares must be made by the surviving corporation within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, upon the surrender of the dissenting shareholder's certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in such shares or in the surviving corporation.

Judicial Appraisal of Shares

If, within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, there is no agreement between the dissenting BBI shareholder and the surviving corporation as to the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares of BBI common stock, then the dissenting shareholder may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 30-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the county in which the registered office of the surviving corporation is situated, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shareholder's shares. The dissenting shareholder will be entitled to judgment against the surviving corporation for an amount equal to the fair value of such shareholder's shares measured as of the day prior to the special meeting, together with interest thereon to the date of the judgment. Investment banker opinions as to fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a transaction are not opinions as to, and do not address, fair value under the MGBCL. The fair value determined by the court may be more or less than the amount offered to BBI shareholders under the merger agreement.

The judgment will only be payable upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the BBI of the certificate or certificates representing the shares of BBI common stock owned by the dissenting BBI shareholder. Upon payment of the judgment, such shareholder will cease to have any interest in the shares or in the surviving corporation. Further, unless the dissenting shareholder files the petition with the court within the 60-day period described above, the dissenting shareholder and all persons claiming under such shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger and shall be bound its terms, and will receive the merger consideration as described above in exchange for such shareholder's shares of BBI common stock.

The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of such shareholder's shares as provided above will cease if the merger agreement is terminated.

The above summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions of the MGBCL relating to dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 351.455 of the MGBCL, which is reproduced in full in Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

If any BBI shareholder intends to dissent, or if such shareholder believes that dissenting might be in his, her or its best interests, such shareholder should read Annex C carefully.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to the receipt of (i) the approval of the Federal Reserve Board for the merger of Merger Sub with and into BBI, (ii) an order of the Commissioner of Finance declaring Stifel's acquisition of BBI lawful under Missouri law, and (iii) any other regulatory approval the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporation (which Stifel and BBI expect to be none). Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, Stifel and BBI agreed to use their reasonable best efforts and cooperate to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to comply with the terms and conditions of such approvals.

Completion of the merger is also subject to the expiration of any applicable statutory waiting periods, in each case, without the imposition of any condition, prohibition, limitation or other requirement that would, as determined by Stifel's board of directors in its reasonable discretion, (i) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by BBI or any of its subsidiaries, or by Stifel or any of its subsidiaries, of all or any material portion of the business or assets of BBI or any of its subsidiaries or Stifel or its subsidiaries, (ii) compel Stifel or any of its subsidiaries to pay any amounts that would be material as compared to the value of the merger (other than customary filing fees and fees of professional advisors customary to effect transactions comparable in nature and size to the merger), (iii) compel Stifel or any of its subsidiaries to divest any banking office or otherwise dispose of all or any material portion of the business or assets of BBI or any of its subsidiaries or Stifel or any of its subsidiaries, (iv) continue any portion of any material agreement between BBI and a governmental entity against Stifel or any of its subsidiaries after the merger, (v) increase the capital requirements of Stifel or any of its subsidiaries, (vi) restrict or materially limit the ability of Stifel or its subsidiaries to expand its or their business, or (vii) otherwise be reasonably likely to have a material and adverse effect on Stifel and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole and giving effect to the merger (each of which we refer to as a "burdensome condition").

Although Stifel and BBI are not aware of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them or, if received, whether the approvals will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to or have a material adverse effect on Stifel or its subsidiaries after the completion of the merger. Stifel and BBI believe that the merger should not raise any significant regulatory concerns and that we will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner.

Federal Reserve Board

On June 1, 2018, Stifel filed an application with the Federal Reserve Board, pursuant to Section 3(a)(3) of the BHC Act, for prior approval to merge Merger Sub with and into BBI, with BBI as the surviving corporation. In connection with the merger, Stifel would acquire indirect control of BBI's subsidiary bank, BBI Bank, and the respective nonbank subsidiaries of BBI and BBI Bank. As a well-run bank holding company, Stifel has requested expedited action on the application under Section 225.14 of the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Y (which we refer to as "Regulation Y"). Stifel is a financial holding company and, therefore, does not have to seek prior approval for the acquisition of BBI's and BBI Bank's nonbank subsidiaries in connection with the merger.

The Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under Section 3 of the BHC Act and Regulation Y. These factors include, among others, (i) the competitive effects of the proposed transaction, (ii) the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the banking organizations, including the effect of the proposed merger on these resources (including capital and pro forma capital ratios of the combined organization and its management expertise, internal controls and risk management systems, especially those with respect to compliance with laws applicable to consumers and "fair lending" laws), (iii) the supervisory records of the banking organizations, including records of compliance with Bank Secrecy Act and anti-money laundering laws, (iv) the effect of the proposal on the convenience and needs of the communities served by the banking organizations, including consideration of the records of performance of the relevant insured depository institutions under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, (v) the proposal's effect on the concentration of deposits on a nationwide basis and (vi) the extent to which the proposed merger or acquisition would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system.

As part of the application to the Federal Reserve Board, Stifel is also required to publish notice of the transaction and provide an opportunity for public comments or hearing requests to the Federal Reserve Board on the proposed transaction. The Federal Reserve Board takes into account the views of third-party commenters, particularly on the subject of the acquirer's and target's service to their respective communities, and any hearing, meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is under review by the Federal Reserve Board. Because Stifel filed its application under the Federal Reserve Board's expedited processing procedures, Stifel expects that the Federal Reserve Board will act on the application within five business days of the end of the comment period for the application, provided that no comments or hearing requests are received and there are no supervisory, policy or legal concerns identified by the Federal Reserve Board with respect to the proposed merger.

After the Federal Reserve Board approves the transaction, the parties generally must wait at least 30 days to complete the transaction, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice (which we refer to as the DOJ) may bring a court action challenging the transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the concurrence of the DOJ, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the antitrust aspects of the transaction, the DOJ generally analyzes the competitive effects of the transaction differently than the Federal Reserve Board, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve Board does regarding the merger's effects on competition. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

After the merger, Stifel plans to undergo an internal reorganization pursuant to which it would transfer the shares of its current bank subsidiary, Stifel Bank & Trust, to BBI, which would cause Stifel Bank & Trust to become a direct subsidiary bank of BBI. Stifel also intends to cause Stifel Trust Company, N.A., to seek prior approval from the OCC for Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., to become a subsidiary of Stifel Trust Company, N.A., and for Stifel Trust Company, N.A. (with Stifel Trust Company Delaware, N.A., as its subsidiary), to become a subsidiary of BBI as well. Stifel has included its internal reorganization plans in its application to the Federal Reserve Board for the merger; however, the internal reorganization is not part of the merger agreement or the merger, and Stifel is not required to seek prior approval from the Federal Reserve Board for the internal reorganization.

MDF

Under the Missouri bank holding company act, before Stifel may acquire BBI, the Commissioner of Finance must issue an order declaring Stifel's acquisition of BBI lawful under the Missouri bank holding company act. The Commissioner of Finance is required to deem unlawful any acquisition that would result in a banking organization being in control of more than 13% of the total deposits in all depository financial institutions in the State of Missouri. On or about June 6, 2018, the Commissioner of Finance delivered to the Federal Reserve Board a letter stating that the MDF had no objection to the merger under Section 3 of the BHC Act or the Missouri bank holding company act, and the Commissioner of Finance issued an order declaring the merger not unlawful under the Missouri bank holding company act.

NYSE Listing

Stifel has agreed in the merger agreement to use its commercially reasonable efforts to list the shares to be issued in the merger on the NYSE prior to the effective time of the merger.

Resale of Stifel Common Stock

Stifel has registered its common stock to be issued in the merger with the SEC under the Securities Act. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Stifel common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Stifel common stock issued to any BBI shareholder who may become an affiliate of Stifel for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers, directors and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Stifel common stock.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following general discussion sets forth the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of BBI common stock that exchange their shares of BBI common stock for shares of Stifel common stock and cash in the merger. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax. This discussion is based upon the Code, the regulations promulgated thereunder by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (which we refer to as the Treasury Regulations) and court and administrative rulings and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion.

This discussion applies only to those holders of BBI common stock that hold their shares of BBI common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder in light of the holder's particular circumstances or that may be applicable to a holder if the holder is subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including if the holder is:

a financial institution;

a tax-exempt organization;

an S corporation or other pass-through entity (or an investor in an S corporation or other pass-through entity);

an insurance company;

a mutual fund;

a dealer or broker in stocks and securities, or currencies;

a trader in securities that elects mark-to-market treatment;

a BBI shareholder subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

a BBI shareholder that received BBI common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation;

a person that is not a U.S. holder (as defined below);

a person that has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

a BBI shareholder that holds BBI common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion or other integrated transaction; or a U.S. expatriate.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of BBI common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or entity treated as a corporation, organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or (iv) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a partner in an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that holds BBI common stock generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners in a partnership holding BBI common stock should consult their own tax advisors.

To the extent this section consists of statements as to matters of U.S. federal income tax law, this section constitutes the opinion of Lewis Rice LLC and the opinion of Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

Subject to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described herein, Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, counsel to Stifel, and Lewis Rice LLC, counsel to BBI, are of the opinion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to Stifel's obligation to complete the merger that Stifel receive an opinion from Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to BBI's obligation to complete the merger that BBI receive an opinion from Lewis Rice LLC, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on representation letters provided by Stifel and BBI and on customary factual assumptions. If BBI shareholders elect to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to a material number of shares of BBI common stock, we may not be able to receive the requisite tax opinions to the effect that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code, and the merger may not be completed due to the failure of a required closing condition or may need to be restructured. For purposes of rendering the tax opinions, a material number of shares may be 20% of the outstanding shares of BBI common stock or fewer depending on the amount of cash that BBI shareholders otherwise receive in connection with the merger.

None of the opinions described above will be binding on the IRS or on any court. Stifel and BBI have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions on which the opinions described above are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, or if any condition contained in the merger agreement and affecting these opinions is breached or is waived by any party, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Accordingly, and on the basis of the foregoing opinions, as a result of the merger qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, ignoring cash received in lieu of fractional shares, a U.S. holder that exchanges all of its shares of BBI common stock for shares of Stifel common stock pursuant to the merger will not recognize gain or loss in connection with such exchange.

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Stifel common stock received in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares," will equal such U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the BBI common stock surrendered by such U.S. holder in the merger. The holding period for the shares of Stifel common stock received by such U.S. holder in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares," will include the holding period for the shares of BBI common stock exchanged therefor. In the case of any U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of BBI common stock at different times or at different prices, the tax basis and holding period will be determined separately for each identifiable block of shares exchanged in the merger.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

If a U.S. holder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Stifel common stock, the holder will be treated as having received the fractional share of Stifel common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged that fractional share for cash in redemption by Stifel. As a result, the holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis allocable to the holder's fractional share of Stifel common stock. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for the shares (including the holding period of BBI common stock surrendered therefor) is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Capital gains recognized by individuals, trusts and estates also may be subject to a 3.8% Medicare contribution tax on net investment income as provided in Section 1411 of the Code.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if the receipt of the cash is deemed to be essentially equivalent to the distribution of a dividend to the U.S. holder, the cash would be treated as dividend income. While a dividend from Stifel would generally be treated as a qualified dividend and taxed at the same rates applicable to long-term capital gains, a U.S. holder would not be able to apply any portion of its basis to reduce the amount of such dividend and such basis would instead be reallocated to such U.S. holder's other Stifel shares. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each U.S. holder's particular circumstances, including the application of various constructive ownership rules, U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Cash Received on Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

If you perfect your dissenters' rights with respect to your shares of BBI common stock, you will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between your tax basis in those shares and the amount of cash received in exchange for those shares. The tax consequences of cash received may vary depending upon your individual circumstances. Each holder of BBI common stock who contemplates exercising statutory dissenters' rights should consult its tax advisor as to the possibility that all or a portion of the payment received pursuant to the exercise of such rights will be treated as dividend income.

Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a current rate of 24% of the cash payable to the U.S. holder, unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

If a U.S. holder of BBI common stock who receives Stifel common stock in the merger is considered a significant holder, such holder will be required (1) to file a statement with the holder's U.S. federal income tax return providing certain facts pertinent to the merger, including the tax basis in the BBI common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Stifel common stock received in the merger, and (2) to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the merger. A significant holder for this purpose generally is any U.S. holder of BBI common stock who, immediately before the merger, (i) owns at least 1% (by vote or value) of the total outstanding BBI common stock or (ii) owns BBI securities with a tax basis of $1 million or more. Each holder of BBI common stock should consult its tax advisor as to whether such holder may be treated as a significant holder.

This summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your particular situation. You are urged to consult your tax advisor with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to your particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes certain aspects of the merger, including certain material provisions of the merger agreement. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into BBI, with BBI as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger, BBI will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel. BBI's wholly owned bank subsidiary, BBI Bank, will be a wholly owned subsidiary of BBI and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Stifel.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of BBI common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 0.705 shares of Stifel common stock, except for shares held by BBI as treasury stock or by Stifel other than in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted, if any, and except for shares held by BBI shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger.

If the number of outstanding shares of Stifel common stock or BBI common stock is increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in capitalization, or if there is any extraordinary dividend or distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made to the exchange ratio.

Fractional Shares

Stifel will not issue any fractional shares of Stifel common stock in the merger. Instead, Stifel will pay to each BBI shareholder who otherwise would have received a fraction of a share of Stifel common stock an amount in cash (without interest and rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the Stifel share closing price by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Stifel common stock which the holder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Governing Documents; Directors and Officers

At the effective time of the merger, the charter and bylaws of BBI will be amended in their entirety to conform to the articles of incorporation and the bylaws of Merger Sub in effect immediately prior to the effective time and will become the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation until amended in accordance with applicable law.

The directors and officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, consisting of persons who are currently serving as officers and directors of Stifel and/or Stifel Bank & Trust, will be the initial directors and officers of the surviving corporation and will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

Stifel Common Stock and Merger Sub Common Stock

At and after the effective time of the merger, each share of Stifel common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will remain issued and outstanding and will not be affected by the merger.

Table of Contents

At and after the effective time of the merger, each share of common stock of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into one share of common stock of the surviving corporation.

Treatment of Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised BBI stock option will become fully vested and automatically will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $41.76 minus the exercise price per share of the option.

BBI has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, prior to the completion of the merger, a written acknowledgement from each holder of BBI stock options (i) confirming the number of options held, (ii) confirming that the treatment of such options and the amounts to be paid have been correctly calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, and (iii) acknowledging that in consideration for the cancellation of such options, the holder agrees to accept the cash payment described above. If any holder of BBI stock options does not execute and deliver such acknowledgment, then any shares of BBI common stock that would otherwise be issuable upon the exercise of such options automatically will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, and no BBI common stock will be issued upon the exercise of such options.

Treatment of Restricted Stock

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding award in respect of a share of BBI restricted stock will fully vest and automatically will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of BBI common stock underlying the award.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will be completed only if all conditions to the merger discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived. Please see Conditions to Complete the Merger, beginning on page 78.

The effective time of the merger will be the date and time when the merger becomes effective as set forth in the summary articles of merger that will be filed with the Missouri Secretary of State on the closing date of the merger. The closing of the merger will take place at 10:00 a.m. New York City time on the date that is five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to occur of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, unless extended by the mutual agreement of the parties. It currently is anticipated that the completion of the merger will occur in the third or fourth quarter of 2018, subject to the receipt of BBI shareholder approval and regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of other customary closing conditions, but neither Stifel nor BBI can guarantee when or if the merger will be completed.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of BBI common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. After completion of the merger, an exchange agent will exchange certificates representing shares of BBI common stock for the merger consideration to be received pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The parties agreed that Stifel will designate an exchange agent, reasonably acceptable to BBI, to facilitate the exchange.

Letter of Transmittal

As promptly as practicable after the effective time of the merger, and in any event within five days thereafter, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of BBI common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender shares of BBI common stock in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

If any certificate representing BBI common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the merger consideration in exchange for such certificate upon receipt of (i) an affidavit of that fact by the claimant and (ii) if required by Stifel, the posting of a bond in an amount as Stifel may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate.

After completion of the merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of BBI of shares of BBI common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Withholding

Stifel and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash in lieu of fractional shares, dividends or distributions payable, or any other consideration payable, under the merger agreement to any BBI shareholder the amounts they are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any state, local or foreign tax law. If any such amounts are withheld and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Stifel common stock after the effective time of the merger will be paid to the holder of any un-surrendered certificates of BBI common stock until the holder surrenders such certificate in accordance with the merger agreement. After the surrender of a certificate in accordance with the merger agreement, the record holder thereof will be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest, which had previously become payable with respect to the whole shares of Stifel common stock that the shares of BBI common stock represented by such certificate have been converted into the right to receive under the merger agreement.

Representations and Warranties

The representations, warranties, and covenants described below and included in the merger agreement were made only for purposes of the merger agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of Stifel and BBI and may be subject to limitations, qualifications or exceptions agreed upon by the parties, including those included in confidential disclosures made for the purposes of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between Stifel and BBI rather than establishing matters as facts and may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those standards relevant to investors. You should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Stifel, BBI or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Stifel. The representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement and any description of these provisions should not be read alone but, instead, should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 99.

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of each of Stifel and BBI relating to their respective businesses. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement also contains a representation and warranty by Stifel regarding the reservation of sufficient shares of Stifel common stock to be issued, and the availability of cash to be paid, to BBI shareholders upon consummation of the merger.

Many of BBI's and Stifel's representations and warranties are qualified as to materiality or by a material adverse effect standard (that is, they will not be deemed to be untrue or incorrect unless their failure to be true or correct is material or would result in a material adverse effect on the party making such representation or warranty). In addition, certain of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement are subject to knowledge qualifications, which means that those representations and warranties would not be deemed untrue, inaccurate or incorrect as a result of matters of which certain officers of the party making the representation did not have actual knowledge. For purposes of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect, when used in reference to either Stifel, BBI or the surviving corporation, means an effect which (1) is material and adverse to the business, assets, financial condition or results of operations of such party and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, or (2) materially impairs the ability of such party and its subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement on a timely basis, all subject to certain specified exceptions.

Covenants and Agreements

Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Closing of the Merger

BBI has agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified exceptions, it will, and it will cause each of its subsidiaries to, (a) conduct its business in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice and in compliance in all material respects with all applicable laws, (b) use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact its business organization, employees and advantageous business relationships and (c) take no action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or materially delay its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement, to consummate the merger on a timely basis or to obtain the necessary regulatory or government approvals required for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

BBI has also agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified exceptions, it will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of Stifel (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld):

issue, sell, grant, pledge, deliver, dispose of, encumber or otherwise permit to become outstanding any additional shares of its capital stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for any shares of its capital stock, or any options, warrants or rights of any kind to acquire any shares of capital stock or any equity-based awards or interests, except for shares of BBI common stock to be issued pursuant to the exercise of outstanding BBI stock options;

directly or indirectly change, adjust, split, combine, redeem, reclassify, exchange, purchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock, any other securities convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of its capital stock or any options, warrants or other rights of any kind to acquire any shares of its capital stock;

make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend or distribution on any shares of its capital stock, except for dividends or distributions from any subsidiary of BBI to BBI or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, except that, if the effective time of the merger does not occur prior to December 31, 2018, BBI may declare an annual dividend of up to $0.40 per share of BBI common stock consistent with past practice; except as required by the terms of any existing employee benefit plan or contractual obligation or by applicable law, (i) increase the compensation or benefits payable or to become payable to any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant of BBI, other than increases in base salary in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (ii) establish, adopt, enter into or amend any pay, loan or advance any amount to, or sell, transfer or lease any assets to, or buy, acquire or lease any assets from, or enter into any agreement or arrangement with, any of its officers or directors or any of their immediate family members or any of their affiliates or associates, other than compensation or business expense advancements or reimbursements in the ordinary course of business and other than other than part of the terms of such persons employment or service as a director of BBI or its subsidiaries, and other than deposits held by BBI Bank in the ordinary course of business;

except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (i) amend, modify, terminate, renew or waive any material provision of any material contract, lease or insurance policy, or make any change in any instrument or agreement governing the terms of any of its securities, other than renewals or amendments that do not result in material adverse changes of terms to BBI or its subsidiaries, or (ii) enter into any material contract;

other than settlement of foreclosure actions or deficiency judgment settlements in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (i) settle any action, suit, proceeding, order or investigation to which BBI or its subsidiaries is a party if such settlement would (A) involve a payment by BBI or its subsidiaries of an amount in excess of $100,000 individually, or $250,000 in the aggregate, and/or (B) would impose any material restriction the business of BBI or its subsidiaries, or (ii) waive or release any material rights or claims, or agree or consent to the issuance of any injunction, decree, order or judgment materially restricting or otherwise affecting the business or operations of BBI and its subsidiaries;

enter into any new line of business, introduce any material new products or services or incentive programs or arrangements or make any material changes in its lending, investment, underwriting, risk and asset liability management and other banking and operating policies, except as required by applicable law; make any material changes in its policies and practices with respect to underwriting, pricing, originating, acquiring, selling, servicing or buying or selling rights to service loans, or its hedging practices and policies, in each case except as required by applicable law;

materially restructure or materially change its investment securities or derivatives portfolio or its interest rate exposure, through purchases, sales or otherwise, or the manner in which the portfolio is classified or reported, or purchase any equity security or any security rated below investment grade, in each case except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

enter into any derivative transaction;

(i) incur, assume, modify, extend or renegotiate any indebtedness, other than BBI's current credit and/or borrowing arrangements with Associated Bank, N.A., and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines and any extensions or renewals in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (ii) assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise become responsible for the obligations of any other person or (iii) prepay or voluntarily repay any subordinated indebtedness; make any loan or extension of credit, other than loans and extensions of credit that are made in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, consistent with BBI's existing written lending guidelines and, in the case of new loans, that have a principal balance (including one or more loans to the same customer) that does not exceed $8,000,000 in the aggregate;

commit any act or omission that constitutes a breach or default by BBI or any of its subsidiaries under an agreement with a governmental entity or under any material contract and that would reasonably be expected to result in one of the conditions precedent to the closing of the merger not being satisfied on the closing date of the merger;

except for loans or extensions of credit made in compliance with the merger agreement or as required by any existing material contract or lease, make any investment or commitment to invest in real estate or in any real estate development project other than by way of foreclosure or make any investment or commitment to develop any real estate owned by BBI or its subsidiaries;

foreclose on or take a deed or title to any real estate that will become classified as other real estate owned (other than single-family or multi-family residential properties) without first conducting a Phase I environmental site assessment, or foreclose on or take a deed or title to any such real estate if such environmental assessment indicates the presence or likely presence of any hazardous substances under conditions that indicate an existing release, a past release or a material threat of a release of any hazardous substances into structures on the property or into the ground, ground water or surface water of the property;

take, or knowingly fail to take, any action that is intended or is reasonably likely to prevent, delay or impair BBI's ability to consummate the merger or prevent BBI from consummating any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including by adversely affecting the ability of the parties to obtain any required regulatory approval without the imposition of a burdensome condition;

take, or knowingly fail to take, any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

directly or indirectly repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable for any shares of its capital stock;

file any application or make any contract or commitment for the opening or relocation of any, or open or relocate any, branch office, loan production or servicing facility;

merge or consolidate itself or any of its subsidiaries with any other person, or restructure, reorganize or completely or partially liquidate or dissolve itself or any of its subsidiaries; compromise, resolve, or otherwise workout any delinquent or troubled loan, unless such action is in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

take, or knowingly fail to take, any action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied; or agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of its board of directors or similar governing body in support of, any of the above actions.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the merger agreement, BBI will use its reasonable good faith efforts to consult with (but shall not have to obtain the approval of) Stifel before engaging in any activities involving any material changes, not contemplated by BBI's annual budget or BBI's strategic plan (a true and correct copy of which has been provided to Stifel), to BBI's (i) interest rate risk strategies; (ii) asset liability management; (iii) investment strategy; or (iv) funding strategy, including any changes in investments or funding that would constitute a deviation from current approved policies and internal limitations on investment and funding and any material increases or decreases in total investments or total borrowings. BBI and Stifel agreed to meet at least monthly to discuss the status of the foregoing matters.

Stifel has agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified exceptions, it will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of BBI (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld):

take, or knowingly fail to take, any action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied;

take, or knowingly fail to take, any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; or agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of its board of directors or similar governing body in support of, any of the above actions.

Regulatory Matters

Stifel and BBI agreed to cooperate and use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and government entities. However, in no event will Stifel or BBI be required to make any payment to or grant any concession to any third party in connection with obtaining such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations. Stifel and BBI also agreed to furnish each other with all information reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any statement, filing, notice or application to any governmental entity in connection with the merger, as well as to keep each other apprised of the status of matters related to the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Employee Matters

As a material inducement and condition to Stifel entering into the merger agreement, 21 officers and key business relationship employees of BBI Bank, including all of BBI Bank's executive officers, entered into agreements with Stifel to continue their employment with BBI Bank following the merger. In addition, it is a condition to Stifel's obligation to complete the merger that Stifel shall have received similar continuation agreements from (i) eight of nine specified employees (and all nine employees have entered into continuation agreements with Stifel since the merger agreement was executed), and (ii) at least 75% of the members of a group of remaining employees specified in the merger agreement.

BBI has agreed that, upon Stifel's reasonable request, it will, and will cause BBI Bank to, facilitate discussions between Stifel and BBI's or BBI Bank's employees a reasonable time in advance of the closing of the merger regarding employment, consulting or other arrangements to be effective prior to or following the effective time of the merger. In addition, BBI has also agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause, or cause its subsidiaries to cause, certain remaining employees of BBI and its subsidiaries to execute and deliver a continuation agreement to Stifel prior to the closing date of the merger.

Stifel has agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, it will take all reasonable action so that employees of BBI and its subsidiaries who become employees of Stifel or any of its subsidiaries (which we refer to as "continuing employees") will be entitled to participate, effective as soon as administratively practicable following the effective time of the merger, in each Stifel benefit plan of general applicability to the same extent as similarly situated employees of Stifel and its subsidiaries. As of the effective date of the merger, each continuing employee will be entitled to credit for each year of service that was credited to him or her by BBI or any subsidiary of BBI for purposes of determining eligibility for participation and vesting, but not benefit accrual for periods of prior service, in Stifel's, or as appropriate, in the Stifel subsidiary's, employee benefit plans. However, such service will not be recognized if recognition would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service.

BBI has also agreed to (i) use commercially reasonable efforts to terminate its, and its subsidiaries', benefit plans and deferred compensation agreements and arrangements as of the effective time of the merger, except to the extent that Stifel otherwise agrees in its sole discretion and (ii) make payments of all amounts under deferred compensation agreements immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Employees of BBI who are terminated as of the effective time of the merger, or who continue employment with Stifel and are terminated within one year of the effective time of the merger, will be entitled to severance pursuant to BBI's severance policy.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following completion of the merger, each of Stifel and the surviving corporation will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each current or former director or officer of BBI and its subsidiaries as of the date of the merger agreement or at any time from the date of the merger to its effective time (in each case when acting in such capacity) against expenses, judgments, fines, losses or liabilities actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, whether arising before or after the effective time of the merger, arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of BBI or any of its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of BBI or any of its subsidiaries as a director or officer of another person, and pertaining to matters, acts or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, and will also advance expenses as incurred by such persons, in each case to the same extent as such persons have the right to indemnity or expense advancement pursuant to BBI's or its applicable subsidiary's articles of incorporation and bylaws, or comparable governing documents, in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. Any person to whom expenses are advanced must provide an undertaking to repay such advances unless it is ultimately determined that such person is entitled to indemnification.

The merger agreement also requires the surviving corporation to use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain in effect, for a period of five years after completion of the merger, directors' and officers' liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of BBI and its subsidiaries

Table of Contents

(determined as of the effective time of the merger) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from acts and omissions that occurred at or before the effective time of the merger. Such insurance must contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and terms and conditions no less advantageous to such directors and officers, as the coverage currently provided by BBI as of the date of the merger agreement. However, if the surviving corporation is unable to maintain or obtain such insurance, the surviving corporation shall provide as much comparable insurance as is reasonably available, except that the surviving corporation is not required to spend annually more than 200% of the current annual premium paid as of the date of the merger agreement by BBI for such insurance (which we refer to as the premium cap), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed that amount, then the surviving corporation will maintain policies of insurance which, in its good faith determination, provide the greatest coverage available for an aggregate cost that does not exceed the premium cap. In lieu of the foregoing, BBI, in consultation with Stifel, may (and, at Stifel's request, BBI will use its commercial reasonable efforts to) obtain and fully pay for, at or prior to the effective time of the merger, a six-year tail policy under BBI's existing directors and officers insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if such a policy can be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the premium cap. If BBI purchases such a tail policy, Stifel and the surviving corporation may not, and may not permit any of their subsidiaries to, take any action that would reasonably be expected to result in the cancellation or modification of such policy.

Corporate Governance Matters

BBI has agreed to take all appropriate action so that each director and officer of BBI resigns from the positions held by such individual with BBI as of the effective time of the merger. BBI has also agreed to take all appropriate action, and to cause BBI Bank to take all appropriate action, so that each director of BBI Bank resigns from such position and all other positions with BBI Bank held by such individual as of the effective time of the merger, other than up to three directors whom Stifel requests to continue as directors of BBI Bank after the effective time of the merger.

Redemption of BBI Trust Preferred Securities

BBI has agreed to cooperate with Stifel and to use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, and to cause its applicable subsidiaries to take, subject to the prior satisfaction of all conditions to the closing of the merger, receipt of any required regulatory approvals and certain other conditions, any and all actions necessary or advisable under the terms of BBI's issued and outstanding trust preferred securities to effect the redemption or repayment of its trust preferred securities (and retire the associated subordinated debt securities). In the event that BBI is unable to redeem or repay its trust preferred securities prior to the closing of the merger, Stifel has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts, subject to the foregoing conditions, to effect the redemption or repayment of BBI's trust preferred securities (and retire the associated subordinated debt securities).

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing on the NYSE of the shares of Stifel common stock to be issued in the merger, access to information, conducting environmental assessments, litigation relating to the merger agreement or the merger, exemption from takeover laws and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The Special Meeting and Recommendation of the BBI Board

BBI has agreed to take, in accordance with applicable law and its articles of incorporation and bylaws, all action necessary to hold a meeting of its shareholders as soon as practicable for the purpose of voting upon the adoption and approval of the merger agreement. The BBI board has agreed to recommend to the BBI shareholders that they adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (which we refer to as the BBI recommendation) and to use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit such approval from the BBI shareholders and obtain the vote required to adopt the merger agreement, including by communicating such recommendation to the BBI shareholders (and including such recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus). However, if the BBI board, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would be reasonably likely to constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement, then BBI may (but shall not be required to) submit the merger agreement to the BBI shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving the merger agreement may not be rescinded or amended) and may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the BBI shareholders in this proxy statement/prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement to the extent required by law. However, the BBI board may not take such action unless (1) it gives Stifel at least five business days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the BBI board in response to a superior acquisition proposal, the latest material terms and conditions of, and the identity of the third party making, any such acquisition proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstance); and (2) at the end of such notice period, the BBI board takes into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by Stifel and, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless be reasonably likely to constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement to the BBI shareholders.

If there is present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, sufficient favorable voting power to adopt and approve the merger agreement, BBI may not adjourn or postpone the meeting unless the BBI board reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of counsel, that failure to do so would constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. In addition, BBI must adjourn or postpone its shareholder meeting if there are insufficient shares of BBI voting common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

BBI has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and each of its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisors, attorneys, accountants, consultants and other representatives (which we refer to collectively as representatives) not to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, knowingly induce or encourage or knowingly facilitate the making of any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to, or which would reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal; engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning any acquisition proposal; provide or make available any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any acquisition proposal, except to notify a person that has made or, to the knowledge of BBI, is making any inquiries with respect to, or is considering making, an acquisition proposal, of the existence of BBI's obligations under the merger agreement with respect to such acquisition proposals; or enter into any agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal or approve or resolve to approve any acquisition proposal or any agreement relating to an acquisition proposal.

However, prior to the adoption and approval of the merger agreement by the BBI shareholders, if BBI receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal, it may furnish nonpublic information or data and participate in negotiations or discussions if the BBI board concludes in good faith (after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside financial advisor and outside legal counsel) that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be likely to result in a superior proposal and that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the BBI shareholders under applicable law. However, prior to providing any nonpublic information to a third party, BBI must enter into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to BBI than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between BBI and Stifel and which does not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with BBI. In addition, BBI must provide Stifel with at least five business days' prior notice of the consideration by the BBI board of any acquisition proposal and, if the BBI board makes the conclusion described above, five business days' notice before furnishing any nonpublic information to any other person or participating in negotiations or discussions with any other person.

For purposes of the merger agreement:

an acquisition proposal means any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Stifel), relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition transaction;

an acquisition transaction means (A) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving BBI or BBI Bank that results in any person acquiring 20% or more of any class of equity of BBI or BBI Bank; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the consolidated assets of BBI or BBI Bank; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing 20% or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of BBI or BBI Bank; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning 20% or more of any class of equity securities of BBI or BBI Bank; or (E) any transaction similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing; and a superior proposal means a bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal that (i) if consummated would result in a third party acquiring, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the outstanding BBI common stock or all or substantially all of the assets of BBI and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities and (ii) the BBI board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisor and outside legal counsel, (A) is reasonably capable of being completed on a timely basis, taking into account all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal, including all conditions contained in such proposal and the person making such proposal, and (B) taking into account any changes and adjustments to the merger agreement proposed by Stifel in response to such acquisition proposal and all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal deemed relevant by the BBI board, is more favorable to the BBI shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger.

BBI has agreed that it will, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and their representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all activities, discussions or negotiations with any person other than Stifel with respect to any existing or potential acquisition proposal. In addition, BBI must promptly (and in any event within 48 hours) advise Stifel in writing if any inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with BBI or its representatives, in each case in connection with any acquisition proposal. Such notice must specify the name of the person initiating such discussions or making such inquiry, offer or proposal and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers. BBI must also keep Stifel fully informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such inquiry, proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions, including any amendments or modifications to such inquiry, proposal, offer or request.

The merger agreement also provides that the BBI board may not (i) withhold, withdraw, change, qualify, amend or modify (or publicly propose to take any of these actions), in a manner adverse in any respect to the interest of Stifel, or take any other action or make any other statement inconsistent with, the BBI

recommendation, or make any statement, filing or release inconsistent with the BBI recommendation; (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal; (iii) resolve to take, or announce an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions (each of the above being referred to as a BBI subsequent determination); or (iv) enter into any letter of intent or agreement (A) related to any acquisition transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the merger agreement) or (B) requiring BBI to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement.

However, prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by the BBI shareholders, the BBI board may make a BBI subsequent determination after the fifth business day following Stifel's receipt of a notice from BBI advising Stifel that it has received a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to constitute, a superior proposal if, but only if:

the BBI board has determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the BBI shareholders under applicable law;

during the five-business-day period after receipt of such notice by Stifel, BBI and its board of directors have cooperated and negotiated in good faith with Stifel to make adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement as would enable BBI to proceed with the BBI recommendation without a BBI subsequent determination (but Stifel will have no obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement); and at the end of the five-business-day period, after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms, if any, as may have been proposed by Stifel, the BBI board has again in good faith made the determination that the failure to make a BBI subsequent determination in such circumstances would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

Stifel's and BBI's respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the merger agreement shall have been adopted by the BBI shareholders by the requisite shareholder vote;

the shares of Stifel common stock that will be issued pursuant to merger agreement must be authorized for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance;

all requisite regulatory approvals must be obtained and remain in full force and effect, and all statutory waiting periods, if any, must have expired or been terminated (and, in the case of the obligation of Stifel to complete the merger, no such requisite regulatory approval shall contain or shall have resulted in, or would reasonably be expected to result in, the imposition of a burdensome condition);

the registration statement must have become effective, and no stop order suspending such effectiveness shall have been issued, and no proceeding for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn;

no order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall be in effect, and no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the merger;

each of the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger shall be true and correct, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement (and each party shall have received an officer's certificate from the other party to such effect);

each of the agreements, covenants and obligations required to be performed by the other party under the merger agreement shall have been performed in all material respects (and each party shall have received an officer's certificate from the other party to such effect);

since the date of the merger agreement, no condition, event, fact, circumstance or other occurrence shall have occurred that has resulted in a material adverse effect on the other party or that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the other party; and such party shall have received an opinion of its legal counsel to the effect that, on the basis of the facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Stifel's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

Stifel shall have received continuation agreements, pursuant to which employees of BBI Bank shall have agreed to continue in their positions after the closing of the merger, from (i) eight of nine employees specified in the merger agreement (and all nine employees have entered into continuation agreements with Stifel since the merger agreement was executed) and (ii) at least 75% of the members of a group of remaining employees specified in the merger agreement;

Stifel shall have received (i) a signed resignation from each director and officer of BBI and (ii) a signed resignation from each director of BBI Bank, other than up to three directors of BBI Bank whom Stifel may request to continue in such position after the effective time, in each case that shall be in full force and effect as of the effective time of the merger;

Stifel shall have received an affidavit issued by BBI stating that BBI is not and has not been a United States real property holding corporation and a notice from BBI to the IRS in accordance with the requirements of Treasury Regulations Section 1.897-2(h)(2);

as of the last day of the month immediately preceding the month in which the effective time of the merger occurs (or, if the effective time occurs during the first 15 days of a month, as of the last day of the month immediately prior to month immediately preceding the effective time of the merger), BBI shall have non-maturity deposits equal to at least $266,000,000, net loans equal to at least $450,000,000, assets equal to at least $550,000,000 and non-performing assets of no more than $10,000,000;

as of the closing date of the merger, tangible common equity of BBI and its subsidiaries shall be not less than $72,500,000, subject to certain adjustments set forth in the merger agreement; and

BBI's existing credit facility with Associated Bank, N.A., shall have terminated at or prior to the effective time and there shall not be in effect any credit or borrowing arrangement that would prohibit consummation of the merger or impose a lien on any portion of the capital stock of BBI Bank.

BBI's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

if BBI shall not have elected to purchase a tail policy prior to the effective time, Stifel shall have furnished BBI with evidence reasonably satisfactory to BBI of such tail policy; and BBI shall have received a certificate from the exchange agent certifying the exchange agent's receipt of sufficient cash and irrevocable authorization to issue shares of Stifel common stock to satisfy Stifel's obligation to pay the aggregate merger consideration.

Table of Contents

Neither Stifel nor BBI can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither Stifel nor BBI has reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger as follows:

by the mutual written consent of Stifel and BBI;

by either party, if the approval of any governmental entity required for the merger is denied by a final, non-appealable action or an application for such approval shall have been withdrawn at the request of a governmental entity, or if any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final, non-appealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger, unless such action was caused, or materially contributed to, by the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with any provision of the merger agreement;

by either party, if the merger has not been consummated by March 31, 2019, or a later date that has been agreed to in writing by both parties (which date shall automatically be extended for one additional two-month period if additional time is necessary to obtain any required regulatory approval), unless the failure of the closing to have occurred by such date was due to a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement by the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement;

by either party (provided, in the case of termination by BBI, that BBI shall not be in breach of its obligations under the merger agreement relating to the special meeting) if the requisite shareholder vote required for consummation of the merger shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting of such shareholders or any adjournment or postponement of such meeting;

by either party (provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement) if there has been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement on the part of the other party, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches, would constitute the failure of a closing condition and which is not cured within 45 days after written notice from the other party or by its nature cannot be cured during such period;

by Stifel prior to the time that the requisite BBI shareholder vote has been obtained, if the BBI board shall have made a BBI subsequent determination, if BBI shall have approved, adopted or endorsed a superior proposal or if BBI or the BBI board has breached its obligations with respect to the special meeting or its obligations with respect to non-solicitation of offers or acquisition proposals;

by BBI, at any time prior to the requisite BBI shareholder vote being obtained, if BBI concludes in good faith, after consultation with its legal and financial advisors, that it must agree to endorse a superior proposal and terminate the merger agreement in order to comply with its fiduciary duties, and BBI has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to such superior proposal (provided that BBI has complied with all of its obligations with respect to the special meeting and its obligations with respect to the non-solicitation of offers or acquisition proposals); or by BBI, upon written notice to Stifel, if both of the following conditions are satisfied at any time during the seven-calendar-day period commencing on the latest of (i) the date on which all required regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) or (ii) the date on which the BBI shareholder approval has been received (which latest date we refer to as the price determination date), such termination to be effective on the tenth calendar day following the price determination date:

(A) the Stifel market value on the price determination date is less than $47.02; and

(B) the number obtained by dividing the Stifel market value on the price determination date by $58.77 is less than the index ratio minus 0.20; provided that, if BBI elects to exercise this termination right (which we refer to as the "walkaway right"), it must give prompt written notice to Stifel. During the seven-calendar-day period after receipt of such notice, Stifel shall have the option to increase the exchange ratio to equal the lesser of:

(X) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of $58.77, the exchange ratio then in effect and the index ratio minus 0.20 and the denominator of which is equal to the Stifel market value on the price determination date; or

(Y) the quotient determined by dividing $58.77 by the Stifel market value on the price determination date and multiplying the quotient by the product of the exchange ratio then in effect and 0.80. If, within such seven-day period, Stifel delivers a written notice to BBI that it intends to proceed with the merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated above, and notifies BBI of the revised exchange ratio, the merger agreement will remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the exchange ratio shall have been so modified).

For purposes of the merger agreement: (i) "Stifel market value" means, as of any specified date, the average closing price per share of Stifel common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date, (ii) "index ratio" means the final index price divided by $418.70, and (iii) "final index price" means the average of the daily closing value of the KBW NASDAQ Capital Markets Index (or, if such index is not available, such substitute or similar index as substantially replicates the KBW NASDAQ Capital Markets Index) for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the price determination date.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void and of no effect, and neither party nor their respective subsidiaries, officers or directors will have any liability under the merger agreement except that (i) neither party will be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of any provision of the merger agreement occurring prior to termination (which, in the case of BBI, includes the loss to the holders of BBI common stock of the economic benefits of the merger), and (ii) certain provisions of the merger agreement will survive termination, including those relating to the payment of the termination fee and the confidential treatment of information.

Termination Fee

BBI will be required to pay a termination fee to Stifel in the amount of $5.75 million if the merger agreement is terminated in the following circumstances:

if, prior to the termination of the merger agreement, the BBI board becomes aware of a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to BBI and (i) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either Stifel or BBI because the merger has not been completed prior to March 31, 2019, or because BBI has failed to obtain the required vote of its shareholders at a duly held meeting of such shareholders or any adjournment or postponement of such meeting or (ii) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by Stifel as a result of a breach of the merger agreement by BBI that would constitute the failure of a closing condition and that has not been cured during the permitted time period, or by its nature cannot be cured during such period, and (iii) prior to the date that is 12 months after the date of such termination, BBI enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an acquisition proposal (whether or not the same acquisition proposal as that referred to above), then BBI will, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay Stifel, by wire transfer of same-day funds, a fee equal to $5.75 million (which we refer to as the termination fee) (provided that for purposes of the foregoing, all references in the definition of acquisition proposal to 20% will instead refer to 50%); and if the merger agreement is terminated by (i) Stifel because the BBI board has made a BBI subsequent determination, has approved, adopted or endorsed a superior proposal or has breached its obligations with respect to the special meeting or with respect to the non-solicitation of acquisition proposals or (ii) BBI because if it has concluded that it must agree to endorse a superior proposal in order to comply with its fiduciary duties or because it has exercised its walkaway right, then BBI will pay Stifel, by wire transfer of same-day funds, the termination fee on the date of termination.

Expenses and Fees

All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring the expense, except that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus will be borne equally by Stifel and BBI, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger will be borne by Stifel.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Subject to compliance with applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by the parties thereto at any time before or after adoption of the merger agreement by the BBI shareholders; provided that, after the adoption of the merger agreement by the BBI shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment that requires further approval under applicable law. At any time prior to the completion of the merger, the parties thereto may, to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement and waive compliance with any of the agreements or satisfaction of any conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Director, Executive Officer and Large Shareholder Voting Agreements

In connection with entering into the merger agreement, Stifel entered into a voting agreement with each of the current directors of BBI, each of BBI's executive officers, Castle Creek and each of the directors of BBI Bank (which we refer to as the voting agreements). The following summary of the voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the form of director voting agreements attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Pursuant to the voting agreements, each BBI shareholder party to a voting agreement agreed to vote his or her shares of BBI voting common stock:

in favor of the approval of the merger proposal; and in favor of each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and the plan of merger. The voting agreements provide that each shareholder party to a voting agreement will not, unless certain exceptions are met, other than pursuant to the merger:

sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of (including by gift) (each of which we refer to as transfer), or enter into any contract, agreement, option or other arrangement (including any profit sharing arrangement) with respect to the transfer of any shares to any person regarding such shareholder's shares of BBI voting common stock; or enter into any voting arrangement, whether by proxy, voting agreement or otherwise, or commit or agree to take any of the foregoing actions, regarding any of such shareholder's shares of BBI voting common stock.

Table of Contents

The voting agreements do not require any person to divest any passive interest in a covered financial institution, refrain from becoming a shareholder of no more than 4.9% of any covered financial institution or resign from any board position held as of the date of merger agreement. BBI's directors and executive officers and Castle Creek collectively agreed to vote shares totaling, as of the record date for the special meeting, in the aggregate, approximately 930,000 shares of BBI voting common stock, or approximately []% of the outstanding BBI voting common stock, in favor of the approval of the merger proposal.

Holders of BBI common stock are entitled to receive dividends that the BBI board may declare from time to time. BBI may pay dividends only out of funds that are legally available for that purpose. BBI is a bank holding company, and substantially all of its assets are held by BBI Bank. BBI's ability to pay dividends to the BBI shareholders depends primarily on BBI Bank's ability to pay dividends to BBI. Dividend payments and extensions of credit to BBI from BBI Bank are subject to legal and regulatory limitations, generally based on capital levels and current and retained earnings, imposed by law and regulatory agencies. The ability of BBI Bank to pay dividends is also subject to its profitability, financial condition, capital expenditures and other cash flow requirements and to certain restrictions placed on BBI's ability to pay dividends by BBI's existing credit facility with Associated Bank, N.A., and subordinated debentures issued in connection with BBI's trust preferred securities.

DESCRIPTION OF STIFEL CAPITAL STOCK

*As a result of the merger, BBI shareholders who receive shares of Stifel common stock in the merger will become shareholders of Stifel. The rights of holders of Stifel common stock will be governed by Delaware law, Stifel's charter and bylaws and federal law governing bank holding companies, in each case, as may be amended and in effect from time to time. Since the terms of Stifel's charter and bylaws, and Delaware corporate law and federal law governing bank holding companies, are more detailed than the general information provided below, you should read the applicable provisions of Delaware corporate law, Stifel's charter and bylaws and federal law governing bank holding companies carefully and in their entirety. Copies of Stifel's charter and bylaws have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, please see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 99.*

General

Under Stifel's charter, the authorized capital stock of Stifel consists of 194,000,000 shares of Stifel common stock and 3,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share (which we refer to as Stifel preferred stock). As of the date of the merger agreement, there were 71,580,567 shares of Stifel common stock outstanding, which were held of record by approximately 38,300 shareholders, and 6,000 shares of Stifel preferred stock issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

The holders of Stifel common stock, subject to the provisions of Stifel's bylaws and the DGCL relating to the fixing of a record date, are entitled to one vote for each share held of record by them for the election of directors and all other matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Holders of Stifel common stock do not have cumulative voting rights. Accordingly, holders of a majority of the shares voting are able to elect directors to fill all of the directorships up for election. Subject to the provisions of any series of Stifel preferred stock, dividends payable on Stifel common stock in cash or otherwise may be declared and paid on the shares of Stifel common stock from time to time out of any funds or property legally available to be so paid, and in the event of any such declaration or payment the holders of Stifel common stock shall be entitled, to the exclusion of the holders of the Stifel preferred stock, to share therein. In the event of Stifel's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of Stifel common stock are entitled to share ratably in all of Stifel's assets remaining after Stifel pays its liabilities and distributes the liquidation preference of any then outstanding Stifel preferred stock. Holders of Stifel common stock have no preemptive or other subscription or conversion rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the Stifel common stock.

Computershare Trust Company, N.A., is the transfer agent and registrar for Stifel common stock. Stifel common stock is listed on the NYSE and the CHX under the symbol SF.

Preferred Stock

Stifel's board of directors is authorized at any time, and from time to time, to provide for the issuance of shares of Stifel preferred stock in one or more series, and to prescribe the designation, relative preferences and participating, optional and other special rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the shares of each series. This authorization includes the right to fix dividend rates and rights, voting rights, conversion rights, redemption rights, liquidation rights, sinking fund provisions and any other relative rights, preferences and limitations.

Certain Effects of Authorized but Unissued Stock

Stifel may issue additional shares of common stock or preferred stock without shareholder approval, subject to applicable rules of the NYSE and the CHX, for a variety of corporate purposes, including raising additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of unissued and unreserved common and preferred stock may enable it to issue shares to persons who are friendly to current management, which could discourage an attempt to obtain control of Stifel through a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, could protect the continuity of management and could possibly deprive you of opportunities to sell your shares at prices higher than the prevailing market prices. Stifel could also use additional shares to dilute the stock ownership of persons seeking to obtain control of Stifel.

For more information regarding the rights of holders of Stifel common stock, please see Comparison of Shareholder Rights, beginning on page 99.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The special meeting may be adjourned to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal if there are not sufficient votes to approve it or for any other legally permissible purpose.

If, at the special meeting, the number of shares of BBI common stock present or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the merger proposal is insufficient to approve such proposal, BBI intends to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the merger proposal. In accordance with BBI's bylaws, if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal, a vote to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a specified date to solicit additional proxies may be taken in the absence of a quorum.

In this proposal, BBI is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the BBI board on a discretionary basis to vote in favor of adjourning the special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from holders of BBI voting common stock who have previously voted.

The BBI board unanimously recommends that the holders of BBI voting common stock vote FOR the adjournment proposal.

Stifel's bylaws state that each shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share of stock registered in the shareholder's name. A nominee for election to the board of directors is elected to the board if a quorum is present and if the votes cast for the nominee's election exceed the withhold votes cast against the nominee's election. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at any meeting of shareholders for which the number of nominees competing for election exceeds the number of directorships available for election at such meeting.

BBI's charter and bylaws state that, in electing directors, each shareholder has the right to cast a number of votes equal the number of voting shares of BBI voting common stock held by such shareholder in BBI, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at the election. Each shareholder may cast all of his or her votes for one candidate or may distribute the votes among two or more candidates. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected shall be elected.

Under Stifel's charter, a vacancy occurring on Stifel's board of directors is filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors.

BBI's bylaws provide that vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the board may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Directors chosen in this manner hold office until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

Removal of Directors

Under Stifel's bylaws, a director may be removed from office during the term of such office but only upon a showing of good cause, such removal to be by affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote for the election of such director, taken at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

BBI's bylaws provide that at a meeting called expressly for that purpose, the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote may vote remove any director(s) from office with or without cause. If less than the entire board is to be removed, no director may be removed with or without cause if the votes cast against such director's removal would be sufficient to elect such director if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board.

Call of Special Meeting of Directors

A special meeting of Stifel's board of directors may be held at any time or place whenever called by the chairman of the board, by the vice chairman of the board, if any, by the chief executive officer, the Special meetings are held at the place, day and hour specified in the written notice of the meeting.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders

Stifel's bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may only be called by the board, the chairman of the board, the vice chairman of the board, if any, or the president to be held at such date, time and place as stated in the notice of the meeting.

BBI's bylaws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders will be convened by the board, by the chairman of the board, by the president, by the secretary or by the holders of, or by any officer or shareholder upon the written request of the holders of, not less than 25% of the outstanding shares of stock of BBI entitled to vote at such meeting, or by any other person authorized by BBI's charter, and will be called by any officer directed to do so by the board or requested to do so in writing by a majority of the board.

Notice of Shareholder Meetings

Stifel's bylaws state that Stifel must provide written notice of every meeting of the shareholders detailing the time, date, the place of the meeting, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which shareholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting.

BBI's bylaws provide that written or printed notice must of each meeting of the shareholders, stating the place, day and hour of the meeting.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

Section 228 of the DGCL states any action required by this chapter to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Delaware, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded.

BBI's bylaws state that any action required to be taken or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Limitation on Director Liability

Under Stifel's certificate of incorporation, a director of Stifel will not be personally liable to the shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Stifel or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

BBI's bylaws provide that no person is liable to BBI or the shareholders for any loss, damage, liability or expense suffered by BBI on account of any action taken or omitted to be taken by such person as a director or officer of BBI or of any other enterprise which such person serves or has served as a director or officer at the request of BBI, if the person (a) exercised the same degree of care and skill as a prudent person would have exercised under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs, or (b) took or omitted to take such action in reliance upon advice of counsel for BBI, or for such other enterprise, or upon statements made or information furnished by directors, officers, employees or agents of BBI, or of such other enterprise, that the person had no reasonable grounds to disbelieve.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under Section 145 of the DGCL, a corporation may indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents (or a person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Stifel's bylaws provide that Stifel will indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL, any person who is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer of Stifel against costs, charges, expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person. The certificate of incorporation

BBI's bylaws provide that BBI will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of BBI, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BBI, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of BBI and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

The right of indemnification granted under the bylaws does not extend to any director, officer or employee of a subsidiary entity owned by BBI. Any indemnification also provides that Stifel shall indemnify any present or former director or officer of Stifel to the extent such person has been successful, on the merits or otherwise (including the dismissal of an action without prejudice), in defense of any action, suit or proceeding rights for those persons are governed by the articles of organization, articles of incorporation and/or bylaws of the subsidiary entity.

Nomination of Director Candidates of Shareholders

Stifel's bylaws contain the procedures that shareholders must follow to nominate persons for election to Stifel's board of directors.

For any election to be held at the annual meeting of shareholders, the nominating shareholder must deliver written notice to Stifel's secretary not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting. If the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such date, however, notice by the shareholder must be delivered not earlier than the 120th day before such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day after the public announcement is first made of the date of such meeting.

For any election to be held at a special meeting of shareholders, notice by the shareholder must be delivered not earlier than the 120th day before such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such special meeting or the 10th day after notice was given of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees to be elected at such meeting.

BBI's bylaws provide that nominations for the election of directors may be received from any shareholder. Nominations submitted by BBI's nominating committee will be submitted to the board of directors no later than 30 days prior to the date of the annual meeting of shareholders. Nominations submitted by any shareholder will be submitted to the chief executive officer or president in writing no later than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the annual meeting of shareholders for the prior year. Nominations of directors for election will, before inclusion on a ballot, be subject to confirmation that the nominee is qualified and willing to serve. Nominations not made in accordance with the bylaws will not be eligible for election.

Shareholder Proposals

Stifel's bylaws provide that shareholder proposals regarding action to be brought before an annual meeting of shareholders must be timely delivered to Stifel's secretary no fewer than 90 days and no more than 120 days prior to the one-year anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting.

BBI's bylaws provide that any shareholder proposal relating to action to be taken at an annual meeting of shareholders, including nominations for directors, must be submitted in writing and received by BBI's chief executive officer or president at BBI's main office not later than 90 days prior to the one-year anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting.

Appointment and Removal of Officers

Stifel's board of directors elects a chief executive officer, a president, a chief financial officer, treasurer and a secretary as soon as practicable after its annual meeting of shareholders. The board, from time to time, may elect one or more other officers as it deems necessary or advisable, each of whom will have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in the bylaws or as the board or the chief executive

The BBI board elects a president and a secretary at its annual meeting. The board then, or from time to time, may elect one or more of the other officers as it may deem advisable and may further identify or describe the duties of any one or more of the officers of BBI.

Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the board may be removed by the board whenever in the officer determines. Each officer of this type will serve at the pleasure of the board and will hold office until the first meeting of the board after the annual meeting of shareholders next succeeding her or his election, and until her or his successor is elected and qualified or until her or his earlier death, resignation or removal.

The board may remove any officer with or without cause at any time. Any such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights of such officer, if any, with Stifel, but the election or appointment of an officer shall not of itself create contractual rights.

Amendment of Bylaws

Stifel's bylaws provide that Stifel's board of directors may amend or repeal the bylaws at any regular or special meeting of the board. The shareholders also have the power to amend or repeal Stifel's bylaws consistent with Stifel's charter and applicable law.

Stifel's charter provides that Stifel's board of directors has the power to make, alter, amend or repeal Stifel's bylaws.

Amendment of Charter

Stifel's charter does not have provisions governing amendment of the charter generally; therefore, the default rules of the DGCL apply in most cases. Under the DGCL, an amendment of the certificate of incorporation must be adopted by the board of directors and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of any class of stockholders affected by the amendment if the amendment would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class or alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely.

However, the charter provides that Article Ninth, governing the election of the board of directors, the terms board's judgment the best interests of BBI will be served, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

BBI's charter and bylaws provide that the bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted, only (i) by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BBI's stock entitled to vote, or (ii) by a majority of the BBI board.

Under the MGBCL, an amendment to BBI's charter to opt out of the control share acquisition provision of the MGBCL requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. If the charter or bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, then an amendment to the charter to decrease the number of directors to less than three is not effective when the number of shares voting against the proposal for decrease would be sufficient to elect a director if the shares were voted cumulatively at an election of three directors.

Under the MGBCL, all other amendments to the charter are adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote of office of directors, the filling of vacancies on the board of directors and the rights of holders of preferred stock to elect directors, may only be altered, amended or repealed by vote of the holders of 80% of the issued and outstanding shares of Stifel's stock entitled to vote generally for the election of directors, unless such alteration, amendment or repeal has been recommended by three-fourths of the directors then in office.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, a shareholder has the right to receive a judicial appraisal of the fair value of his or her shares if the shareholder has neither voted in favor of nor consented in writing to a merger or consolidation.

Section 351.455 of the MGBCL provides that any shareholder shall be deemed a dissenting shareholder and entitled to appraisal if such shareholder

Unless a corporation's certificate of incorporation provides otherwise, these appraisal rights are not available:

(1) owns stock of a corporation as of the record date of the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger is submitted to a vote, with respect to the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation;

(2) files a written objection to the merger before or after the meeting, with respect to a merger or consolidation by a corporation the shares of which either are listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or are held of record by more than 2,000 holders, if the terms of the merger or consolidation allow the shareholders to receive only shares of the surviving corporation or shares of any other corporation that either are listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or are held of record by more than 2,000 holders, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares; or

(3) does not vote in favor of the meeting, and

(4) makes a written demand on the surviving corporation within 20 days after the merger is effected for payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares as of the day before the date on which the vote approving the merger was taken.

The surviving corporation shall pay to each dissenting shareholder the fair value of his or her shares.

to shareholders of the corporation surviving a merger if no vote of the shareholders of the surviving corporation is required to approve the merger and if certain other conditions are met.

Neither the charter nor the bylaws of Stifel grants appraisal rights in addition to those provided by the DGCL.

Votes Required for Certain Transactions

Under the DGCL, a merger or consolidation requires the approval of Stifel's board of directors and requires the agreement and plan of merger to be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shareholders entitled to vote.

Under the MGBCL, a merger or consolidation requires the submission of a plan of merger or plan of consolidation to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders. At such a meeting, the plan of merger or consolidation is approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Under the MGBCL, a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of BBI's assets also requires that the sale or other disposition be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders and receive the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Restrictions on Business Combinations

Under Section 203 of the DGCL, Stifel may not engage any business combination with an interested stockholder for a period of three years from the date on which the stockholder first becomes an interested stockholder if the transaction is caused by the interested stockholder. There is an exception to the three-year waiting period requirement if:

prior to the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the board of directors approves the business combination or the transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder;

upon the completion of the transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owns at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by directors who are also officers and certain employee stock plans; or the business combination is approved by the board of directors and by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Stifel common stock entitled to vote not owned by the interested stockholder.

Under Section 351.459 of the MGBCL, Missouri corporations may be prohibited from engaging in any business combination with any interested shareholder for a period of five years following such shareholder becoming an interested shareholder unless such business combination was approved by the board of directors on or prior to the date of becoming an interested shareholder. The MGBCL defines an interested shareholder of a corporation as a beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of the corporation's common stock.

A corporation that does not have a class of voting stock registered with the SEC pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act and that has not elected to restrict transactions with interested shareholders through its charter (which BBI has not elected to do), however, is not subject to Section 351.459 of the MGBCL.

A corporation can expressly elect not to be governed by the DGCL's business combination provisions in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, but Stifel has not done so.

The DGCL defines the term "interested stockholder" as a person who owns (or in certain cases, within the past three years did own) at least 15% of the outstanding shares of Stifel common stock.

BBI SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Under BBI's bylaws, any shareholder proposal relating to action to be taken at an annual meeting of shareholders, including nominations for directors, must be submitted in writing and received by BBI's chief executive officer or president at BBI's main office not later than 90 days prior to the one-year anniversary of the annual meeting for the prior year. BBI held its annual meeting of shareholders on April 10, 2018. If the merger is completed, BBI shareholders will become shareholders of Stifel, and there will be no future annual meetings of BBI shareholders. If the merger is not completed prior to the time of BBI's next annual meeting, and a BBI shareholder wishes to submit a proposal relating to action to be taken at the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders, the shareholder's written proposal must be received by BBI's chief executive officer or president not later than January 10, 2019.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of May 10, 2018 (this Agreement), by and between BUSINESS BANCSHARES, INC., a Missouri corporation (the Company), and STIFEL FINANCIAL CORP., a Delaware corporation (Parent).

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Parent (the Parent Board) and the Board of Directors of the Company (the Company Board) have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and their shareholders to consummate the strategic business combination transaction provided for herein, pursuant to which Parent will form a Missouri corporation as a special-purpose, wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), which will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger (hereinafter sometimes referred to in such capacity as the Surviving Corporation) as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent; and

WHEREAS, for federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, as a material inducement and as additional consideration to Parent to enter into this Agreement, certain officers, directors and shareholders of the Company have entered into voting agreements with Parent and the Company dated as of the date hereof, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (each a Voting Agreement and collectively, the Voting Agreements), pursuant to which each such Person (as defined herein) has agreed, among other things, to vote all shares of Company Voting Common Stock (as defined herein) owned by such Person in favor of the adoption and approval of this Agreement, the Plan of Merger (as defined herein) and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein and therein; and

WHEREAS, as a material inducement and as additional consideration to Parent to enter into this Agreement, certain executives of the Company and its Subsidiaries have entered into employment continuation agreements with Parent (each a Continuation Agreement and collectively, the Continuation Agreements) dated as of the date hereof; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with The General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, as amended (the GBCL), and pursuant to the terms and conditions of a plan of merger (the Plan of Merger) to be entered into between Merger Sub and the Company in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company. The Company will be the Surviving Corporation in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and will continue its corporate existence under the Laws of the State of Missouri. Upon consummation of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will terminate.

1.2 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) will take place at 10:00 a.m. New York City time remotely via the electronic exchange of documents between the parties, on the date that is five (5) business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable Law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VII hereof (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties (the Closing Date).

1.3 Effective Time. On the Closing Date, the Merger shall become effective as set forth in the summary articles of merger (the Summary Articles of Merger) to be filed with the Missouri Secretary of State (the MO Secretary). The term Effective Time shall be the date and time when the Merger becomes effective, as set forth in the Summary Articles of Merger.

1.4 Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in the applicable provisions of the GBCL.

1.5 Conversion of Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the holders of any of the following securities:

(a) Subject to Section 2.2(e) and Section 2.3, each share of the voting common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Voting Common Stock) and the non-voting common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Non-Voting Common Stock and, collectively with the Company Voting Common Stock, the Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for shares of Company Common Stock owned by the Company as treasury stock or owned by the Company or Parent (in each case other than in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted), shall be converted, in accordance with the procedures set forth in ARTICLE II, into the right to receive 0.705 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of the common stock, par value $0.15 per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) (such consideration, the Merger Consideration).

(b) All of the shares of Company Common Stock converted into the right to receive Parent Common Stock pursuant to this ARTICLE I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate (each, a Certificate, it being understood that any reference herein to Certificate shall be deemed to include reference to book-entry account statements relating to the ownership of shares of Company Common Stock) previously representing any such shares of Company Common Stock shall thereafter represent only the right to receive (i) a certificate representing the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock which such shares of Company Common Stock have been converted into the right to receive, (ii) cash in lieu of fractional shares which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Section 1.5 and Section 2.2(e), without any interest thereon and (iii) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2. Certificates previously representing shares of Company Common Stock shall be exchanged for certificates representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor) upon the surrender of such Certificates in accordance with Section 2.2, without any interest thereon. If, prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there shall be any extraordinary dividend or distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock that are owned by the Company or Parent (in each case other than in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no stock of Parent or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.6 Parent Common Stock and Merger Sub Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of Parent Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, each share of common stock of Merger Sub (the Merger Sub Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

1.7 Treatment of Stock Options.

(a) Subject to Section 1.7(b), at the Effective Time, each option granted by the Company to purchase shares of Company Common Stock under the Company Stock Option Plan, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time (each, a Company Stock Option) shall become fully vested and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to, in lieu of each share of Company Common Stock that would otherwise have been issuable upon exercise thereof, (A) the product of $59.23 multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (the Option Exercise Price Threshold), less (B) the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Company Stock Option. The Surviving Corporation shall issue the consideration described in the immediately preceding sentence, less applicable tax withholdings (the Option Consideration), within five (5) business days following the Closing Date; provided, that, with respect to the holder of such Company Stock Option, the Parent has received the written acknowledgement and waiver provided for in Section 1.7(b); provided, further, that receipt of such acknowledgment must occur prior to, and is a condition to, any payment to such holder pursuant to this Section 1.7(a). Any Company Stock Option that has an exercise price per share of Company Common Stock that is greater than or equal to the Option Exercise Price Threshold shall be cancelled, and no consideration shall be paid therefor.

(b) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, prior to the Closing Date, a written acknowledgement and waiver, in such form as Parent reasonably determines, from each holder of Company Stock Options (i) confirming the number of Company Stock Options held (and of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Options), (ii) confirming that the treatment of such Company Stock Options pursuant to this Agreement and the amounts to be paid therefor pursuant to this Agreement have been correctly calculated and (iii) acknowledging that in consideration for the cancellation of such Company Stock Options, the holder agrees to accept the Option Consideration. At least five (5) business days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall provide to Parent a copy of each such acknowledgement and waiver that it obtains. If any holder of Company Stock Options does not execute and deliver such an acknowledgment and waiver, then any shares of Company Common Stock that would otherwise be issuable upon the exercise of such holder's Company Stock Options pursuant to the terms thereof shall be automatically converted into the Merger Consideration, and no Company Common Stock shall be issued upon the exercise of such Company Stock Options.

(c) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company, the Company Board and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.7.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, the Company Stock Option Plan means the Business Bancshares, Inc. Incentive Stock Option Plan (Revised April 2006).

1.8 Treatment of Restricted Stock.

(a) At the Effective Time, each award in respect of a share of Company Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under the Company Stock Plan, whether or not vested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (each such award, a Company Restricted Stock Award) shall fully vest (with any performance-based vesting condition applicable to such Company Restricted Stock Award deemed to have been fully achieved (or achieved at the target level if more than one level of achievement) has been contemplated)) and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Company Common Stock underlying such Company Restricted Stock Award. The Surviving Corporation shall issue the consideration described in this Section 1.8(a) (together with any accrued but unpaid dividends corresponding to the Company Restricted Stock Awards that vest in accordance with this Section 1.8(a)), less applicable tax withholdings, within five (5) business days following the Closing Date.

(b) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company, the Company Board and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.7.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, the Company Stock Plan means the Business Bancshares, Inc. Executive Officers Restricted Stock Plan, effective January 29, 2015.

At the Effective Time, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company shall be amended in its entirety to conform to the Articles of Incorporation of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and shall become the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable Law.

1.10 Bylaws of Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the Bylaws of the Company shall be amended in their entirety to conform to the Bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and shall become the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable Law.

1.11 Directors and Officers. The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. The officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office until their respective successors are duly appointed, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

1.12 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. This Agreement is intended to be and the parties hereby adopt this Agreement as a plan of reorganization (within the meaning of Section 1.368-2(g) of the income Tax regulations promulgated, pursuant to the Code, by the Treasury (the Treasury Regulations)) for the purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

ARTICLE II

EXCHANGE OF SHARES

2.1 Parent to Make Merger Consideration Available. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with an exchange agent designated by Parent and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this ARTICLE II, certificates or, at Parent's option, evidence of shares in book entry form (collectively, referred to herein as certificates), representing the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued to holders of Company Common Stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares (such cash and certificates for shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund), to be issued pursuant to Section 1.5 and paid pursuant to Section 2.2(a) in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

Table of Contents2.2 Exchange of Shares.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, but in no event later than five (5) days thereafter, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more Certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to ARTICLE I, a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for certificates representing the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Certificates shall have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement, as well as any dividends or distributions to be paid pursuant to Section 2.2(b). Upon proper surrender of a Certificate or Certificates for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate or Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of ARTICLE I and (ii) a check representing the amount of (A) cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate or Certificates surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this ARTICLE II and (B) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to this Section 2.2, and the Certificate or Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash in lieu of fractional shares payable to holders of Certificates. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon surrender, the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted into the right to receive and any cash in lieu of fractional shares or in respect of dividends or distributions as contemplated by this Section 2.2.

(b) No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this ARTICLE II. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this ARTICLE II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of Parent Common Stock which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted into the right to receive.

(c) If any certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate or Certificates surrendered in exchange therefor is or are registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate or Certificates so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate or Certificates surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of the shares of Company Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock as provided in this ARTICLE II.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Parent. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Parent shall pay to each former shareholder of the Company who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the average of the closing-sale prices of Parent Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) as reported by The Wall Street Journal for the five (5) full trading days ending on the day preceding the Closing Date by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Parent Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.5.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of the Company for twelve (12) months after the Effective Time shall be paid to the Surviving Corporation. Any former shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this ARTICLE II shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the shares of Parent Common Stock, cash in lieu of any fractional shares and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Parent Common Stock deliverable in respect of each former share of Company Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Parent, the Company, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(g) Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or distributions payable pursuant to this Section 2.2 or any other consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Company Common Stock such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be, and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Entity, the withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Common Stock in respect of which the deduction and withholding was made by Parent or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(h) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as Parent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the shares of Parent Common Stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

2.3 Dissenters' Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, rights to payment with respect to shares of Company Common Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by a holder who has not voted to adopt this Agreement or assented thereto in writing and has otherwise complied with Section 351.455 of the GBCL (Section 351.455) (such shares, Dissenting Shares), shall be governed by Section 351.455; provided, however, that if any such holder fails to perfect or otherwise waives, withdraws or loses the right to dissent under Section 351.455, then the right of such holder to be paid the fair value of such holder's Dissenting Shares shall cease, and such Dissenting Shares shall be deemed to have been canceled, extinguished and converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for the right to receive, the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1, without interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent (i) a prompt written notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of or payment for any shares of Company Common Stock, any withdrawal of any such demand and any other demand, notice or instrument delivered to the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the GBCL that relates to such demand, and (ii) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF COMPANY

3.1 Making of Representations and Warranties.

(a) References herein to Company Disclosure Schedule shall mean all of the disclosure schedules required by ARTICLE III and ARTICLE V, dated as of the date hereof and delivered on the date hereof by the Company to Parent. The Company Disclosure Schedule shall be organized to correspond to Sections in ARTICLE III and ARTICLE V of this Agreement. Each exception set forth in the Company Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to qualify (1) the corresponding representation and warranty set forth in this Agreement that is specifically identified (by cross reference or otherwise) in the Company Disclosure Schedule and (2) any other representation and warranty to the extent that the relevance of such exception to such other representation and warranty is reasonably apparent on the face of the disclosure (without need to examine underlying documentation). (b) Except as would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company, each of the Company and its Subsidiaries has good title to all securities and commodities owned by it (except those sold under repurchase agreements), free and clear of any Lien, except as set forth in the Company Financial Statements, or to the extent such securities or commodities are pledged in the ordinary course of business to secure obligations of the Company or its Subsidiaries. Such securities and commodities are valued on the books of the Company in accordance with GAAP in all material respects.

3.22 Real Property Assets.

(a) Section 3.22(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true, correct and complete list of all real property owned in fee as of the date of this Agreement by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any OREO (Company Real Property). True and complete copies of all deeds evidencing ownership of Company Real Property and complete copies of any title insurance policies, title commitments and surveys within the Company's possession or control for each Company Real Property, together with any mortgages, deeds of trust and security agreements to which such Company Real Property is subject, have been furnished or made available to Parent.

Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has received a written notice of, or otherwise has any Knowledge of, any default or termination with respect to any Lease. To the Company's Knowledge, there has not occurred any event and no condition exists that would constitute a termination event or a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of, or default by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in, the performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in any Lease. To the Company's Knowledge, no lessor under a Lease is in breach or default in the performance of any material covenant, agreement or condition contained in such Lease, except where such breach or default has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have paid all rents and other charges to the extent due under the Leases. Copies that are true and complete in all material respects of all leases for, or other documentation evidencing a leasehold interest in the properties listed on Section 3.22(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule have been furnished or made available to Parent.

To the Company's Knowledge, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor the conduct of any of their respective businesses, has infringed, misappropriated, used without authorization or otherwise violated the Intellectual Property rights of any Person. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries owns, or otherwise has valid and sufficient rights to use, all Intellectual Property used or held for use in, or necessary for, its business as such business is currently conducted. The Company and its Subsidiaries have taken reasonable steps in accordance with normal industry practice to maintain the confidentiality of all Company Intellectual Property the value of which is contingent upon maintaining the confidentiality thereof. To the Company's Knowledge, no Person is infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating any Company Intellectual Property, except where such infringement, misappropriation or other violation would not have any material adverse impact on the Company or the relevant Subsidiary. No charges, claims or litigation have been asserted or, to the Company's Knowledge, threatened against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries

(a) contesting the Company's or such Subsidiary's right to use, or the validity of, any of the Company Intellectual Property; (b) challenging or

For purposes of this Agreement, Intellectual Property means any and all of the following, whether or not registered, and all rights therein, arising in any jurisdiction: (i) inventions and improvements thereto, whether or not patentable, invention disclosures, statutory invention registrations, design rights, patents and patent applications (including all reissues, divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, extensions and reexaminations thereof); (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, logos, domain names, Internet account names (including social networking and media names), rights of publicity, trade names, corporate names and all other source identifiers, and all goodwill associated with any of the foregoing; (iii) copyrights, including all derivative works, moral rights, renewals, extensions, reversions and restorations associated with such copyrights, now or hereafter provided by applicable Law, regardless of the medium of fixation or means of expression; (iv) computer software (including source code, object code, firmware, operating systems and specifications), databases and data collections; (v) trade secrets, know-how and confidential business information; (vi) any other type of intellectual property or intellectual property right; (vii) registrations and applications for registration of any of the foregoing; and (viii) rights to sue or recover and retain damages for past, present and future infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any of the foregoing.

The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have implemented reasonable backup, security and disaster recovery technology and procedures consistent with industry practices. As used in this Agreement, IT Assets means, with respect to any Person, the computers, computer software, firmware, middleware, servers, workstations, routers, hubs, switches, data, data communications lines and all other information technology equipment, and all associated documentation, owned by such Person or such Person's Subsidiaries.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 3.23(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company and each of its Subsidiaries (i) are compliant with all applicable privacy Laws, and their own privacy policies and commitments to their respective customers, consumers and employees, concerning data protection and the privacy and security of personal data and the nonpublic personal information of their respective customers, consumers and employees, (ii) since January 1, 2015, have not received any notice asserting any violations of any of the foregoing, and (iii) since January 1, 2015, have not been the subject of any data breach or cybersecurity incident in which any customer data, employee data or confidential or other proprietary data was stolen. The transfer of all such personal data and nonpublic personal information to Parent's control in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby shall not violate any such Laws, privacy policies or commitments.

3.24 Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 3.24(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, there are no outstanding amounts payable to or receivable from, or advances by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to, and neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is otherwise a creditor or debtor to, any director, executive officer, one percent (1%) or greater shareholder of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or to any of their respective affiliates or Associates, or affiliate of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or to the Company's or Company Bank's Knowledge, any Person or enterprise controlling, controlled by or under common control with any of the foregoing, other than part of the normal and customary terms of such Persons' employment or service as a director with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and other than deposits held by Company Bank in the ordinary course of business. All agreements, and transactions between the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company and any of their respective affiliates comply, to the extent applicable, in all material respects with Federal Reserve Act Sections 23A and 23B and Regulation W of the Federal Reserve Board.

(b) As used in this Agreement to indicate a relationship with any Person, Associate means (1) any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association, joint-stock company, unincorporated organization or other organization of any kind or nature (other than the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) of which such Person is an officer, director, manager, partner or holds a like position, or is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of 3% or more of any class of equity securities, (2) any trust or other estate in which such Person has a beneficial interest or serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, or (3) any family member of such Person.

(c) No employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries provides any services to any affiliate (other than the Company and its Subsidiaries) of any one-percent (1%) or greater shareholder of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

3.25 Anti-takeover Provisions. Prior to the execution of this Agreement, the Company has received an opinion (which, if initially rendered orally, has been or will be confirmed by a written opinion, dated the same date) from FIG Partners, LLC, to the effect that, as of the date thereof, and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock. A copy of such opinion has been, or will be, provided by the Company to Parent solely for informational purposes. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded in any material respect as of the date of this Agreement.

(a) Section 3.30(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule (i) sets forth a schedule of all outstanding Loans as of March 31, 2018, and (ii) identifies, as of March 31, 2018, any Loans under the terms of which the obligor was over thirty (30) days delinquent in payment of principal or interest or has been placed on nonaccrual status as of such date. As used in this Agreement, Loan means any written or oral loan, loan agreement, note or borrowing arrangement or other extensions of credit (including leases, credit enhancements, commitments, guarantees and interest-bearing assets) to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party as obligee.

(b) Section 3.30(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule identifies, as of March 31, 2018, each Loan that was classified as Other Loans Specially Mentioned, Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful, Loss, Classified, Credit Risk Assets, Concerned Loans, Watch List or words of similar import by the Company or Company Bank, or that has been identified by accountants or auditors (internal or external) as having a significant risk of uncollectability together with the principal amount of and accrued and unpaid interest on each such Loan and the identity of the borrower thereunder as of such date.

(c) Section 3.30(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule identifies each asset of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that as of March 31, 2018 was classified as other real estate owned (OREO), other repossessed assets or as an asset to satisfy Loans and the book value thereof as of the date of this Agreement as well as any assets classified as OREO, other repossessed assets or assets to satisfy Loans since March 31, 2018 to the date hereof and any sales of such assets between March 31, 2018 and the date hereof, reflecting any gain or loss with respect to any such assets sold.

(d) Except as would not reasonably be expected to be material, each Loan held in the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' loan portfolio (each a Company Loan) (i) is evidenced by notes, agreements or other evidences of indebtedness that are true, genuine and what they purport to be, (ii) to the extent secured, is and has been secured by valid Liens that have been perfected, (iii) to the extent guaranteed, such guarantees are valid and enforceable and (iv) to the Company's and Company Bank's Knowledge, is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor named therein, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by the Enforceability Exceptions. Except as would not reasonably be expected to be material, all pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other collateral documents and security agreements related to the Company Loans are legal, valid, binding and enforceable (except as enforceability may be limited by the Enforceability Exceptions).

(e) All currently outstanding Company Loans (i) were solicited, originated, administered, and, currently exist, and the relevant Loan files are being maintained, in material compliance with all applicable requirements of Law, the applicable loan documents, and Company Bank's lending policies at the time of origination of such Company Loans, and (ii) were made or originated for good, valuable, and adequate consideration in the ordinary course of business; and the notes or other credit or security documents with respect to each such outstanding Company Loan are complete and correct in all material respects. None of the agreements pursuant to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has sold Loans or pools of Loans or participations in Loans or pools of Loans contains any obligation to repurchase such Loans or interests therein solely on account of a payment default by the obligor on any such Loan, and, to the Knowledge of the Company, there are no claims for any such repurchase. Section 3.30(f) of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true and correct report regarding the current status of (i) repurchase requests received by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to repurchase any Loan or interests therein, and (ii) the Company's and its Subsidiaries' reserves in respect of potential repurchase requests to repurchase any Loan or interests therein. For purposes of this Agreement, Recourse Agreements means agreements or arrangements with any Person that obligate the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to repurchase from any such Person any Loan or other asset sold by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or that entitles any such Person to pursue any other form of recourse against the Company or its Subsidiaries, including indemnification.

(g) Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is now nor has it ever been since January 1, 2015, subject to any fine, suspension, settlement or other contract or other administrative agreement or sanction by, or any reduction in any loan purchase commitment from, any Governmental Entity relating to the origination, sale or servicing of mortgage, commercial or consumer Loans.

(h) Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has canceled, released or compromised any Loan, obligation, claim or receivable other than in the ordinary course of business.

(i) Except as set forth in Section 3.30(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company and Company Bank have not, since January 1, 2015, extended or maintained credit, arranged for the extension of credit, or renewed an extension of credit, in the form of a personal Loan to or for any director, executive officer, or principal shareholder (or equivalent thereof) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (as such terms are defined in Regulation O promulgated by the Federal Reserve Board (Regulation O)), except as permitted by Regulation O and that have been made in compliance with the provisions of Regulation O or as entirely exempt therefrom. Section 3.30(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule identifies any Loan or extension of credit maintained by the Company or Company Bank to which Regulation O applies, and there has been no default on, or forgiveness or waiver of, in whole or in part, any such Loan during the two (2) years preceding the date hereof.

Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary thereof originates or makes loans under or pursuant to any loan program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The Company and its Subsidiaries have at all times complied, in all material respects, with the rules and regulations of the loan and loan guarantee programs of the SBA. All Company Loans originated pursuant to or guaranteed by the SBA were (i) made pursuant to all applicable SBA (as the case may be) rules and regulations, (ii) met all applicable underwriting criteria necessary to qualify for the loan or loan guarantee programs of the SBA (as the case may be) and (iii) have been made on standard loan documents approved if required by the appropriate agency. As to each Company Loan which is indicated in the related loan file to be an SBA-guaranteed loan, the Company has complied in all material respects with applicable provisions of the guarantee contract and applicable Law, and, to the Company's Knowledge, the guarantee is in full force and effect with respect to each such Company Loan, and, to the Company's Knowledge, there does not exist any material event or condition which, but for the passage of time or the giving of notice or both, would reasonably be expected to result in a revocation of any such guarantee or constitute adequate grounds for the SBA to refuse to provide guarantee payments thereunder. The Company has delivered to Parent a true and complete list of all SBA loans that are Company Loans indicating the loans for which the guaranteed portion has been sold. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in breach of any warranty or representation made by it in connection with its origination and sale of the guaranteed portion of any SBA loan such that it is, or would reasonably be expected to be, obligated to repurchase any such loan.

3.31 Allowance for Loan and Lease Losses. Company's reserves, allowance for Loan and lease losses and carrying value for real estate owned as reflected in each of the Company Financial Statements, were, in the opinion of management, as of the applicable dates thereof, adequate in all material respects to provide for the possible losses on the applicable items and in compliance with the Company's and Company Bank's existing methodology for determining the adequacy of its allowance for Loan and lease losses as well as the standards established by each applicable Governmental Entity, the Financial Accounting Standards Board and GAAP.

None of the Company, any Subsidiary thereof or, to the extent relating to their activities with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, any of their respective directors, officers or employees is required to be registered, licensed or authorized under the Laws of or administered by any Governmental Entity as an investment adviser, a broker or dealer, an insurance agency or company, a commodity trading adviser, a commodity pool operator, a futures commission merchant, an introducing broker, a registered representative or associated Person, investment adviser, representative or solicitor, a counseling officer, an insurance agent, a sales Person or in any similar capacity with a Governmental Entity.

3.34 Repurchase Agreements. With respect to all agreements pursuant to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has purchased securities subject to an agreement to resell, if any, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, has a valid, perfected first Lien in the government securities or other collateral securing the repurchase agreement, and, to the Company's Knowledge, the value of such collateral equals or exceeds the amount of the debt secured thereby.

3.35 Insurance. Section 3.35 of the Company Disclosure Schedule identifies as of the date of this Agreement all of the material insurance policies, binders, or bonds currently maintained by the Company and its Subsidiaries (the Insurance Policies), including the insurer, policy numbers, amount of coverage, effective and termination dates and any pending claims thereunder. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries are insured against such risks and in such amounts as the management of the Company and Company Bank reasonably have determined to be prudent in accordance with industry practices, and all the Insurance Policies are in full force and effect. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary thereof has received written notice of cancellation of any of the Insurance Policies, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in default thereunder, and all known claims thereunder have been filed in due and timely fashion. The Company has not received written notice that any insurer under any such Insurance Policy (i) is denying liability with respect to a claim thereunder or defending under a reservation of rights clause or (ii) has filed for protection under applicable bankruptcy or insolvency Laws or is otherwise in the process of liquidating or has been liquidated. The Company does not have or maintain any self-insurance arrangement.

anti-terrorism or embargoed Persons requirements. Except as set forth on Section 3.36 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no deposit of Company Bank is a brokered deposit (within the meaning set forth in 12 C.F.R. § 337.6(a)(2)) or is subject to any encumbrance, legal restraint or other legal process (other than garnishments, pledges, set-off rights escrow limitations and similar actions taken in the ordinary course of business).

3.37 Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity. The Company and its Subsidiaries have developed and implemented a contingency planning program in accordance with customary industry standards to evaluate the effect of significant events that may adversely affect the customers, assets or employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries. To the Company's Knowledge, such program was developed to ensure that the Company and its Subsidiaries can recover their mission critical functions, and such program complies in all material respects with the requirements of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council, the FDIC and applicable Law. (iii) have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied during the periods involved, except, in each case, as indicated in such statements or in the notes thereto.

(b) Except as would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, Parent does not have any liability (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise and whether due or to become due) required by GAAP to be included on a consolidated balance sheet of Parent, except for those liabilities that are reflected or reserved against on the consolidated balance sheet of Parent included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 (including any notes thereto) and for liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since December 31, 2017, or in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

To the Knowledge of Parent, there is no reason to believe that Parent's outside auditors and its chief executive officer and chief financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, when next due. As used in this Section 4.7(c), the term Significant Subsidiary means each Subsidiary that is a significant subsidiary as defined in Regulation S-X, promulgated by the SEC, as in effect as of the date hereof.

ARTICLE VI

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

6.1 Registration Statement: Proxy Statement.

(a) The parties hereto agree to cooperate in the preparation of the S-4, including the proxy statement relating to the Company Meeting (including any amendments or supplements thereto, the Proxy Statement). The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly deliver to Parent such information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries, their respective affiliates and the respective holders of their capital stock as may be reasonably requested or required in order to prepare and file the S-4 or any other report required to be filed by Parent with the SEC, or in connection with the qualification of the issuance of the Parent Common Stock with respect to state securities or blue sky Laws, in each case, in compliance with applicable Law. The parties hereto agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the S-4 to be filed with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement, but in any event within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement, and to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after the filing thereof and to keep the S-4 effective for so long as necessary to complete the Merger. The Company agrees to reasonably cooperate with Parent and Parent's counsel and accountants in requesting and obtaining appropriate opinions, consents and letters from the Company's independent auditors in connection with the S-4 and the Proxy Statement. After the S-4 is declared effective under the Securities Act, the Company shall promptly mail or cause to be mailed the Proxy Statement to its shareholders.

(b) The Proxy Statement and the S-4 shall comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Each of the parties hereto agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of itself for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the S-4 will, at the time the S-4 is filed with the SEC, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein not misleading or (ii) the Proxy Statement will, at the date it is first mailed to shareholders of the Company (or such other Persons entitled to vote in respect of matters covered thereby) or at the time of the Company Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading. If, at any time prior to the Effective Time, any information relating to the parties hereto, or any of their respective affiliates, shall be discovered by the Company or Parent that, in the reasonable judgment of Parent, should be set forth in an amendment of, or a supplement to, any of the S-4 or the Proxy Statement, so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto, and the parties hereto shall cooperate in the prompt filing with the SEC of any necessary amendment of, or supplement to, the Proxy Statement or the S-4 and, to the extent required by Law, in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to shareholders of the Company. Parent will advise the Company, promptly after Parent receives notice thereof, of the time when the S-4 has become effective, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of Parent Common Stock issuable for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the S-4 or upon the receipt of any comments (whether written or oral) from the SEC or its staff. Parent will provide the Company and its counsel with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the S-4 and will consider any such comments in good faith, and, except to the extent such response is submitted under confidential cover, all responses to requests for additional information by and replies to comments of the SEC prior to filing such with, or sending such to, the SEC. Parent will provide the Company and its counsel with a copy of all such filings made with the SEC.

6.2 Regulatory Matters. Except with respect to any forms, reports, statements or certifications filed, furnished or otherwise submitted to or with the SEC (which shall be governed by Section 6.1):

(a) Each of the parties hereto shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, cooperate with the other party and use its commercially reasonable efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger) and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and Governmental Entities; provided, that neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries will be required to make any payment to or grant any concessions to any third party in connection therewith. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as soon as practicable and in no event later than forty-five (45) days after the date of this Agreement, the parties hereto shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, each prepare and file any applications, notices and filings required to be filed with any Governmental Entity in order to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals. The parties hereto shall each use, and shall each cause its applicable Subsidiaries to use, reasonable best efforts to (i) take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to obtain any third-party consent which may be required to be obtained in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and, subject to the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VII, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby (including, for purposes of this Section 6.2, required in order to continue any contract or agreement with the Company or its Subsidiaries following the Closing or to avoid any penalty or other fee under such contracts and agreements, in each case arising in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby) and (ii) obtain each Requisite Regulatory Approval as promptly as reasonably practicable. Parent and the Company shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to Parent or the Company, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, that appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The Company will reasonably consult with Parent with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby. The Company shall consult with Parent in advance of any meeting or conference that the Company may have with any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, give Parent and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences.

(b) Parent and the Company shall, upon request, furnish each other with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the any statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) To the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, each of the Company and Parent shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed. As used in this Agreement, Requisite Regulatory Approvals means all required regulatory authorizations, consents, orders or approvals from (x) the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC and the MDF and (y) any other approvals set forth in Sections 3.6 and 4.5 that are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, except for any such approvals the failure of which to be obtained would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Surviving Corporation.

6.3 Access to Information.

(a) For the purposes of verifying the representations and warranties of the Company and preparing for the Merger and the other matters contemplated by this Agreement, the Company agrees that, upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, the Company shall afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives of Parent reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to its properties, books, records, officers and employees and to such other information within its possession or control as Parent may reasonably request, and, during such period, the Company shall make available to Parent such other information within its possession or control concerning its business, properties and personnel and its Subsidiaries that is substantially similar in scope to the information provided to Parent in connection with its diligence review prior to the date of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.3(a) to the contrary, such access shall not include any right of Parent or any of its representatives to conduct any environmental site assessment or any other environmental sampling or testing of any Company Real Property or Leased Premises prior to the Effective Time.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, to the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, the Company shall furnish to Parent (i) copies of the board packages distributed to the Company Board or the board of directors of any of its Subsidiaries, (ii) minutes from the meetings thereof, (iii) copies of any internal management financial control reports showing actual financial performance against plan and previous period, (iv) detailed calculations of Non-Maturity Deposits, Net Loans, Assets, NPAs and Tangible Common Equity, in each case of the Company and its Subsidiaries, as of each month-end from the date hereof to the Closing Date, (v) copies of any reports provided to the Company Board or any committee thereof relating to its financial performance and risk management, and (vi) each month, a schedule of all outstanding Loans as of the last day of the immediately preceding month; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to furnish to Parent any documents where doing so would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the Company or its Subsidiaries or contravene any applicable Law or fiduciary duty. The parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the proviso at the end of the immediately preceding sentence apply.

(c) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, each party will promptly notify the other party in writing of any matter hereafter arising that, if existing, occurring or known as of the date hereof, would have been required to be set forth or described in the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Parent Disclosure Schedule, as applicable, or that is necessary to correct any information in the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Parent Disclosure Schedule, as applicable, that has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. Each such notice shall be identified prominently on its face as a notice pursuant to this Section 6.3(c) and shall include, or have attached to it, a proposed supplement or amendment to the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Parent Disclosure Schedule, as applicable, regarding such matter (each, a Schedule Supplement). If the matter disclosed in any Schedule Supplement, taken together with any previous Schedule Supplements, constitutes a sufficient basis for Parent to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(e), then Parent may elect to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e). If Parent does not terminate this Agreement prior to the date that is thirty (30) days after Parent's right to terminate this Agreement first arises as contemplated by this Section 6.3(c), then such Schedule Supplement shall be deemed to be incorporated into and to supplement and amend the Company Disclosure Schedule as of the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, and Parent shall be deemed to have irrevocably waived any right to terminate this Agreement only on account of the specific matter disclosed in such Schedule Supplement.

(d) No investigation by Parent or its representatives shall be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the Company set forth in this Agreement or the conditions to the obligations of Parent to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. Any investigation hereunder shall be conducted in such manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the conduct of business of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and shall be conducted at Parent's sole cost and expense.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.3 to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize any attorney-client privilege or contravene any Law, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The Company will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(f) Parent shall hold all information furnished by or on behalf of the Company or any of the Company's Subsidiaries or representatives pursuant to this Section 6.3 in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the confidentiality agreement, dated February 15, 2018, between Parent and the Company (the Confidentiality Agreement).

6.4 Company Shareholder Approval.

(a) The Company shall take, in accordance with applicable Law and the Company's articles of incorporation and bylaws, all action necessary to establish a record date for, and to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders (the Company Meeting) as soon as practicable (and in any event such meeting to be convened within sixty (60) days following the time when the S-4 is declared effective) for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Company Vote required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger. Except with the prior approval of Parent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, no other matters shall be submitted for the approval of Company shareholders at the Company Meeting. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Company shall, through the Company Board, recommend to its shareholders that they adopt and approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (the Company Recommendation) and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to solicit such approval from the shareholders of the Company and to obtain the Requisite Company Vote, including by communicating to its shareholders the Company Recommendation (and including the Company Recommendation in the Proxy Statement). However, if the Company Board, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would be reasonably likely to constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law to continue to recommend this Agreement, then in submitting this Agreement to its shareholders, the Company Board may (but shall not be required to) submit this Agreement to its shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Company Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to its shareholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by law; provided, that the Company Board may not take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives Parent at least five (5) business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the Company Board in response to a Superior Proposal, the latest material terms and conditions of, and the identity of the third party making, any such Superior Proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstance), and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the Company Board takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by the other party and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless be reasonably likely to constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the changing, qualifying or modifying of the Company Recommendation by the Company Board shall not change the approval of the Company Board for purposes of causing any Takeover Law to be inapplicable to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger.

(b) Except to the extent provided otherwise in Section 6.4(a) and Section 6.16, (i) the Company Board shall at all times prior to and during the Company Meeting make the Company Recommendation and shall not make a Company Subsequent Determination, and (ii) the Proxy Statement shall include the Company Recommendation. In the event that there is present at the Company Meeting, in person or by proxy, sufficient favorable voting power to secure the Requisite Company Vote, the Company will not adjourn or postpone the Company Meeting unless the Company Board reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of counsel, that failure to do so would constitute a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(c) The Company shall adjourn or postpone the Company Meeting if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of Company Voting Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting.

6.5 Legal Conditions to Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their commercially reasonable efforts in good faith (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal and regulatory requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party that is required to be obtained by the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that this Section 6.5 will not require Parent to agree to, or take, any Burdensome Condition.

6.6 Stock Exchange Listing. Parent agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

6.7 Employee Matters.

(a) The Company shall, and shall cause Company Bank to, upon Parent's reasonable request, facilitate discussions between Parent and the Company's or the Company Bank's employees a reasonable time in advance of the Closing Date regarding employment, consulting or other arrangements to be effective prior to or following the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, any interaction between Parent and the Company's or the Company Bank's employees shall be coordinated by the Company.

(b) The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause, or cause its Subsidiaries to cause, each employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries who is listed on Section 7.2(e)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule to execute and deliver to Parent a Continuation Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to Parent prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall take all reasonable action so that employees of Company and its Subsidiaries who become employees of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (the Continuing Employees) shall be entitled to participate, effective as soon as administratively practicable following the Effective Time, in each Parent benefit plan of general applicability to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries. As of the Effective Date, each Continuing Employee shall be entitled to credit for each year of service that such Continuing Employee has credited to him or her by the Company or a Company Subsidiary for purposes of determining eligibility for participation and vesting, but not benefit accrual for periods of prior service, in Parent's, or as appropriate, in the Parent Subsidiary's, employee benefit plans; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service. Parent shall use the original date of hire utilized by Company or a Company Subsidiary in making these determinations. The Company (i) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to terminate its, and its Subsidiaries', benefit plans and deferred compensation agreements and arrangements effective as of the Effective Time except to the extent that Parent otherwise agrees in writing in its sole discretion and (ii) shall make payments of all amounts under deferred compensation agreements immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Employees of the Company who are terminated on the Effective Time, or who continue employment with Parent and are terminated within one year of the Effective Time, shall be entitled to severance pursuant to the Company severance policy as set forth in Section 6.7(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section 6.7 or elsewhere in this Agreement, express or implied, shall confer upon any present or former employee of Company or a Company Subsidiary any rights or remedies of any nature or kind whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, including any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period, or level of compensation or benefits.

(f) Nothing contained in this Section 6.7 or elsewhere in this Agreement, express or implied, shall (i) limit the right of Parent or any of its affiliates to terminate the employment or services of, or to reassign or otherwise alter the status of, any former employee of Company or a Company Subsidiary after the Closing, (ii) limit the ability of Parent or any of its affiliates to terminate, amend or modify any benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement or arrangement of Parent or any of its affiliates, or (iii) be construed as amending or modifying any Parent benefit plan as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(g) Nothing in this Section 6.7 or elsewhere in this Agreement, shall be deemed to make any employee, former employee, director, former director, or independent contractor of Company, any Company Subsidiary or any affiliate thereof (including any beneficiary or dependent thereof) a third party beneficiary of this Agreement or provide any rights relating thereto.

6.8 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each current or former director or officer of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of the date hereof or at any time from the date hereof to the Effective Time (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, the Company Indemnified Parties) against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses or liabilities actually and reasonably incurred by such Company Indemnified Party in connection with any threatened or actual action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), whether arising before or after the Effective Time, arising out of the fact that such Person is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as a director or officer of another Person and pertaining to matters, acts or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (each, a Claim), to the same extent as such Persons have the right to be indemnified pursuant to the Company's or its applicable Subsidiary's articles of incorporation and bylaws, or comparable governing documents, in effect on the date of this Agreement; and Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall also advance expenses as incurred by such Company Indemnified Party to the same extent as such Persons have the right to expense advancement pursuant to the Company's or its applicable Subsidiary's articles of incorporation and bylaws, or comparable governing documents, in effect on the date of this Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, provided that the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides a reasonable and customary undertaking to repay such advances, unless it is ultimately determined that such Person is entitled to indemnification. Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Indemnified Party, and the Company Indemnified Party shall reasonably cooperate with the Parent and the Surviving Corporation, in the defense of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

(b) For a period of five (5) years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be maintained in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of the Company or its Subsidiaries (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from acts and omissions that occurred at or before the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), which insurance will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and terms and conditions no less advantageous to the Company Indemnified Parties, as that coverage currently provided by the Company as of the date hereof; provided, that if Parent is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance called for by this Section 6.8, Parent will provide as much comparable insurance as is reasonably available (subject to the limitations described in this Section 6.8(b)); provided, further, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 200% of the current annual premium paid as of the date hereof by the Company for such insurance (the Premium Cap), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the Premium Cap, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith determination, provide the greatest coverage available for an aggregate cost not exceeding the Premium Cap. In lieu of the foregoing, the Company, in consultation with Parent, may (and at the request of Parent, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to) obtain and fully pay for, at or prior to the Effective Time, a six-year tail policy on the terms described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the Premium Cap (except if one or more directors elects to pay for any excess over such amount). If the Company purchases such a tail policy prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall not, and shall not permit any of their Subsidiaries to, take any action that would reasonably be expected to result in the cancellation or modification of such policy.

(c) The obligations of the Surviving Corporation, Parent and the Company under this Section 6.8 shall not be terminated or modified after the Effective Time in a manner so as to adversely affect any Company Indemnified Party without the written consent of the affected Company Indemnified Party.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.8 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Company Indemnified Party. If, following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns will consolidate with or merge into any other entity and not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets or deposits to any other entity, then, in each case to the extent the obligations set forth in this Section 6.8 are not otherwise transferred and assumed by such successors and assigns by operation of law or otherwise, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation will assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.8.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, shall be construed to or shall release, waive or impair any rights to directors' and officers' insurance claims under any policy that is or has been in existence with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any of their respective directors, officers or other employees, it being understood and agreed that the indemnification provided for in this Section 6.8 is not prior to or in substitution for any such claims under such policies.

6.9 Notification of Changes. Parent and the Company (in such capacity, the Notifying Party) shall each promptly advise the other party of any change or event (i) that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Notifying Party or (ii) which the Notifying Party believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of the Notifying Party's representations, warranties or covenants contained herein that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in set forth in, if Parent is the Notifying Party, Section 7.1 or Section 7.3, or if the Company is the Notifying Party, Section 7.1 or Section 7.2; provided, that any failure to give notice in accordance with the foregoing with respect to any breach shall not be deemed to constitute a violation of this Section 6.9 or the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by the party failing to give such notice, in each case unless the underlying breach would independently result in a failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 to be satisfied.

6.10 Director and Officer Matters.

(a) The Company shall take all appropriate action so that each director and each officer of the Company (i) provides to Parent a signed resignation from such position held by such individual, effective as of the Effective Time, in a form reasonably satisfactory to Parent, at least five (5) business days prior to the Closing Date, and (ii) resigns from such position held by such individual as of the Effective Time.

(b) The Company shall take all appropriate action, and shall cause Company Bank to take all appropriate action, so that, as of the Effective Time, each director of Company Bank, other than up to three (3) directors whom Parent may request to continue in such position after the Effective Time, (i) provides to Parent a signed resignation from such position and all other positions with Company Bank held by such individual, effective as of the Effective Time, in a form reasonably satisfactory to Parent, at least five (5) business days prior to the Closing Date, and (ii) resigns from such positions held by such individual as of the Effective Time.

6.11 Transition; Informational Systems Conversion.

(a) From and after the date hereof, Parent and the Company shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate the integration of the Company with the business of Parent following consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall meet on a regular basis to discuss and plan for the conversion of the data processing and related electronic informational systems of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries (the Informational Systems Conversion), in such a manner sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that a successful Informational Systems Conversion will occur at (i) the time that is immediately following the Merger or (ii) such later date as may be specified by Parent, in each case, subject to any applicable Laws, including Laws regarding the exchange of information and other Laws regarding competition. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company shall, subject to any such applicable Laws: (v) reasonably cooperate with Parent to establish a project plan as specified by Parent to effectuate the Informational Systems Conversion; (w) use its commercially reasonable efforts to have the Company's outside contractors continue to support both the Informational Systems Conversion effort and its ongoing needs until the Informational Systems Conversion can be established; (x) provide, or use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from any outside contractors, all data or other files and layouts reasonably requested by Parent for use in planning the Informational Systems Conversion, as soon as reasonably practicable; (y) provide reasonable access to the Company's personnel and facilities and, with the consent of its outside contractors, its outside contractors personnel and facilities, to the extent necessary to enable the Informational Systems Conversion effort to be completed on schedule; and (z) give notice of termination, conditioned upon the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, of the contracts of outside data, item and other processing contractors or other third-party vendors to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is bound if requested to do so by Parent to the extent permitted by such contracts; provided, that Company shall not be required to take any action under this Section 6.11 that, after providing Parent with notice of the Company's concerns in the matter, would prejudice or adversely affect in any material respect its rights under any such contracts in the event the Closing does not occur. Parent shall promptly reimburse the Company for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the actions described in this Section 6.11. Such access as contemplated by this Section 6.11 shall be conducted by Parent in a manner which does not adversely affect the normal operations of the Company, and Company shall not be required to provide access to or disclose information (i) which would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of Company or contravene any binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement or any Law or fiduciary duty, (ii) except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, related to the Company's directors, officers, employees, accountants, counsels, advisors (including investment bankers) agents or other representatives consideration of, or deliberations regarding, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; or (iii) the disclosure of which would violate applicable Law.

(b) Following the receipt of the Requisite Regulatory Approvals and prior to the Effective Time, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall, subject to Section 6.11(a), take any actions Parent may reasonably request from time to time to prepare the parties for integration of the operations of the Company with Parent at the Parent's sole cost and expense.

6.12 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the Company or shall give the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Parent prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of the Company and Parent shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.13 Environmental Assessments. No later than forty-five (45) business days after the date hereof, the Company shall reasonably cooperate with and grant access to an environmental consulting firm selected and paid for by Parent (the Environmental Consultant), during normal business hours (or at such other times as may be agreed to by the Company), to any OREO, for the purpose of conducting an ASTM Phase I and an asbestos and lead base paint survey as it relates to providing an environmental site assessment to determine whether any such property may be impacted by a recognized environmental condition, as that term is defined by ASTM. Each Phase I (including the asbestos and lead base paint surveys) shall be delivered in counterpart copies to Parent and the Company and will include customary language allowing both Parent and the Company to rely upon its findings and conclusions. The Environmental Consultant will provide a draft of any Phase I to the Company and Parent for review and comment prior to the finalization of such report. If the Company has ASTM Phase I reports for any OREO that are dated as of a date that is within one (1) year before the date of this Agreement, then the Company may deliver such reports to Parent in lieu of the obligations set forth in this Section 6.13 with respect to that property.

6.14 Additional Agreements. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the officers and directors of the Company and its Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Parent, including the provision of an appropriate power of attorney empowering any and all of Parent's officers to take such actions on behalf of the Company's officers and directors.

The Company shall promptly provide to Parent any non-public information regarding the Company or its Subsidiaries provided to any other Person which was not previously provided to Parent, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other Person.

(b) The Company shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all activities, discussions or negotiations with any Person other than Parent with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly (and in any event within 48 hours) advise Parent in writing if any inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, the Company or its Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such inquiry, proposal, offer or information request and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (and, in the case of written materials relating to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications) except to extent that such materials constitute confidential information of the party making such offer or proposal under an effective confidentiality agreement or any such disclosure would jeopardize attorney-client privilege). The Company agrees that it shall keep Parent informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such inquiry, proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including any amendments or modifications to such inquiry, proposal, offer or request). The Company shall enforce any existing confidentiality or standstill agreements to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party in accordance with the terms thereof and shall not release any Person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality or standstill agreements to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party. Any violation of the restrictions in this Section 6.16 by any Representative of the Company or its Subsidiaries, whether or not such Representative is so authorized and whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of the Company or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company.

(c) Subject to Section 6.16(d), neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall: (i) withhold, withdraw, change, qualify, amend or modify, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, change, qualify, amend or modify, in a manner adverse in any respect to the interest of Parent, in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), or take any other action or make any other statement inconsistent with, the Company Recommendation, or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the Company Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the Company Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the Company Recommendation); (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; (iii) resolve to take, or announce an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions (each of (i), (ii) or (iii) a Company Subsequent Determination); or (iv) enter into (or cause the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (A) related to any Acquisition Transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.16(a)) or (B) requiring the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 6.16(c), prior to obtaining the Requisite Company Vote, the Company Board may make a Company Subsequent Determination after the fifth (5th) business day following Parent's receipt of a notice (the Notice of Superior Proposal) from the Company advising Parent that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received constitutes, or is reasonably likely to constitute, a Superior Proposal if, but only if, (i) the Company Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company's shareholders under applicable Law (it being understood that the initial determination under this clause (i) will not be considered a Company Subsequent Determination), (ii) during the five (5) business day period after receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal by Parent (the Notice Period), the Company and the Company Board shall have cooperated and negotiated in good faith with Parent to make such adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable the Company to proceed with the Company Recommendation without a Company Subsequent Determination; provided, however, that Parent shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (iii) at the end of the Notice Period, after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms, if any, as may have been proposed by Parent since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal, the Company Board has again in good faith made the determination that the failure to make a Company Subsequent Determination in such circumstances would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law. In the event of any material revisions to the Superior Proposal, the Company shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal to Parent and again comply with the requirements of this Section 6.16(d).

(e) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Parent), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction.

(ii) Acquisition Transaction means: (A) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company or Company Bank that, in any such case, results in any Person (or, in the case of a direct merger between such third party and the Company, Company Bank or any other Subsidiary of the Company, the stockholders of such third party) acquiring 20% or more of any class of equity of the Company or Company Bank; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the consolidated assets of the Company or Company Bank; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing 20% or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of the Company or Company Bank; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning 20% or more of any class of equity securities of the Company or Company Bank; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

(iii) Superior Proposal means a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) (i) that if consummated would result in a third party (or, in the case of a direct merger between such third party and the Company, Company Bank or any other Subsidiary of the Company, the stockholders of such third party) acquiring, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the outstanding Company Common Stock or all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities and (ii) that the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisor and outside legal counsel, (A) is reasonably capable of being completed on a timely basis, taking into account all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal, including all conditions contained therein and the Person making such Acquisition Proposal, and (B) taking into account any changes and adjustments to this Agreement proposed by Parent in response to such Acquisition Proposal, as contemplated by Section 6.16(d), and all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal deemed relevant by the Company Board, including the amount and form of consideration, the timing of payment, the risk of consummation of the transaction, the financing thereof, all conditions contained therein and the Person making such proposal, is more favorable to the shareholders of the Company from a financial point of view than the Merger.

6.17 Public Announcements. So long as this Agreement is in effect, Parent and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior consent of the other, which shall not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld; provided, however, that (a) any such press release or public statement as may be required by Law (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing with the SEC) or any listing agreement with or notice or application to any national securities exchange may be issued or made without prior consent of such other party (but after consultation with the other party, to the extent practicable in the circumstances) and (b) a party may issue a press release or make a public statement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing with the SEC) that is consistent with prior press releases issued or public statements made in compliance with the first sentence of this Section 6.17 without such consultation. It is understood that Parent shall assume primary responsibility for the preparation of joint press releases relating to this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

6.18 Takeover Statutes. Neither the Company nor Parent, nor either of their respective Boards of Directors, shall take any action that would cause any Takeover Statute to become applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, and each shall take all necessary steps to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby from any applicable Takeover Statute now or hereafter in effect. If any Takeover Statute may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, Parent, the Company and the members of their respective Boards of Directors will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and thereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Statute on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, if necessary, challenging the validity or applicability of any such Takeover Statute.

6.19 Redemption of Company Trust Preferred Securities. The Company shall cooperate with Parent and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, and to cause any of the Company's applicable Subsidiaries to take, any and all actions as may be necessary or advisable under the terms of the Trust Preferred Securities to effect the redemption or repayment of the Trust Preferred Securities (and retire the associated subordinated debt securities), in each case,

- (a) subject to and contingent upon the prior satisfaction of all conditions to the Closing under Sections 7.1 and 7.3, and
- (b) solely to the extent such redemption or repayment (i) is permissible pursuant to the terms of the Trust Preferred Securities, (ii) will not cause the Company or Company Bank to be less than well-capitalized for regulatory purposes, and (iii) has received any required regulatory approvals. In the event that the Company is unable to redeem or repay the Trust Preferred Securities prior to the Closing, Parent agrees that it shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the redemption or repayment of the Trust Preferred Securities (and retire the associated subordinated debt securities), subject to clauses (a) and (b) of the immediately preceding sentence.

6.20 Closing Date Share Certification. At least two (2) business days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent a certificate certifying the number of shares of Company Common Stock (including shares of Company Common Stock subject to outstanding Company Stock Options) and Company Preferred Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Closing Date Share Certification).

6.21 Minimum Financial Measure Determinations.

(a) No later than two (2) business days after the satisfaction of the last to be satisfied of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VII (other than those conditions that, by their nature are to be satisfied at Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver (if permitted by applicable Law) of those conditions), the Company will prepare and deliver to Parent its good faith determination, as of the Determination Date, of (I) the aggregate outstanding consolidated balance of non-maturity deposits (excluding brokered deposits within the meaning set forth in 12 C.F.R. § 337.6(a)(2)) (Non-Maturity Deposits) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (II) the aggregate outstanding consolidated balance of net loans (Net Loans) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (III) the total consolidated assets (Assets) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (IV) the total consolidated non-performing assets (NPAs) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and (V) Tangible Common Equity.

(ii) Merger-Related Expenses means all costs, fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Company and its Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) up to and including the Closing, including (1) change-in-control payments, retention and severance payments in the amounts or pursuant to the policies or programs set forth in the Company Disclosure Schedule, (2) amounts required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement, (3) the fees and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with the termination, assignment, assumption or renegotiation of any Company Material Contracts on or before the Closing in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as Parent and the Company mutually agree (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding the fees and expenses associated with Company Material Contracts renewed in the ordinary course of business), (4) the amount(s) paid (whether paid by Parent or its Subsidiaries or the Company or its Subsidiaries) to obtain the insurance coverage required pursuant to Section 6.8(b), (5) any amounts paid pursuant to Section 6.19 and (6) the fees and expenses of the Company and its Subsidiaries' attorneys, accountants, investment bankers and other advisors and agents. 6.22 Tax Treatment of the Merger. The parties hereto intend the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Each of the parties hereto will both before and after the Effective Time (i) use reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to so qualify; and (ii) refrain from taking any action that would reasonably be expected to cause the Merger to fail to so qualify.

ARTICLE VII

(d) S-4. The S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act, no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the S-4 shall have been issued, and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn.

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual consent of Parent and the Company in a written instrument;

(b) by either Parent or the Company upon written notice to the other party if the approval of any Governmental Entity required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement is denied by final, non-appealable action of such Governmental Entity or an application therefor shall have been withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Entity, or if any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final, non-appealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the Merger; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, such action;

(c) by either Parent or the Company if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before March 31, 2019 (the Termination Date), or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Parent and the Company, provided, however, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) if the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before said date was due to material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein by such party; and provided, further, that if additional time is necessary in order to obtain any Requisite Regulatory Approval, the Termination Date shall be automatically extended for one additional two-month period;

(d) by either Parent or the Company (provided, in the case of the Company, that it shall not be in breach of any of its obligations under Section 6.4) if the Requisite Company Vote required for the consummation of the Merger shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting of such shareholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof;

(e) by either Parent or the Company (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party, would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Section 7.3, in the case of a termination by the Company, and which is not cured within forty-five (45) days following written notice to the Company, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Parent, in the case of a termination by the Company, or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period (or such fewer days as remain prior to the Termination Date);

(f) in addition to and not in limitation of Parent's termination rights under Section 8.1(e), by Parent prior to such time as the Requisite Company Vote is obtained, if (i) the Company Board shall have made a Company Subsequent Determination, (ii) the Company Board shall have approved, adopted or endorsed a Superior Proposal, or (iii) the Company or the Company Board has breached its obligations under Section 6.4 or Section 6.16 in any material respect;

(g) by the Company, at any time prior to the Requisite Company Vote being obtained, in the event that the Company shall conclude, in good faith after consultation with its legal and financial advisors, that it must agree to endorse a Superior Proposal and terminate this Agreement in order to comply with its fiduciary duties, and the Company has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal; provided, that the Company has complied with all of its obligations under Sections 6.4 and 6.16 of this Agreement; or

(h) Walkaway Right.

(i) by the Company upon written notice to Parent if both of the following conditions requisite to termination under this Section 8.1(h) are satisfied at any time during the seven (7) calendar day period commencing on the Price Determination Date, such termination to be effective on the tenth (10th) calendar day following the Price Determination Date:

A. the Parent Market Value on the Price Determination Date is less than 80% of the Initial Parent Market Value; and

B. the number obtained by dividing the Parent Market Value on the Price Determination Date by the Initial Parent Market Value shall be less than the Index Ratio minus 0.20.

(ii) If Parent or any company belonging to the Index declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Price Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 8.1(h).

(iii) The termination right under this Section 8.1(h) is subject, however, to the following: If the Company elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.1(h), it shall give prompt written notice thereof to Parent. During the seven (7) calendar day period commencing upon its receipt of such notice, Parent shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio to equal the lesser of (x) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Initial Parent Market Value, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the Index Ratio minus 0.20 and the denominator of which is equal to the Parent Market Value on the Price Determination Date; or (y) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Parent Market Value by the Parent Market Value on the Price Determination Date, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.80. If within such seven (7) calendar day period, Parent delivers written notice to the Company that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, and notifies the Company of the revised Exchange Ratio, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.1(h) as if no written notice of termination had been given, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified).

(iv) For purposes of this Section 8.1(h) the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

- A. Final Index Price means the average of the daily closing value of the Index for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Price Determination Date.
- B. Index means the KBW NASDAQ Capital Markets Index or, if such Index is not available, such substitute or similar Index as substantially replicates the KBW NASDAQ Capital Markets Index.
- C. Index Ratio means the Final Index Price divided by the Initial Index Price.
- D. Initial Parent Market Value means $58.77, adjusted as indicated above.
- E. Initial Index Price means $418.70.
- F. Parent Market Value means, as of any specified date, the average closing price per share of Parent Common Stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date.
- G. Price Determination Date shall mean the latest of (i) the date on which all Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period); or (ii) the date on which the shareholder approval of the Company has been received.

8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or the Company as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Parent, the Company, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Section 6.3(f), this Section 8.2 and ARTICLE IX shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Parent nor the Company shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of any provision of this Agreement occurring prior to termination (which, in the case of the Company, shall include the loss to the holders of Company Common Stock of the economic benefits of the Merger).

(b) Termination Fee.

(i) In the event that, after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, the Company Board becomes aware (including through a communication to the members of the Company Board or a public announcement) of a bona fide Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company and (A) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or Section 8.1(d) without the Requisite Company Vote having been obtained (and all other conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.3 had been satisfied or were capable of being satisfied prior to such termination) or

A-61

(B) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(e), and (C) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same Acquisition Proposal as that referred to above), then the Company shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to $5,750,000 (the Termination Fee); provided, that for purposes of this Section 8.2(b), all references in the definition of Acquisition Transaction to 20% shall instead refer to 50% .

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(f) or by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(g) or Section 8.1(h), then the Company shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, the Termination Fee on the date of termination.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, but without limiting the right of any party to recover liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's fraud or willful and material breach of any provision of this Agreement, in the event that this Agreement is terminated as provided in Section 8.1, the maximum aggregate amount of monetary fees, liabilities or damages payable by a single party under this Agreement shall be equal to the Termination Fee, and neither the Company nor Parent shall be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

(d) Each of Parent and the Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if Parent or the Company fails promptly to pay the amount due pursuant to this Section 8.2, and, in order to obtain such payment, the other party commences a suit which results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the Termination Fee, such non-paying party shall pay the costs and expenses of the other party (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit. In addition, if Parent or the Company, as the case may be, fails to pay the amounts payable pursuant to this Section 8.2, then such party shall pay interest on such overdue amounts (for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid and ending on the date that such overdue amount is actually paid in full) at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate (as announced by JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any successor thereto) in effect on the date on which such payment was required to be made for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid. The amounts payable by Parent and the Company, as applicable, pursuant to Section 8.2(b) constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty, and, except in the case of fraud or willful and material breach of this Agreement, shall be the sole monetary remedy of the Company and Parent, as applicable, in the event of a termination of this Agreement specified in such section.

ARTICLE IX

No single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. All references to dollars or $ in this Agreement are to United States dollars. 9.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic means) all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

9.8 Disclosure Schedules. The parties hereto agree that any reference in a particular Section or subsection of either the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Parent Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to be an exception to (or, as applicable, a disclosure for purposes of) the representations and warranties or covenants, as applicable, of the relevant party that are contained in the corresponding Section or subsection of this Agreement and to any other representations, warranties or covenants of such party that are contained in this Agreement, but only if the relevance of that reference as an exception to (or a disclosure for purposes of) such other non-corresponding representations, warranties and covenants would be reasonably apparent. The mere inclusion of an item in either the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Parent Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation, warranty or covenant shall not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each party agrees that any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby shall be brought exclusively in the Courts of St. Louis County, Missouri, the Courts of St. Louis, Missouri, or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (Eastern Division) (provided, that, in the event that subject matter jurisdiction is declined by or unavailable in the Courts of St. Louis County, Missouri, the Courts of the City of St. Louis, Missouri, or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (Eastern Division), then such action, suit or proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in any other state or federal court sitting in the State of Missouri), and each of the parties hereby consents to the jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such suit, action or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding which is brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The parties hereto agree that final judgment in any suit, action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Law.

9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW AT THE TIME OF INSTITUTION OF THE APPLICABLE LITIGATION, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 6.8, which is intended to benefit each Company Indemnified Party, this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein) is not intended to, and does not, confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the parties hereto in accordance herewith without notice or liability to any other Person. Each of the parties hereby further waives (a) any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate and (b) any requirement under any Law to post security or a bond as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

9.14 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable Law in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction, and this Agreement shall be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction such that the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or portion thereof shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

EXHIBIT A

VOTING AGREEMENT

This Voting Agreement, effective as of May 10, 2018 (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, this Agreement), is entered into by and between STIFEL FINANCIAL CORP., a Delaware corporation (Parent), BUSINESS BANCSHARES, INC., a Missouri corporation (the Company), and the undersigned holder of shares of Company Voting Common Stock (the Shareholder). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement described below.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof, by and between the Company and Parent (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the Merger Agreement), Parent will form Merger Sub, which will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement and an agreement and plan of merger (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the Plan of Merger) to be entered into between Merger Sub and the Company in the form attached to the Merger Agreement as Exhibit B, merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger, and in consideration of the expenses incurred and to be incurred by Parent in connection therewith, Parent has required the Shareholder to execute and deliver this Agreement upon the terms and conditions set forth herein.

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Shareholder is the registered and beneficial owner of, and is entitled to dispose of (or to direct the disposition of) and to vote (or to direct the voting of), such number of shares of Company Voting Common Stock as is indicated on Appendix A to this Agreement under the heading "Total number of shares of Company Voting Common Stock subject to this Agreement" (such shares, together with any other shares of Company Voting Common Stock acquired by the Shareholder after the date hereof and during the term of this Agreement (including through the exercise of any stock options, warrants or similar instruments), being collectively referred to herein as the Shares).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) As used herein, the term Expiration Date shall mean the earlier to occur of (i) the Effective Time, (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof and (iii) the date of any mutual modification or amendment of the Merger Agreement that adversely affects the consideration payable to the Shareholder, as a holder of Company Common Stock, pursuant to the Merger Agreement as in effect as of the date hereof (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the effect of any changes in the value of shares of Parent Common Stock).

(b) Until the Expiration Date, at every meeting of the shareholders of the Company at which the following is considered or voted upon, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the shareholders of the Company with respect to the following, the Shareholder shall (i) appear at each such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum, and (ii) vote (or cause to be voted) the Shares (A) in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, the Plan of Merger, and the transactions contemplated thereby and in favor of each of the other actions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Plan of Merger, (B) against any action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation, warranty, or other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement or the Plan of Merger, or of the Shareholder contained in this Agreement, and (C) against any Acquisition Proposal or any other proposal, action, agreement, or transaction that is intended, or would reasonably be expected, to materially impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage, materially and adversely affect, or inhibit the timely consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Plan of Merger, or this Agreement.

(c) The Shareholder further agrees not to vote or execute any written consent to rescind or amend in any manner any prior vote or written consent, as a shareholder of the Company, to adopt or approve the Merger Agreement, the Plan of Merger, or the transactions contemplated thereby, unless this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms.

(d) The Shareholder hereby irrevocably waives (on behalf of itself and each of its affiliates and, if the Shareholder is an individual, each Person that the Shareholder directly or indirectly controls (other than, in each case, the Company and its Subsidiaries)) any and all claims and/or causes of action (derivative or otherwise), and any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the Merger, that the Shareholder or any such affiliate may have, either currently or in the future, against the Company or any of the Company's former or current officers, directors, shareholders, affiliates, employees, and agents (collectively, the Company Persons), in each case resulting from, or arising in connection with, any act or omission by any Company Person directly in connection with the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the Merger, the negotiation of the terms thereof, and/or the other agreements, documents, and instruments to be executed in connection therewith; provided, that this Section 1(d) shall in no way limit the Shareholder's rights under Section 6.8 of the Merger Agreement (to the extent applicable) or any other rights to indemnification (and related reimbursement), in law or by contract, that the Shareholder has with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(e) The Shareholder makes no agreement or understanding in this Agreement in the Shareholder's capacity as a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (if the Shareholder holds any such office), and nothing in this Agreement: (i) will limit or affect any actions or omissions taken by the Shareholder in the Shareholder's capacity as such a director or officer, including in exercising rights under the Merger Agreement or the Plan of Merger, and no such actions or omissions shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement, or (ii) will be construed to prohibit, limit, or restrict the Shareholder from exercising the Shareholder's fiduciary duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or to the Company's shareholders or as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust of the Company.

2. Representations, Warranties, and Covenants of the Shareholder. The Shareholder hereby represents, warrants, and covenants to Parent as follows:

(a) Except as otherwise described in Appendix A, (i) the Shareholder is the record or beneficial owner of, and has good and valid title to, the Shares, free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, security interests, mortgages, claims, charges, restrictions, options, title defects, or encumbrances, and (ii) the Shareholder has the sole right to vote the Shares, with no restrictions, limitations, or qualifications on the Shareholder's rights of disposition pertaining to the Shares, except as provided herein. The Shareholder does not own, of record or beneficially, any shares of capital stock of the Company other than (i) the Shares and (ii) the number of options, warrants, or other rights to acquire any additional shares of Company Voting Common Stock or any security exercisable for or convertible into shares of Company Voting Common Stock, if any, set forth on Appendix A under the heading "Total number of Options (collectively, the Options).

(b) Other than pursuant to this Agreement or with Parent's prior written consent, from the date hereof through and including the Expiration Date, the Shareholder shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) sell, transfer, pledge, assign, or otherwise dispose of (including by gift) (collectively, Transfer), or enter into any contract, agreement, option, or other arrangement (including any profit sharing arrangement) with respect to the Transfer of, any Shares or Options to any person (other than pursuant to the Merger), or (ii) enter into any voting arrangement, whether by proxy, voting agreement, or otherwise, with respect to any Shares, and shall not commit or agree to take any of the foregoing actions. The Shareholder shall not, nor shall the Shareholder permit any entity under the Shareholder's control to, deposit any Shares in a voting trust. This Section 2(b) shall not prohibit a Transfer of the Shares or the Options (i) by the Shareholder to any member of the Shareholder's immediate family, or to a trust for the benefit of the Shareholder or any member of the Shareholder's immediate family, or upon the death of the Shareholder; provided, that a Transfer referred to in this paragraph shall be permitted if, as a precondition to such Transfer, the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement or (ii) by operation of law, in which case this Agreement shall bind each transferee. Any Transfer in violation of the terms of this Section 2(b) shall be void and of no effect.

(c) The Shareholder has full power and authority (and, if the Shareholder is an individual, legal capacity) to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder, and to vote all of the Shares in the manner set forth in this Agreement without the consent or approval of, or any other action on the part of, any other person or entity (including any Governmental Entity), except, in each case, as otherwise disclosed on Appendix A.

(d) This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Shareholder and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by the Enforceability Exceptions. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Shareholder does not, and the performance of the Shareholder's obligations hereunder will not, result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any right to terminate, amend, accelerate, or cancel any right or obligation under, or result in the creation of any lien or encumbrance on any Shares pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise, or other instrument or obligation to which the Shareholder is a party or by which the Shareholder or the Shares are or will be bound or affected, or any Law to which the Shareholder is subject or bound, or, in the event that the Shareholder is not a natural person, any charter, bylaw, trust agreement, or other organizational document (each as amended from time to time) of the Shareholder.

(e) No consent, approval, or authorization of, or designation, declaration, or filing with, any Governmental Entity or other Person is required in connection with the valid execution and delivery of this Agreement, except as otherwise disclosed on Appendix A. If the Shareholder is married and the Shares constitute community property, or spousal approval is otherwise necessary for the Shareholder to enter into and perform his or her obligations under this Agreement or for this Agreement to be legal, valid and binding, this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed, and delivered by, and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of, the Shareholder's spouse, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(f) The Shareholder is an executive officer of the Company or a director of the Company or The Business Bank of St. Louis, or a spouse of such an executive officer or director.

3. Further Assurances. The Shareholder hereby covenants and agrees to (a) execute and deliver any additional documents, certificates, agreements, and instruments, and to take such other actions, as may be reasonably requested by Parent to carry out the purpose and intent of this Agreement and (b) notify Parent promptly of any additional shares of capital stock of the Company of which the Shareholder becomes the record or beneficial owner after the date of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the Shareholder hereby (a) authorizes Parent to publish and disclose in any public announcement, disclosure required by the SEC or by applicable Law, or the Proxy Statement (and, if applicable, the Form S-4), the Shareholder's identity and ownership of the Shares, the nature of the Shareholder's obligations under this Agreement, and any other information that Parent reasonably determines is required to be disclosed in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (b) agrees to promptly give to Parent any information Parent may reasonably require for the preparation of any such disclosure documents, and (c) agrees to promptly notify Parent of any required corrections or supplements with respect to any information supplied by the Shareholder, if and to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect or shall omit any material fact necessary to make such information, in light of the circumstances under which it is given, not misleading.

4. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date; provided, that (a) Section 5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and (b) the termination of this Agreement shall not relieve the Shareholder from any liability for any inaccuracy in or breach of any representation, warranty, or covenant contained in this Agreement.

5. Miscellaneous.

(a) Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

(b) Binding Effect and Assignment. This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, including the Shareholder's estate and heirs upon the death of the Shareholder; provided, that, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations of the parties may be assigned or delegated by any of the parties without prior written consent of the other parties. Any assignment in violation of the foregoing shall be void and of no effect.

(c) Waiver, Amendment, and Modification. Any provision of this Agreement may be (i) waived in whole or in part by the party benefited by the provision by a written instrument signed by or on behalf of such party, or (ii) amended or modified at any time by an agreement in writing among the parties hereto executed in the same manner as this Agreement.

(d) Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW AT THE TIME OF INSTITUTION OF THE APPLICABLE LITIGATION, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (i) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, AND (ii) EACH PARTY HERETO (A) UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (B) MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (C) HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 5(d).

(e) Specific Performance; Injunctive Relief. The parties acknowledge that Parent may be irreparably harmed by, and that there may be no adequate remedy at law for, a violation of any of the covenants or agreements of the Shareholder set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Shareholder hereby agrees that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available to Parent upon any such violation, Parent shall have the right to enforce such covenants and agreements by specific performance, injunctive relief, or by any other means available to such party at law or in equity without posting any bond or other undertaking.

ANNEX B OPINION OF FIG PARTNERS, LLC

Table of Contents

May 10, 2018

Board of Directors

Business Bancshares, Inc.

8000 Maryland Avenue

Suite 100

Clayton, MO 63105

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Business Bancshares, Inc. (or the Company) has entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Stifel Financial Corp. (Parent), dated as of May 10, 2018 (the Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, Parent will form a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub) which, at the Effective Time, will merge with and into the Company. The Company will be the Surviving Corporation in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and will continue its corporate existence under the Laws of the State of Missouri. Pursuant to the terms detailed in the Agreement, upon the effective date of such Merger, each holder of issued and outstanding shares of Company voting and non-voting common stock (collectively referred to as the Company Common Stock) will receive 0.705 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Parent common stock in exchange for each outstanding share of Company Common Stock (the Merger Consideration). In connection therewith, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness (the Opinion), from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to the Agreement. Unless otherwise defined in this letter, capitalized terms used herein will have the same meaning as in the Agreement.

FIG Partners LLC (or FIG), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience and knowledge of the valuation of banking institutions. This opinion has been reviewed by FIG's compliance officer consistent with internal policy; it has not been reviewed by a fairness committee. In addition, FIG has not had a material relationship with any party to the transaction for which we have received compensation during the prior two years.

We were retained exclusively by the Board of Directors of the Company to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger and in rendering this fairness opinion. We will receive compensation from the Company in connection with our services upon the execution of the definitive agreement for the Merger. This compensation includes $80,000 for the issuance of the fairness opinion dated May 10, 2018. The Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement;

- (ii) reviewed certain historical, publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and Parent including, among other things, quarterly and annual reports filed by the parties with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
- (iii) held discussions with members or representatives of the senior management of the Company and representatives of Parent for the purpose of reviewing future prospects of the potential pro forma institution related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount of and timing of cost savings (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;
- (iv) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that we considered relevant;

(v) analyzed the value of Parent stock to be received as an acquisition currency in relation to its peers and broader market indices; and

(vi) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate. We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by the Company and Parent and in the discussions with the respective management teams or representatives of The Company and Parent. In that regard, we have assumed that any financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the synergies and Company projections of the pro forma institution have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of the Company and Parent and that such financial results will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed and relied upon management's estimates and projections. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of the Company and Parent or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of the Company and Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles. ANNEX C SECTION 351.455 OF THE GENERAL AND BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW OF MISSOURI

Mo. Rev. Stat. § 351.455. Shareholder entitled to appraisal and payment of fair value, when remedy exclusive, when.

1. Any shareholder shall be deemed a dissenting shareholder and entitled to appraisal under this section if such shareholder:

- (1) Owns stock of a corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote;
- (2) Files with the corporation before or at such meeting a written objection to such plan of merger or consolidation;
- (3) Does not vote in favor thereof if the shareholder owns voting stock as of such record date; and
- (4) Makes written demand on the surviving or new corporation within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is effected for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares as of the day before the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation.

2. The surviving or new corporation shall pay to each such dissenting shareholder, upon surrender of his or her certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares, the fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. Any shareholder who:

- (1) Fails to file a written objection prior to or at such meeting;
- (2) Fails to make demand within the twenty-day period; or
- (3) In the case of a shareholder owning voting stock as of such record date, votes in favor of the merger or consolidation;

shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof and shall not be deemed to be a dissenting shareholder.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of section 351.230, notice under the provisions of subsection 1 of section 351.230 stating the purpose for which the meeting is called shall be given to each shareholder owning stock as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote, whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote.

4. If within thirty days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected, upon the surrender of his or her certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

5. If within such period of thirty days the shareholder and the surviving or new corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the county in which the registered office of the surviving or new corporation is situated, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the surviving or new corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such merger or consolidation, together with interest thereon to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving or new corporation of the certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares. Upon the payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the surviving or new corporation. Such shares may be held and disposed of by the surviving or new corporation as it may see fit. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under such shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger or consolidation, and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

6. The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of such shareholder's shares as herein provided shall cease if and when the corporation shall abandon the merger or consolidation.

7. When the remedy provided for in this section is available with respect to a transaction, such remedy shall be the exclusive remedy of the shareholder as to that transaction, except in the case of fraud or lack of authorization for the transaction.

PART II INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The registrant is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. The following is a general summary of Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (which we refer to as the "DGCL") and of certain aspects of Stifel's governing documents dealing with indemnification of directors and officers. It does not purport to be complete.

Subject to restrictions contained in the DGCL, a corporation may indemnify any person, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in connection with any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful. A present or former director or officer who is successful on the merits or otherwise in any suit or matter covered by the indemnification statute shall be indemnified and indemnification is otherwise authorized upon a determination that the person to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct required. Such determination shall be made by a majority vote of the board of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by special independent counsel in a written opinion, or by the shareholders. Expenses incurred in defense may be paid in advance upon receipt by the corporation of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the recipient to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that the recipient is not entitled to indemnification under the statute. The indemnification provided by statute is not exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person. Insurance may be purchased on behalf of any person entitled to indemnification by the corporation against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred in an official capacity regardless of whether the person could be indemnified under the statute. References to the corporation include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation or merger as well as the resulting corporation, and anyone seeking indemnification by virtue of acting in some capacity with a constituent corporation would stand in the same position as if such person had served the resulting or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

The registrant's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides generally that a director shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 7.1 of the registrant's Amended and Restated By-Laws provides for indemnification by the registrant of each person who is or was a director or officer of the registrant (or is or was serving as a director or officer of any other enterprise at the request of the registrant) to the full extent authorized by law. Certain of the directors also have indemnification agreements with the registrant which provide for indemnification to the full extent permitted by the DGCL or by any amendment thereof or any other statutory provisions authorizing or permitting indemnification.

In addition, the DGCL authorizes the registrant to purchase insurance for its directors and officers insuring them against certain risks as to which the registrant may be unable lawfully to indemnify them. The registrant has purchased insurance coverage for its directors and officers as well as insurance coverage to reimburse itself for potential costs of corporate indemnification of its directors and officers.

The foregoing discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of those sections of the DGCL referenced above and to Stifel's governing documents.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933.

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to re-offerings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(d) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
