Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 6, 2018, the Higher Learning Commission (the HLC), which is the regional accreditor of Capella University, a wholly owned subsidiary of Capella Education Company (Capella), notified Capella University that the HLC Board of Trustees (the HLC Board) voted at its June 28-29, 2018 meeting to approve the application filed by Capella University in connection with the previously announced merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 29, 2017, by and among Strayer Education, Inc. (Strayer), Capella and Sarg Sub Inc. (Merger Sub), whereby Capella would merge into Merger Sub and become a wholly owned subsidiary of Strayer (the Merger). As required by HLC policy and federal regulation, Capella University will host a focused visit by HLC within six months of the date the Merger closes.

The HLC approval satisfies one of the conditions to consummation of the Merger. The consummation of the Merger remains subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted by applicable law) of the remaining conditions to the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement. It is anticipated that the Merger will close on or before August 1, 2018.

On July 9, 2018, Capella issued a press release announcing the HLC approval and the release of second quarter 2018 earnings results. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference into this Item 8.01.

Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains certain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the Reform Act). Such statements may be identified by the use of words such as expect, estimate, assume, believe, anticipate, will, forecast, outlook, plan, project, or similar words and may statements with respect to, among other things, the proposed Merger of a wholly-owned subsidiary of Strayer with and into Capella, including the expected timing of completion of the Merger; the anticipated benefits of the Merger, including estimated synergies; the combined company's plans, objectives and expectations; future financial and operating results; and other statements that are not historical facts. The statements are based on Strayer's and Capella's current expectations and are subject to a number of assumptions, uncertainties and risks. In connection with the safe-harbor provisions of the Reform Act, Strayer and Capella have identified important factors that could cause Strayer's or Capella's actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. The assumptions, uncertainties and risks include:

the risk that the Merger may not be completed in a timely manner or at all due to the failure to satisfy conditions to completion of the Merger;

the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement;

the outcome of any legal proceeding that may be instituted against Strayer, Capella and others following the announcement of the Merger;

the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger;

the risk that the benefits of the Merger, including expected synergies, may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected;

the risk that the Merger may not advance the combined company's business strategy and growth strategy;

the risk that the combined company may experience difficulty integrating Strayer's and Capella's employees or operations;

the potential diversion of Strayer's and Capella's management's attention resulting from the proposed Merger; and other risks and uncertainties identified in Strayer's and Capella's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

Actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Strayer and Capella undertake no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements.
