Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 29, 2018, Keurig Green Mountain, Inc. (Keurig) and Dr Pepper Snapple Group, Inc. announced that the companies had entered into a definitive merger agreement to create a combined New York Stock Exchange-listed public company (the transaction). The transaction closed on July 9, 2018 (the closing), and the combined company has been renamed Keurig Dr Pepper (KDP).

As part of the transaction, we have exchanged our ownership interest in Keurig for an equity interest in KDP. We did not invest new capital in KDP in connection with the transaction. Our 24.24% ownership interest in Keurig, inclusive of our loan receivable, has been exchanged for a 13.8% equity interest in KDP. Beginning with our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2018, our equity method accounting will reflect our share of Keurig's historical results and KDP's ongoing results on a quarter lag basis.

Investor Rights Agreement

In connection with the transaction, Mondelēz International Holdings LLC, a subsidiary of Mondelēz International, Inc., entered into an agreement that governs our rights and obligations as an investor in KDP (the Investor Rights Agreement). The Investor Rights Agreement provides that we may not sell or otherwise dispose of our shares in KDP for a period of six months following the closing. We also have the right to nominate two directors to the KDP board following the closing of the transaction. If our equity interest declines to less than 8%, we have the right to nominate one director to the KDP board. If our interest declines to less than 5%, we do not have the right to appoint a director.

The foregoing description of the Investor Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Investor Rights Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

JDE Shareholders' Agreement

In connection with the termination of the Maple Shareholders' Agreement (as described below), we amended the shareholders' agreement that we previously entered into with a subsidiary of Acorn Holdings B.V. (Acorn), an investor group led by JAB Holding Company, in relation to Jacobs Douwe Egberts B.V. (JDE) (the JDE Shareholders' Agreement). The amendments to the JDE Shareholders' Agreement reverse certain changes made when we entered into the now terminated Maple Shareholders' Agreement.

The amendments to the JDE Shareholders' Agreement do not change significantly the governance rights we have in JDE. We remain entitled to two seats on the JDE board, Acorn remains entitled to six seats and JDE's CEO and CFO each are also entitled to a seat. The JDE board has 10 members, each with one vote. We continue to have certain minority protection rights under the JDE Shareholders' Agreement, including veto rights over specified decisions relating to the business. Either party may initiate a public offering process for its shares, subject, in the case of a proposed transfer by us, to a right of first offer in favor of Acorn. Subject to certain exceptions, each of the parties to the JDE Shareholders' Agreement has agreed not to compete with the business of JDE for the duration of the JDE Shareholders' Agreement and for two years after such party ceases to be a party to the agreement.

JDE has agreed to distribute dividends to us and Acorn of at least 40% of net operating profit for 2018 and each subsequent financial year.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the JDE Shareholders' Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete terms and conditions of the agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Maple Shareholders Agreement

In connection with the closing of the transaction, we entered into an amendment and termination agreement of the shareholders agreement that we previously entered into with a subsidiary of Acorn in relation to Maple Parent Holdings Corp., the holding company of Keurig (the Maple Shareholders Agreement). The amendment and termination agreement amends the Maple Shareholders Agreement by removing from the definition of surviving provisions certain covenants relating to non-competition and non-solicitation, and terminates the Maple Shareholders Agreement in accordance with its terms.

The foregoing description of the amendment and termination agreement of the Maple Shareholders Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete terms and conditions of the agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
