Associated Estates Announces Nomination of New Independent Director

John S. Gates, Jr., Accomplished Real Estate Industry Veteran, to Stand for Election at 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Gates is the Third Independent, Highly Accomplished REIT Executive to Join the Associated Estates Slate Since December 2014

Company Highlights Repeated Efforts to Reach a Settlement Agreement with Land and Buildings to Avoid the Expense and Distraction of a Proxy Contest

CLEVELAND, March 9, 2015 – Associated Estates Realty Corporation (NYSE, NASDAQ: AEC) today announced that John S. Gates, Jr. will stand for election to the Company’s Board of Directors at the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Mr. Gates, Co-Founder and former Co-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of CenterPoint Properties Trust, is a proven REIT executive with more than 30 years of relevant experience. He has a demonstrated track record of success in real estate development, financing, investment, strategic planning, mergers and acquisitions, and public company management. Like Douglas Crocker II and Jon A. Fosheim, both of whom recently joined the Associated Estates Board, Mr. Gates is highly regarded in the industry and is known to be a thoughtful and independent-minded director.

As previously announced, Associated Estates intends to seek shareholder approval at the upcoming Annual Meeting to expand the Board of Directors from seven to eight directors. With the election of Mr. Gates and shareholder approval to expand the Board, the Board will comprise eight highly qualified and experienced directors, seven of whom are independent, four of whom have joined the Board since 2012. In addition to Mr. Gates, the Company’s slate of director nominees will include incumbent directors Douglas Crocker II, Jon A. Fosheim, Jeffrey I. Friedman, Michael E. Gibbons, James J. Sanfilippo, James A. Schoff and Richard T. Schwarz.

Mr. Gates commented, “I am delighted to join the Associated Estates slate of director nominees. I look forward to working with the Board and management team to continue building on the Company’s significant recent progress and lengthy record of shareholder value creation.”

Jeffrey I. Friedman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, “We are thrilled to welcome John, another accomplished industry veteran, to our slate of nominees. His extensive industry experience and business knowledge will be great assets to our Board. We are confident his widely recognized capabilities and valuable perspectives will help us advance our strategic plans and our objective of further increasing value for all Associated Estates shareholders.”

“When we announced Doug Crocker’s appointment to our Board this past December, we committed to having two additional, highly respected independent directors join our Board in 2015; we have now delivered on that commitment,” continued Mr. Friedman. “Although we have repeatedly proposed settlements under which one or more of Land and Building's proposed director nominees would join the Associated Estates Board, Land and Buildings has rejected each such proposal."

With the goal of achieving a mutually agreeable resolution that avoids the cost and distraction of a proxy contest, Associated Estates has held numerous discussions and in-person meetings with Land and Buildings over the past several months. Unfortunately, Land and Buildings and its nominees have rejected each of the Company's proposed settlements.

On September 9, 2014, following Land and Buildings' disclosure of ownership of approximately 1.2% of the Company's outstanding shares, Jeffrey I. Friedman, Lou Fatica and Jeremy Goldberg of the Company met with Jonathan Litt of Land and Buildings in New York City. The purpose of the meeting was to be responsive to Land and Buildings' request for a meeting to discuss the possibility of the Company's sale and strategic alternatives, and to listen to Mr. Litt's input as a shareholder of the Company.

On December 10, 2014, Jeffrey I. Friedman, Lead Independent Director Richard Schwarz and Director James Schoff met with Jonathan Litt of Land and Buildings in New York City. The purpose of the meeting was to listen to Land and Buildings' demands in the hope the parties could reach an amicable settlement that would advance the best interests of the Company and all of its shareholders, while avoiding the cost and distraction of a proxy contest. The Company offered to have two of Land and Buildings' proposed director nominees join the Company's Board, replacing two of the Company's incumbent directors. Land and Buildings rejected this proposal. Nevertheless, Messrs. Friedman, Schwarz and Schoff requested that Mr. Litt make the Land and Buildings director nominees available to meet with the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and potentially serve as nominees on the Company slate of directors for the 2015 Annual Meeting. Mr. Litt denied the request.

- On December 19, 2014, Jeffrey I. Friedman, with the knowledge and consent of Land and Buildings, traveled to Denver, Colorado to meet with R. Scot Sellers, one of the director candidates Land and Buildings intends to nominate at the Company's 2015 Annual Meeting. The purpose of the meeting was to inquire as to Mr. Sellers' willingness to immediately join the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Sellers indicated he was not willing to consider joining the Board of Directors at that time.

On February 8, 2015, Jeffrey I. Friedman and Lou Fatica met with Jonathan Litt of Land and Buildings in Cleveland, Ohio. The purpose of the meeting was to listen to Land and Buildings' demands in the hope the parties could reach an amicable settlement that would advance the best interests of the Company and all shareholders, while avoiding the cost and distraction of a proxy contest. The parties were unable to reach a settlement agreement.

On February 11, 2015, the Board of Directors sent a private letter to Land and Buildings, which proposed expanding the Company's Board of Directors to nine directors and including two of Land and Buildings' nominees on the nine member Board of Directors. By letter dated February 13, 2015, Land and Buildings rejected the Company's February 11 proposed settlement without offering a counter-proposal.

On March 3, 2015, Mr. Friedman disclosed to Jonathan Litt of Land and Buildings that another highly qualified independent director candidate, John S. Gates, Jr. had agreed to join the Company's slate of nominees to stand for election to the Board of Directors at the 2015 Annual Meeting. In furtherance of the Company's goal of achieving an amicable settlement with Land and Buildings, Mr. Friedman proposed several settlement alternatives involving Land and Buildings' proposed nominees the Company would be willing to accept prior to announcing Mr. Gates as a director nominee. Mr. Litt did not accept any of the proposals.

Notwithstanding Land and Building's apparent intransigence, the Company will continue to engage constructively with Land and Buildings in the hope of reaching a mutual agreement that benefits all Associated Estates shareholders.

About John S. Gates, Jr.

John S. Gates, Jr. is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of PortaeCo, LLC, a private investment company. In addition, he serves on the Boards of several for profit and not-for-profit institutions, including: Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for DCT Industrial Trust (NYSE: DCT); Davis Funds, Miami Corporation; Chair of the Public Policy Committee, Member of the Executive Committee, Investment Committee and Committee on Directors and Governance at Lurie Children's Hospital; Trinity College; Former Chairman of the Board and member of the Executive Committee at Metropolitan Planning Council; and University of Chicago, Harris School of Public Policy.

In 1984, Mr. Gates co-founded CenterPoint Properties Trust and served as Co-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for the next 22 years. During that period, CenterPoint became the nation's first publicly traded Industrial Real Estate Investment Trust (NYSE: CNT) as well as the largest private property owner/developer in the Metropolitan Chicago Region.
