Shareholder Memo

In HP's zeal to oppose the only shareholder proposal on the HP 2018 ballot (Item 4) HP management seems to be in support of a robust annual meeting.

However the 2018 annual meeting will not be an in-person meeting. The only way to ask a question on the day of the annual meeting could be to type it on a keyboard. The inspector of elections could be at a remote location from the broadcast site.

It seems a contradiction that a company that highlights its purported engagement with shareholders would be opposed to meeting its shareholders in-person.

The following extracts paraphrase the HP management statement opposing Item 4:

HP is in favor of stockholders having the opportunity to openly express views on proposed actions and to participate in a meeting and a stockholder vote.

A stockholder vote should occur in a transparent manner.

HP is in favor of a well-informed discussion.

HP opposes a process that is less transparent and less democratic.

HP and the Board regularly engage with and solicit the feedback of stockholders.

HP has a strong stockholder engagement program.

HP management even prevented its shareholders from voting on whether to have an in-person annual meeting.

The 2018 HP proxy said stockholders and other interested parties can contact the HP Board by email at bod@hp.com.

The above HP management contradiction is but one reason to vote for:

Item 4:

Stockholders' right to act by written consent

This proposal topic won 47%-support at the April 4, 2018 HPE annual meeting.
