Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

As previously disclosed, on July 25, 2005 RPM International Inc. (the "Company") announced that its indirect wholly owned subsidiary, Tremco Incorporated, had signed a definitive purchase agreement to acquire the Illbruck Sealant Systems business ("Illbruck"), a high-performance sealant and installation systems manufacturer located in Leverkusen, Germany. On August 30, 2005 in connection with the closing of the Illbruck acquisition on August 31, 2005, the Company borrowed €106.729 million under its $330.0 million, five-year revolving credit facility. The Company used the proceeds of the borrowing to fund the cash purchase price for the acquisition. In addition, the Company assumed net indebtedness of €8.271 million. The aggregate purchase price is subject to customary post-closing adjustments. Based on the noon buying rate at September 6, 2005, the amount borrowed and the assumed net indebtedness approximate $133 million and $10 million, respectively.

Information regarding the material terms of the revolving credit facility is set forth in Item 2.03 of the Company's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on November 24, 2004 and June 21, 2005, which information is incorporated herein by reference.

From time to time, the Company may refinance all or a portion of the amount outstanding under the revolving credit facility using the Company's accounts receivable securitization program and/or the Company's commercial paper program. Information regarding the material terms of the Company's accounts receivable securitization program and the Company's commercial paper program is contained in the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-120536) under "Description of Our Other Indebtedness -- Securitization Transaction" and "Description of Our Other Indebtedness -- Commercial Paper Program," which information is incorporated herein by reference.
