Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On May 17, 2013, SolarWinds, Inc., through one of its subsidiaries, SolarWinds Worldwide, LLC (collectively referred to as “SolarWinds”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”) with N-able Technologies International, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“N-able”) pursuant to which N-able would become a wholly owned subsidiary of SolarWinds (the “Merger”). N-able is a leader in Cloud-based remote monitoring and management and service automation software for Managed Service Providers. The acquisition is being entered into for strategic purposes.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, SolarWinds would pay $120.0 million in cash at closing subject to certain adjustments set forth in the Merger Agreement (“Closing Cash Consideration”). The Merger Agreement provides that $12.0 million of the Closing Cash Consideration will be held in escrow as partial security for the indemnification obligations of the equity holders of N-able.

N-able and SolarWinds have made customary representations, warranties, and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The closing of the Merger is subject to customary and other closing conditions, including but not limited to: delivery by N-able of certain third party consents, customary legal opinions, employment agreements and a non-competition agreement; redemption of the preferred stock of N-able Technologies, Inc., an Ontario corporation and subsidiary of N-able; no material adverse effect having occurred with respect to N-able's business; and approval by the shareholders of N-able.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which will be filed upon completion of the transaction.
