Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 28, 2019, the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board of Directors of Diebold Nixdorf, Incorporated (the “Company”) adopted a new performance-based cash incentive compensation award program (“Performance Cash Award”) and made grants to certain employees, including the Company’s named executive officers. The Performance Cash Awards were granted in lieu of the performance-based share awards that the Company has given in prior years, which are not possible at this time due to the limited number of shares of common stock of the Company available under the shareholder-approved equity incentive plan. The Performance Cash Awards are a component of the Company’s long-term incentive compensation program and have a performance period of 3 years. The threshold, target and maximum payout levels are consistent with those of the performance share awards previously granted, and the cash amount, if any, earned pursuant to awards under this program will be based upon the level of achievement of specified performance objectives set by the Compensation Committee. The Performance Cash Awards are subject to similar terms, including with respect to vesting and forfeiture, as the performance-based share awards granted under the Company’s shareholder-approved equity incentive plan.

This summary is qualified by reference to the full text of the form of Performance Cash Award Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.
