ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On December 1, 2005, General Motors Corporation (GM) issued a news release announcing November 2005 sales. The release is as follows:

GM Reports 281,288 Deliveries in November

Chevrolet Impala, Pontiac G6 and Buick LaCrosse Pace Strengthening Mid-Size Car Sales

Led by New H3, HUMMER Ranks as Fastest-Growing Brand in U.S.

Pontiac and Saturn Post Double-Digit Sales Gains

DETROIT - General Motors dealers in the United States sold 281,288 new cars and trucks in November, down 11 percent from the same month a year ago. Car sales were down 3 percent and truck sales were off 16 percent. Total sales were up 14 percent compared to October levels.

"November was stronger than October for GM and the industry, but certainly not a barn burner," said Mark LaNeve, vice president, GM North America Vehicle Sales, Service and Marketing. "We saw improvement throughout the month and look forward to finishing the year with continued sales momentum."

LaNeve went on to point out the positive impact of new products, like the Chevrolet Impala and HHR, Pontiac G6 and Buick LaCrosse. "In our business, the bottom line is great product," he added. "Our new vehicles are hitting home, which gives us confidence as we get ready to introduce 19 new products in 2006, many of them in key, high-volume segments."

The revitalized GM mid-size car lineup has been gaining sales momentum in recent months, with November deliveries up 9 percent. Sales of the most recent addition to the category, the Chevrolet Impala, were up 14 percent, posting a new November sales record. Dealer orders have been brisk, exceeding original expectations.

Pontiac G6 in November achieved its best-ever sales month, with more than 14,000 deliveries and a 56 percent improvement over October sales. Pontiac sales were up 11 percent in November.

For the 11th time in the last 12 months, the Buick LaCrosse outsold year-ago combined Century and Regal sales on a retail basis. Buick's all-new luxury sedan, Lucerne, is arriving in dealerships around the country and posted 2,724 deliveries in November.

Small sport utility vehicle sales in November were up 35 percent, led by the new Chevrolet HHR, Pontiac Torrent and Saturn Vue. Torrent sales have improved each month since its August launch, with November sales 26 percent greater than October. Despite constrained inventories, HHR had its second-best sales month since launch, with deliveries up 9 percent over October. An 18 percent sales increase for the new Saturn Vue also contributed to the solid sales results in the small utility category. Saturn sales in November were up 12 percent.

H3, the new mid-size HUMMER, continues to drive record sales for the division and positions HUMMER as the fastest-growing brand in the industry for the calendar year-to-date. HUMMER sales in November were up 114 percent and for the calendar year are up 90.5 percent.

Certified Used Vehicles

November sales for all certified GM brands, including GM Certified Used Vehicles, Cadillac Certified Pre-Owned Vehicles, Used Cars from Saturn and Saab Certified Pre-Owned Vehicles, were 42,455 units, down 8.5 percent. Total year-to-date certified GM sales are 488,007 units, comparable to the same period last year.

GM Certified Used Vehicles, the industry's top-selling manufacturer-certified used brand, posted sales of 37,114 units, down 7.5 percent. Year-to-date sales for GM Certified Used Vehicles are 416,648 units, up 2 percent from the same period in 2004.

Cadillac Certified Pre-Owned Vehicles posted November sales of 3,060 units, up nearly 1 percent. Cadillac Certified year-to-date sales are up 7 percent. Used Cars from Saturn sold 1,790 units, down 33 percent. Saab Certified Pre-Owned Vehicles sold 491 units, down nearly 15 percent.

"GM Certified Used Vehicles, the top-selling certified brand, continues to lead all manufacturers in the category," LaNeve said. "Year-to-date sales are up 2 percent putting us on track to break the industry sales record we established last year. Looking to December, we're confident that GM Certified will finish the year strong and continue to set the pace for the certified segment."
