GridAmerica to cease operations

National Grid USA and GridAmerica participants, FirstEnergy and Northern Indiana Public Service Company, today jointly announce that all three companies have agreed to cease GridAmerica operations effective 1 November 2005 utilising a similar contractual provision that the other GridAmerica participant, Ameren, exercised earlier this month.

GridAmerica, a subsidiary of National Grid Transco (NGT), is an independent transmission company operating within the footprint of the Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, or Midwest ISO.

NGT is pleased with the performance of GridAmerica over the past 18 months and will be looking to reapply the skills and knowledge brought to its participation in GridAmerica as it seeks to develop interests in North America.
