Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) (c)

On March 2, 2017, Frank E. Thomas informed AMAG Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) of his intention to resign as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. Mr. Thomas has agreed to stay with the Company through April 30, 2017 to assist with transition matters, at which time William K. Heiden, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, will assume the title of President.

Mr. Heiden, age 57, has served as the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and as a member of the Company’s board of directors since May 2012, and previously served as President from May 2012 through April 2015. Mr. Heiden has held a variety of senior executive roles in the life sciences industry over the last 30 years, additional details of which can be found on page 10 in the Company’s proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 15, 2016. He has served as president and chief executive officer of several local public and private biotechnology companies, after having served in a variety of global general management positions over a 15 year career with Schering Plough/Merck. Mr. Heiden does not have any family relationships with any of the Company’s directors or executive officers and is not a party to any transactions listed in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD

The following information and Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Thomas’ resignation is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
