Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Consistent with the retirement policy of The Progressive Corporation set forth in the company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, on May 13, 2016, Mr. Stephen R. Hardis, the Lead Independent Director of the company's Board of Directors, retired from the company's board after 28 years of service as a director. On May 13, 2016, the independent members of the Board of Directors appointed Ms. Lawton W. Fitt as Lead Independent Director.

On May 12, 2016, the company announced that Glenn M. Renwick, the company's President and Chief Executive Officer, will retire from these positions effective July 1, 2016 (the "Effective Date"). Mr. Renwick will continue as the Company's Executive Chairman of the Board. The company also announced that Susan Patricia (Tricia) Griffith, the company's Personal Lines Chief Operating Officer since April 2015, will succeed Mr. Renwick as President and CEO as of the Effective Date. At that time, Mrs. Griffith is expected to become a director of the company and to be appointed to the Executive Committee of the Board. Additional information regarding Mrs. Griffith, including her experience over the past five years, is incorporated herein by reference to the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015. A copy of the company's press release announcing this transition is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

In connection with the transition described above, on May 12, 2016, the Compensation Committee approved the following actions, which will be effective on the Effective Date:

Mrs. Griffith's annual salary will be increased to $700,000, and her annual incentive cash bonus for 2016 will be calculated using her current salary and target percentage (125%) for the first half of the year and this increased salary and a target percentage of 150% for the second half of the year.

Mrs. Griffith will receive additional restricted stock unit ("RSU") awards valued at $3.15 million in the aggregate under the company's 2015 Equity Incentive Plan. The RSUs will be split between three types of awards, as described below: time-based RSUs having a value equal to $1.05 million, which are scheduled to vest in equal installments on January 1 of 2019, 2020 and 2021, subject to earlier vesting (including upon satisfying the requirements for a qualified retirement) and forfeiture; performance-based RSUs having a value equal to $1.75 million and measuring the company's growth in personal passenger auto and commercial auto versus industry growth during 2016-2018; and performance-based RSUs having a value equal to $350,000 and measuring the results of the company's fixed-income portfolio versus peer companies during 2016-2018.

The number of RSUs to be covered by each award will be determined based on the closing price of the company's common shares on the New York Stock Exchange on the Effective Date. The other terms of these awards will be the same as the terms of the annual equity awards granted to the company's named executive officers during 2015.

See the company's proxy statement dated March 25, 2016 for additional information regarding the terms of these awards.

Mr. Renwick's salary will be decreased to $500,000 and his target percentage for 2016 for purposes of his annual incentive cash bonus will remain at 150%; his bonus for 2016 will be calculated using his current salary for the first half of the year and this decreased salary for the second half of the year. Except as described in the following bullet point, he will also continue to participate in the company's employee benefit plans.

The Progressive Corporation Executive Separation Allowance Plan, as amended (the "Plan"), was amended to provide that an Executive Chairman who is not also serving as the company's Chief Executive Officer is not entitled to participate in the Plan.

Neither Mr. Renwick nor Mrs. Griffith, if elected to the Board as expected, will receive additional compensation for service as a director.
