COLES MYER ACQUIRES PHARMACY DIRECT

Coles Myer today announced it had acquired Sydney Drug Stores Pty Ltd (trading as Pharmacy Direct), which operates a retail shop in western Sydney, as well as a significant online, mail, fax and phone order pharmacy business.

Coles Myer CEO John Fletcher said Pharmacy Direct was a well established and successful business.

"It offers customers a wide range of pharmaceuticals, including prescription medicines, at value prices through convenient channels - a complementary fit to the Coles Myer business model and customer base," he said.

Mr Fletcher said the acquisition was not intended to challenge existing regulations that prevent pharmacies from operating within supermarkets.

"We fully understand and accept the current regulations. This acquisition simply enables us to develop a good understanding of the pharmacy business within the existing rules, something that will put us in a good position if the regulations change in the future," Mr Fletcher said.

"Pharmacy Direct offers a broad range of pharmacy products, including prescription medicines, vitamins, cold and flu treatments and skin care products, at some of the best prices in the market."

It has been operating since 1996 and has grown to now have 100 employees based at Silverwater, NSW, where it also operates a retail shop. It trades online at www.pharmacydirect.com.au.

Existing customers are in all Australian states and territories, with half the customer base living in rural and regional Australia. It has annual sales in the order of $44 million.

The business has been acquired for $48 million (excluding merchandise), all of which will be taken in the form of Coles Myer shares.

Edgar Filing: COLES MYER LTD - Form 6-K

It will continue to be operated by qualified pharmacists as required under its licence. Business founder and pharmacist Peter Brown will continue to be involved in managing the business.
