Nuveen National Premium Income Municipal Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds
(NPI, NPM, NPT)

Portfolio Manager's
COMMENTS

Portfolio manager Tom Futrell examines economic and market conditions, key strategies, and the performance of the Nuveen Premium Income Municipal Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds. Tom, who joined Nuveen in 1983, has managed NPI since 1988, and assumed portfolio management responsibility for NPM and NPT in 2001.

WHAT FACTORS HAD THE GREATEST INFLUENCE ON THE U.S. ECONOMY AND THE MUNICIPAL MARKET DURING THIS REPORTING PERIOD?

The two major forces at work during the twelve months ended October 31, 2001, were the continued slowdown in economic growth and the Federal Reserve's aggressive approach to easing short-term interest rates. While these two factors had a great impact over the entire period covered in this report, the tragic events of September 11 and its aftermath also have had a profound effect on the economy and the markets.

In January 2001, the Fed embarked on a series of interest rate cuts designed to stimulate the sluggish U.S. economy. During the first ten months of the year, the Fed announced nine reductions totaling 400 basis points, bringing the federal funds rate to 2.50% as of October 31, 2001. (On November 6, 2001, following the end of the period covered in this report, the Fed reduced the fed funds rate to 2.00%, its lowest level since 1961.) The consensus among many market observers is that the Fed could decide to cut rates again if signs of a significant economic slowdown continue.

In the municipal market, the general environment of the past twelve months has helped many fixed-income securities perform well. The interest rate cuts created favorable conditions for both new municipal bond issuance and refundings, which together totaled $223.4 billion nationwide through the first ten months of 2001, an increase of 36% over January–October 2000. On the demand side, municipal bonds continued to be highly sought after by individual investors looking for diversification, tax-free income, quality, and an alternative to a volatile stock market. Institutional investors, especially insurance companies, also have been active buyers in the new issue market. In general, strong demand has proven more powerful than increased supply, which has helped keep municipal bond prices higher than they were twelve months ago.

HOW DID THE NUVEEN PREMIUM INCOME FUNDS PERFORM OVER THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS?

For the year ended October 31, 2001, the Nuveen Premium Income Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds produced annual total returns on net asset value (NAV) as shown in the accompanying table. The annual returns for the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index¹ and relevant Lipper Peer Group² are also presented.

For additional information, see the individual Performance Overview for your Fund in this report.

Over the past twelve months, the Fed's shift in interest rate policy from tightening to easing, combined with favorable market technicals, created a generally positive total return environment for municipal bonds. The Funds' participation in the market's gains is reflected in the total returns on NAV listed in the previous table. In a market characterized by rising bond values and falling yields, funds with longer durations would typically be expected to perform well. As of October 31, 2001, the

- 1 The performance of the Premium Income Funds is compared with that of the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index, an unleveraged index comprising a broad range of investment-grade municipal bonds. Results for the Lehman index do not reflect any expenses.
- 2 The Premium Income Funds' total returns are compared with the average annualized return of the 52 funds in the Lipper General Leveraged Municipal Debt Funds category. Fund and Lipper returns assume reinvestment of dividends.

- 3 The taxable-equivalent yield represents the yield that must be earned on a taxable investment in order to equal the yield of the Nuveen Fund on an after-tax basis. The taxable-equivalent yield is based on the fund's market yield on the indicated date and a federal income tax rate of 30.5%.
- 4 Duration is a measure of a Fund's NAV volatility in reaction to interest rate movements. Fund duration, also known as leverage-adjusted duration, takes into account the leveraging process for a Fund and therefore is generally longer than the duration of the actual portfolio of individual bonds that make up the Fund. Unless otherwise noted, references to duration in this commentary are intended to indicate Fund duration.

durations⁴ of these Funds ranged from 7.59 to 9.45, compared with 7.77 for the unleveraged Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index.

While duration was one driver of total return over the past twelve months, the relative performance of these Funds was also influenced by differences in structure and individual holdings. For example, NPT's total return performance was impacted by credit issues involving two separate multifamily housing projects, the Keystone at Fall Creek Apartments in Indianapolis, Indiana, and a multiple apartment project in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma. Both of these projects are now in default and have fallen behind in interest payments. Currently Nuveen is actively pursuing a resolution to these situations that we believe will serve the best interests of shareholders. It is important to note that, overall, NPT's portfolio is in good shape, continuing to offer shareholders attractive tax-free dividends paid on a regular monthly basis.

HOW DID THE MARKET ENVIRONMENT AFFECT THESE FUNDS' DIVIDENDS AND SHARE PRICES?

With the Fed's move to a policy of interest rate easing as of January 2001, the dividend-payment capabilities of the Nuveen Premium Income Funds benefited from the use of leverage, a strategy that can potentially enhance the dividends paid to common shareholders. This benefit is tied in part to the short-term rates the Funds pay their MuniPreferred(R), shareholders. For example, declining short-term rates can enable the Funds to reduce the amount of income they pay preferred shareholders, which can leave more earnings to support common share dividends.

During the year ended October 31, 2001, steady or falling short-term interest rates enabled us to implement four dividend increases in NPI and two increases each in NPM and NPT. In coming months, the lower rates now being offered by municipal securities with shorter maturities could potentially continue to benefit common shareholders of these Funds by further reducing the amount paid to MuniPreferred shareholders. However, this benefit could be offset by the effect of bond calls on higher-yielding securities, especially if refundings increase as the result of lower rates. The level of short-term rates, the number of bond calls, and the interest rates at which we can reinvest the proceeds of any calls will all influence the dividends of these Nuveen Funds over the next twelve months.

Over the past year, as the stock market remained volatile and the bond market continued to perform well, many investors turned to tax-free fixed-income investments as a way to add balance to their portfolios and reduce overall risk. As a result, the share prices of these Funds improved (see the charts on the individual Performance Overview pages). As investors recognized the opportunity offered by these Funds, increased demand caused their discounts (share price below NAV) to narrow over the past twelve months.

WHAT KEY STRATEGIES WERE USED TO MANAGE THE NUVEEN PREMIUM INCOME FUNDS DURING THE YEAR ENDED OCTOBER 31, 2001?

One of our areas of emphasis during this period was improving call protection by using a variety of strategies to enhance each Fund's situation as attractive opportunities presented themselves. Over the next 14 months, NPI and NPT offer excellent levels of call protection, with 7% and 15%, respectively, of their portfolios subject to calls between November 2001 and December 2002. NPM, which marks the 10-year anniversary of its inception in 2002, has reached the point typically associated with an increase in call exposure. Over the next 14 months, this Fund could see bond calls affecting up to 29% of its portfolio. The number of actual calls experienced by these Funds will depend largely on market interest rates over this time. Given the current level of rates, our general approach has been to hold higher-yielding bonds as long as possible to help support the Funds' dividends, while we look for attractive replacement opportunities. Currently we have focused on the 20 -year section of yield curve, rather than the 30-year, since these shorter-maturity bonds offer lower durations and are therefore less sensitive to interest rate changes, while providing yields similar to those offered by longer bonds. In general, we believe the call positions of all these Funds are very manageable, especially given the timeframe, and we foresee no problems in working through them.

In reinvesting new cash and bond call proceeds over the past twelve months, we focused on finding attractive bonds with the potential to support the Funds' long-term dividend-payment capabilities and add value and diversification. Among the areas of the market where we found value were general obligation bonds at both the state and county level and sectors regarded as providers of essential services, such as healthcare and utilities. The utilities sector, in particular, offered several attractive purchase opportunities. We were also active buyers of bonds issued by independent electrical power plants in states such as Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Florida. These issues represent a value play, as these bonds have seen their creditworthiness improve as plants are completed, while prices have lagged. As of October 31, 2001, all of the Funds listed utilities among their top five sectors.

Another area that performed well and contributed to diversification was the tobacco sector, and we took advantage of several new offerings in the primary market, including those from Iowa, Alaska, Washington, D.C. and Alabama, to purchase tobacco settlement bonds at very attractive yields for NPI and NPM. The proceeds from these bonds, which are secured by each state's share of payments under the $250 billion master settlement agreement between four major tobacco companies and 46 states, are used for various purposes, including education and healthcare. If we continue to find attractive opportunities, we plan to add to our position in these bonds.

In view of recent world events, shareholders should note that these Funds continue to offer excellent credit quality, with allocations of bonds rated AAA/U.S. guaranteed and AA ranging from 67% in NPT to 84% in NPI as of October 31, 2001. Each of these Funds also had a portion of its assets invested in BBB and non-rated bonds, which benefited from narrowing credit spreads during the first part of 2001. The allocations to this credit sector, which range from 3% in NPI to 16% in NPT, have declined or remained stable over the past twelve months, as we shifted our emphasis to higher quality securities that should offer greater protection from the effects of any further deterioration in the economy.

All of these Funds also had some exposure to bonds and sectors affected by the events of September 11, including New York City general obligation bonds, selected airport and airline issues. Following a decline immediately after the terrorist attacks, many of these holdings have largely returned to their pre-September 11 valuations. As of October 31, 2001, credit ratings for

New York City have not been downgraded, remaining at A2/A/A+. The city's recent issuance of $1 billion in one-year disaster recovery notes sold rapidly to both individual and institutional investors, demonstrating the general belief that New York City continues to maintain a strong credit rating despite recent events. Although Standard & Poor's placed the Port Authority and all major air carriers and North American airports on credit watch following September 11, Moody's current median rating for airports is A2, which is solidly investment grade. In addition, the federal government's commitment to the air transportation sector was demonstrated by the approval of a $15 billion airline aid package of grants and loan guarantees.

WHAT IS YOUR OUTLOOK FOR THE MUNICIPAL MARKET IN GENERAL AND THE NUVEEN FUNDS IN PARTICULAR?

In general, our outlook for the fixed-income markets over the next twelve months remains positive. Although the long-term economic effects of September 11 are still being assessed, we believe the U.S. economy is headed for an eventual recovery, but one that will see a slower pace of growth, with inflation and interest rates remaining low over the near term. New municipal issuance should continue to be strong during the fourth quarter and into 2002, and municipal supply nationwide in 2001 is now expected to exceed $250 billion for the first time since 1998. At the same time, demand for tax-exempt municipal bonds is anticipated to remain firm, as investors look for ways to rebalance their portfolios and reduce risk.

The federal government's recent decision to discontinue the 30-year Treasury bond removed one of the pricing benchmarks for the municipal market. This could result in some pricing uncertainty and create additional opportunities to add value to the portfolios. Overall, we continue to watch the fixed-income markets carefully, especially those sectors that were directly impacted by the events of September 11 or that would be affected by any further deceleration in the economy. We believe the Nuveen Premium Income Funds are currently well diversified and well positioned for the market environment ahead, and we will continue to closely monitor and respond to events as appropriate.

Over the next six months, we plan to remain focused on the strategies that add value for our shareholders, provide support for the Funds' dividends, and fully utilize Nuveen's research expertise to adjust to any shifts in market conditions. One of our priorities will be managing portfolio structure, including duration and credit quality, to strategically position the Funds for a potential economic recovery. Our emphasis will continue to be on the essential services sectors. Tobacco settlement bonds could also continue to offer opportunities for diversification and enhanced yield. Overall, we believe the Nuveen Funds will continue to play an important role in investors' long-range financial programs, providing balance and diversification, dependable tax-free income, quality investments, and a measure of security in uncertain times such as these.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The National Funds (the "Funds") covered in this report and their corresponding New York Stock Exchange symbols are Nuveen Premium Income Municipal Fund, Inc. (NPI), Nuveen Premium Income Municipal Fund 2, Inc. (NPM) and Nuveen Premium Income Municipal Fund 4, Inc. (NPT).

Each Fund seeks to provide current income exempt from regular federal income tax by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of municipal obligations issued by state and local government authorities. The Funds are registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as closed-end, diversified management investment companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds in the preparation of their financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Securities Valuation

The prices of municipal bonds in each Fund's investment portfolio are provided by a pricing service approved by the Fund's Board of Directors. When price quotes are not readily available (which is usually the case for municipal securities), the pricing service establishes fair market value based on yields or prices of municipal bonds of comparable quality, type of issue, coupon, maturity and rating, indications of value from securities dealers and general market conditions. If it is determined that market prices for a security are unavailable or inappropriate, the Board of Directors of the Funds may establish a fair value for the security. Temporary investments in securities that have variable rate and demand features qualifying them as short-term securities are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Realized gains and losses from such transactions are determined on the specific identification method. Securities purchased or sold on a when-issued or delayed delivery basis may have extended settlement periods. The securities so purchased are subject to market fluctuation during this period. The Funds have instructed the custodian to segregate assets in a separate account with a current value at least equal to the amount of the when-issued and delayed delivery purchase commitments. At October 31, 2001, Premium Income (NPI) and Premium Income 2 (NPM) had outstanding when-issued purchase commitments of $15,021,572 and $1,831,638, respectively. There were no such purchase commitments in Premium Income 4 (NPT).

Investment Income

Interest income is determined on the basis of interest accrued, adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts on long-term debt securities.

Federal Income Taxes

Each Fund is a separate taxpayer for federal income tax purposes. Each Fund intends to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its net investment income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. Furthermore, each Fund intends to satisfy conditions which will enable interest from municipal securities, which is exempt from regular federal income tax, to retain such tax-exempt status when distributed to shareholders of the Funds. All monthly tax-exempt income dividends paid during the fiscal year ended

October 31, 2001, have been designated Exempt Interest Dividends.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

Tax-exempt net investment income is declared monthly as a dividend and payment is made or reinvestment is credited to shareholder accounts on the first business day after month-end. Net realized capital gains and/or market discount from investment transactions, if any, are distributed to shareholders not less frequently than annually. Furthermore, capital gains are distributed only to the extent they exceed available capital loss carryforwards.

Distributions to shareholders of tax-exempt net investment income, net realized capital gains and/or market discount are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount and timing of distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Accordingly, temporary over-distributions as a result of these differences may occur and will be classified as either distributions in excess of net investment income, distributions in excess of net realized gains and/or distributions in excess of net ordinary taxable income from investment transactions, where applicable.

Preferred Shares

The Funds have issued and outstanding $25,000 stated value Preferred shares. Each Fund's Preferred shares are issued in more than one Series. The dividend rate on each Series may change every seven days, as set by the auction agent. The number of shares outstanding, by Series and in total, for each of the Funds is as follows:

	PREMIUM INCOME (NPI)	PREMIUM INCOME 2 (NPM)	PREMIUM INCOME 4 (NPT)

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Funds may invest in certain derivative financial instruments including futures, forward, swap and option contracts, and other financial instruments with similar characteristics. Although the Funds are authorized to invest in such financial instruments, and may do so in the future, they did not make any such investments during the fiscal year ended October 31, 2001.

Custodian Fee Credit

Each Fund has an arrangement with the custodian bank whereby certain custodian fees and expenses are reduced by credits earned on each Fund's cash on deposit with the bank. Such deposit arrangements are an alternative to overnight investments.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Audit Guide

In November 2000, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) issued a revised version of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Investment Companies (the "Guide"). The Guide is effective for annual financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2000. It is not anticipated that the adoption of the Guide will have a significant effect on the financial statements.

The Funds pay no compensation directly to those of its Directors who are affiliated with the Adviser or to their officers, all of whom receive remuneration for their services to the Funds from the Adviser.

Such insurance or escrow, however, does not guarantee the market value of the municipal securities or the value of any of the Funds' shares.

REINVESTMENT ACCOUNT.

NUVEEN EXCHANGE-TRADED FUNDS DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

Your Nuveen Exchange-Traded Fund allows you to conveniently reinvest dividends and/or capital gains distributions in additional fund shares.

By choosing to reinvest, you'll be able to invest money regularly and automatically, and watch your investment grow through the power of tax-free compounding. Just like dividends or distributions in cash, there may be times when income or capital gains taxes may be payable on dividends or distributions that are reinvested.

It is important to note that an automatic reinvestment plan does not ensure a profit, nor does it protect you against loss in a declining market.

EASY AND CONVENIENT

To make recordkeeping easy and convenient, each month you'll receive a statement showing your total dividends and distributions, the date of investment, the shares acquired and the price per share, and the total number of shares you own.

HOW SHARES ARE PURCHASED

The shares you acquire by reinvesting will either be purchased on the open market or newly issued by the Fund. If the shares are trading at or above net asset value at the time of valuation, the Fund will issue new shares at the then-current market price. If the shares are trading at less than net asset value, shares for your account will be purchased on the open market. Dividends and distributions received to purchase shares in the open market will normally be invested shortly after the dividend payment date. No interest will be paid on dividends and distributions awaiting reinvestment. Because the market price of shares may increase before purchases are completed, the average purchase price per share may exceed the market price at the time of valuation, resulting in the acquisition of fewer shares than if the dividend or distribution had been paid in shares issued by the Fund. A pro rata portion of any applicable brokerage commissions on open market purchases will be paid by Plan participants. These commissions usually will be lower than those charged on individual transactions.

FLEXIBILITY

You may change your distribution option or withdraw from the Plan at any time, should your needs or situation change. Should you withdraw, you can receive a certificate for all whole shares credited to your reinvestment account and cash payment for fractional shares, or cash payment for all reinvestment account shares, less brokerage commissions and a $2.50 service fee.

You can reinvest whether your shares are registered in your name, or in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee. Ask your investment advisor if his or her firm will participate on your behalf. Participants whose shares are registered in the name of one firm may not be able to transfer the shares to another firm and continue to participate in the Plan.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time. Although the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants, there is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan at this time.

For more information on the Nuveen Automatic Reinvestment Plan or to enroll in or withdraw from the Plan, speak with your financial advisor or call us at (800) 257-8787.
