An article published today by Dow Jones Newswires, entitled "Tales of the Tape: Row Over New Germany Fund Intensifies" included the following passage containing statements attributed to Robert Wadsworth, a director of The New Germany Fund, Inc.:

Robert Wadsworth, an independent director of New Germany Fund, said the fund believes it's a good idea that the directors should know about the country New Germany invests in. "There are thousands of people who would be eligible; this isn't narrowly defined," he said, adding he doesn't understand why the fund would come under attack given such strong performance.
