HECLA ANNOUNCES EXCHANGE OFFER FOR PREFERRED B SHARES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 9, 2004

COEUR D'ALENE, IDAHO -- Hecla Mining Company (NYSE:HL & HL-PrB) today announced its intent to offer $66.00 in value of Hecla Common stock, not to exceed 8.25 common shares, in exchange for each share of Hecla's Series B Cumulative Convertible Preferred stock. The $66.00 in value of Common stock represents a 12% premium over today's $59.00 preferred share closing price and a 6% premium over the current redemption price for the Preferred stock. If all 464,777 remaining outstanding preferred shares were exchanged at this price (and without considering fractional shares which would be paid for in cash), Hecla would issue approximately 3,454,000 common shares, representing approximately 2.9 percent of shares outstanding.

The exact number of common shares to be exchanged for each share of Preferred stock will be determined by dividing $66.00 by the volume weighted average price for Hecla Common stock on the NYSE for the five trading days ending two trading days prior to the expiration date of the exchange offer (but not to exceed 8.25 common shares). At the volume weighted average price for Hecla Common stock for the five days ending today of $8.88 per share, 7.43 common shares would be exchanged for each share of Preferred stock. Hecla will announce the exchange ratio at the end of the five-day pricing period.

Hecla's Chief Executive Officer Phillips S. Baker, Jr., said, "With the excellent performance of Hecla and its Common stock, now is a great opportunity for our preferred shareholders to realize both the face value of the preferred plus the past unpaid dividends, and participate in any future increase in the value of the Common stock. Our common shareholders also benefit as this action eliminates the split capital structure and the impact of past and future dividends. Following the completion of the exchange offer, we will also evaluate exercising our right to redeem any remaining preferred shares at the redemption price, which is currently $62.25 per share."

The exchange offer will be open for 20 business days from the time the final offer document has been mailed to preferred shareholders, which is expected to occur within the next few days.

Hecla Mining Company, headquartered in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, mines and processes silver and gold in the United States, Venezuela and Mexico. A 112-year-old company, Hecla has long been well known in the mining world and financial markets as a quality silver and gold producer. Hecla's common and preferred shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbols HL and HL-PrB.
