the Board of Directors, and Jeremiah O'Brien, NUWAVE's Chief Financial Officer, agreed to resign all positions with NUWAVE. These resignations will be effective upon NUWAVE receiving releases settling trade payables, unpaid wages, employment agreements, and the release of funds from the escrow fund. In return for submitting their resignations and signing releases from their respective employment agreements, Messrs. Zarin and O'Brien will receive a settlement consisting of cash and warrants to purchase shares of NUWAVE's common stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share.

- o NUWAVE's board of directors shall appoint a nominee to its board of directors, which nominee will be selected by Cornell Capital Partners. Upon such appointment, NUWAVE's current board members will resign.

The Agreement is expected to be consummated on or about September 24, 2003, PROVIDED that the closing conditions are satisfied. The closing conditions include the settlement of outstanding debts and wages, the resignation of Messrs. Zarin and O'Brien, board approval and other conditions set forth in the Agreement.

Under the Agreement, Cornell Capital Partners is expected to assume control of NUWAVE through its representative on the board of directors. It is expected to assume such control under the terms of the Agreement and, in particular, in lieu of foreclosing on its Securities Purchase Agreement, which is currently in default. Control is expected to be assumed from NUWAVE's current board of directors, who are expected to resign upon consummation of the Agreement.

Cornell Capital Partners is not the beneficial owner of any shares of NUWAVE's common stock.

As of September 18, 2003, NUWAVE had 1,875,903 shares of common stock outstanding.
