Sioberg named Franklin Financial Vice Chairman

(CHAMBERSBURG) The Board of Directors of Franklin Financial Services Corporation today elected Charles M. "Chuck" Sioberg as Vice Chairman.

Sioberg is presently co-owner of Martin & Martin, Inc., an engineering and planning firm located in Chambersburg. He joined the board in 1982 and is involved in a number of community organizations including the Chambersburg Area Development Corporation (CADC), the Greater Chambersburg 21st Century Partnership, and Franklin County Area Development Corporation where he serves as chairman. Sioberg also serves on several advisory boards to Shippensburg University.

The Board of Directors determined that an individual should be elected to the position of Vice Chairman to facilitate a smooth transition when Board Chairman Robert Zullinger retires from the Board in December 2002, upon his reaching the corporation's mandatory retirement age. Sioberg will succeed Zullinger as chairman of both Franklin Financial and F&M Trust.

Sioberg's election came at the annual reorganizational meeting which followed the Annual Shareholders meeting. At the Annual Shareholders meeting, shareholders reelected G. Warren Elliott; Dennis W. Good, Jr.; William E. Snell, Jr.; Martha B. Walker; and Robert G. Zullinger to the Board of Directors for three-year terms. In addition, shareholders also approved the Incentive Stock Option Plan of 2002. Approximately 350 shareholders and guests attended the meeting held at the Lighthouse Restaurant in Chambersburg.

Franklin Financial is the largest independent, locally owned and operated bank holding company in Franklin County with assets of approximately $515 million. Its wholly-owned subsidiary, F&M Trust Company, has thirteen community banking offices located throughout Cumberland and Franklin Counties in Boiling Springs, Carlisle, Chambersburg, Mont Alto, Marion, Newville, Shippensburg and Waynesboro.
