stream successfully.

QHD 32-6 is located in the central to northern part of Bohai Bay, 130 km from the city of Tianjin. It holds a recoverable reserve of 103 million barrels net to the Company. The development of QHD 32-6 includes 6 producing wellhead platforms. The development planned for this year consists of wellhead platform A and B, a single point moor and an FPSO.

QHD 32-6 is jointly owned by the Company (51%), Texaco (24.5%) and BP (24.5%). The Company is the operator. The overall development is expected to be completed in 2002. The designed peak capacity of the entire field is over 65,000 barrels per day.

"All development projects scheduled to complete this year have thus far all been brought into production," said Mr. Zhou Shouwei, Executive Vice President of the Company. "The successful completion of the development program for the year has greatly removed uncertainties surrounding achieving this year's production target and reaching production growth for next year."

Notes to Editors:

CNOOC LIMITED - BACKGROUND

Incorporated in Hong Kong in August 1999, the Company is the dominant producer of crude oil and natural gas offshore China. The Company is also one of the largest independent crude oil and gas exploration and production companies in the world. As of December 31, 2000, its net proved reserves were 1.8 billion barrels-of-oil equivalents and its net production totaled 239,337 BOE per day.

The Company has interests in 45 crude oil and gas properties in four major producing areas: Bohai Bay, Western South China Sea, Eastern South China Sea and East China Sea. The Company is a major oil and gas company in China with approximately 1,000 employees.

CNOOC LIMITED - RELATIONSHIP WITH ITS PARENT COMPANY

The Company is a 70.6% held subsidiary of China National Offshore Oil Corporation ("CNOOC"). The Company is the sole vehicle through which CNOOC carries out oil and gas exploration, development and production activities offshore China and internationally.

CNOOC, the parent company, is involved in the administrative, research and services functions for the PRC offshore petroleum industry as well as other mid- or down-stream petroleum projects.
