Item 8.01 Other Events

Attached as Exhibit 99 and incorporated by reference herein is a press release dated September 21, 2015 issued by General Electric Capital Corporation (“GECC”).

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits

(d) Exhibits

99 Press release, dated September 21, 2015 issued by GECC.

This document contains “forward-looking statements” – that is, statements related to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address our expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “seek,” “see,” “will,” “target.”

Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the consummation of the Reorganization and the Exchange Offers; General Electric Company’s (“GE’s”) announced plan to reduce the size of its financial services businesses, including expected cash and non-cash charges associated with this plan; expected income; revenues; net interest margin; cost structure; restructuring charges; cash flows; assets; return on capital or assets; capital structure, including Tier 1 common ratio; and dividends.

For us, particular uncertainties that could cause our actual results to be materially different than those expressed in our forward-looking statements include:

- obtaining (or the timing of obtaining) any required regulatory reviews or approvals or any other consents or approvals associated with GE’s announced plan to reduce the size of its financial services businesses;
- our ability to complete incremental asset sales as part of that plan in a timely manner (or at all) and at the prices we have assumed;
- changes in law, economic and financial conditions, including interest and exchange rate volatility, commodity and equity prices and the value of financial assets, including the impact of these conditions on our ability to sell or the value of incremental assets to be sold as part of GE’s announced plan to reduce the size of its financial services businesses as well as other aspects of that plan;
- the impact of conditions in the financial and credit markets on the availability and cost of GECC’s funding, GECC’s exposure to counterparties and GECC’s ability to reduce asset levels as planned;
- the impact of conditions in the housing market and unemployment rates on the level of commercial and consumer credit defaults;
- pending and future mortgage loan repurchase claims and other litigation claims in connection with WMC, which may affect our estimates of liability, including possible loss estimates;
- our ability to maintain our current credit rating and the impact on our funding costs and competitive position if we do not do so;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORP - Form 8-K

- GECC's ability to pay dividends to GE at the planned level, which may be affected by GECC's cash flows and earnings, financial services regulation and oversight, and other factors;
 - the level of demand and financial performance of the major industries and customers GE serves;
 - the effectiveness of our risk management framework;
 - the impact of regulation and regulatory, investigative and legal proceedings and legal compliance risks, including the impact of financial services regulation and litigation;
 - adverse market conditions, timing of and ability to obtain required bank regulatory approvals, or other factors relating to GE or Synchrony Financial that could prevent GE from completing the Synchrony Financial split-off as planned;
 - our success in completing, including obtaining regulatory approvals for, announced transactions, such as GE's announced plan to reduce the size of its financial services business;
 - our success in integrating acquired businesses and operating joint ventures;
 - the impact of potential information technology or data security breaches;

- our actual division of U.S. and international assets, which may not occur as expected; and
- the other factors that are described in “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

These or other uncertainties may cause our actual future results to be materially different than those expressed in our forward-looking statements. We do not undertake to update our forward-looking statements. This document includes certain forward-looking projected financial information that is based on current estimates and forecasts. Actual results could differ materially.
