ITEM 1. SECURITY OF ISSUER

This statement on Schedule 13-D relates to common stock, par value $.001 per share, of Hanover Compressor Company (the "Hanover Stock") and is being filed pursuant to Rule 13d-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The principal executive offices of the Issuer is located at 12001 North Houston Rosslyn, Houston, Texas 77806.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

The name of the reporting persons filing this statement are Schlumberger Limited, a company incorporated in the Netherlands Antilles ("SLB"), Schlumberger Technology Corporation, a company incorporated in Texas ("STC"), Camco International, Inc., a company incorporated in Delaware ("CII"), Schlumberger Surenco S.A., a company incorporated in Panama ("Surenco"), Operational Services, Inc., a Company incorporated in Texas ("OSI"), and Schlumberger Oilfield Holdings Ltd., a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("SOHL," and together with SLB, STC, CII, Surenco and OSI, the "Schlumberger Companies"). SLB owns, directly or indirectly, all of the equity interests of each of STC, CII, Surenco, OSI and SOHL and thus may be deemed to beneficially own all of the Hanover Stock owned by the other Schlumberger Companies. The directors and executive officers of each of SLB, STC, CII, Surenco, OSI and SOHL are set forth on Schedule I hereto.

The address for the principal executive offices of the Schlumberger Companies are as follows:

153 East 53rd Street, 57th Floor
New York, New York 10022

42 Rue Saint-Dominique
Paris, France 75007

Edgar Filing: HANOVER COMPRESSOR CO / - Form SC 13D

Park Straat 83
The Hague, The Netherlands 2514 JG

The principal business of the Schlumberger Companies is to engage, directly or indirectly, in two primary business segments: (i) Oilfield Services, which is organized into three product groups: Reservoir Evaluation, Reservoir Development, and Reservoir Management, that provide exploration and production services required during the life of an oil and gas reservoir to the petroleum industry; and (ii) Schlumberger Sema, which provides design, implementation, operations and management of information systems and IT-related consulting services, smart card-based solutions, semiconductor test, metrology and handling systems and services, and corporate IP (internet protocol) and network solutions to customers.

During the past five years, none of SLB, STC, CII, Sureenco, OSI and SOHL or, to the best of their knowledge, any of the persons listed on Schedule I hereto, (i) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), or (ii) has been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction that resulted in a judgment decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating any activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation of such laws except as follows:

On July 27, 1999, the US Department of Justice filed petitions against SLB and Smith International, Inc., with the United States District Court in Washington, D.C., alleging civil and criminal contempt in connection with the completion of the MI drilling fluids joint venture transaction between SLB and Smith. The petitions alleged that the transaction violated a 1994 consent decree entered in U.S. v. Baroid Corporation (the "Baroid decree"). On December 9, 1999, SLB, Smith and the Department of Justice agreed to settle the civil contempt claim. The Court subsequently found Smith and SLB in criminal contempt and fined each $750,000. The December 22, 1999 order approving the civil settlement agreement provides for the modification of the Baroid decree, with the consent of the Department of Justice, to remove the reference to "Schlumberger Ltd." from the Baroid decree, and for disgorgement of the net income of the joint venture from the time of its creation through the date of the settlement agreement. SLB's share of the amount payable in connection with the settlement was $6.34 million. On March 13, 2000, following expiration of a public comment period regarding the proposed modification, the Court signed the order modifying the Baroid decree.

The attached Schedule I is a list of the executive officers and directors of SLB, STC, CII, Sureenco, OSI and SOHL which contain the following information with respect to each such person: (i) name, (ii) business address, (iii) present principal occupation or employment and the name, principal business address and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted, and (iv) citizenship.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

On June 28, 2001, the Issuer, Hanover Compression Limited Partnership, STC, CII, Sureenco and SOHL entered into a Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which on August 31, 2001, the Issuer acquired equity interests in certain companies engaged in, and assets used in connection with, the gas compression business of the Schlumberger group of companies. Hanover Compression Limited Partnership acquired: (i) 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Productions Operators Corporation, a Delaware corporation, from CII, (ii) a 35.5% equity interest in and a

In addition, pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, STC, SOHL and Hanover Compression Limited Partnership entered into an Alliance Agreement.

The purchase price paid by Hanover for the assets and the Alliance Agreement consisted of (i) Two Hundred Seventy Million Dollars ($270,000,000) in cash (subject to certain true up provisions and a possible additional $58,000,000 payment upon the occurrence of certain events), (ii) a promissory note in the principal amount of One Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($150,000,000), and (iii) 8,707,693 shares of Hanover Stock.

It is currently expected that following the consummation of the Purchase, the business and operations of Hanover will continue to be conducted as they have historically been conducted. The Schlumberger Companies intend to review continuously their position in Hanover. Depending upon future evaluations of the business prospects of Hanover and upon other developments, including, but not limited to, general economic and business conditions and stock market conditions, the Schlumberger Companies may retain or from time to time increase their holdings or dispose of all or a portion of their holdings of Hanover, subject to any applicable legal and contractual restrictions on the ability to do so. The Schlumberger Companies are contractually prohibited, except upon the occurrence of certain events, from (i) selling their shares of Hanover Stock prior to June 28, 2004 or (ii) increasing their collective holdings of Hanover Stock to more than 25% outstanding shares during such period.
