Egan-Jones Proxy Services Recommends Voting FOR Wintergreen Advisers' Nominees
In Connection with Consolidated-Tomoka Land Annual Meeting

Recommends Voting the Green Proxy Card

April 18, 2017 12:30 PM Eastern Daylight Time

MOUNTAIN LAKES, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Wintergreen Advisers, LLC ("Wintergreen") serves as investment adviser to clients who currently own more than 27.2% of Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. ("CTO" or the "Company", NYSE: CTO) has been notified that Egan-Jones Proxy Services, a leading independent provider of proxy research, voting recommendations and voting services to a variety of institutional investors, has recommended that CTO shareholders vote "FOR" each of the FOUR Wintergreen nominees, and "AGAINST" the "Say on Pay" at CTO's annual meeting on April 26, 2017.

Egan-Jones recommends that all shareholders vote the GREEN proxy card.

Based on its review of publicly available information, Egan-Jones said it believes that voting FOR the Wintergreen nominees is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. In arriving at that conclusion, it has considered the following factors:

1. "We believe that, Wintergreen, being the largest shareholder of CTO has proven its track record of improving the Company's corporate governance structure and shareholder value creation as demonstrated by the following: declassification of the Board, implementation of majority voting, separation of Chairman and CEO and annual say on pay voting."

2. "We believe that Wintergreen nominees, if elected, will make significant contributions to the Company as evident in their skills, experience and qualifications. Specifically, we take note of Wintergreen's initiative to a more diverse board by nominating Evan H. Ho, who could be the Company's asset in penetrating the real estate market in China and Chinese investors alike."

3. "We believe that the Company acted hostile to the dissident shareholders in the process of the negotiation because if not for Wintergreen suing the Company, Wintergreen's slate of nominees would not be considered."

4. "We believe that the Company's Compensation Committee fell short of its fiduciary duties in designing a competitive and fair compensation package that is commensurate to the Company's performance. As a matter of fact, at the 2016 Annual Meeting, 55% of the shareholders rejected the Company's Say on Pay proposal. Despite of the shareholders' manifestation of dissatisfaction, the Compensation Committee still approved the increase of the CFO and General Counsel's base salary, and even granted bonus payouts to the executives."

Egan-Jones recommends that clients vote FOR ALL Wintergreen's nominees on the GREEN proxy card
