ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

Section 303A of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") Listed Company Manual requires NYSE-listed companies to disclose in their annual proxy statements the non-management director who is chosen to preside at all regularly-scheduled executive sessions of the non-management members of the board of directors or, alternatively, the procedure by which a presiding director is chosen for each session.

Syms Corp (the "Company") reported in its annual proxy statement filed June 2, 2006 that its non-management directors meet in executive sessions routinely and regularly, however, the Company inadvertently omitted the name of the non-management director who presides at such meetings. The presiding director for each non-management executive session is Harvey Weinberg, chairman of the company's audit committee.
