Letter to Shareholders

October 17, 2008

Dear Shareholder:

We are pleased to provide you with the semi-annual reports for the Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Fund and Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Fund II (collectively, the Funds) for the fiscal six-month period ended August 31, 2008.

Convertible bonds declined along with U.S. stocks during the period. The Merrill Lynch All-Convertible Index posted a (5.13)% return for the six-month reporting period, underperforming the S&P 500 Index, which returned (2.57)% and the Dow Jones Industrial Average, which posted a (4.65)% return.

On October 9, 2008, the Funds' Board of Trustees approved the redemption at par of a portion of each Fund's Auction Rate Preferred Shares (ARPS) beginning October 27, 2008. The decision to partially redeem the Funds' ARPS was made due in part to the current market environment of unparalleled liquidity constraints and resulting market imbalances. The press release that includes further information on the Funds' planned partial redemptions is available at www.allianzinvestors.com/closedendfunds.

Please refer to the following pages for more information on the Funds. If you have any questions regarding the information provided, we encourage you to contact your financial advisor or call the Funds' shareholder servicing agent at (800) 331-1710. You will also find a wide range of information and resources on our Web site, www.allianzinvestors.com/closedendfunds.

Together with Allianz Global Investors Fund Management LLC, the Funds' investment manager, and Nicholas-Applegate Capital Management LLC, the Funds' sub-adviser, we thank you for investing with us.

We remain dedicated to serving your financial needs.

Sincerely,

Hans W. Kertess

Fund Insights

August 31, 2008 (unaudited)

For the six-months ended August 31, 2008, Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Fund returned (5.29)% on net asset value (NAV) and (1.39)% on market price.

For the six-months ended August 31, 2008, Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income II Fund returned (5.90)% on net asset value (NAV) and (4.63)% on market price.

The convertible and high yield markets were volatile during the reporting period.

In April and May, the convertible market rallied as first quarter earnings came in better than expected and investors believed the worst of the financial crisis was behind them. Another calming factor in the rebounding investor confidence was that the Federal Reserve (the Fed) had finally become aggressive in easing monetary policy.

By June, in fairly abrupt fashion, the Fed had done enough inflation-talking that the easing sentiment turned to tightening. Therefore, from a monetary policy perspective, investors had little time to regroup. Most equity-related asset classes were lower in June, and sentiment closed the month on a sour note.

In July and August, the equity markets were volatile, but for the most part, finished higher as crude oil closed much lower. However, the housing market showed little signs of recovery and the financial system continued to be under considerable stress.

Industry performance was mixed during the reporting period and driven by broad market themes. The financial issuer underperformance was the most severe of any industry in the broad markets. The consumer sector was also negatively affected. The best-performing industries during the period were healthcare and consumer staples. These industries performed well because of both favorable operating performance and an expected flight to quality.

The Funds' convertible positions were aided by select industries during the period. Healthcare companies rallied in response to better-than-expected corporate profits and positive outlooks. Consumer staple companies advanced from record commodity prices as well as an investor rotation into more defensive industries.

Select industries hindered the Funds' convertible performance during the reporting period. Select technology issuers pulled back during the period on fears of slowing earnings growth. Automotive companies moved lower on concerns that weaker-than-expected consumer spending would cause auto sales to fall below expectations in 2008. Retail companies continued their move lower as the challenging economic backdrop weighed on consumer spending.

Remarkably, with all of the financial chaos and headlines, the fundamentals of the majority of issuers in the high-yield market remained intact. Defaults remain low, industry concentration is limited, and refinancing has created lower interest expense obligations and extended maturities.

Throughout the continued volatility, the relative high yield performance was driven by stringent credit selection. The Funds continued to have bonds tendered for. In addition, companies demonstrated improving fundamentals.

There were negative high yield contributors during the period. In the auto industry, bonds traded lower across the board. Other negative movers included certain retail-related issuers, which are being monitored closely.

In general, first- and second-quarter earnings were very good for the companies held by the Funds, with most companies meeting or beating earnings expectations.

Historically, high-yield has offered a compelling total return for long-term investors. Spreads have widened far in 2008. Issuers in the high-yield market remain fundamentally sound. There are issuers that would clearly be impaired by a deep U.S. recession. However, the average spread has widened to approximately 70% of the peak spread seen in both the last two recessions / peak in default periods.

Moody's Ratings
(as a % of Total Investments)

(1) Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total return is calculated by subtracting the value of an investment in the Fund at the beginning of each specified period from the value at the end of the period and dividing the remainder by the value of the investment at the beginning of the period and expressing the result as a percentage. The calculation assumes that all of the Fund's income dividends and capital gain distributions have been reinvested. Total return does not reflect broker commissions or sales charges. Total return for a period of more than one year represents the average annual total return.

Returns are calculated by determining the percentage change in net asset value or market share price (as applicable) with all distributions reinvested. The Fund's performance at market price will differ from its results at NAV. Although market price returns typically reflect investment results over time, during shorter periods; returns at market price can also be influenced by factors such as changing views about the Fund, market conditions, supply and demand for the Fund's shares or changes in Fund distributions.

An investment in the Fund involves risk, including the loss of principal. Total return, price, market yield and market net asset value will fluctuate with changes in market conditions. This data is provided for information only and is not intended for trading purposes. Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. There is typically a one-time public offering and once issued, shares of closed-end funds are sold in the open market through a stock exchange. Net asset value is equal to the total assets applicable to common shareholders less total liabilities divided by the number of common shares outstanding. Holdings are subject to change daily.

(2) Market Price Yield is determined by dividing the annualized current monthly per share dividend to common shareholders by the market price per common share at August 31, 2008.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Fund (Convertible & Income) and Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Fund II (Convertible & Income II), collectively referred to as the Funds , were organized as Massachusetts business trusts on January 17, 2003 and April 22, 2003, respectively. In December 2005, Convertible & Income II changed its fiscal year end from June 30 to February 28. Prior to commencing operations on March 31, 2003, and July 31, 2003, respectively, the Funds had no operations other than matters relating to their organization and registration as diversified, closed-end management investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the rules and regulations thereunder, as amended. Allianz Global Investors Fund Management LLC (the Investment Manager) serves as the Funds Investment Manager and is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Allianz Global Investors of America L.P. (Allianz Global). Allianz Global is an indirect, majority-owned subsidiary of Allianz SE, of a publicly traded European insurance and financial services company. The Funds have an unlimited amount of $0.00001 par value common stock authorized.

Each Fund s investment objective is to provide total return through a combination of capital appreciation and high current income. The Funds attempt to achieve this objective by investing in a diversified portfolio of convertible securities and non-convertible income-producing securities.

The preparation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

In the normal course of business, the Funds enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations which provide general indemnifications. The Funds maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet been asserted. However, the Funds expect the risk of any loss to be remote.

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes-an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (the Interpretation). The Interpretation establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Funds, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. The Funds management has determined that its evaluation of the Interpretation has resulted in no material impact to the Funds financial statements at August 31, 2008. Each of the Fund s federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

In March 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 161, Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (SFAS 161). SFAS 161 is effective for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008. SFAS 161 requires enhanced disclosures about a fund s derivative and hedging activities. The Funds management is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS 161 will have on the Funds financial statement disclosures.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds:

(a) Valuation of Investments

Portfolio securities and other financial instruments for which market quotations are readily available are stated at market value. Market value is generally determined on the basis of last reported sales prices, or if no sales are reported on the basis of quotes obtained from a quotation reporting system, established market makers, or pricing services.

Portfolio securities and other financial instruments for which market quotations are not readily available or for which a development/event occurs that may significantly impact the value of a security, are fair-valued, in good faith, pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Trustees, or persons acting at their discretion pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Trustees. The Funds investments are valued daily using prices supplied by an independent pricing service or dealer quotations, or by using the last sale price on the exchange that is the primary market for such securities, or the last quoted mean price for those securities for which the over-the-counter market is the primary market or for listed securities in which there were no sales. Prices obtained from independent pricing services use information provided by market makers or estimates of market values obtained from yield data relating to investments or securities with similar characteristics. Short-term securities maturing in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, if their original term to maturity was 60 days less, or by amortizing their value on the 61st day prior to maturity, if the original term to maturity exceeded 60 days.

Edgar Filing: NICHOLAS APPLGATE CONVERTIBLE & INCOME FUND - Form N-CSRS

The prices used by the Funds to value securities may differ from the value that would be realized if the securities were sold, and these differences could be material to the financial statements. Each Fund's net asset value is normally determined as of the close of regular trading (normally, 4:00 p.m. Eastern time) on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) on each day the NYSE is open for business.

Notes to Financial Statements1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)*(b) Fair Value Measurements

Effective March 1, 2008, the Funds adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS 157). This standard clarifies the definition of fair value for financial reporting, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and requires additional disclosures about the use of the fair value measurements. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FAS 157 are described below:

- Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical investments
- Level 2 other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)
- Level 3 significant unobservable inputs (including the Funds' own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The valuation techniques used by the Funds to measure fair value during the period ended August 31, 2008 maximized the use of observable inputs and minimized the use of unobservable inputs. The Funds utilized the following fair value techniques: multi-dimensional relational pricing model and option adjusted spread pricing.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used at August 31, 2008 in valuing the Funds' investments carried at value:

Valuation Inputs	Convertible & Income	Convertible & Income II
	Investments in Securities	Investments in Securities
Level 1 Quoted Prices	$ 269,825,242	$ 230,074,526
Level 2 Other Significant Observable Inputs	1,039,398,992	912,447,225
Level 3 Significant Unobservable Inputs	3,374,943	3,032,454
Total	$ 1,312,599,177	$ 1,145,554,205

A roll forward of fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) at August 31, 2008, was as follows:

	Investments in Securities	Investments in Securities
Beginning balance, February 29, 2008	$ 3,346,475	$ 3,006,875
Net purchases (sales) and settlements	(9,787,057)	(8,363,658)
Accrued discounts (premiums)
Total realized and unrealized gain (loss)	2,461,175	2,114,587
Transfers in and/or out of Level 3	7,354,350	6,274,650
Ending balance, August 31, 2008	$ 3,374,943	$ 3,032,454

Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Funds

August 31, 2008 (unaudited)

Notes to Financial Statements1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)*(c) Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Realized gains and losses on investments are determined on the identified cost basis. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts or premiums on corporate bonds and notes purchased are accreted or amortized, respectively to interest income over the lives of the respective securities using the effective interest method. Payments received from certain investments may be comprised of dividends, realized gains and return of capital. These payments may initially be recorded as dividend income and may be subsequently be reclassified as realized gains/or return of capital upon receipt of information from the issuer. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except for certain convertible preferred stock which record these dividends when the information becomes available.

(d) Federal Income Taxes

The Funds intend to distribute all of their taxable income and to comply with the other requirements of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, no provision for U.S. federal income taxes is required.

(e) Dividends and Distributions Common Stock

The Funds declare dividends from net investment income monthly to common shareholders. Distributions of net realized capital gains, if any, are paid at least annually. The Funds record dividends and distributions to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends and distributions from net investment income and net realized capital gains are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. These book-tax differences are considered either temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal income tax treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification. To the extent dividends and/or distributions exceed current and accumulated earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes, they are reported as dividends and/or distributions of paid-in capital in excess of par.

(f) Credit-Linked Trust Certificates

Credit-linked trust certificates are investments in a limited purpose trust or other vehicle formed under state law which, in turn, invests in a basket of derivative instruments, such as credit default swaps, interest rate swaps and other securities, in order to provide exposure to the high yield or another fixed income market.

Similar to an investment in a bond, investments in these credit-linked trust certificates represent the right to receive periodic income payments (in the form of distributions) and payment of principal at the end of the term of the certificate. However, these payments are conditioned on the trusts receipt of payments from, and the trusts potential obligations to, the counterparties to the derivative instruments and other securities in which the trusts invest.

(g) Interest Rate Caps

In an interest rate cap, one party pays a fee while the other party pays the excess, if any, of a floating rate over a specified fixed rate. Interest rate caps are intended to manage the Funds exposure to changes in short-term interest rates and hedge the Auction Rate Preferred Shares. Owning interest rate caps reduces the Funds duration, making them less sensitive to changes in interest rates from a market value perspective. The effect on distributions involves protection from rising short-term rates, which the Funds experience primarily in the form of leverage. The Funds are exposed to credit loss in the event of non-performance by the other party to the interest rate cap. Premiums paid by the Funds are recognized as an asset and amortized into realized loss over the life of the interest rate cap. Changes in the value of the interest rate caps are recognized as unrealized appreciation or depreciation. Periodic payments received during periods the floating rate exceeds the specific fixed rate are recognized into realized gain.

(h) Concentration of Risk

It is the Funds policy to invest a portion of their assets in convertible securities. Convertible securities generally entail less risk than its common stock but more risk than its test obligations. However, certain of the convertible securities held by the Funds include features that render them more sensitive to price changes in the underlying securities. Such convertible securities are subject to increased risks, including risks associated with investing in derivatives.

Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Funds

August 31, 2008 (unaudited)

Notes to Financial Statements2. Investment Manager/Sub-Adviser

The Funds have Investment Management Agreements (the "Agreements") with the Investment Manager. Subject to the supervision of the Funds' Board of Trustees, the Investment Manager is responsible for managing, either directly or through others selected by it, the Funds' investment activities, business affairs and administrative matters. Pursuant to the Agreements, the Funds pay the Investment Manager an annual fee, payable on a monthly basis, at the annual rate of 0.70% of the Funds' average daily total managed assets. Total managed assets means the total assets of each Fund (including assets attributable to any preferred shares or other forms of leverage of the Fund that may be outstanding) minus accrued liabilities (other than liabilities representing leverage).

The Investment Manager has retained its affiliate, Nicholas-Applegate Capital Management LLC (the "Sub-Adviser"), to manage the Funds' investments. Subject to the supervision of the Investment Manager, the Sub-Adviser is responsible for making all of the Funds' investment decisions. For its services pursuant to Sub-Advisory Agreement with each of the Funds, the Investment Manager and not the Funds, pay the Sub-Adviser a portion of the fees the Investment Manager receives from the Fund as an annual fee payable on a monthly fee.

3. Investment in Securities

For the six months ended August 31, 2008, purchases and sales of investments, other than short-term securities and U.S. government obligations were:

	Convertible & Income	Convertible & Income II
Purchases	$ 439,699,509	$ 343,257,362
Sales	402,245,233	314,850,973

For the six months ended August 31, 2008, purchases and sales of U.S. government obligations were:

	Convertible & Income	Convertible & Income II
Purchases	$28,248,108	$24,205,603
Sales	25,435,000	21,565,000

4. Income Tax Information

The Funds' cost of investments for federal income tax purposes and gross unrealized appreciation and gross unrealized depreciation of investments at August 31, 2008 were:

	Cost of Investments	Gross Unrealized Appreciation	Gross Unrealized Depreciation	Net Unrealized Depreciation
Convertible & Income	$ 1,433,461,470	$ 19,493,041	$ (140,355,334)	$ (120,862,293)
Convertible & Income II	1,256,557,682	17,723,410	(128,726,887)	(111,003,477)

5. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares

Convertible & Income has issued 4,200 shares of Preferred Shares Series A, 4,200 shares of Preferred Shares Series B, 4,200 shares of Preferred Shares Series C, 4,200 shares of Preferred Shares Series D, and 4,200 shares of Preferred Shares Series E each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Convertible & Income II has issued 4,040 shares of Preferred Shares Series A, 4,040 shares of Preferred Shares Series B, 4,040 shares of Preferred Shares Series C, 4,040 shares of Preferred Shares Series D, and 4,040 shares of Preferred Shares Series E each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Dividends are accumulated daily at an annual rate (typically re-set every seven days) through auction procedures. Distributions of net realized long-term gains, if any, are paid annually.

Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Funds

August 31, 2008 (unaudited)

Notes to Financial Statements5. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares (continued)

For the six months ended August 31, 2008, the annualized dividend rates ranged from:

	High	Low	At August 31, 2008
Convertible & Income:
Series A	4.413%	2.912%	2.987%
Series B	4.383%	2.927%	3.227%
Series C	4.398%	2.927%	3.062%
Series D	4.398%	2.957%	3.257%
Series E	4.473%	2.927%	3.062%

Convertible & Income II:

Series A	4.413%	2.912%	2.987%
Series B	4.383%	2.927%	3.227%
Series C	4.398%	2.927%	3.062%
Series D	4.398%	2.957%	3.257%
Series E	4.473%	2.927%	3.062%

The Funds are subject to certain limitations and restrictions while preferred shares are outstanding. Failure to comply with these limitations and restrictions could preclude the Funds from declaring any dividends or distributions to common shareholders or repurchasing common shares and/or could trigger the mandatory redemption of preferred shares at a price equal to liquidation preference plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Preferred shares, which are entitled to one vote per share, generally vote with the common stock but vote separately as a class to elect two Trustees and on any matters affecting the rights of the preferred shares.

Since mid-February 2008, holders of auction-rate preferred shares (ARPS) issued by the Funds have been directly impacted by an unprecedented lack of liquidity, which has similarly affected ARPS holders in many of the nation's closed-end funds. Since then, regularly scheduled auctions for ARPS issued by the Funds have consistently failed because of insufficient demand (bids to buy shares) to meet the supply (shares offered for sale) at each auction. In a failed auction, ARPS holders cannot sell all, and may not be able to sell any, of their shares tendered for sale. While repeated action failures have affected the liquidity for ARPS, they do not constitute a default or alter the credit quality of the ARPS, and ARPS holders have continued to receive dividends at the defined maximum rate the 7-day AA Composite Commercial Paper Rate multiplied by 150% (which is a function of short-term interest rates and typically higher than the rate that would have otherwise been set through a successful auction).

These developments with respect to ARPS have not affected the management or investment policies of the Funds, and the Funds outstanding common shares continue to trade on the NYSE. If the Funds ARPS auctions continue to fail and the maximum rate payable on the ARPS rises as a result of changes in short-term interest rates, returns for the Funds common shareholders could be adversely affected.

6. Subsequent Common Dividend Declarations

On September 2, 2008, the following dividends were declared to common shareholders payable October 1, 2008 to shareholders of record on September 12, 2008:

7. Legal Proceedings

In June and September 2004, the Investment Manager, and certain of its affiliates (including PEA Capital LLC (PEA), Allianz Global Investors Distributors LLC and Allianz Global Investors of America, L.P.) agreed to settle, without admitting or denying the allegations, claims brought by the SEC and the New Jersey Attorney General alleging violations of federal and state securities laws with respect to certain open-end funds for which the Investment Manager serves as investment adviser. The settlements related to an alleged market timing arrangement in certain open-end funds formerly sub-advised by PEA. The Investment Manager and its affiliates agreed to pay a total of $68 million to settle the claims. In addition to monetary payments, the settling parties agreed to undertake certain corporate governance, compliance and disclosure reforms related to market timing and consented to cease and desist orders and censures. Subsequent to these events, PEA deregistered as an investment adviser and dissolved. None of the settlements alleged that any inappropriate activity took place with respect to the Funds.

Since February 2004, the Investment Manager and certain of its affiliates and their employees have been named as defendants in a number of pending lawsuits concerning market timing, which allege the same or similar conduct underlying the regulatory settlements discussed above. The market timing lawsuits have been consolidated in a multi-district litigation proceeding in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland. Any potential resolution of these matters may include, but not be limited to, judgments or settlements for damages against the Investment Manager or its affiliates or related injunctions.

The Investment Manager and the Sub-Advisers believe that these matters are not likely to have a material adverse effect on the Funds or on their ability to perform their respective investment advisory activities relating to the Funds.

The foregoing speaks only as of the date hereof.

Subsequent Event Market Conditions

Recent events in the financial sector have resulted in an unusually high degree of volatility in the financial markets and the net asset value of many investment companies, including to some extent the Funds. Such events occurring subsequent to the period covered by this report have included, but are not limited to, the seizure of the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation by U.S. banking regulators, the bankruptcy filing of Lehman Brothers, the announced sales of (or agreements to sell) Merrill Lynch to Bank of America, Washington Mutual to J.P. Morgan Chase, Wachovia to Wells Fargo and the U.S. government bailout of AIG Corp. These companies represent financial institutions with which the Funds may conduct business, and/or whose securities are or may be held by the Funds. The Funds' exposure to these issuers, and the financial sector in general, as reflected in the Funds' Schedules of Investments, subjects investors to the potential for an unusually high degree of volatility in the Funds' performance resulting from these and other events.

Subsequent Event Auction Rate Preferred Shares (ARPS) Redemptions

On October 9, 2008, each of the Funds announced its intent to redeem at par a portion of its ARPS beginning October 27, 2008. Each Fund intends to partially redeem its ARPS on a pro rata basis by series. A copy of the press release that includes further information on the planned partial redemptions is available at www.allianzinvestors.com/closedendfunds.

Subsequent Event Funds May Postpone Next Monthly Common Share Dividends

On October 24, 2008, the Funds announced that due to the unprecedented market conditions over the last few weeks, the Funds may be required to delay the payment of declared dividends and the declaration of the next scheduled dividend on the Funds common shares.

In accordance with the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended and the Funds' By-laws, the Funds are not permitted to declare or pay common share dividends unless the Funds' ARPS have asset coverage of 200% after payment of the common share dividend (200% Level). Additionally, in accordance with the Funds' By-laws, the Funds must maintain asset coverage in line with the requirements of the rating agencies that rate the ARPS (Rating Agency Level) in order to declare and pay common share dividends. Due to the unprecedented market conditions, recently the Funds' asset coverage ratios (after taking into account the partial ARPS redemption) have declined below the 200% Level and in the case of Convertible & Income, below the Rating Agency Level. Depending on market conditions, these coverage ratios may increase or decrease further. In the event that the 200% Level or the Rating Agency Level is not met at the time of the scheduled payment of common share dividends on November 3, 2008, the Funds that do not meet these coverage tests would have to postpone the payment of the previously declared dividends. This same date is also planned as the declaration date for the December common share dividends, and any Fund that does not meet the coverage tests would have to postpone the declaration of the December common share dividend on its previously planned declaration date, until the situation is corrected.

The Funds' ability to earn sufficient income to pay the previously declared dividend was not impacted by this decline in the asset coverage ratios or market conditions. Therefore, if market conditions improve and the values of the Funds' assets increase to a point where the Funds have adequate asset coverage on the respective dividend payment and declaration dates, the Funds intend to pay the common share dividend on the payment date and declare the December dividend. The Funds will make a subsequent public announcement on or before the dividend payment and declaration date to confirm whether or not the November common share dividend will be paid and the December common share dividends declared on the scheduled payment and declaration date.

Matters Relating to the Trustees Consideration of the Investment Management and Portfolio Management Agreements

(unaudited)

The Investment Company Act of 1940 requires that both the full Board of Trustees (the Trustees) and a majority of the non-interested (Independent) Trustees, voting separately, approve the Funds Management Agreements (the Advisory Agreements) with the Investment Manager and Portfolio Management Agreements (the Sub-Advisory Agreements , and together with the Advisory Agreements, the Agreements) between the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser. The Trustees met on June 10-11, 2008 (the contract review meeting) for the specific purpose of considering whether to approve the Advisory Agreements and the Sub-Advisory Agreements. The Independent Trustees were assisted in their evaluation of the Agreements by independent legal counsel, from whom they received separate legal advice and with whom they met separately from Fund management during the contract review meeting.

Based on their evaluation of factors that they deemed to be material, including those factors described below, the Board of Trustees, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, concluded that the continuation of the Funds Advisory Agreements and the Sub-Advisory Agreements should be approved for a one-year period commencing July 1, 2008.

In connection with their deliberations regarding the continuation of the Agreements, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, considered such information and factors as they believed, in light of the legal advice furnished to them and their own business judgment, to be relevant. As described below, the Trustees considered the nature, quality, and extent of the various investment management, administrative and other services performed by the Investment Manager or the Sub-Adviser under the applicable Agreements.

In connection with their contract review meeting, the Trustees received and relied upon materials provided by the Investment Manager which included, among other items: (i) information provided by Lipper Inc. (Lipper) on the total return investment performance (based on net assets) of the Funds for various time periods and the investment performance of a group of funds with substantially similar investment classifications/objectives as the Funds identified by Lipper and the performance of applicable benchmark indices, (ii) information provided by Lipper on the Funds management fees and other expenses and the management fees and other expenses of comparable funds identified by Lipper, (iii) information regarding the investment performance and management fees of comparable portfolios of other clients of the Sub-Adviser, including institutional separate accounts and other clients, (iv) the profitability to the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser from their relationship with the Funds for the twelve months ended March 31, 2008, (v) descriptions of various functions performed by the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser for the Funds, such as portfolio management, compliance monitoring and portfolio trading practices, and (vi) information regarding the overall organization of the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser, including information regarding senior management, portfolio managers and other personnel providing investment management, administrative and other services to the Funds.

The Trustees conclusions as to the continuation of the Agreements were based on a comprehensive consideration of all information provided to the Trustees and not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees deliberations (described below), although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently from one another, giving different weights to various factors.

As part of their review, the Trustees examined the Investment Manager s and the Sub-Advisers abilities to provide high quality investment management and other services to the Funds. The Trustees considered the investment philosophy and research and decision-making processes of the Sub-Adviser; the experience of key advisory personnel of the Sub-Advisers responsible for portfolio management of the Funds; the ability of the Investment Manager and the Sub-Advisers to attract and retain capable personnel; the capability and integrity of the senior management and staff of the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser; and the level of skill required to manage the Funds. In addition, the Trustees reviewed the quality of the Investment Manager s and the Sub-Adviser s services with respect to regulatory compliance and compliance with the investment policies of the Funds; the nature and quality of certain administrative services the Investment Manager is responsible for providing to the Funds; and conditions that might affect the Investment Manager s or the Sub-Adviser s ability to provide high quality services to the Funds in the future under the Agreements, including each organization s respective business reputation, financial condition and operational stability. Based on the foregoing, the Trustees concluded that the Sub-Adviser s investment process, research capabilities and philosophy were well suited to the Funds given their investment objectives and policies, and that the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser would be able to continue to meet any reasonably foreseeable obligations under the Agreements.

Based on information provided by Lipper, the Trustees also reviewed each Fund's total return investment performance as well as the performance of comparable funds identified by Lipper. In the course of their deliberations, the Trustees took into account information provided by the Investment Manager in connection with the contract review meeting, as well as during investment review meetings conducted with portfolio management personnel during the course of the year regarding each Fund's performance.

Matters Relating to the Trustees Consideration of the Investment Management and Portfolio Management Agreements

In assessing the reasonableness of each Fund's fees under the Agreements, the Trustees considered, among other information, each Fund's management fee and the total expense ratio as a percentage of average net assets attributable to common shares and the management fee and total expense ratios of comparable funds identified by Lipper.

For each of the Funds, the Trustees specifically took note of how each Fund compared to its Lipper peers as to performance, management fee expenses and total expenses. The Trustees noted that the Investment Manager had provided a memorandum containing comparative information on the performance and expenses information of the Funds compared to the their Lipper peer categories. The Trustees noted that while the Funds are not charged a separate administration fee, it was not clear whether the peer funds in the Lipper categories were charged such a fee by their investment managers.

Convertible & Income

The Trustees noted that NCV had underperformed the median for its peer group for the one-year and three-year periods ended March 31, 2008. The Trustees also noted that NCV performed in line with the median for its peer group for the five-year period ended March 31, 2008. The Trustees also noted that NCV's expense ratio was in line with the median for its peer group.

Convertible & Income II

The Trustees noted that NCZ had underperformed the median for its peer group for the one-year and three-year periods ended March 31, 2008. The Trustees also noted that NCZ's expense ratio was worse than the median for its peer group.

After reviewing these and related factors, the Trustees concluded, within the context of their overall conclusions regarding the Agreements, that they were satisfied with the Investment Manager's and the Sub-Adviser's responses and efforts relating to investment performance and the comparative positioning of each Fund with respect to the management fee paid to the Investment Manager.

The Trustees also considered the management fees charged by the Sub-Advisers to other clients, including institutional separate accounts with investment strategies similar to those of the Funds. Regarding the institutional separate accounts, they noted that the management fees paid by the Funds are generally higher than the fees paid by these clients of the Sub-Adviser, but were advised that the administrative burden for the Investment Manager and the Sub-Advisers with respect to the Funds are also relatively higher, due in part to the more extensive regulatory regime to which the Funds are subject in comparison to institutional separate accounts. The Trustees noted that the management fees paid by the Funds are generally higher than the fees paid by the open-end funds offered for comparison but were advised that there are additional portfolio management challenges in managing the Funds, such as the use of leverage and meeting a regular dividend.

The Trustees also took into account that the Funds have preferred shares outstanding, which increases the amount of fees received by the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser under the Agreements (because the fees are calculated based on either the Fund's net assets or total managed assets, including assets attributable to preferred shares and other forms of leverage outstanding but not deducting any liabilities connected to the leverage). In this regard, the Trustees took into account that the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser have a financial incentive for the Funds to continue to have preferred shares outstanding, which may create a conflict of interest between the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser, on one hand, and the Fund's common shareholders, on the other. In this regard, the Trustees considered information provided by the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser indicating that each Fund's use of leverage through preferred shares continues to be appropriate and in the interests of the respective Fund's common shareholders.

Based on a profitability analysis provided by the Investment Manager, the Trustees also considered the profitability of the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser from their relationship with each Fund and determined that such profitability was not excessive.

The Trustees also took into account that, as closed-end investment companies, the Funds do not currently intend to raise additional assets, so the assets of the Funds will grow (if at all) only through the investment performance of each Fund.

Nicholas-Applegate Convertible & Income Funds

Matters Relating to the Trustees Consideration of the Investment Management and Portfolio Management Agreements

Therefore, the Trustees did not consider potential economies of scale as a principal factor in assessing the fee rates payable under the Agreements.

Additionally, the Trustees considered so-called "fall-out benefits" to the Investment Manager and the Sub-Adviser, such as reputational value derived from serving as Investment Manager and Sub-Adviser to the Funds.

After reviewing these and other factors described herein, the Trustees concluded with respect to each Fund, within the context of their overall conclusions regarding the Agreements, that the fees payable under the Agreements represent reasonable compensation in light of the nature and quality of the services being provided by the Investment Manager and Sub-Adviser to the Funds.
